v War.

MADEBY

CHRIST

UPON THE

EVI

For the Regaining of

MAN

Or, The Lofing and Taking Again

Town of Manfoul.

Toefec and Edition.

By JOHN BUNTAN, the Author of the Pilgrims Progress.

I bave ufed Similitudes, Hof. 12. 10.

LONDON, Printed for Dorman Nen man at the Kings Arms in the Poultry, 1684.

Who

Till O Sommare (B) Som Such Such Anna Tha Tha Tha Tha Tha

No To

THA

READER.

Is strange to me, that they that love to tell Things done of old, yea, and that do excelt Their Equals in Historiplogy, (lye Speak not of Mansoul's wars, but let them Dead, like old Fables, or such worthless that to the Reader no advantage brings. (things, When men let them make what they will their own;

Till they know this, are to themselves unknown,

Of Stories I well know there's divers forts, Some foreign, some domestick; and reports Are thereof made as fancy leads the writers; (By Books a man may guess at the inditers.)

Some will again of that which never was.

Nor will be, feign, (and that without a cause)

Such matter, raise such mountains, tell such things

Of Men, of Laws, of Cuntries, and of Kings:

And in their Story seem to be so sage;

And with such gravity cloath every Page,

That though their Frontice piece says all is vain,

Tet to their way Disciples they obtain.

But, Readers, I have somewhat else to do, Then with vain stories thus to trouble you; what here I say, some men do know so well, They can with tears and joy the story tell.

The Town of Mansoul is well known to many, Nor are her troubles doubted of by any That are acquainted with those Histories

That Mansoul, and der Wars Anatomize.

Toen lend thine ear to what I do relate Touching the Town of Mansour and her flate, How she was lost, took captive, made a slave, And how against him set, that should her save. Teas how by hossile ways, she did oppose TrueChri-

The Seri-

To the Reader.

Her Lord, and with his enemy did close. For they are true, be that will them deny, Must needs the best of records vilifie.

For my part I (my self) was in the Town.

Both when 'twas set up, and when pulling down I saw Ciabolus in his possession,

And diank vl also under his oppression.

Yea, I was there when she own'd him for Lord,

And to him did submit with one accord.

When Mansoul trampled upon things Divine, And wallowed in filth as doth a swine: when she betook her self unto her arms, Fought her Emanuel, despi'd his charms, Then I was there, and did rijoice to see Diabolus and Mansoul so agree.

HisCoun els.

Let no men then count me a Fable maker, Nor make my name or credit a partaker Of their derision: what is bere in view, Of mine swa knowledg, I dare say is true.

I saw the Princes armed mencome down By troops, by thousands, to besiege the Town.

I saw the Captains, heard the Trumpets sound, And how his forces covered all the ground.

Yes, how they set themselves in battel-ray,
I soll remember to my dying day.

I saw the Colours waving in the wind.

And they within to mischief how combin'd,

To ruin Mansoul, and to make away

Her Primum mobile without delay.

Her Soal.

I faw the Mounts cast up against the Town,
And how the slings were placed to beat it down.
I heard the stones flye whirzing by mine ears.
(what longer kept in mind than got in sears)?
I heard then fall, and saw what work they made,
And how old Mors did cover with his shade The face of Mausoul: and I heard her cry, wo worth the day in dying I shall die.
I saw the Battering Rims, and how they played.
To heat ope Ear-gate, and I was asrai a Death.

TI

T

K

1

A

I

H

L

14)

In

W

To The Reader.

Not only Ear-gate, but the very Town Would by those Battering Rams be beaten down ... I fam the fights, and heard the Captains (hout. And in each battet fam a be fac'd about. I fam who wounded were, and who were flain; And who when dead, would come to life again.

I beard the cries of those that wounded were, Lufts, (while others fought like men bereft of fear) And while they cry, bill, bill, was in mine ears,

The Gatters ran, not fo with Blood as tears.

Indeed the Caprains did not always fight, But then they would molest us day and night; Their cry, up, fall on, let us take the Town, Rept us from fleeping, or from lying down. I was there when the Gates were broben ope, And faw how Manfoul then was fript of bope. I fam the Captains march into the Town. How there they fought, and did their foes cut down. I beard the Prince bid Boanerges go up to the Caftie, and there feize bis foe, And faw him and his fellows bring him down In chains of great contempt quite through the Town.

ffam Emanuel when be poffeft. His Town of Manfoul, and how greatly bleft A Town, his gallane Town of Manfoul was, When (be receiv'd his pardon, liv'd his Laws.

when the Diabolonians were caught, When try'd, and when to execution brought, Then I was there; yea, I was standing by When Manfoul did the rebets crucifie.

I alfo fam Manfoul clad all in white, And beard the Prince call her his bearts delight. I am him put upon her Chains of Gold, And Rings, and Bracelets, goodly to beb.

What Shall I fay ? I beard the peoples cries, And fam the Prince wipe tears from Manfouls eyes. I beard the groans, and fam the joy of many : Tell you of all, I neither will, nor can I. But b swhat bere I fay, you well may fee That Manfouls matchlifs Wars no Fables be.

To the Realer.

Mansoul! the defire of both Princes was one keep his gain would, tother gain is loss; Diabolus would cry the Town is mine. Emanuel would plead a right divine unto his Mansoul; then to blows they gr, Andi Mansoul crys, These wars will me undo.

Mansoul! ber wars seem'd endless in boreyes, She's lost by one, becomes another's prize. And be again that lost her last, would sware

Have ber I will, or her in pieces tare.

Mansoul it was the very seat of war, wherefore her troubles greater were by far, Than only where the noise of war is heard, Or where the shaking of a sword is seared, Or only where small shirmishes are fought, Or where the fancy sighteth with a thought.

She saw the swords of fighting men midered, And heard the cries of those with them wounded; Must not ber frights then be much more by far Than theirs that to such doings strangers are? Or theirs that hear the beating of a Drum, But not made sty for sear from house and home?

Mansoul, not only heard the Trumpets sound, But saw her Gallants gasping on the ground. Wherefore we must not think that she could rest with them, whose greatest earnest is but jest: Or where the blustring threatning of great wars Do end in Parleys, or in wording Jars.

Mansoul, her mighty wars, they did portend Her weal or wo, and that world a ithout end. Wherefore she must be more concern'd than they. Whose sears begin and end the self-same day. Or where none other harm doth come to him That is engag'd, but loss of life or limb, As all must needs confess that new do dwell. In Universe, and can this story tell. Count me not then with them that to amore The people, set them on the stars to gaze, Insinuating with much considence. That each of them is now the residence of some brave creatures; yes, a world they will

To the Reader.

Have in each Star, though it be past their skill To make it, manisest to any man,

That reason bath, or tell bis fingers can.

But I have too long held thee in the Porch, And kept thee from the Sun-shine with a Torch. will, now go forward, step within the dore, And there behold five hundred times much more of all forts of such inward Rarities. As please the mind will, and will feed the eyes with those, which if a Christian, thou will see Not small, but things of greatest moment be.

Nor do thou go to work without my Key, (In mysteries men soon do lose their way)
And also turn it right if thou wouldst know My riddle, and wouldst with my heifer plow.
It lies there in the window, fare thee well, My next may be to ring thy Passing-Bell.

The map-

Jo. Bunyan.

an It with the fin Air not light Re

tr tac

RELATION

OFTHE

HOLY WAR, Go.

Regions and Countries, it was my chance to happen into that famous Continent of Universe; a very large and spacious Countrey it is. It lieth between the two Pols, and just amidst the sour points of the Heavens. It is a place well watered, and richly adorned with Hills and Valleys, bravely situate; for the most part (at least where I was) very srutful, also well peopled, and a very sweet Air,

The people are not all of one complexion, nor jet of one Language, mode, or way of Religion; but differ as much as ('tis faid do the Planets themselves. Some are right, and some are wrong, even as it happeneth to be in lesser Regions.

lathis ountrey, as I faid, it was my lo to trivel, with the travel I d d, and that fo long, take mill learned much of their mother-

B

te rene

A natural flate pleasing to the Cbr A.

Heft.

of them among whom I was And to speak truth, was much delighted to see, and hear man to things which I law and heard among them. Ye fire I had ( to be fure ) even lived and died a Native an among them ( fo was I taken w th the mind their top doings ) had not my Mafter fent for me home he to his House, there to do business for him and wand over fee bufinels done.

Now, here is in this gallant Countrie of thot n verse, a fair and delicate Town, a Corporation the called Mansout, a Town for its Building so cu Sar rious, for its fituation fo commodious, fornis its Privaledges fo advantagious; (I mes T with reference to its Original) that I may first of it, as was faid before, of the Continent i hat which it is placed, There is not its equal und elv the whole Heaven. As to the Situation of this Town, it lieth ju Be between the two worlds; and the first founds hat The Al- and builder of it, fo far as by the best an eb migby. most Authentick records I can gather, was on dve Gen. 1. 26. Shaddai; and he built it for his own delight. I on made it the mirrour, and glory of all that he made, even the Top-piece beyond any thingelf a at that he did in that Countrey: yea, so goodly need Town was Manfoul, when first built, that it Val faid by some, the Gods at the setting up there eve of, came down to see it, and sang for joy. As ad 2s he made it goodly to behold, so also might ate to have Dominion over all the Countrie rounde, about. Yea all was commanded to acknow O ledge Mansoul for their Metropolitan, all well nner subdue any that any ways denied to do it.

Scriptures

Created Augets.

man Town, a most famous and stately Palace, for Ye strength it might be called a Castle; for pleaactive anterest, a paradise; for largness, a place so the copious as to contain all the world. This place Ecch 3. home he King Shaddai intended for himself alone, 11. nd and not another with him: partly because of his own delights, and partly because he would . of o not that the terror of strangers should be upon tion the Town. This place Shaddai made also 2 The pon-

o ca Garrison of but committed the keeping of it, foodly, to the men of the Town.

men The wall of the Town was well built, yea for any far aft and firm was it knit and compact together. em i hat had it not been for the Townsmen them-und elves, they could not have been shaken or bro-en for ever.

h ju For here lay the excellent Wildom of him The body. unde hat builded Manfoul, that the walls could never it an ebroken down, nor hurt, by the most mighty as on dverfe Potentate, unless the Townsmen gave ht. It onk at thereto. at he This famou Town of Mansoul had five gates, ngelin at which to come, out at which to go, and odly nese were made likewise answerable to the at it valls, to wit, impregnable, and such as could there ever be opened nor forced, but by the will . At ad leave of those within. The names of the rounde, Nose-gue, and Feel-gue. know Other things there were that belonged to I we e Town of Menfou', which if you adjoyn to Tow ete: will yet give farther demonstration to The flate fro Il of the glorie and firength of the place. k of Manalfoldalwayes a fuffi i ney of provision with nies foul fub

ers of the Sences.

Wall, it had the best, most wholesome, and et cellent Law that then was extant in the work There was not a Rascal, Rogue, or traiteron person then within its Walls: They were a true men, and fast joined together; and this ye know is a great matter. And to all thefe, was always ( fo long as it had the goodness keep true to Shaddai the King) his countenance his protection, and it was his delight, &c.

The Devil.

Well, upon a time there was one Diabola a mighty Gyant, made an affault upon this f mous Town of Manfoul, to take it, and make his own habitation. This Gyant was King of the Blacks or Negroes, and a most raving Princel was. We will, if you please, first discourses the Original of this Diabolns, and then his taking of this famous Town of Me for foul.

Sinners , soe fallen A gels. The Oripint of Diabolus.

This Diabolus is indeed, a great and migh prince, and yet both poor and beggerly. As being his Original, he was at first, one of the Se and vants of King Shaddai, made, and taken and P call by him into most high and mighty place, ben was put into such Principalities as belonged he h the best of his Territories and Dominions, Thinto Diabelus was made son of the morning, and neve brave place he had of it, it brought him muchant glory, and gave him much brightness, an appropriate that might have contented his Luci N rian heart, had it not been in fatiable. and fruft larged as Hell it felf.

1/1. 14. 12.

> Well, he feeing himself thus exalted to gree bei ness and honour, and raging in his mind the higher state and degree, what doth he but how gins to think with himself, how he might be and r up as Lord over all, and have the fole por

1 ti

th aj

de

th

Ce

Eic

23

be

and

hat

under Shaddai. (Now that did the King referve for nde his Son, yea, and had already beflowed it upon 2 Pet. 2 worl him ) wherefore he first consults with himtelf 4. terop what had best to be done, and then breaks his Jule 6. erea mind to fome other of his companions, to tre is yo which they also agreed. So in fine, they came to this iffue, that they fould make an attempt nels upon the Kings son to defiroy him, that the innance heritance might be theirs. Well, tobe thort, Sc. the Treason (as I faid) was concluded, the time abolu appointed, the word given, the Rebels rennake the King and his Son being all and always Eye, ncel could not but difcern all passages in his Domiurie as for himself, could not, at what he few, to: be greatly provoked, and offended; wateres Me fore what does he, but takes them in the nick nigh fign. convicts them of the Treason, herrid Re-As belien, and Conspiracy that they had detil s. Se and now attempted to put into prociee, and nd reast them all together ou. efall place of truly, ged he banishes them the Court, turns them down s, This the horrible Pits, as fast bound in Chains, and never more to expect the least favour from his mu hands, but to abide the Judgment that he had an appointed, and that for ever; and yet, ele,

Now they being thus cast out of all place of nd trust, profir, and honour, and also knowing that they had lost their Princes favour for ever; gre being banished his Court, and cast down to nd the horrible Pits, you may be fure they would out now add to their former pride, what mile to be and rage against skaldai, and against his Son por .

1 Pet. 5.

they could. Wherefore roving, and ranging much fury from place to place (if perhaps the might find fomething that was the Kings, to re venge, by spoiling of that, themselves on him At last they happened into this spacious Com trey of Universe, and steer their course towar the Town of Manfoul; and Confidering the that Town was one of the chief works, and de lights of King Shaddai, what do they, but after Countel taken, make an affault upon that fay they knew that Manfoul belonged unto Shi a ai, for they were there when he built it, m Beautifiedit for himfelf. So when they had four the place, they shouted horribly for joy, a roared on it as a lyon upon the prey, fa ing, now we have found the prize, and how be revenged on King Shaddai for what he had done to us. So they fate down and called Council of War, and considered with then felves what ways and methods they had beft ingage in, for the winning to themselves the famous Town of Manfoul, and these four thin werethen propounded to be considered of.

cs t of War beld by Diabolus and his fellows against the Town of Mansoul, Proposals

A Coun-

First, whether they had best, all of them, to she themselves in this design to the lown of Mi foul.

Secondly, Whether they had held to go and down against Mansoul in their now ragged beggerly guise.

Thirdly, whether they had best to shew Mansoul their intentions, and what design there about, or whether to assault it with words and neef deceit.

Fourthly, Whether they had not best, to some their Companions to give outprivate orders to take advantage, if they see one or more of the print

 $t\sigma v$

t

C

6 pe

n

Townsmen , to shoot them: if thereby they find judge their cause and defign will the better be promoted.

ging

ps the

,to n

n him

Com

wan

g th

and de

it afor

that

Shu

it, 20

foun

y , 2

, fa

OW

ha

illed

the beft

es th

thin

of.

10 ft

Mi

and

ed

bew

ndi

ome

LAM

rint

Ton

It was answered to the first of these propofals, in the Nigative, to wit, that it would not be best that all should they themselves before the Town: because the appearance of many of first wothem might alarm, and fright the lown. Whereas, a few, or but one of them, was not fo likely to do it. And to inforce this advice to take place, 'twas added further, that if Manjoul was frighted or did take the alarm, 'lis impossible, said Diatolus ( for he spake now) that we should take the Town: for that none can enter into it without its own confent. Let therefore but few, or but one Manfoul, and in mine opinion, faid Ditbolus, let me be he. Wherefore to this they all agreed, and then to the fecond Proposal they Too fer came, namely, whether they had belt to go and fix cond prodown before Manfoul in their now ragged and pofet. beggarly guife. To which it was answered alfo in the Negative, by no means, and that because though the Town of Minou! had been med: to know, and to have to do before now. with things that are invitible; they did never as yet feeany of their fellow creatures in fo fad, and Rascal condition as they. And this was the advice of that fierce Aletto. Then faid A- Al Co pollyon, the advice is persinent, for even one Affo!of us appearing to them as we are now, must ly n needs both beget, and multiply such thoughts in them, as will both put them into a conferbreit of Spirit. and necessitate them to put themselves upon their guard : And if fo faid he. Then as my Lord Aledo faid but now. 'cis ip vain for us to think of taking the Town. Thin

To the

C

th

2 il

d

th

ir

W

t

M

th

CE

W

no

ho

it i

H

de

thu

our

diff

pro

esp.

We

defi

No

this

Wate

go.

Was

194

SINE

Beelzebub.

Ju .ifer.

then faid that mighty Gyant Belgebub, the advice that is already given is fafe, for though the men of Manfoul have feen fuch things as we once were, yet hitherto they did never b. hold And 'tis best in fuch things as we now are, my opinion to come upon them in fuch a guile as is common to, and most familiar among them. To this when they had consented: The next thing that was to be confidered was, in in what shape, hue or guise, Diabolus had best w thew himself when he went about to make Then one faid one thing Mansoul his own. and another the contrary; at last Lucifer aniwered, that in his opinion , 'twas best than his Lordship should, assume the body of some of these Creatures that they of the Town had dominion over; For quoth he, these are no only familiar to them, but being under them, they will never imagin that an attempt should by them be made upon the Town ; and to

AEV. 10. 3 4. 50

Gen. 3. 1. blind all, let him affume the body of one of the beafts that Manfoul deems to be wifer than an of the rell. This advice was applauded of all to it was determined that the Giant Diabolu should assume the Dragon, for that he was in those dives as familiar with the Town of Minsoul a now is the bird with the Boy. For nothing that was in its primitive flate was at all amazing to them. Then they proceeded to the third thing which was,

The third sopo al.

3. Wether they bal best to shew their intention or the design of his coming to Mansoul, or no This also was answered in the Negative; be cause of the weight that was in the forme reasons, to wit, for that Mansoul were a stron people in a strong fown, whose wall and Gate ie ad.

h the

S We

hold

eft in

guik

mong

: The

S, 11

eft

make hing

20-

that form

had e not hem.

ould

d to

thel

bolu

hof

el 21

thu

g to ling

no be on

were impregnable, (to lay nothing of their' Caffle ) nor can they by any means be won but by their own confent, Belides, taid Legion, (for he gay answer to this ) A discovery of our intentions, may make them fend to their King for aid, and if that he done, I know quickly what time of day 'twil be with us. Therefore let us affaule them in all pretended fairness, covering of our intencions with all marner of lies, flatteries, delufive words, feigning of things that never will be, aud promising of that to them, that they shall never fird : This is the way to win Manfonl, and to make them of themselves toopen their Gates to us ; yea and to defire us too, to come in to them.

And the reason why I think that this project will do, is, because the people of Manfoul now, are every one simple and innocent; all honest and true : nor do they as yet know what it is to be affaulted with Fraud, Guile, and Hypocrify. They are strangers to lying and dessembling lips; wherefore, we cannot, if thus we be disguised, by them at all be discerned, our Lies shall go for true sayings and our difficulations for upright dealings. What we promise them, they will in that believe us. especially, if in all our Lies and feigned words, we pretend great love to them, and that our design is only their advantage and honour. Now there was not one bit of a reply against this this went as current down, as doth the water down a steep descent : wherefore they. go to confider of the last Proposal, which

Whether shey had not beft to give out orders to The fine of their Company, to It cot fome one or more of fourth the Proposal,

W

A

w

T

T

di

by

F

41 un

an

it

14

be 111

17

41

to 111 g

W

n

bi

10 4 fe

Ħ

$0

H

8

H

-

the principal of the Townsmen, if they judge theth teir cause may be promoted thereby. This was carryed in the Affirmative; an

Capi

the man that was defigned by this Stratage to be destroyed, was one Mr. Resistance, other wise called Captain Resistance. And a gre pefistance man in Mansoul, this Captain Resistance was · be and a man that the Giant Diabolus, and his ban more feared than they feared the whole Town of Manfoul besides. Now who should be the Actor to do the murder, that was the next, and they appointed one Tifiphane , a fun of the Lake to do it.

The refult oftheir Council.

They thus having ended their Council War, rose up and assay'd to do as they ha determined , they marched towards Manfoul bucall in a manner invisible, save one only one; nor did he approach the Town in his own likeness, but under the shade, and in the bod of the Dragon.

So they drew up, and fate down before East gate, for that was the place of hearing for all without the Town, as Eye-gate was the place of perspection. So, as I faid, he came up with his Train to the Gate; and laid his ambufcade for Captain Resistance within Bow-shot of the Town. This done, the Giant ascended up close to the Gase, and called to the Town of Manfoul for audience. Nor took he any with him, but one All-pause, who was his Orator in all disficult matters. Now, as I faid, he being come up to the Gate, (as the manner of those time was ) founded his Trumpet for Audience. A which the Chief of the Town of Manfoul, fuch as my Lord in ecent, my Lord Wilbemil, me Lord Mayer , Mr. Recorder , and Captain Reffe Diahous Wasses: M pto the To wa and calls for Audienes.

The Lrods of Manfoul apjeared

timee, came down to the wall to fee who wis udge the there, and what was the matter. And my Lord wilbewilwhench d looked over and law who ive; an Rood at the Gate, demanded, v hat hewas, ratage wherefore he was come, and why he routed the e, other Town of Manfoul with fo unufual a founds?

a grei Diab. Diabolus then, as if ke bad been a Lamb, Diabo-Was began his Oration, and said, Gentelmen of the famous las bis his ban Town of Manfoul, I am, as you may perceive no far Consida. whole dweller from you, but near, and one that is boun Thou by the King to do you my bomage, and what fervice vas th I can; wherefore that I way be faiteful to my feet a fun and to you, I have somewhat of concern to imperiunto jou. Wherefore grant unto me your Audience, and hear me patiently. And first, I will affure your it is not my felf but you; not mine, but your adaged tage that I feek by what I now do, as will full well be made manifest, by that I have ofened by unto you. For Gentelmen, I am, (to tell ) de le truth ) come to few you bow you may obsain and and ample deliverance from a bondage that unantity to your felves, you are captivated and inflated under. At this time the Town of Manfout began to prick up its ears, and what is it, pray, Manford what is it, thought they: and he faid, Ibave fome- ing. what to fay to you concerning your King, concerning bis Law , and also touching your selves. Touching your King I know be is great and potent, but yet, all that be hath faid to you, is neither true, nor yet for your advantage, I. I's not true, for that wherewith be bath bitherto awed you, shall not come; to pass, nor be fulfilled, though you do the thing the be bath forbidden. But if there was danger, what a flavery is it to live always in fear of? the greatest of punishments, fir doing so small and tribial arbing, as eating of a little fruit is. 2. Tou-

ncil

y hai

Infoul,

only

OW

body

Ear-

: 21

ace ith

200

the

ofe

oul

ut

4

Ching:

Diabolus ching his Laws, this I fay further, they are koth m bis subt i'- reasonable, intricate, and intollerable. Unreasonable ty made' as was binted before, for that the punishment is no up of lies? proporsioned to the Offence. There is great difference and disproportion betwixt the life, and a Apple : yet the one must go for the other by the Lan of your Shaddai. But it is also intricate, in that be faith, first, you may eat of ail; and yet after, forbids the eating of one. And then in the las place, it must needs be intolerable, for as much as that fruit which you are forbidden to eat of ( if you are forbidden any ) is that, and that alone, which is able by your eating, to minister to you a good, as yet unknown by you. This is manifest by the ven name of the tree, it is called the Tree of knowledge of good and evil, and have you that knowledge as yet? No, no, nor can you conceive bom good, bow pleasant, and how much to be defined to make one wife it is, so long as you fland by your Kings commandment. Why should you be helden in ignorance and blindness? Why should you not be enlarged in knowledge and under standing? And now! Ab ye inhabitants of the famous Town of Minfoul to speak more particularly to your selves, you are not a free people ! you are kept in bondage and flavery, and that by a grievous threat; no reason being annexed, but fo I will have it, so it shall be.

And is it not grievous to think on, that that very thing that you are forbidden to do, might you but do it, would yelld you both wislom and ronour : For.

then your eyes will be opened, and you shall be as Gods. Now fince this is thus, quoth be, can you be beft by any Prince in more flavery, and in greate ine bondage than you are under this day? You are made.

underlings, and are wrapt up in inconveniencies, as Latt kave we wade appear. For what bondage greatethan.

10

to B it is

and

in

the tai

and

he

the qui

Ref

of I

lef

hea

hay

tha

Or

the

Spe

Ma

200 tha

off

lov

kno

of i

de

w ru

tar

11 ne

5 111

able

5 70 dif-

14

Lan

that ler, lat 5 45

you

bich

, as

very

-we

000-ored

to

our

be

w!

ul

are

and

[on

be.

ery

but

For.

as.

IQ.

to be kept in blindness; will not reason tell you that it is better to bave eyes than to be without them: and fo to be at liberty, to be better than to be faut up in a dark and stinking cave?

And juff now while Diabolus was speaking Capiain these words to Mansoul, Tisiphine shot at Cap- Resistance tain Resistance, where he stood on the Gate, Sain. and mortally wounded him in the head; fo that he to the amazement of the Townsmen, and the incouragement of Diabolus, fell down dead quite over the Wall. Now when Captain Refistance was dead ( and he was the only man of War in the Town ) poor Manfout was wholly left naked of Courage, nor had she now any heart to refift. But this was as the Devil would have it. Then flood forth that He, Mr. Ill-pause, Mr. 112 that Diabolus brought with him, who was his pause bis Orator, and he addressed himself to speak to speech to the Town of Manfoul: The tenure of whose the Town den Speech here follows. of Man-

Mi-pause. Gentlemen, quoth he, it is my soul. Masters happiness, that he has this day a quiet and teachable Auditory; and it is hoped by us. that we should prevail with you not to cast off good advice: my Mafter has a very great love for you; and although, as he very well knows, that he rups the hazzard of the anger of King Shaddai, yet love to you will make him do more than that. Nor doth there need that a word more should be spoken to confirm fortruth what he faid; there is not a word but be carries with it felf-evidence in its Bowels; the very name of the Tree may put an end to ade. all Controversie in this matter; I therefore I L tthis time shall only add this advice to you. an inder, and by the leave of my Lord, (and with

that .

Confider hiswords, look on the Tree, and the promising Fruit thereof; remember also that yet you know but little, and that this is the way to know more : And if your Reasons be not conquered to accept of fuch good Counfel, you are not the men that I took you to be. But when the Townf-folk faw that the Tree was good for food, and thanit was pleasant to the eye, and a Tree to be defired to make one wife, they did as old M-pause advised, they took and did eat thereof. Now, this I should have told you before, that even then, when this Ilt-pank was making of his speech to the Towns-men, my Lord Innocency, ( whether by a fhot from the Camp of the Giant, or from some finking qualm that fuddenly took him, or whether by the fliking breath of that Treacherous Villain old ill-paufe, (for fo lam most apt to think ) fant down in the place where he flood, nor could he be brought to life again. Thus these two brave men died; brave men I call them, for they were the beauty and glory of Minfoul folong as they lived therein; nor did then now remain any more, a noble spirit in Manfoul, they all fell down, and yielded obedience to Diabo'us, and became his Slaves and Vaffals, as you shall hear.

My Lotd Innocency's death.

The Town taken, and bom. .

Now these being dead, what do the rest of the Towns-folk, but as men that had found! fools Paradife, they presently, as afore was hinted, fall to prove the truth of the Giant words, and first they did as Ill-pause had taught fute: them, they looked, they considered, they were the d taken with the forbidden fruit, they took theres and did est : and having eaten, they became immediately

Ne Palas

ł

t

5 fo

pr

bu

82 Sh

for

AM do.

ges

refo

COI

ove

the

ing

feffi

ftrei

Caft

built immediately drunken therewith; so they opened the Gate, both Ear-gate, and Eye-gate, and let in Diabolus with all his bands, quite forgetting their good Shaddai, his Law, and the judgment that he had annexed with solemen threatning to the breach thereof.

the

that

the

s be nfel

But

Was

the

vife,

ook

told

banfe

nen,

TON

king

r by lain

fork

ould

two

, for

foul,

here

Man

obe

and

nd t nt

ight

ver

red

Diabolus, having now obtained entrance inat the Gates of the Town, narches up to the middle thereof, to make his conquest as sure as he could, and finding by this time the affections of the People warmly inclining to him, he as thinking 'twas best striking while the Iron is hot, made this further deceivable speech unto them, faying, Alas my poor Manfoul! I have done thee indeed this service, as to promote thee to konour, and to greaten thy liberty. but Alas! Alas! Poor Manfoul, thou wantest now one to defend thee, for affure thy felf that when Shaddai shall bear what is done, he will come: for forry will be be that thou balt broken bis bonds, and cast bis cords away from thee. What will thou do, will thou after entirgement fuffer thy privileges to be invaded and taken away ? or what will resolve with thy self? Then they all with one confent faid to this Bramble, do thou Reign over us So he accepted the motion, and became the King of the Town of Manfout. This be- He is oning done, the next thing was, to give him pof tertained fession of the Castle, and fo, of the whole for their strength of the Town. Wherefore, into the King. Caftle he goes ( it was that which Skandai, He is pofbuilt in Manfoul for his own delight, and plea- feffed of fute This now was become a Den, and hold for the Callle the Grant Diabolus. and forti-

New having got possession of this stately fied it for Palace, or Castle, what doth he out make it bimself. a Garifon for himfelf, and firengthens and for tifies it with all forts of provision again it toat King Skaddei, or those that should ende avether the regaining of it, to him and his obe die the again.

This done, but not thinking himself yet & take cure enough, in the next place, he bethink himself of new modelling the Town, and so he does, fetting up one, and putting down and And ther at pleasure. Wherefore my Lord Mayor whose name was my Lord Understanding, and Mr. Recorder, whose name was Mr. Confeience, those he puts cut of place and power.

My Lord Nayer put out of place.

He new

modelleth

the Town.

As for my Lord Mayor; though he was an understanding man, and one too that had complied with the rest of the Town of Mansoul, in admitting of the Giam into the Town ; yet Diabolus thought not fit to let him abide in his former luftre and glory, because he was a feeing man. Wherefore he darkned it not only by taking from him his Office and power, but by building up of an high and strong tower just be-Cor. 10. tween the Suns reflections, and the Windows of my Lords palace : by which means his house and all, and the whole of his habitation was made as dark as darkness it felf. And thus being alienated from the light, he became as one that was born blind. To this his house my Lord was confined, as to a Prison nor might he upon his parole go further than within his own bounds. And now had he had an heart to do for Mansoul, What could he do for it, or wherein could he be profitable to her? So then, fo long as Manfoul was under the power er and government of Diabolus : ( And fo long it was under him, as it was obedient to him.

4,5. Ephef. 4.

18, 19.

who der, fore OWN

which

of hi

fait

an H

Dial

thou

the 1

als;

mak

mac

alfo

Law

25 m

and of h

with whe at c

(fo terr

fhak

King

than fou!

COL

which:

of for which was, even until by a War it was rescued if to out of his hand. Solong my Lord Mayor was raavether an impediment in , than an advantage to die the famous Town of Manfou'.

r.

his

by

nns if.

e

As for Mr. Recorder, before the Town was et & taken, he was a man well read in the Laws think of his King, and also a man of courage, and Tota faithfulnels to fpeak truth at every occasion. and And he had a tongue as bravely hung, as he had The Reayor an head filled with judgment Now this man, corder put am Diabolus could by no means abide, because, out of onfci- though he gave his consent to his coming into place, the Town, yet he could not, by all wiles, triun. als, Stratagems, and devices that he could use, lied make him wholly his own. True, he was much degenerated from his former King, and adalso much pleased with many of the Giants Laws, & service : but all this would not do, tor as much as he was wholly his. He would now and then think upon shaddai, and have dread of his Law upon him. and then he would speak He somewith a voice, as great against Diabo as, as times when a Lyon roareth. Yea, and would also speaks for at certain times when his firs were upon him bis firft (for you must know that some times he had King. terrible fits ) make the whole Town of Maxfoul shake with his voice ; and therefore the now King of Manfoul could not abide him.

Diabo'us therefore feared the Recorder more than any that was left alive in the Town of Manfou', because, as I said, his words did shake the whole Town, they were like the rattling-thunder, and also like Thunder-claps. Since therefore the Giant could not make him wholly his own, what doth he do but studies all that hecould, to debaueh the old Gentleman, and by debauchery,

be

Rei

boli

old

no he

200 lea

ma

0 old

2110 dai

Wa

fin

the

tha

To

Wi

the

th

ly

ha

ho

of

Ha

W

cu

70 lac

10

Sel

de

Ne fir

chery to stupise his mind, and more harden heart in ways of vanity. And as he attempte so he accomplished his defign : he debaud ed the man, and by little and little, fo dre him into fin and wickedness, that at laft he w not only debauched as at first, and so by conf quence defiled, but was almost (at laft / fay)pa all Conscience of fin. And this was the fat theft Diato'us could go Wherefore he bethin him of another project and that wasto perfun the men of the Town that Mr. Recorder w mad, and so not to be regarded And he this he urged his fire, and faid, if he be him felf, why doth he not do thus alwaies? bu quoth he. as all mad folk have their fits, a in them their raving language; fo hath thise and doating Gentleman. Thus by one mean or another, he quickly got Manfoul to fligh neglect, and despise what ever Mr. Record could fay. For besides what already you have heard, Diabolus had a way to make the o

The Town taken off from beedding of bim,

Gentelman, when he was merry, unfay and de ney what he is in his fits had affirmed. An indeed, this was the next way to make him felf ridiculous, and to cause that no ma How Conshould regard him. Also now he spake fred for King Skaddai, but alwaies by force and con straint. Besides, he would at one time be he against that, which at another he would hol his peace. So uneven was he now in his do ings. Sometimes he would be as if fast afleen and again sometimes, as dead even when the whole town of Mansoul was in her careera ter vanity, and in her dance after the Gian pipe.

cience bescomes so ridiculous 43 with Carnal men it is,

Wherefore, sometimes when Minfoul did used den

mpte

batte

o dre

he w conf

y)p.

e far

think

rfun

r w id fo

him

ba

, 20

150

near

igh

orde

han

An

nim mar eel

ho ok

be frighted with the thundring voice of the Recorder that was, and when they did tell Diabolus of it, he would answer, that what the old Gentleman faid, was neither of love to nim, nor pity to them, but of a foolish fondness that he had to be prating ; and fo would huth, fill, and put all to quiet again, And that he might leave no argument unurged that might tend to make them fecure, he faid, and faid it often; O Manson! ! Consider that notwithstanding the oldGentlemans rage, and the rattle of his high and thundring words, you hear nothing of Shaddai himself ( when lyar and deceiver, that he was, every out cry of Mr. Recorder against the fin of Mansoul was the voice of God in him to them. ) But he goes on and fayes, you fee Satanical that he values not the loss, nor rebellion of the Town of Manfoul, nor will he trouble himself with calling of his Town to a reckoning for their giving of themselves to me. He knows that though ye were his, now you are lawfully mine; fo leaving us one to another, he now hath shakenhis hands of us. Moreover, O Manfoul ! queth he, Confider how I have served you, even to the uttermost of my power; and that with the best that I have, could get, or procure for you in all the world. Belides, I dare fay, that the Laws and customs that you now are under, and by which you do homage to me, do yield you more folace and content, than did the Paradice that at first you possessed. Your liberty also, as your selves do very well know, has been greatly widenid, and enlarged by me whereas I found you a pen'd up people. I have not laid any re- His flatte fraint upon you; you have no Law, Statute, ries.

Confei-

or Judgment of mine to fright you; I can none or you to account for your doings, except the Madman, you know who I mean. I have granted you to live, each man like a Prince his own, even with as little controll from mas I my felf have from you.

Men somes times angry with their Consciences.

And thus would Diabolus hush up, and que the Town of Mansou, when the Recorder the was did at times molest them; Yea and win such cursed Orations as these, would set to whole Town in a rage and sury against the old Gentleman. Yea, the Rascal crue, at some times would be for destroying of him. They have often wished (in my hearing) That he had lived a thousand miles off from them, his company, his words, yea, the fight of him, and especially when they remembred how in old times he did use to threaten and condemn them; (for all he was now so debauched) did terrine and afflict them fore.

But all wishes were vain, for I do not know how unless by the power of Shandai, and his wisdome, he was preserved in being amongst them Besides, his house was as strong as a Castle, and stood hard to a Hold of the Town Moreover, if at any time the crue or rabble attempted to make him away, he could pull up the sluces, and let in such floods as would drown all round about him.

The will.

III.

thoughts.

Of fears.

But to leave Mr. Recorder, and to come to my Lord Wilbewil, another of the Gentry of the famous town of Manfoul, this Wilbewit was a high born, as any man in Manjoul, and was a much, fnot more afreeholder than many of then were: besides, if I remember my tale aright, he had some priviledge peculiarly to himsels in

he

the f

with

refol

could

W25

or W

fome

Man

unde

he w

Man

thus

aboli

of th

and

Som

and

Dia

for

vin

COL

to

th:

the

ca

bo

W

T

0

R

h nce

mm

qui chi

Wit

ome They

t he his and

old

enn

did

104 his gft

TC-np-

Wn

to he to the contract

the famous town of Manfoul: Now together with these he was a man of great strength, resolution and courage, nor in his occasion could any turn him away. But I fay, whether he was proud of his fate, priviledges, ftrength, or what, ( but fure it was through pride of fomething ) he scorns now to be a slave in Minfoul: and therefore resolves to bear Office under Diabolus, that he might ( fuch a one as he was ) be a petty Ruler and Governor in Manfoul And (head-strong man that he was) thus he began betimes; for this man, when Diabolus did make his Oration at Ear-gate, was one of the first hat was for consenting to his words. and for accepting of his Counsel as wholesome, and that was for the opening of the Gate, and for letting him into the Town : wherefore Diabolus had a kindness for him; and therefore he designed for him a place : And perceiving the valour and stoutness of the man, he covered to have him for one of his great ones, to all and do in matters of the highest concern.

So he sent for him, and talked with him of The Will that secret matter that lay in his breast, but takes place there needed not much perswasson in the under Diacase. For as at first he was willing that Diabolus. bolus should be let into the Town; so now he was as willing to serve him there. When the Tyrant therefore perceived the willingness of my Lord to serve him, and that his mind stood bending that way, he forthwith made him the Captain of the Cassle, Governour of the Heart. Wall, and keeper of the Gates of Mansoui: Yea Flesh, there was a Clause in his Commission, That no- Senses, thing without him should be done in all the Town of Mansoul. So that now next to Diabolus himself, who but my Lord Wilbewil in all the Town of ord Minsoul; nor could any thing now be done or but at his Will and Pleasure, throughout theight Town of Mansoul. He had also one Mr. Mind fo his his Clerk, a man to speak on, every way like Dia his Mafter : For he and his Lord were in prie Th .Rom, 8: 7 Mr. Mind ciple one, and in practice not far affunden tree my Lords And now was Manfoul brought under to pur and my Lords pose, and made to sulfil the !uils of the will, and you Clerk. of the mind.

of the mind.

But it will not out of my thoughts, what and desperate one this Wilbewil was, when power non was put into his band. First, he starly denyed that he owed any suit or service to his forms lock Prince, and Liege-Lord. This done, in the next place he took an Oath, and swore sideling to his great Master Diabotur, and then being this stated and settled in his places, Offices advancements and preferments; oh I you conser him think unless you had feen it, the strange work was that this workman made in the Town of Min and foul.

Ephel. 2. 2,3,4.

The carnal will opposein confcience.

First, He maligned Mr. Recorder to death, call he would neither endure to see him, nor wand hear the words of his mouth ; he would thut (like his eyes when he faw him, and flop his ears fell when he heard him speak: also he could not ried endure that fo much as a fragment of the Law as I of shaddai should be anywhere feen in the town, the For example, his Clerk Mr. Mind had some old had

Neb. 9 26. Corrupt will love ing.

rent and torn parchements of the Law of good Good Shaddai in his house, but when Wilbemit faw wen them hecast them behind his back. True, Mr. Re- alle corder had some of the Laws in his study but my ma Lori could by no means come at them : He alfo thought and faid, that the windows of my old him wn dord Major's house, were always too light done or the profit of the Town of Manjoul. The it thight of a Candle he could not endure. Now noted for hing at all pleased Wubewil, but what pleased like Diabolus his Lord.

Lord

who

prise There was none like him to trumpet about the nder freets, the brave nature, the wife conduct, pur and great glory of the king Diabolus: He , and rould range and rove throughou all the Streets of Minsoul, to cry up his illustrious Lord, nat and would make himself even as an rabject, a- vain ower mong the base and Rascal crue, to cry up his thoughts. rived rationt Prince. And I say, when and wherermer sever he found these Vassils, he would even the make himels as one of them. In all ill courelity se he would act without bidding, and do misreing thief without commandment.

nce- The Lord Wilbewil also had a Deputy under noot him, and his name was Mr. Affection; one that work was also greatly debauched in his principles, Rom.

Also and answerable thereto in his life; He was 1.25. wholly given to the flesh, and therefore they ath, called him Vile affection: Now there was he, to and one Carnal Lust the Daughter of Mr. Mind; that (like to like quoth the Devil to the Collier) that A match ears fell in love and made a match, and were mar-betwist not ried; and as I take it they had several children, vileassell-Law as Impudent, Blackmouth and Hue-reproof, these on and win three were black boyes and besides these they carnal lust. old had three daughters, as Scorn-truth, and Slightood God, and the name of the youngest was Re-Le also begot and yieldedmany bad brats, too my many to be here inferted. But to pals by this. old himself in the Town of Manjoul, and had put ord down down and fet np whom he thought good!

betakes himself to defacing. Nowthere was the market-place in Manfoul, and also upon Gates of the Caftle, an image of the bleffed & Skaddai, thisimage was fo exactly engra-(and it was engraven in gold) that it did most resemble shaddai himself of any thing then was extant in the world. This he by ly commanded to be defaced, and it as basely done by the hand of Mr. No-Tre Now you must know, that as Diabolus had co Truth did manded, and that by the hand of Mr. No-To the Image of shaddar was defaced; He likew gave order that the same Mr. No-truth sho tet up in its stead the horrid and formidate in Image of Diabolus: to the great contempt of

All Law books de Aroyed that could be fo.

I foln. 2 .

What no-

formerKing, and debafing of his Town of Mask and Moreover, Diabolus mide havock of all and mains of the Laws and Statutes of Shall that could be found in the Town of Manjo to wit, fuch as contained either the Dodri of Mora's with all Civil and Natural Documen also relative severities he sought to extingu To be thore, there was nothing of he remi of good in Manfout, which he and Wither fought not to defiroy : for their defign was turn Menfoul into a bruit, and to make it l to the fenfual fow, by the hand of Mr. No-11

ot

ore, ot i

rom

ord

the

ous

sn

ac h

2 m

doc

When he had delfroyed what Law, and go orders he could, then further to effect his fign, namely, toalienate Manfoul from shall her King , he commands and they fet up his vain Edicts, Statutes and commandments, in places of refort or concourse in Maz foul wit, fuch as gave liberty to the lufts of the for the lusts of the eyes, and the pride of life, while the are not of Shaddai, but of the world. He incourage ed, countenanced and promoted lasciviousand all ungodline's there. Yea, much more did Diabolus to encourage wickedness in the Town of Manfoul; he promised them ngra seace, content, joy, and blifs in doing his ing ted to an account for their not doing the conrary. And let this serve to give a tast to them nelove to hear tell of what is done beyond heir knowledge, a far off in other Coun-

Now Manfoul being wholly at his beck, and rought wholly to his bow : nothing was heard feen therein but that which tended to fet up od:

e was

nogu

fled K

dide

he b it

-Tm

ad co o- In

ikew

6 fho

midal t of

Mario

alla bada

Janfa

dri

amen

ngu

remi

ilben

W25

it l

0-11

hist

51:10

Qui

se the

But now, he having disabled the Lord Mayor, and Mr. Recorder from bearing of the Office Manfoul : and feeing that the Town, before e came to it, was the most ancient of Cororations in the world ; and fearing , if he did ot maintain greatness, they at any time should bjed that he had done them an injury: There. ore, Isay, (that they might see that he did ot intend to leffen their Grandeur, or to take rom them any of their advantagious things ) e did chuse for them a Lord Mayor, and a Reorder, himself; and such as contented them d go the heart, and such also as pleased bim wontous well.

They bave a new Lord Mayor, and a new Recorder.

The name of the Mayor that was of Diabo The new his esmaking, was the Lord Lustings. A man Lord at had neither Eyes nor Ears, all that he did Mayor. a man, or as an Officer, he did it naturally doch the beaft. And that which made him which more ignoble, though not to Misse at, yet to them that beheld, and were grieved for its ruins, was, that he never-could favor good, but evil.

The new Recorder.

The Recorder was one whole name was For ger-good, And a very forry fellow he we mad He could remember nothing but mischief, an ker to do it with delight. He was naturally proto do things that were hurtful; even hurtful we the Town of Mansoul, and to all the dweller there. These two therefore, by their power, an practice, example and smiles upon evil, di Man much more Grammar , and fettle the com of the mon people in hurtful ways. For who dot muc not perceive but when those that fit aloft, at The vile, and corrupt themselves, they corrupt the to c calle

W25 :

felf t

He dotb make them new Aldermen, and mbo.

Thoughts.

whole Region and Country where they are. possible Besides these, Diabolus made several Burget places, and Aldermen in Mansoul: such as out of He whom the Town when it needed, might chu fift them Officers, Governours, and Magistrate phen And these are the names of the chief of then rabb Mr. Incredulity, Mr. Haughty, Mr. Swearing and Mr. Whoring, Mr. Hard beart, Mr. Pitilest was Mr. Fury, Mr. No-truth: Mr. Stand-so-lie one? Mr. False Peace, Mr. Drunkenness, Mr. Ches first ting. Mr. Asbeism, Thirreen in all; Mr. Incre the dulity is the eldeft, and Mr. Atheifm the young Hold est of the Company.

There was also an election of Comme Count Council men', and others, as Bailiffs, So low jeants, Constables, and others; but all of the fuck like to those aforenamed, being either B dice thers, Brothers, Cousins, or Nephews to the whole names for brevities take I omit to me had namee, and tion,

Gonera-

He build-

etb three

Arong bolds,

their

When the Gyant had thus far proceeded and ours.

for work, in the next place he betook him to for ald some strong holds in the Town. And he mile three that seemed to be impregnable. The falled the Hold of Desiance, because it was made to command the whole Town, and to an kepit from the knowledge of its ancient King.

ron resecond he called Midnight-hold, because it is an builded on purpose to keep Mansoul from lle de true knowledge of it felf. The third was an alled Sweet-fin-koid, because by that he fortified d Manjout against all desires of good. The first on of these Holds stood close by Eye-gate, that as don much as might be, light might be darkned there. are The second was builded hard to the Old-Castle, t the to the end that might be made more blind (if re. possible.) And the third stood in the Market rgd place.

at a He that Diabolus made Governour over the thus fift of these, was one Spite-God, a most blas-rate phemous wretch. He came with the whole then rabble of them that came against Mansoul, at first, trial and was himself one of themselves. He that iles was made the Governour of Midnight-hold, was lie one leve-no-light. He was also of them that came Ches first against the Town. And he that was made face the Governour of the Hold called Sweet-finwas also a very leud fellow, but not of that nme Country where the other are bound. This fel-Se low could find more sweetness when he stood then sucking of a lust, than he did in all the Para-the And now Diabo'us thought himself fafe; He med had taken Manfoul; He had ingarifoned himfelf therein ; He had pur down the old Officers ; led and had fee up new ones; He had defaced the

Con Po

ful

Lo

be

200

the

H:

int

bol

ftr

tio

Me

op

ho

10 aer

OD

fou.

his

Lu

tw

Th

Wh

ma

Fo

tol

Di

ma

bas made bis Nell.

Diabolus Image of shaddai, and had fet up histown: had spoiled theold Law Books, and had promot his own vain lies; He had made him new Man strates, and set up new Aldermen : He had bu ded him new Holds, and had man'd them he And all this he did to make him secure in case the good Shaddai, or his So should come to make an incursion up him

Tidings carried to the Court of what bad bappened to Manfoul.

Now you may well think, that long before this time, word, by some or other could not b be carried to the good King Shaddai, how Mansoul in the Continent of Universe was lol and that the Runagate Giant Diabolus, one one of his Majesties Servants, had in Rebel lion against the King made sure thereof for him felf: Yea tidings were carried and brought t the King thereof, and that to a very circum stance, by a faithful messenger.

As first, How Diabolus came upon Ma foul, they being a simple people, and innocent with craft, subtilty, lies and guile; Item, The he had treacherously slain the right noble an valiant Captain , their Captain Resistance, he stood upon the Gate with the rest of the Townsmen. Item, How my brave Lord In cent fell down dead ( with grief fome fay, with being poisoned with the stinking breath one Ill-pause, as fay others, at the hearing of h just Lord, and rightful Prince Shaddai to ab fed by the mouth of fo filthy a Diabolian, as the Varlet Ill-pause was. The Messenger furth told, that after this I'l-pause had made a the Oration to the Townsmen, in behalf of D bolus his Master, The simple Town believing that what was faid was true, with one co mot

Mao

buil

m fo

imf oth

Wh

loft

Onc

Rebel

him

ht t rcum

MA

Th

ce.

f th

Inm

ath

of h

abi

sth

irth

fhor

Die

evin

Con

fent did open Ear-gate, the chief Gate of the Corporation, and did let him with his Crue into a Pollellion of the famous Town of Manfoul. He further shewed how Diabolus had served the Lord Mayor, and Mr. Recorder, to wit, That hehad put them from all place of power and mit. Item, He shewed also that my Lord Wilbewil, was turned a very Rebel and Runagate, and that fo was one Mr. Mind, his Clerk; and that they two did range and revel it all the Town over, and teach the wicked ones their wayes. He faid moreover, That this Wilbewil was put into great truft. And particularly, that Diabolus had put into Wilbewills hand, all the frong places in Manfoul : and that Mr. Affection was made my Lord W. Ibewill's Deputy in his most rebellious affairs. Yea, faid the Messenger , this monster , Lord Wilbewill , has openly difavowed his King Shaddai, and hath horribly given his faith, and plighted his Troth 10 Diabolus.

Also faid the Meffenger , besides all this , the new King, or rather rebellious Tyrant over the once famous, but now perishing town of Manfoul, has let up a Lord Mayor, and a Recorder of his own. For Mayor he has fet up one Mr. Luftings; and for Recorder, Mr. Forget-good, two of the vilest of all the town of Minsoul. This faithful messenger also proceeded and told what a fort of new Burgesfes Diabolus had made, also that he had builded several strong Forts, towers, and strong Holds in Mansoul. He told too, the which I had almost forgot, how Distolus had put the town of Manfoul into Arms, the better to capacitate them on his behalf to make refistance against Shaddai their King, should should he come to reduce them to their for obedience.

50

Wİ

file

Co

-

M

de

My,

ti

bol

of

ftr

hi

gi

C

p!

30

VE 48

144

Crief at Court to lear the Tidings.

Now this Tidings-teller did not deliver Relation of things in private, but in open Co the King and his Son, high Lords, chief C tains, and Nobles, being all therepresent to he But by that they hadheard the whole of the it would have amazed one, to have feen, he been there to behold it, what forrow grief, and compunction of Spirit there among all forts, to think that famous Me was now taken: only the King and his forefaw all this long before, yea, and ful ently provided for the relief of Mansoul, the they told not every body thereof: Yet bec they would have also a share in condoling the Mifery of Manfoul, therefore they also and that at a rate of the highest degree, wail the lofing of Manfoul. The King plainly, That it grieved him at the beart, and may be fure that his Son was not a whit Thus gave they conviction to about them, that they had love and company for the famous Town of Mansoul. when the King and his Son were retired into Privy Chamber, there they again conful about what they had defigned before; to That as Manfoul should in time be suffered to loft ; fo as certain y it should be recovered aga recovered I say, in such a way as that both King and his Son would get themselves eten fame and glory thereby. Wherefore a this consult, the son of Shaddai ( a sweet comely person, and one that had always gre affection for those that were in affliction, one that had mortal enmity in his he art again Diabola

Gen. 6. 5.

The lec et of bis pur-

of Go.

Diabotas, because he was defigned for it, and because he sought his Crown and Dignity. This Is 49.

Son of Shaddai, I say, having stricken hands i Tim r. with his Father, and promised that he would be 15.

his servant to recover his Asansoul again, Hos. 13. 14 shoot by his resolution, nor would he repent of the same. The purport of which agreement A brave was this, To wit, That at a certain time prefixed design on by both, the Kings Son should take a journey into the foot for Country of Universe, and there in a way of Justice the sounce and equity, by making of amends for the follies of Mansoul.

Mansoul, he should lay a scundation of her perfett deliverance from Diabolus, and from his Tyran-

Moreover Emanuel resolved to make, at a time convenient, a war upon the Giant Diabolus, even while he was possessed of the Town of Mansoul. And that he would fairly by strength of hand drive him out of his bold, By the Hohis nest, and take it to himself, to be his habi-ly Ghost.

tition.

liver

n Ca

ef C

toh

hei

en.

WO

ere

Ma

is fuff

beca

ling

lo d

e, ng

nd

hit

to 02/

W

100

ful

afi t as This now being resolved upon, order was The Holy given to the Lord chief secretary, to draw up scriptures a fair Record of what was determined, and to eause that it should be published in all the Corners of the Kingdom of Universe. A shore Breviate of the Contents thereof you may if you please take here as follows.

Let all men know who are concerned, That the The Conson of Shaddai the great King, is ingaged by Co-tents. venant to his Father, to bring his Manfoul to him again; yea and to put Manfoul too, through the power of his matchless love, into a far better, and more happy condition than 'swas in before it was taken by Diabolus,

4 Thefe

These papers therefore were published feveral places, to the no little molestation the Tyrant Diabolus: for now thought he shall be molested, and my habitation will be taken from me. But when this matter, I men this purpose of the King and his Son, did a first take air at Court, who can tell how the high Lords, chief Captains, and noble Prin ces that were there, were taken with the buf. nels. First, they whispered it one to another;

Angels.

Among the and after that it began to ring out through out the Kings Palace, all wondring at the glorious defign that between the King and his Son was on foot for the miserable Town of Mansoul. Yea the Courtiers could scarce do any thing, either for the King or Kingdom, but they would mix with the doing thereof, a noise of the love of the King and his Son, that they had for the Town of Manfoul.

> Nor could these Lords, high Captains, and Princes, be content to keep this News at Court, Jea before the Records thereof were perfected, > themselves came down and told it in Universe,

At last it came to the ears, as I said, of Diabolus, to his no little discontent. For you must think it would perplex him to hear of fuch 1 delign against him : well, but after a few calls in his mind, he concluded upon these four things. First, that this News, this good tidings

(if possible) should be kept from the ears of the Town of Mansoul; for said he, if they shall once come to the knowledge that shaddai their former King, and Emanuel his Son, are contriving of good for the Town of Mansoul: what can be expected by me, but that Manfoul will make a revolt from under my hand and government.

me

thi

Lo

200 da

eff of

Tr

to

bu

fuc

left

Lo

fur

tin

nip

to my

fay per

no

M

tha

ve

ato

up

the

th

US,

En

COL

to

the

p:

Nems. Lie con-

Diabolis

perplexed

ot the

c'uded of le veral bings.

hed

iond

he . I

Prin.

dom,

of, 2 that

and

ourt,

afts

our ngs

of

hall

10.

ment, and return again to him. Now to accomplish this his defign, he renews his flattery with my Lord wilbewil, and also gives him strict charge Firft for vill be and command, that he should keep watch by to jeep meas day and by night, at all the gates of the Town, the News did a especially Ear-gate, and Eje-gate: For I hear from Man how of a defign, quoth he, a defign to make us all foul. Traytors, and that Mansoul must be reduced buf. wits first bondage again. I hope they are ther; but flying stories, quoth he, however let no ough such news by any means be let into Mansoul, at the left the people be dejected thereat : I think my . The Will Lord it can be no welcome news to you, I am ingaged wn of fure it is none to me. And I think that at this against the carce time it should be all our wisdoms and care, to Gospel. nip the head of all fuch rumors as shall tend Good to trouble our people: Wherefore I defire, thoughts my Lord, that you will in this matter do as I muft be fly, let there be ftrong guards daily kept at kept out of every Gate of the Town. Stop alfo, and the Town examine, from whence fuch come that you of Manted, perceive do from far come hither to trade, erfe. nor let them by any means be admitted into Mansoul, unless you shall plainly perceive must that they are favourers of our excellent Goth 1 vernment. I command, moreover, said Di- All grad abolus, that there be fpies continually walking thoughts up and down the Town of Manfoul, and let and words them have power to suppress and destroy any in the that they shall perceive to be plotting against Town an us, or that shall prate of what by Shadai and tobe fur neir Emanuel is intended. This therefore was ac-pressed. tri- cordingly done, my Lord Wilbewil hearkning to his Lord and Mafter, went willingly after the commandment, and with all the diligence m- he could, kept any that would, from going

A New Out impoled upon Manfoul.

14. 28.19

out ab oad, or that fought to bring this dings to Manfoul, from coming into the Town

Secondly, this done, in the next place Diabolus, that he might make Mansoul as sur as he could, frames and imposes a new Oan and horrible covenant upon the Townsfolk

To wit, That shey should never desert bon, bis Government, nor yet betray bim, nor feets alter bis Laws ; but that they fould own , confer fland by, and acknowledge him for their right ful King in defiance to any that do or bereafte shall, by any pretence, Law, or title what ever la claim to the Town of Minfoul. Thinking belike, that shaddai had not power to absolve them from this Covenant with death, and greement with Hell. Nor did the filly Man. foul flick or boggle at all at this monfron ingagement, but as if it had been a Spratin the mouth of a Whale, they swallowed without any chewing. Were they troubled at it? Nay, they rather bragged and boafted their so brave fidelity to the Tyrant their pre tended King, fwearing that they would never be changelings, nor forfake the old Lord for anew

Thus did Diabolus tye poor Manfoul fast, but jealousie that never thinks it selfstrong enough, put him in the next place upon another exploit which was yet more; if possible, to debauch the Town of Manfoul: wherefore he caused by the hand of one Mr. Filth, an odious, nastly, lescivious piece of beastlinses to be drawn up in writing, and to be set upon the Castle Gates, whereby he granted, and gave license to all his true and trusty sons in Man oul, to do what soever their lustful appetites prompted them to do and that no man was to lett, hinder, on con-

Odious Atheistical Pamphlets and filiby Ballads & Rominces
fullof baldry.

REOM

1

2

1

1

D

m

1

0

1

Pfo

h

b

21 ef

1

th

of

p

Sh

th

for

m

fo

th

n

th

bi

de

W

W

this

Town

place s fun

Oat

sfolk

Seeka

confes

right-

reafin

er la

g be.

ofolye

ind 1.

Man.

A rous

ratin

vedi

uble

ed H

pre

er be new

but

ugh,

ploit

n this

y the 12-upin

ites,

II his

cve

de,

CON.

troul them, upon pain of incurring the displeafure of their Prince Now this he did for Reasons of thefe Reasons 1. That the Town of Manfoul bis thus might be yet made weaker, and fo more un- doing able, should tidings come, that their redemp tion was defigned, to belive, hope, or conlent to the truth thereof. For reason fayes, the bigger the Sinner, the less grounds of hopes of mercy, 2. The second reason was, If perhaps Emanuel the Son of Shaddai their King , by feeing the horrible and prophane doings of the town of Manfoul; might repent, tho entred into a Covenant of redeeming them, of pursuing that Covenant of their redemption; for he knew that Shaddai was holy, and that his Son Emanue! was holy; yea, he knew it by woful experience : for, for the iniquity and fin of Diabolus, was he cast from the higheft Orbs. Wherefore what more rational than for him to conclude, that thus, for fin, it might fare with Manfoul? But fearing also left this knot should break, he bethinks himself of another, to wit, Thirdly, to endeavour to possess all hearts in the town of Mansoul, that Shaddai was raising of an Army to cometo overthrow and utterly to destroy this town of Minfoul (and this he, did to forestal any tidings that might come to their ears, of their deliverance for thought he, if I first brute this, the tidings that shall come after, will all be swallowed up of this; for what elfe will Minfoul fay, when they shall hear that they must be delivered, but that the true meaning is, Shaldai intends to The place but that the true meaning is, Skaldai intends to The place destroy them: Wherefore, he summons the of hearing whole Town into the Market-place; and there- and of with deceitful Tongue thus he addresses him-considerfelf ing.

felf unto them, Gentlemen, and my very goul u,

Friends, You are all, as you know, my legal Subjects, he and men of the famous Town of Manfoul; you here know bow from the first day that I have been with gathi you until now, I kave behaved my self among jou, and and what liberty and great priviledges you have had injoyed under my Government; I hope to your bonour, and mine, and also to your content and delight; for Now my famous Manfoul, a noise of trouble there is fundo sbroad, of trouble to the Town of Manfoul, fine forry am I thereof for your sakes. For I receive ved but now by the Post from my Lord Lu-jours cifer, (and be useth to have good intelligence) whom That your old King Shaddai is raising of an Army procu to come against you, to destroy you root and branch; And and this, O Mansoul! is now the cause that at this ever time I have called you together; namely, to advise bonds what in this juncture is best to be done; for my oran tart, I am but one, and can with ease shift for do you my self, did I tist to seek my own ease, and to leave non my Mansoul in all the danger : But my beart is fo piach firmly united to you, and so-unwilling am I to leave back you, that I am willing to stand and fall with you, better to the uttermost bazzard that shall be fal me? What But I fay you? O my Minfoul! will you now desert your life to old frient? or do you think of standing by me? Then thing as one man, with one mouth, they cryed out per a together, Let him die the death that will not. Then I bea faid Diab lus again, 'Tis in vain for us to hope 4rms for quarter, for this King knows not bow to shew you s it: True perbaps ! be at is first setting down be- me it fore us, will talk of, and presend to mercy, that there- top by with the more ease and cess trouble, he may again can make himself the may er of Mansoul; what ever about therefore be shall say, believe not one sillable or tit- and the of is , for all such 'anguage is but to overcome Hel Pery deceiveable language. 8004 st, and to make us while we wallow in our blood, eds. he Trophies of his merciless victory; my mind is you herefore, that we resolve to the last man, to re-with set bim, and not to believe him upon any terms. For you, in at that door will come our danger. But have had we be flattered out of our lives ? I kope you sour, fan more of the rudiment, of Politicks, than to suf-ght, for your selves so pitifully to be served. But re is suppose be should, if he gets us to yield, save oul, sme of our lives, or the lives of some of them that ceil reunderlings in Mansoul, what kelp will that be to Lu-jouthut are the chief of the Town, especially of you nce) boom I have fet up, and whose greatness has been army procured by you through your faithful sticking to me? Lying lan-inch, and suppose again, that he should give quarter to guage. this every one of you, be sure he will bring you into that wife bondage under which you were captivated before, will oraworse, and then what good will your lives for do you? Shall you with him live in pleasure as you do rave now? No, no, jou must be bound by Laws that will s p piece you, and be made to do that which at prefent is ave bueful to you. I am for jou, if you are for me, and it is on, better to dye valiantly than tolive like pitiful Slaves. Vbst But I say, the life of a Slave will be counted a our life too good for Manfoul now. Blood, blond, nohea thing but blood is in every blast of Shaddai's Trum- He is aout per against poor Mansoul non; Pray be concerned, fraid of hen Ibear be is coming, up Minfoul and stand to your lefing of ope arms that now while you have any leisure, I may learn Mansoul. em you some feats of War. Armour for you I bare, and by be- me it is; Tea, and it is sufficient for Manscul from He puts re- 10p to toe; nor can jou be burt by what his force them upon ain can do, if you shall keep it well girt and fastned Arming of ver about your come therefore to my Castle, and welcome, themtite and barness your selves for the war, there is selves. Melmet, Breoft-plate, Sword and Skield and what x 21 ..

15

not, that will make you fight like men.

H Imet, otherwise called an head-piece, is he met.

live: This is that which they kad, who said. In product 29, they should have peace, tho they walked if the wickedness of their heart, to add drunk ness to thirst; A piece of approved And this is, and who ever has it, and can hold it, long no Arrow, Dart, Sword or Shield can he kim; this therefore keep on, and thou wilt he off many a blow, my Mansoul. 2. My Breast-Ph. His Breast is a Breast-Plate of Iron; I had it forget plate. mine own Countrey, and all my Southiers are a sheart, an heart as hard as Iron, and as much a feeling as a stone, the which if you get and he nither mercy shall win you, nor judgment find the cossary for all to put on that hate Shaddai, a breat would fight against him under my Banne pone that would fight against him under my Bame pons His Sword 3. My Sword is a Tougue that is set had Psal. 57.4. fire of Hell, and that can bend it self to speak en Am Psal 64.3. of Shaddai, his Son, his wayes, and people like Jam. 3. Use this, it has been tryed a thousand times twis and told; who ever bath it, keeps it, and makes the apo use of it as I would have him, can never be conquent and use of it as I would have him, can never be conquent and His hield, by mine enemy. 4. My Shield is unbelief, a solve Job 15.26. calling into question the truth of the word, or all the ps. 15.16.3. sayings that speak of the jusyment that Shadd sou, Mar. 6.5, 6 has appointed for wicked men; use this Skiells soue many ættempts he has made upon it, and sometime liming its true, it has been bruised; but they that his indomited of the wars of Emanuel against my servants. Logal bave testified that he could do no mighty work there so secause of their unbelief. Now to handle this wer total pon of mine aright, it is not to belive this one

ECARE

1. Lecaule they are true, of what fort or by whom fois he wer afferted; If he speaks of Judgment, care not er for it; if he speaks of mercy, care not for it: if he d. To promises, if te swears that he would do to Mansoul, alked if it turns, no burt but good 3 regard not what is unke field, question the truth of all, his it is to wield the Arm skield of unbelief aright, and as my servants ought to dit, do; and be that doth otherwise, loves me not, nor an to do I count him but an Enemy to me. 5. Another It to pri or piece, said Diabolus, of mine excellent I-Plu Armour, is a dumb and prayerless Spirit, a spirit get that scorns to cry for mercy; wherefore be you my are a Mansoul, sure that you make use of this: What a har cry for quarter, never do that, if you would be cb to mine; I know you are flout men, and am fure that the I bave clad you with that which is Armour of proof; fin mberefore to cry to Shaddai for mercy, let that be oft a far from you : Besides all this , I have a Mau!, Firesame pons, and such as will do excecution, After he He tacks.

See had thus furnished his men with Armour and a l with a aten Arms, he addressed himself to them in such speech to; opic like words as these, Kemember, quoth be, that I them. s the to Oath, and entred into Covenant to be true to me. quent and my cause; I say remember, this, and shew your of, selves flout, and valiant men of Mansoul Rememall the ber also the kindness that I have alwayes shewed to. add jou, and that without your petition; I have granted to bield you externalthings; where fore the Priviledges, Grants. etime Immunities, Profits, and bonours wherewith I have than indowed you, do call for at your hands returns of axis Loya'ty, my Lyon-lika men of Mansoul; And when there fo fit a time to them it, as when another fall feek wer to take my dominion over you, into their own bands ? bin one wordmore, and I have done: can me but fland end:

CAR

They of Manfoul thew their layatty to the Gyant.

and overcome this one shock or brant, I doubt am but in little time all the world will be ours; and with that day comes, my true bearts, I will make; Kings, Princes and Captains, and what brave de Man shall we have then? Diabolus having thus arms and fore-armed his Servants and Vassals out Mansoul, against their good and Lawful Kingens That day in the servents and Captains and Captains arms and Captains and Captains out Mansoul, against their good and Lawful Kingens That day in the captains and Shaddai in the next place he doubleth hi hele Guards, at the Gates of the Town, and herry takes himself to the Castle, which was his strong to Hold: His Vassals also to shew their wills produced and supposed (but ignoble) gallantry, exerctem cise themselves in their Arms every day, and ave teach one another feats of War; they also de ause fied their Enemies, and fang up the praises of the would be, if ever things would rife fo high, a ras a War between Shaddai and their King. Nor It. I all this time, the good King, the King Shadda cutc was preparing to fend an Army to recove the the Town of Manfoul again from under the o his Tyranny of their pretended Kirg Diabolus Police But he thought good at the first, not to sen he pathem by the hand and conduct of brave Emanus ook his Son, but under the hand of some of his Sen flam vants, to fee first by them the temper of Mas-Joul; and whether by them they would be wo to the obedience of their King. The Army confifted of above forty thousand, all true men purs, For they came from the Kings own Court, and keen They came up were those of his own chusing. is En to Manjou! under the conduct of four flout Ge rerals, each man being a Captain of ten thou le rec fand men, and these are their names, and the figns. The name of the first was Boanerges. The name of the second was Captain Convision. The then

The

ame

1100 prepareth an Almy for the recovery of Manfoul.

Shaddai

The word: of God.

Tie Cat-Vains manes.

who ame of the third was Captain Judgment; The ame of the fourth was Captain Execution. These we do Manjort. These four Captains (as was said) the rine king thought sit in the sirst place to send to Manjort to make an attempt upon it; for indeed king generally in all his Wars he did use to send h hele four Captains in the Van, for they were had herry flout and rough-hewen men, men that were from it to break the ice, and to make their way will by dint of Sword, and their men were like Pfal 60.4. exer themseves. To each of these Captains the King and live a Banner that it might be displayed beode rause of the goodness of his cause, and because ses of the right he had to Mansoul. First to Captain the somerges, for he was the chief, to him. I say, Nor Ir. Thunder, he bare the black Colours, and his data cutcheon was the three burning Thunder-bolts. ove the second Captain was Captain Conviction, fend he pale Colours; and his Scutcheon was the look of the Law wide open, from whence iffued Deu 33 2.

The third Captain was Captain Judgment, to we im was given ten thousand men; his Ensigns Mu. 13. con ame was Mr. Terror, he bare the red Co-40, 41; nen ours, and his Scutcheon was a burning fiery and urnance. The fourth Captain was Captain eur xecution, to him was given ten thousand men; e u xecution, to him was given ten thousand men; Ge is Ensign was one Mr. Justice, he also bare non he red Colours, and his Scutcheon was a fruithe fittee with an Ax laying at the root thereof. Mat. 3.10. Thefe four Caprains, as I faid, had every on:

The them under his command ten thousand men,

100

The HOLY WAS

all of good fidelity to the King, and flo their Military actions Well, the Can and their forces, their men and under Office being had upon a day by shaddai into the Fin and there called all over by their nam were then and there put into fuch harned became their degree and that fervice that they weregoing about for their King Nown the King had mustered his Forces ( for it is that mustreth the Holt to the Battel ) he gave ! the Captains their several Commissions, charge and commandment in the audience all the Souldiers, that they should take faithfully and couragiously to do and exec the same. Their Commissions were for substance of them the same in form; the as to name, title, place and degree of Captains, there might be some , but small variation. And here let me give an account of the matter and fum con ned in their Commission.

12

etl

Ft

12

A

• 1

'ni

· W

fee fal

Wes

ain

eac

of t

plac

man

Cabi

ron

Wat

A Commission from the great Shaddai Kin Mansoul, to his trusty and, noble Captain, Captain Boanerges, for his making War upa Town of Mansoul.

Their Commission.

Mat.10,

Lub.10,5.

O! Thou Baanerges, one of my stout thundring Captains, over one tent fand of my valiant and faithful Servas. Go thou in my name with this thy Fore the miserable Town of Mansoul; and a thou comest thither, offer them first cond ons of peace; and command them, that ting off the yoke and tyranny of the wicked abolus, they return to me their rightful Production of the wicked abolus, they return to me their rightful Production of the wicked abolus, they return to me their rightful Production of the wicked themselves from all that is his in the Town

Can

he Fi

nan

aras

hat

OWW

it is

ave

ns,

ience ke I

exec

for tho

e of

ut i ive

COM

Kin

4111 upa

out

n t

Y

ord

d w

of Manfoul, ( and look to thy felf that thou half good satisfaction touching the truth of their obedience, ) Thus when thou hast comminded them ( if they in truth submit thereto) then do thou to the uttermost of thy powwhat in thee lies, to fet up for me a Garsison, in the famous Town of Mansoul; Nor do thou hurt the least Native that moveth or breatheth therein, if they will submit themfelves to me, but treat thou fuch as if they were thy Friend or Brother; for all fuch I love, and they shall be dear unto me: And tell them I Thef. 2. that I will take a time to come uuto them, and 7,8,9, 10. to let them know that I am merciful. But It. cif they shall notwithstanding thy Summons, and the producing of thy Authority, refift, fland out against thee, and rebel, then do I command thee to make use of all thy cunning, power, might, and force, to bring them under by strength of hand. Farewel. Thus you fee the fum of their Commissions: for as I fall before, for the substance of them, they were the same that the rest of the noble Captains had. Wherefore they having received each Commander his authority, at the hand They pre of their King. The day being appointed & the pare for a place of their Rendezvouz prefixed, each Com March. mander appeared in fuch gallantry, as becamehis caple and calling. So after a new entertainment from Shaddai, with flying Colours, they fet forward to march toward the famous Town of Manfoul Captain Boanerges led the Van, Captain Con-vidiou and Captain Fudgment made up the main Body; And Captain Execution brought up the Eph.2.13. fre. They then having a great way to go, (for 17, he Town of Manfoul was far off from the Court of shaddai ) they marched through the Re Celv ons and Countries of many people, not hum nor abufing any, but bleffing where everthe They also lived upon the Kings in all the way they went. Having travel fore thus for many days, at last they came with fight of Mansoul; the which when they saw, would captains could for their hearts do no less the who for a while bewail the condition of the Tow for they quickly faw how that it was profit to the will of Diabolus, and to his wayes a Well, to be short, the Capta came up before the Town, march up to E gate, fit down there (for that was theple of hearing); so when they had pitched the Tents, and intrenched themselves, they addit fed themselves to make their Assault. the Townsfolk at first, beholding so gallan Company, so bravely accountred, and so ex lently disciplined, having on their glitte Armour, and displaying of their flying Colo could not but come out of their Houses

ranc

give

then

have defiz

men

don

half

top

Azo

com

loub

1 in

into

perr

The World are convinced by the well ordered tife of the godly .

> den Summons open the Gates to the Capta came down with all hast from the Castle, and made them retire into the body of the To flond who when he had them there, made this you ing and deceivable speech unto them. Gont tlemen , quoth he , although you are your trufty and well beloved Friends, yet I cam but (a little) chide you for your late was gath cumspect action in going out to gaze one great and mighty force that but yesterday down before (and have now intrenched the men gaze. But the cunning Fox Diabolus feat that the people after this fight should on a!

Diabolus alienates their minds from ilem werth when I have told you long ago, that they savell whom I have to destroy this Town of Manfoul? whom I have been at the coft to arm you with Town ap-a-pe for your body; besides great forroffer dications for your mind; Wherefore then yes a did you not rather, even at the first appearant did you not rather, even at the first appearance of them, cry out, Fire the Beacons, and give the whole Town an Alarm concerning them, that we might all have been in a possure of defence, and been ready to Satan have received them with the highest acts of greatly additionally and the satangement of them with the highest acts of greatly additionally and the satangement of them with the highest acts of greatly additionally and the satangement of th his your felves Women, and that you might go them up out like a company of Innocents to gaze on to bit dere your mortal foes! Fy, fy, put your felves fiance to can into a posture of defence, beat up the Drum, the Minigather together in warlike manner, that our flers of the man in the Town of the word, there are valiant nen in the Town of Mansoul.

Twill leave off now to chide, and will not fur-her rebuke you, but I charge you, that hencefor-

Let not henceforward a man of you, withou

When sinners barken to Satan, they are set in a rage aagainst godline (s.

order first obtained from me, so much as he his head over the Wall of the Town of Mark foul: you have now heard me, do a so have commanded, and you shall cause on that I dwell securely with you, and the secretary take care, as for my self, so have your safety and honour also, Farwel. No were the Townsmen strangely altered: the were as men stricken with a panick fear; the Tran to and fro through the Streets of the Towns of Mansoul, crying out, help, help, The methat turn the World upside down are come own ther also; nor could any of them be quiet as he but still as men bereft of wit, they cryed a second this went down with Diabolus. And to quoth he to himself, this I like well, a such it is as I would have it, now you shew you so obedience to your Prince; hold you but he was and then let them take the Town if they are well, before the Kings Forces had sat the

The Kings Trumpet founded at Eargate

They will not bear.

A secoed Summons
repulsed.

fore Manfoul three dayes, Captain Boanes and commanded his Trumpeter to go down to 10 Eagure, and there in the name of the great sings dai to summon Manfoul to give audience to the message that he in his Mastersname was to the commanded to deliver. So the Trumpe of whose name was. The beed what you bear, and mup as he was commanded to Ear-gare. The beed what you bear, and there sounded his Trumpet for a hearing there was none that appeared, that gave and eavo or regard; For so had Diabolus command orce, So the trumpeter returned to his Captain. The last told him what he had done, and also how the last control of the last control of the last command orce.

lion

Whereat the Captain was grieved, but ithe Trumpeter go to his Tent. Again Capshe bearerges fendeth his Trumpeter to Ear-Mee, to found as before for an hearing; But a ej again kept close, came not out, nor the rethey give him an answer, so observant the rethey of the command of Diatolus their A Council of the Then the Captains, and other Field-of War.

No fixers, called a Council of War to consider the the surface was to be done for the gaining of the Town of Nansoul, and after some close and To rough debate upon the contents of their Comthe n filons, they concluded yet to give to the ome lown by the hand of the aforenamed Trumpe-et af r, another Summons to hear; but if that thall ed a refused, said they, and that the Town shall Luk. 14.

ple and it out still: Then they determined, and 23.

And the Trumpeter tell them so, that they

l, model endeavour, by what means they could, to w wanted them by force to the obedience of their Athird ut ho ing. So Captain Boanerges commanded his Summons.

neyo impeter go up to Ear-gate again, and in the fatt ame of the great King Shaddai to give it a very oane oud Summons to come down without delay to 10 Ear-gate, there to give Audience to the it stings most noble Captains. So the Trumpe-ce to Twent, and did as he was commanded: he to the to the to Ear-gate and sounded his Trumpet, 1sa. 58. 1. imper ad gave 2 third Summons to Mansoul: He ar, wid moreover, That if this they should still are. stufe to do, the Captains of his Prince would ang ith might come down upon them, and in-The Lord e and eavour to reduce them to their obedience by Wilbewil man orce. Then stood up my Lord Wilbewil, who his Speech ain, vas the Governour of the Town: (this Wil- 10 the how swil was that Apostate of whom mention was trumpeter.

for tade before ) and the keeper of the Gates of

of de

refoli

nd r

ill i

rump

rumpe 2 mg 2 mg

d, can

ocd :

erra

wixt

ded my

the To the Go

hath c

he hea

wall, I came ?

king t

and by faid h

and to

Lords.

yet for ee what ne time

ul must

is comp

e men

Shadde

rms, 2

own of rthwith

bjection

teres for amp, th

The trum-

Mansoul. He therefore with big and rule words demanded of the Trumpeter who he whence he came? and what was the cause his making so hideous a noise at the gate, speaking such insufferable words against Town of Mansoul? The trumpeter answe I am servant to the most noble Capt Captain Boanerges, General of the Force the great King Shaddai, against whom be thy self, with the whole town of Mansoul, he rebelled, and lift up the heel; and my we ter the Captain hath a special message to stown, and to thee as a member thereof, which if you of of Mansoul shallpeaceably he fo, and if not, you must take what follo thy words to my Lord, and will know

Then faid the Lord Wilbewil, 'I will ca

Wilbewil Tee trumpeter.

But the trumpeter soon repl he will fay. faying, Our message is, not to the Gyant abolus, but to the miserable town of Man 'nor shall we at all regard what answer him is made, nor yet by any for him, are fent to this town to recover it from un his cruel tyranny, and to perswade it to mit, as in former times it did, to the 'excellent King Shaddai. Then said the L " wilbewil, " I will do your errant to the to 'The trumpeter then replyed, Sir, do not ceive us, lest in so doing, you deceive · Selves much more. He added moreover, 'we are refolved, if in peaceable manner 'do not submit your selves, then to make

War upon you, and to bring you under force. And of the truth of what I now is this shall be a fign unto you, you shall feet black Flag with its hot burning-thunderbe fet upon the mount to morrow, as a tol

Wilbewil

of defiance against your Prince, and of out resolutions to reduce you to your Lote, and rightful King. So the said Lord willmill returned from off the Wall, and the peter rerumpeter came into the Camp, When the turns to the rumpeter was come into the Camp, the Capturns to the aims and Officers of the mighty King Shadtogether to know, if he had obresolutions to reduce you to your Lord, be d, came together to know, if he had ob-beined a hearing, and what was the effect of his errand: So the Trumpeter told what past wwixt willbewill and him; 'When I had sounded my Trumpe t, and had called aloud to the Town for a hearing : My Lord Willbewil! the Governour of the Town, and he that buth charge of the Gates, came up, when he heard me found, and looking over the wall, he asked me what I was? whence I came? and what was the cause of my making this noyse? so I told him my errand, and by whose Authority I brought it. Then, said he, I will'tell it to the Governmour, and to Mansoul: and then I returned to my Lords. Then said the brave Boanerges, 'Let us Carnal yet for a while, lie still in our trenches, and Souls make these Rebels will do. Now when a wrong ne time drew nigh that audience by Man-interpreta-ul must be given to the brave Boanerges and tion of the is companions: It was commanded that all design of a he men of war throughout the whole Camp Gofpel f Sbaddai, should as one man stand to their Ministry. own of Mansout shall hear, to receive it orthwith to mercy; but if not, to force a bjection. So the day being come, the Trum-teres founded, and that throughout the whole amp, that the men of War might be in a readiness readiness for that which then should be the mbo work of the day But when theythat wer on ; in the Town of Manfoul, heard the founde no the Trumpets throughout the Camp of shat thus dai, and thinking no other, but that it mu fond be in order to storming the Corporation or they at first were put to great consternation Kin of Spirit; but after they a little were tetle that again, they also made what preparation the could for a War, if they did form; ele n'to fecure themselves Weil, when the utma has time was come, Bonnerges was refolved to her on their answer ; wherefore he sent out his Trun we of the message that they had brought from eyo Zach 7.11 Shaddai. So he went and founded, and to de Townsmen came up, but made Earge fort as sure as they could. Now when they we the come up to the top of the Wall, Capta Book Boanerges defired to fee the Lord Mayor, b fou Boanerges refuses to make Incredulity a Fnage of the Wall; but when the Captain Boaners and what he bad to deliver so the famous Town Manfoul.

This is not be, where is my Lord Understandin of the ancient Lord Mayor of the Town of Manso wh for to bim I would deliver my me fage? I had Then faid the Gyant. ( for Diabolus to the also come down ) to the Captain; Mr. C . no tain, Tou bave by your boldness given to Mani for at least four Summons to subject ber self to poor King: by whose Authority I know not; nor w I dispute that now. I ask therefore what is the son of all this ado, or what would you be at, if knew your selves? Then Captain Boanes 1 20

· ca ·gi

my Lord Incredulity was then Lord Mayor, he for he came in the room of my Lord Luftings. & int Incredulity, he came up and thewed himself on my had fet his eyes upon him, he cryed out alou pin be the mbose was the black Colours, and whose Scutche- Boanerwer on was the three burning-thunder-bolts, (taking gesobtains unde no notice of the Gyant or of his speech, a bearing.

Shal thus addressed himself to the Town of Mant mu foul; 'Be it known unto you, O unhapy and His speech.
ation rebellious Manfoul I That the most Gracious nation King, the great King Shaddai my Master, Tetle thath sent me unto you with commission (and the 'so he shewd to the Town his broad Seal) He n'to reduce you to his obedience. And he thath commanded me, in case you yield upher on my Summons, to carry it to you as if you from were my Friends, or Brother; but he also arin hath bid, that if after Summons to submit, from you still stand out and rebel, we should in-d the deavour to take you by force. Then stood arga forth Captain Conviction and faid, ( bis was We the pale Colours, and for a Succeen he hat the apti Book of the Law wide open &c. ) 'Hear O Man-r, be 'foul! Thou, O Mansoul, wast once famous or, for innocency, but now thou are degenerated for my Brother, the Captain Boanerges hath said, nere and it is your wisdom, and will be your hapalor piness to stoop to, and accept of conditions 19.23, ndia of peace and mercy when off ered; specially Chap. 16. nso when offered by one, against whom thou hast rebelled, and one who is of power to tear pfal-50.21 thee in pieces, for so is Shaddai our King, 22.

Conor when he is angry can any thirg stand beand fore him If you say you have not finned, or acted rebellion against our King, the whole of your doings since the day that you 'cast off his fervice ( and there was the be-'ginning of your fin ) will sufficiently testify 'against you: what else means your hark-

te

if

er

The Speech of Captain Conviction. Rom.3. 10, 11, 12, 13,14,15, 16, 17,18, 19, 23, 17, 18.

ha

to 12

. co

.70

(to his

to!

me

Me Me

of

fo

bef

bre

eye

and

he

the

'aga

112 itis

thou

bim :

there

mith

deliz

not g

bath !

will

mbir.

rebut

oul

the j

ment

he C ation

of the Laws of Skaddai, and your obeying of Diabolus? yea, what means thus your takeing up of Arms against, and the shutting of your gates upon us, the faithful servants of your King? Be ruled then, and accept of my Brothers invitation, and overstand not the time of mercy, but agree with thine ad-

Zuc. 15.

eversary quickly Ah Mansoul, suffer not the self to be kept from mercy, and to be run into a thousand miseries, by the stattering wild of Diabolus: Prehaps that piece of decent may attempt to make you believe that we seek our own profit in this our service, but know 'tis obedience to our King, and love to your happiness, that is the cause of this undertaking of ours. Again, I say to thee. Of Mansoul, consider if it be not amazing grace that Shaddai should so humble himself as he

2 Cor. 5. 18,19, 20,

"doth, now he by us reasons with you, in way of intreaty and sweet perswassons, that you would subject your selves to him. Hat he that need of you, that we are sure you have of him? No, no, but he is merciful and will not that Mansoul should dye, but turn to him and live. Then stood for

Captain Judgment bis speech
o Mansoul

Captain Fudgment whose was the red Cotoms and for a Scutcheon ke had the burning fiery urnau and he said. O ye the Inhabitants of to Town of Mansoul! that have lived so long rebellion and acts of Treason against to King Shaddai: Know that we come not to do to this place, in this manner, with our mediage of our own minds, or to revenge of own quarrel; it is the King my Master th hath fent us to reduce you to your obedience ting to him, the which if you refuse, in a peaceagol cable way to yield, we have Commission to tak compel you thereto. And never think of your selves, nor yet suffer the Tyrant Disbolus to perswade you to think, that our King by t of this power is not able to bring you down, and to lay you under his feet, for he is the Foradthe mer of all things, and if he touches the thy Mountains they smoak. Nor will the Gate in of the Kings clemency stand alwayes open, vile for the day that shall burn like an Oven is before him, yea it hasterh greatly, it slumbut breth not. 'O Mansoul! is it little in thine Mal. 4. I. e o and that after so many provocations? yea he still holdeth out his golden Scepter to thee, and will not yet suffer his Gate to be shut race against thee, wilt thou provoke him to do race against thee, wilt thou provoke him to do she it? If so, consider of what I say; To thee in it is opened no more for ever. If thou sayest that thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him: Tea, because you there is wrath, beware, lest be taketh thee away with his stroak, then a great ransome cannot deliver thee. Will be esteem thy rickes? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength. He was hath prepared his Tirone for Judgment; for he will come with fire, and with his Chariots like a whir wind, to render his anger with sury, and his this opened no more for ever. If thou sayest Job 36.14 thou shalt not see bim, jet judgmert is before Ch.36. 18. bim; therefore truft thou in bim : Tea, because Psat. 9. 7. there is wrath, beware, lest be taketh thee away 1f. 66. 15. whir wind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebutes with flames of fire. Therefore O Manoul take heed, left after thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked, Justice and Judgment should take hold of thee. Now while he Captain Judgment was making of this Oation to the Town of Mansou', it was obferved.

14.

ferved by some that Diabolus trembled; he he proceeded in his parable and said, o fre thou woful Town of Manfoul! wilt thou me the yet fee open thy Gate to receive us, the Deput of ties of thy King, and those that would me to or canthy hands be strong in the day that be so deal in Judgment with thee? I say, canst the indure to be forced to drink as one would be Erch. 22. drink sweet Wine, the Sea of wrath the our King has prepared for Diabo us and his Angels? Consider, betimes consider.

Then Rood forth the fourth Captain, that 21

. dy

· P

it

noble Captain Execution, and faid . 'O Ton the TheSpeech of Minfoul! once famous, but now like t of Captain Execution.

Mat 3.7.8.

. 10.

fruitless bough; once the delight of the his b ones, but now a Den for Diebeits: Heart in alfo to me, and to the words that I for speak to thee in the name of the great is *dai. Behold the Ax is laid to the root of the Trees, every Tree therefore that bringether forth good fruit, is bewen down and cast here. the fire. Thou, O Town of Manfoul! hitherto been this fruitless Tree, thou but ib nought but Thorns and Bryers. Thy a fruit fore-bespeaks thee not to be a go if Tree: Thy Grapes are Grapes of Gall, clusters are bitter. Thou hast rebelled a c Force of Shaddai, are the Ax that is laid thy roots; What faiest thou, wilt thou was a lay again, tell me before the first bloom. given, wilt thou turn? Our Ax muft be laid to thy root, before it be laid at h of threstning, before it is laid at thy rost d: h my of Execution; and between these two is id, o required thy repentance, and this is all the lou no time that thou haft. What wilt thou turn? Deput or hall I smite? If I fetch my blow, Mansoul, uld no down you go: For I have Commission to endum iny my Ax at, as well as to thy roots; nor be he will any thing but yielding to our King, It the prevent doing of Execution. What are thou for, O Mansoul, if mercy preventeth not, but th the to be hewn down, and cast into the fire and and h burned? O Mansoul! patience and forbearance do not act for ever : a year or two, or Lut: 13. in, a three they may; but if thou provoke by a Ton three years rebellion, and thou haft already done more than this, Then what follows, but cut it down; nay after that, thou fhalt cut in dows. And dost thou think that these I the pre-but threatnings, or that our King has not the power to execute his words? O Manfou!! thou wilt find that in the words of our King, when they are by finners made little or light of, there is not only threatning, but burnring Coals of fire. Thou haft been a cumban ber-ground long already, and wilt thou continue fo ftill? thy fin has brought this Army to thy Walls, and shall it bring it in Judgment to do Execution into thy Town? Thou hast heard what the Captains have said, but as yet thou shuttest thy Gates, speak out 'Manfout, wilt thou do fo fill? or wilt thou accept of conditions of peace?

Deut, 32. 32.

Woul

ke d ie hi

eark

of of eth a

elt h

7 0

go

11, 0

led er a

aid

tun

low

RE

at t

141 oet

These brave speeches of these four noble Captains, the Town of Mansoul refused to hear, yet a found thereof did beat against Bargate, though the force thereof could not break it open. In fine the Town desired a itte

W

A c

TO

th

ns.

his

Ma

neff

m:

ME

rea

et

C

t

Ter

nie

lace ries !

and

the

or C toy

101 gate Will

Manfoul Iwer.

Upon what conditions

the Cap-

Rivethem

Diabolus

time.

sains would

time to prepare their answer to these delires time mands. The Captains then told them, T so make an 'if they would throw out to them one paufe, that was in the Town, that they mi reward him according to his works, t they would give them time to confider; if they would not cast him to them over Wall of Manfoul, then they would give the none : for faid they, we know that fo ! as Mpaufe draws breath in Manfoul, all a consideration will be confounded, and noth but mischief will come thereon. Diabolus, who was there prient, being to lose his M-pause, because he was his Or tor (and yet be fure he had, could the Ca rains have faid their fingers on him ) was folved at this instant to give them answer himself; but then changing his mind, he co manded the then Lord Mayor, the Lord credulity to do it : faying, My Lord do you g these Runagates an answer, and speak ou Interrupts them and fets Incredulity to an wer 11. £ 77 .

His Speeck.

that Manfoul may hear and understand yo So Incredulity at Diabolus's command beg and faid: Gentlemen, you have here, as do behold, to the disturbance of our Prince and the moleffation of the Town of Manjo camped against it; but from whence you come, we will not know; and what you are we will not believe, Indeed you tell us your terrible Speech, that you have the Authority from Shaddai; but by what right he commands you to do it, of that we shall yet be ignorant. You have also by the Authority aforesaid, Summoned this Town to desert her Lord, and for protection to yield up her self to the great shadd ai your King ·fattering mi

rer

atteringly telling her, that if the will do it, will pass by and not charge her with her offences. Further, You have also to the ror of the Town of Mansoul, threatned th great and fore destructions to punish Corporation if the confents not to do our wills would have her. Now Cap- The true from whence foever you come, and pidure of migh your designs be never so right; yet unbelief. ow ye, that neither my Lord Diabolus, nor his fervant Incredulity, nor yet our brave tesfoul, doth regard either your persons, effage, or the King that you fay hath fent n: His power, his greatness, his vengeance e fear not; nor will we yield at all to our Summons. As for the War that you breiten to make upon us, we must cherein fend our felves as well as we can: and low ye, that we are not without wherewith-Il to bid defiance to you. And in short, I will not be tedious: I tell you, that etake you to be some Vagabond Runagate. Grew, that having shaken offall obedience your King, have gotten together in tumilmous manner, and are ranging from place to place to fee, if, through the flittenesyou are skilled to make, on the one fide. and threats wherewith you think to fright, on the other; to make some fally Town, City, Country to defert their place and leave it toyou: But Manfoul is none of them.

To conclude, we dread you not, we fear yot not, nor will we obey your fummons : Our gates we keep shut upon you, our places we will keep you out of: Nor will we long thus. fuler you to fit down before us. Our people

D.S.

fluor "

must live in quiet: your appearance doi the bet flurb them: wherefore arise with Bag nat w Baggage, and be gone, or we will let flyther; T Ink. 11. 21. the Walls against you. This Oration in rejudit by old Incredulity was seconded by despectantal wit bewill, in words to this effect. Gentlen under we have heard your demands, and the noil as ad * Flefb, The Speech of the your threats, and have heard the found sthey Lord Wilyour summons, but we fear not your for of their we regard not your threats; but will still a fiw the as you found us. And we command you, they command you. bewill. in three days time you cease to appear ind fives of parts, or you shall know, what it is, one red to dare offer to rouz: the Lion Diabolut, when pared sleep in his Town of Mansoul. The speciment Forgetof the Recorder whose name was Forget-go made good the he also added as followeth Gentlemen, gare. Lords as you see, have with mild and genetra Recorder made atfo words, answered your rough and are Tow a fpeech Tpeeches; they have moreover, in my hear men given you leave quietly to deport as you can the Wherefore take their kindness and be got The much tothe Came purpoje. we might have come out with force upon ye the and have caused you to feel the dint of a show swords; but as we love ease and quiet a beg felves ; fo we love not to hurt or moleft other on Then did the Town of Manfoul thout for jo the The Town resolved to as if by Diabotus and his Crew, some greate Un witostand vantage had been gotten of the Captains. The we witoftand also rang the Bells and made merry, and dang w the Capcafile, and the Lord Mayor and Recorder w cheir place: But the Lord Willbewill took for the S AIMS. cial care that the Gates should be fecured une double guards, double bolts, and double long to and bars. And that Eargase (especially) might dot the better be looked to, for that was the Gate Bag in at which the Kings forces fought most to enflyther; The Lord Willbewill made one old Mr. on privatice (an angry and ill-conditioned fellow) especially captain of the Ward at that Gate, and put more his power sixty men, called Deaf-men: Toe band noil an advantagious for that service, for as much of Deafound at advantagious for that service, for as much of Deafound at the mattered no words of the Captains, nor men set to rion of their Souldiers. Now when the Captains keep Ear ll at the answer of the great ones, and that gate. ind the Town, and that Mansoul was resoltains resolto give the Kings Army battle: they prewed to give the Kings Army battle: they prewhen pared themselves to receive them, and to try give them spe tout by the power of the arm. And first they Battel. made their force more formidable against Ear-en, gate. For they knew that unless they could pe-ge netrate that, no good could be done upon the Town. This done, they put the rest of their nean men in their places. After which they gave out can the word, which was, ye must be born again. go Then they founded the Trumpet, then they in n p the Town made them answer, with shout against The Battel for shout, charge against charge, and so the Battel begun. et a began. Now they in the Town had planted upther on the Tower over Eargaie, two great Guns, or is the one called High-mind, and the other Heady.

212 Unto these two Guns they trusted much, they Twon was The were cast in the Castle by Diabolus's founder planted whose name was Mr. Puff-up, and mischi wous planted on pieces they were. But so vigilant and watchful, upon Earthough sometimes their shot would go by their cars with a wbizz, yet they did them no harm. By these two Guns the Towns-folk made no gueftion but greatly to annoy the camp of Shad-

o co

came

d to wind

were.

erra r. E

they c

peit.

rold t

e rai

them

and th

for f

meet

their

forch

into

the W

1 Con

skaddai, and well enough to secure the G but they had not much cause to boast of execution they did, as by what follows will gathered. The famous Manfont had also for oth r small pieces in it, of the which t made use against the Camp of Shaddai.

They from the Camp also, did as stone and with as much of that as may (in truth) called Valour, let fly as fast at the Town, at Eargue : For they law that unless they co break open Eargate. 'twould be but in vain batter the Wall. Now the Kings Captainsh brought with them feveral flings, and two three Battering-Rams; with their flings then fore they battered the houses and people of t Town, and with their Rams they fought break Fargate open. The Camp and the To had feveral skirmishes, and brisk encounter while the Captains with their Ergines ma many brave attempts to break open or be one o down the Tower that was over Fargate, a at the faid Gate to make their entrance : B out of Manfoul stood it out so lustily, through the and f rage of Diabolus, the valour of the Lord will argent benill, and the conduct of old Incredulity dedto Mayor, and Mr. Forgetgood, the Recorder, The ways. the charge and expence of that Summers Wa they (on the Kings fide) feemed to be almost que to be loft, and the advantage to return to Manlow what Bur when the Captains faw how it was, the ment made a fair retreat, and intrenched themselve of the in their Winter Quarters. Now in this Wi here you must needs think there was much loss own both sides of which be pleased to accept and this brief account following. The King The Captains, when the narched from the Com act

The fentence and power of abe word.

The Town Houtly Hands out. and the Captains eturn. otheir Vin er · uarters.

focome up against Mansoul to War; as they An accame croffing over the Country, they happen- count of ed to light upon three young fellows that had a this War mind to go for Souldiers; proper men they wish refetre, and men of courage, (and skill) to ap- rence to mance. Their names were Mr. Tradition, the lofs on It. Fumane wisdom, and Mr. Mans Invention. So both sides. they came up to the Captains, and proffered Three new their service to shaddai. The Captains then Souldiers. The captains then souldiers. The captains then souldiers. The captains then sould be rath in their offers: But the young men told berath in their offers: But the young men told them, they had considered the thing before, and that hearing they were appeared to for such a design, came hither on purpose to fit meet them, that they might be listed under them. Then Captain Boanerges, and that hearing they were upon their march for fuch a defigu, came hither on purpose to for that they were men of Courage; listed them into his company, and so away they went to mad the War. Now when the War was begun, in be one of the briskest skirmishes, to it was, that They are a Company of the Lord Willbewill's men sallyed taken pri-Be out of the Sallyport, or Postern of the Town, Soners. Wil nerges men, where these three fellows happenthe edto be, so they took them Prisoners, and a.
The way they carried them into the Town; where Was they had not lain long in durance but it began qui to be noised about the Streets of the Town, the men had taken, and brought in Prisoners out selve of the Camp of shaddai. At length tidings Was hereof was carried to Diabolus to the Castle, ols wo wit, what My Lord wilbewills men had done, pt and whom they had taken prisoners.

King Then Diabolus called for Wilbewill, to know

O

81

10 fte

th

th

be 20

for fou.

Ip

to

bef

bau

For

free

alar

20 2

that

Yea.

that ther

unfes

of A

the '

the Il

Some

ers w feul a

Voice

of th

Deir

1

and he told him; then did the Gyant fend for They are the prisoners, who when they were come, de brought manded of them who they were, whence the before Diabolus, came, and what they did in the Camp of sha and are dai; and they told him. Then he fent them u content to ward again. Not many days after he fent for fight under them to him again, and then asked them if the bis banner. should be willing to serve him against the former Captains: They then told him, the they did not fo much live by Religion, as byth fates of Fortune. And that fince his Lordli was willing to entertain them, they would willing to ferve him, Now while thin Anything, were thus in hand, there was one Captain Anything.

thing, a great doer in the Town of Maxie and to this Captain Anything did Diabol He therefend thefe men, with a note under his ha to receive them into his Company;

Contents of which Letter were thus. Anything, my Darling, the three men that the bearers of this Letter, have a defire to fer me in the War; nor know I better to whole co dult to commit them, than to thine : Recei therefore in my name, and as need hall requi maberuse of them against Shaddai and bis m Farewell. So they came, and he received the and he made of two of them Serjeants, but made Mr. M'ns invention hi: Ancient- Beard But thus much for this, and now to return The reof of the Camp They of the Camp did affo for execution upon the Town, for they did down the roof of the old Lord Mayors ho and so laid him more open than he was bei They had almost ( with a sling ) slain My L Willbewill outright: But he made a shift six Alder- recover again. But they made a notable flag men flain. ter among the Aldermen, for with one fore sends them to Captain Anything with a Leuer.

Anything receives them into bis fervice.

old Incredulities boufe beat down.

that they cut off fix of them : To wit, Mr. swearing, Mr. VVhoring, Mr. Fury, Mr. Standto-lies, Mr. Drunkenness, and Mr. Chesting.

They also dismounted the two Guns that The two flood upon the Tower over Eargate, and laid great them flat in the dirt. I told you before that Guns dif the Kings noble Captains had drawn off to their mounted. Winter Quarters, and had there intrepched themselves and their carriages, so as with the best advantage to their King, and the greatest annovance to the enemy, they might give feafonable and warm alarms to the Town of Manfoul; and this defign of them did fo hit, that I may fay they did almost what they would to the mokstation of the Corporation.

For now could not Manfou fleep fecurely as Continual before, ner could they now go to their de- alarms baucheries with that quietness as in times past. given to For they had from the Camp of shaddai fuch Manfoul. frequent, warm, and terrifying alarms ; yea, alarms upon alarms, first at one Gate and then The effeds at another, and again, at all the Gates at once, of convithat they were broken as to former peace. Bions the Yea, they had their alarms fo frequently, and common, that when the nights were at longest, the wea- if abiling. ther coldeft, and so consequently the feafon most unfeasonable; that that Winter was to the Town of Mansoul a Winter by it felf. Sometimes the Trumpets would found, and fometimes the flings would whorle the flones into the Town, Sometimes ten thousand of the Kings Souldiers would be running round the Wall of Maxfoul at midnight. Mouting, and lifting up the voice for the battel. Sometimes again, some of them in the Lown would be wounded, and The Town their cry and lamentable voice would be heard, much mo-

fera

equi

5 100

the

but

Beard

turn fo for aid be hou

befor

10 to lefted.

Change of thoughts in

Manfoul.

Conscience

speats.

to the great molestation of the now languisting Town of Mansoul. Yea so distressed, win those that laid siege against them, were they that I dare say, Diabolus their King had in the these days his rest much broken. In these day, are as I was informed, new thoughts, and thought that began to run counter one to another . be gan to possess the minds of the men of the Town of Mansoul. Some would say, there no living thus: others would then reply the will be over fortly: then would a third flands and answer, let us turn to the King Shaddai, a fo put an end to thefe troubles : and a four would come in with a fear, faying, I doubt will not receive us. The old Gentleman to the Recorder, that was so before Diabolus too Manfoul; he also began to talk aloud, and h words were now to the Town of Manfoul, 25 they were great claps of thunder. No not now, so terrible to Mansoul, as was his, win the noise of the Souldiers and shoutings of the Captains: Also things began to grow scare in Manfoul; now the things that her foul lul ed after, were departing from her. Upona former her pleasant things there was a olast, and bun ld by t ing instead of beauty Wrinkles now . - an and for fome shews of the shadow of death, were u e that

M

mi

the

Itolo

my h

to mpet

ing o

tains of the

troub

of the

ste C

Mani

oppose

Oron L Secon il

t, he

after

Conti

beat th

refoli

oldy the

A famin in Manfoul Luke 15. 34, 15.

They are fammoned again to isld:

though joyned with the meanest condition the world! The Captains also, in the deep this Winter, did fend by the mouth of Brane ges Trumpeter, a summons to Man oul to ye up her felf to the King, the great King 36 dais. They fent iconce, and twice, and thric on the inhabitants of Manjoul. And now, how glad would Manfoul have been to have joyed quierness, and satisfaction of mind guil days

ough

ere

1, 16

nd u

oun

ubt h

100 too

dh

25 noi

wit

ft

care

luk

on a

oun

-20

ona

ot knowing but that at fome times there the be in Minfoul fome willingness to surrenup themselves unto them; might they but we the colour of an invitation to do it under. in fo far as I could gather, the Town had furrendred up to them before now had not been for the opposition of old Incredulity. the Fickleness of the thoughts of my Lord Abewills. Diabolus also began to rave; wherethefe perplexing fears. Itold you but now that they of the Kings my had this Winter fent three times to Manto Submit her felf. The First time the The conimpeter went, he went with words of peace, tents of ing of them, That the Captains, the Noble the first tens of Shaddai, did pity and bewail the mi- summons. of the now perishing Town of Mansoul; and troubled to see them so much to stand in the of their own deliverance. He faid moreover, the Captains bid him tell them, that if now Manfoul would humble ber felf, and turn, former Rebellions, and molt notorious Treasons by their merciful King be fongiven them, and forgotten too. And having bid them bee that they flood not in their own way, that in sopposed not themselves, nor made themselves and wom losers; He returned again into the Camp. re that they flood not in their own way, that Secondly, The second time the Trumpeter The conthe did treat them a little more roughly, tents of the lafter found of Trumpet he told them, That fecond Continuing in their Robellion did but chafe, summors. Reat the Spirit of the Captains, and that they resolved to make a Conquest of Mansoul, als, their bones before the Town Walls.

Manfoul as to yielding was not yet all of Manfoul mind, therefore they still lay distressed un- in distress.

Third'y,

The con- Thirdly, He went again the third time, 1 3. tents of the dealt with them yet more roughly; telling to third fum- them, That now, since they had been so bor libes. mons.

prophane, he did not know, not certainly a met whether the Captains were inclining to mere is judgment, only, said he, they commanded in file.

give you a summons to open the Gates unto the abec.

So he returned, and went into the Camp.

These three summons, and especially their star.

The Town last, did so distress the Town that they founds for fently call a consultation, the result of w. The party. was this, That my Lord will be will should be up to Eargate, and there with sound of To we pet, call to the Captains of the Camp h Capta parly. Well, the Lord PVillbewill for offer upon the Wall, so the Captains came upon their Harness with their ten thousands are by the feet. The Townsmen then told the Capa trees that they had heard and considered their tants mons, and would come to an agreement your They pro- them, and with their King Shaddii, upon cant found con- certain Terms, Articles, and Proposition ditions of with and by the order of their Prince, the King agreement, them, were appointed to propound. To they would agree upon these grounds to one people with them.

1. If that the officer own company, as the nom Lord Mayor, was the first their own company, as the nom Lord Mayor, was the first Mr. Forgetgood, with their brave my had will be will might under Shaddai he shadan Willbewill, might under Shaddai be ftil lang

'do

Governours of the Town, Castle, and Gar !I Mansoul. 2. Provided that no man the my Proposition Mansoul. the second. serveth under their great Gyant Diabolu fals ferveth under their great Gyant Diabout by Shaddai cast out of bouse, barbor, or the of a dom that he bath hitherto enjoyed in the sada pre-Town of Manfoul.

ne, 1 3. Test it Shall be granted them, that they of ling town of Manfoul shall enjoy certain of their bon ights, and priviledges: To wit, such as have ly a merly been granted them; and that they have mere mg lived in the enjoyment of, under the Reign of mf their King Diabolus, that now is and long to the wheen their on y Lord, and great defender.

4. That no new Law, Officer, or Executioner Proposition the flaw or Office, shall have any power over the fourts ney be, without their own choice and consent.

f w These be our Propositions, or conditions ent tants of the Town of Mansoul, when I heard ges his ent your Trumpet sound for a Parley with us, I answer can truly say, I was glad; but when you said tion you were willing to submit your selves to our, the king and Lord, then I was yet more glad:

To But when by your silly provisoes, and is a soulish cavils, you lay the stumbling block th ofyour inquity before your own faces ; then was my gladness turned into forrows, and we my hopeful beginnings of your return, into hanguithing, fainting fears.

Gas ! I count, that old Ilpanfe, the ancient enemy of Marsoul, did draw up those propoola 'fals that now you present us with, as terms the of an agreement, but they deserve not to be pretends to have service for shadiai. We do therefore joyntly, and that with the highest highest disdain, refuse, and reject such the not of h

cause

is fo

hiew

rord

the

eir M

CI

vaite

they

as C

ment f

Lucre

ole c le C

md 1

w, h

H M

1b) 1

set fo

146 bone

of 1

Depu

ions

upe

ll any

le th

No

w, 25

wher

Hate.

Wit

as the greatest of iniquities. But O foul, if you will give your felves into hands or rather into the hands of our and will truft him to make fuch terms and for you, as shall seem good in his . (and I dare fay they shall be such as fhill find to be most profitable to you / we will receive you, and be at peace you : But if you like not to trust your f in the arms of Shaddai our King, then the are but where they were before, and well also what we have to do. Then cryed old Incredulity the Lord Mayor, and And who, being out of the hands of Enemies, as ye fee we are now, will b foolish as to put the staff out of their own! into the hand of they know not who? my pare will never yield to fo unlimit proposition. Do we know the manner temper of their King? 'Tis faid by f that he will be angry with his Subject but the breadth of an hair they chance to out of the way: And fo others, that he quireth of thein much more than they can Wherefore it feems O Manfoul, to thy wisdom, to take good heed what thou in this matter. For if you once yield, give up your selves to another, and so are no more your own. Wherefore to up your selves to an unlimited power, it greatest folly in the world. For now indeed may repent; but can never justly But do you indeed know, when are his, which of you he will kill.and w of you he will fave alive? Or whether 5 gr Old Incredulity's reply.

Unbelief never is profitable in talk, but always speaks mischicuoufly nor cut off every one of us, and fend of his own country another new people, cause them to inhabit this Town.

freech of the Lord Mayor, undid all, Tois speech wited for his return; for he had heard new flat to the ground their hopes of undid all. they had been at their points. So when as come into the Chamber of State, as faluted him with, Welcome My Lord: matters betwint you to day? So the Incrednlity ( with a low congy) told him the Captains of Shaddai, and thus and in w, he was very glad to hear it, and faid, er d Mayor, my fatthful Incredulity, I have the fidelity above ten times fid I. The which when twas told to pet found thee falfe. I do promise thee, to rub over this bruut, to prejer to be Lord he of bonour, a place far better than to be Lord and of Mansoul. I will make thee my Unito Deputy, and thou Sha't, next to me, have ou wions under thy band; yea, and thou shalt d, all any of our Vassals walk more at liberty, upon them that they may not resilt thee; to fe that shall be content to walk in thy www. as if he had obtained a favour inwherefore to his habitation he goes in late, and thinks to feed himself well with hopes, until the time came the 5 greatness shall be enlarged. wherefore to his habitation he goes in

3

cd

be Un. erstanding red Conscienebegin torebubbub.

But now, though the Lord Mayor and but the brave Captains put Manfoul into a sile tiny. For while Old Incredulity went into Caffle to congratulate his Lord with what Lord Understanding, and the old Recorder of Conscience, getting intelligence of what his passed at Ear-gate ( for you must know they might not be suffered by ceive con- lest they should then have mutinied, for all vision, Captains) But, I say, they got intelliged, and they set what had passed there, and were much a combession cerned therewith) wherefore they, go down Some of the Town together, began to M conte them with the reasonableness of the noble fuct tains lemands, and with the bad consequent that would follow upon the speech of old local th lity, the Lord Mayor: To wit, how little verence he shewed therein, either to the tains, or to their King; also how he i citly charged them with unfaithfulnels, treachery : For what less, quoth they, be made of his words, when he faid he not yield to their propositions; and moreover a supposition, that he would de us, when before he had fent us wordth would shew us mercy. The multitude now possessed with the conviction of the that old Incredulity had done, began to together by companies in all places, every corner of the Streets of Minfout A muticy first they began to mutter, then to talk o inManfoul and after that they run to and fro, and as they run, O the brave Captains of Sh

t ri

ains

fult

Con

our o nded by n

aten

2 7i

have

lew

afe

in I

I

the

ion

d pour were under the Government of the Cappull and of Shaddai their King. When the nto a uproar, down he comes to appeale the hat and thought to have quashed their with the bigness and the shew of his mance. But when they saw him, they hat him a mischief, had he not betaken himow to house. However they strongly affaultde le house where he was, to have pulled it for a about his ears; but the place was too llie a fo they failed of that, So he taking ch courage addreffed, himself, out at a ge dow, to the people in this manner.

s fo

wit. der

Inc

dth

deb

the n ti

, 2

s fout k o

and

Sh

ble C fuch an uproar to day ? Und. Then an- lity feeks ' jequard My Lord Understanding : It is even be- to quiet the that thou and thy Master have carried people. My little or rightly, and as you should, to the Lord Unthe rains of shaddai; for in three things you derstande is faulty, First, in that you would not let ing anels, Conscience and my self be at the hearing swers him. y, c our discourse. Secondly, In that you prohe worded fuch terms of peace, to the Captains, d a by no means could be granted, unless they id de intended that their Skaddai, should have been Titular and Prince, that Manfoul should have had power by Law, to have lived lewdness and vapity before him, and so sasequence Diabolus should still here be in power, and the other only King in

Thirdly, for that thou didft thy felf, the Captains had shewed us upon what ions they would have received us to even undo all again with thy unfavory

and

and unscasonable, and ungodly speech.

Incred. When old Incredulity had heard speech, he eried out, Treason, Treason. To Arms, to your Arms, Oye, the trusty friend Diabolus in Mansonl. Und. 'Sir, you 'put upon my words, what meaning you ple but I am sure that the Captains of such 'high Lord as theirs is, deserved a he treatment at your hands. Incred. Theo old Incredulity, Tois is but little hetter. But quoib ke; what I spake, I spake for my Prince his Government, and the quieting of the purbom by your unlawfull actions, you have this do not mutiny against us.

comiting against us.

Cons. 'Then replied the old Recorder, who have was Mr. Conscience, and said, Sir, ought not thus to retort upon what my law that he hath spoken the truth, and that are an enemy to Mansoul, be convinced

2

be

M b

1012

Lor

tlem

ions

Dif

484

Town

hen

ent,

low 1

Ma

hat

in I

cam

CO

of the evil of your faucy and malepert guage, and of the grief that you have put Captains to; yea, and of the damages you have done to Mansoul thereby.

• you accepted of the conditions, the foun • the Trumpet, and the alarm of War had • ceased about the Town of Mansoul; but • dread ful found abides, and your want of • dom in your speech has been the cause of

'Incred. Then said old Incredulity: Si I live I will do your errand to Diabelus, there you shall have an answer to your wo Mean while we will seek the good of the To and not ask Counsel of you. Understand your prince and you are both Foreigne Mansoul, and not the Natives thereof.

can tell but that when you have brought into greater straits (when you also shall that your felves can be fafe by no other ans than by flight ) you may leave us and fefer your felves, or fee us on fire, and go y in the smoak, or by the light of our ming, and so leave us in our ruins.

di

0 end

u pk

ich be a

344 HC

pen de

Γ, ly t

end

at

ed I

ert

put es

OHD

nade

out

of

of

lus,

r W

e T

nd. gue

red. 'Sir, you forget that you are under overnor, and that you ought to demean rfelf like a subject; and know ye, when Lord the King shall hear of this days the will give you but little thanks for r labour. Now while these Gentlewere thus in their chiding words, down sfrom the Walls and Gates of the Town Lord VVillbemill, Mr. Prejudice, Old Ill- Men of , and several of the new made Aldermen Arms come Burgeffer, and they asked the reason of down. hubbub, and tumult. And with that every began to tell his own tale; fo that nothing d be heard distinctly: Then was a filence manded, and the old Fox Incredulity began, Lord, quoth he, bere-are a couple of peevi;b nlemen, that have, as a fruit of their had diftions, and as I fear, through the advice of one Discontent, tumultuoufly gathered this Comagainst me this day; and a'fo attempted to run Town into alls of kebel ion against our Prince. hen flood up all the Diatolians that were A great fat, and : firmed thefe things to be true. Now when they that took part with my Lord mlanding, and with Mr. Conscience, perceithat they were like to come to the worst, the force and power was on the other fide; came in for their help and relief : fo a company was on both fides. Thus the confusion.

bicker-

ATTACK OF THE STATE OF THE STAT

They fall from words sa blows.

bickerment went a while; at the lev pane from words to blows, and now mere were knocks on both fides. The good old Gentle man, Mr. Conscience, was knock down twice by one of the Diabolonians, whose name was Mr. Benumming, and my Lord Under flanding he like to have been flain with an Har quebus, he that he that shot wanted to take his aim arigh Nor did the other fide wholly escape, for the was one Mr. Rafbead, a Diabolonian, that he his brains beaten out by Mr. Mind, the La Willbewills fervant; and it made me laugh fee how old Mr. Prejudice was kicked and a bled about in the dirt. Much harm more done on both fides, but this must not befi gotten; it was now a wonder to fee My L VVillbewitt so indifferent as he was; he did feem to take one file more than another, o it was perceived that he smiled to see how lon

10

RL

ber

or

FI

fac

de

fee

11

Harm done on horb fides.

The two old Gentlemen ion as the authors of this revelrout.

Prejudice was tumbled up and down in thed Now when the uprozi was over, Did fends for My Lord Under standing, and Mr. C put in pri- science, and claps them both up in prison as ringleaders and managers of this most he riotous Rout in Manfoul. So now the To began to be quiet again, and the prisoners w used hardly, yea, he thought to have m them away, but that the present juncture not serve for that purpose: For that War in all their Gates. But let us return agai our flory: The Captains when they were back from the Gate, and were come into Camp again, called a Council of War, confult what was further for them to do. some faid, let us go up presently and fall and confult the Town; but the greatest part thought to

The Captains call a Council tobat 10 do.

The

h

L

gh

tim

ev

e fi

Lo

W

cdi

146

. 6

125

he

To

'S W

m

re

ari

921 re g

nto

21, 1

L I

would be, to give them another fumto vield and the reason why they ght this to be beft, was, because, that fo as could be perceived, the Town of Mannow, was more inclinable than heretofore. Therefore to this advice they agreed, and The refult da Trumpeter, put words into his mouth, is, they fent lim his time, and bid him God speed Well, another hours were not expired before the Trum- Tru freter raddreffed himfelf to his journey. Where- to fummen coming up to the Wall of the Town, he the Town with his course to Eargase; and there found - to yield. as he was commanded. They then that area and within, came out to fee what was the er, and the Trumpeter made then this following. O bard-bearted and deplos The fum-Town of Manfoul, bow long with then love mons it fal, finful simplicity, and ye fools delight in felf. (corning? As yet despile you the offers of and deliverance ? As yet will ye refuse the toffers of Shaddai, and trult to the lies and ds of Diabolus? Think you when Shaddai: we conquered you, that the remembrance of your carriages towards bim, will yield your and comfort? Can you flop the Sun from g bis course, and binder the Moon from ber light? Can you count the number of the or flay the bottles of beaven? Can you call PVaters of the Sea, and cause them to coface of the ground? Can you behold every tis proud, and absse bim? And bind their efecret? Yettbese are some of the works of g, in whose name, this day, we come up unto n you may be brought under his authority. ame therefore I fummons you again, to your selves to his Captains. fummons

The Town at a ftand.

Diabolus makes a and indeavours to terrifie it with the greatness of God.

He drives Manfoul into defpair.

Manfoul grow worse and werfe.

fummons the Mansoulians seemed to be are stand, and knew not what answer to make Wherefore Diabolus forthwith appeared, and took upon him to do it, himself; and thus he begins, but turns his speech to them of Men foul. Gentlemen, quotb be, and my faithful Sul jedts, if it is true that the Summoner bath fail makes a concerning the greatness of their King, by bistor speech to ror you will always be kept in bondage, and job the Town, made to sneat. Tea, and bow can you now, then be is at a distance, indure to think of such a migh one? And if not to think of bim, while at a b flance, bow can you endure to be in bis prefent 1, your prince, am familliar with you, antimay play with me, as you would with a Grafs-h per. Confiler therefore, what is for your m and remember the immunities that I have gra you. Farther , if all be true that this man faid, bow comes it io pass that the Subjects of Sh dai are so instaved in all places where they can None in the Universe so unbappy as they, mos trampled upon as they. Upon this speech, Town of Minfoul did again harden their he yet more, against the Captains of shi The thoughts of his greatness did quite qui them, and the thoughts of his holinels, them in despair. Wnerefore after a short fult they (of the Diabolian party they were) M 10 back this word by the Trumpeter, The Majefti their paris, they were resolved to stick to more j King, but never to yield to Shaddai : So it wa in vain to give them any further fumments confen they had rather dye npon the place, than forthw And now things feemed to be gone quite the Po and Minfoul to be out of reach, or call ; yo Captains who knew What their Lord coul Plorio the bu

hat

io de

And

ter

pta

ninic

fli

ala

as do

ris.

Patio

the

ne f

ulof

loble

s ter

A.

ake leveld not yet be beat out of heart : they thereand fere fend them another fummons, more sharp us he offerere than the laft; but the oftener they Man present to to reconcile to Shaedai, the fur-sul profithey were. As they called them, so they Hofe 17 2. most high. So they ceased that way to The Capfabre all with them any more, and inclined to tanis leaved ink of another way. "The Captains there off to funding for did gather themselves together, to have mons, and the conference among themselves, to know betake al with them any more, and inclined to tanis leave of another way. 'The Captains there off to fontthat was yet to be done to gain the Town, and themjeives that was yet to be done to gain the Town, and themselves to deliver it from the Tyrapny of Diabolus: to prayer.

And one said after this manner, and another that. Then stood up the right noble, the optain Convision, and said, My brethren, mine pinion is this. First, That we continually play things into the Town, and keep it in a continually play com a alarm, molesting of them day and night; by on the doing we foall ftoy the growth of their rampant his. For a Lion may be tamed by continual mo-mulation. Secondly, This done, I advise that in the next place we with one consent draw up a Pe-I will to our Lord Shaddai, by which, after we have hewed our King the condition of Maufoul. to me hewed our King the condition of Mausoul, www better success; we will earnestly implore bis Maefties belp, and that be will please to send us nore force and power. To this Speech of the Noble Captain Convillion, they, as one man, confented, and agreed that a Petition should forhwith be drawn up, and fent by a fit man, way to Shaddai with speed. The contents of the Petition were thus. Most gracious, and glorious King, the Lord of the best world, and plorious King, the Lord of the best world, and the builder of the Town of Masjoul We have, 'dread dread Soveraign, at thy commandment, me het our lives in Jeopardy; and at thy bidding ca 'made a War upon the famous Town a nen f Manfoul. When we went up against it, was or did according to our Commission, first of the conditions of peace unto it. But they, Green Mat . 22'5. King, set light by our Counsel, and work once none of our reproof: They were for the Prov. Y. Zecb. 7.10 ting of their Gates, and for keeping us or no 11, 12,13.

gf.

fo

· of the Town.

Diabolus, Incredulity, and Willbewill, on the the great doers against us; now we are in an with Winter quarters, but so as that we do yet with a the bigh hand molest, and distress the Town. Once, Miles we think, and we had but one substantial friend print the Town, such as would but have second the sound of our summons, as they ought, which people might have yielded themselves: But the suit were some but Enemies there, nor any to see the Wo in behalf of our Lord. Now King of King hile. Let it please thee to pardon the unsuccessfulness out in the servants, who have been no more advantages to the in so desirable a work, as the conquering of Man Is por foul is: And send, Lord, as we now desire, we be forces to Manfoul, that it may be subdet in the 100 and a man to bead them, that the Town may b with th love and fear. The Petition thus drawn this Petits was fent away with haft to the King, by

Who caried on.

vered.

hand of that good man, Mr. Love to Mos To whom it When this Petition was come to the Pal was deli- of the King, who should it be delivered wered. but to the Kings Son. So he took it and it, and because the Contents of it ple you him well, he mended, and also in some this week added to the Petition himfelf. So after had made fuch amendments and addition with the hethought convenient, with his own hand, carried it in to the King: To whom he had with obeyfance delivered it, he The King on authority, and spake to it himself, receives is the King, at the light of the Petition with glad-glad. Wherefore the King called to him ness. and his Son, who laid, here am I, my Fa- The King

Then faid the King, thou knowell, as calls his my felf, the condition of the Town of son, and mout, and what we have surposed, and tell's bim it thou hait done to redeem it. Come that be wherefore my Son, and prepare thy felf shall go to Manjout. Thou bait also there prosper, Tonn of prevail, and conquer the Town of Man-Manfoul. Then faid the Kings Son: Thy Law is and he is

Then laid the kings son.

I delight to do thy will, pleased at longed for, and it. is the day that I have longed for, and it. Work that I have waited for all this Heb. 10. Grant me therefore what force thou in the wildom think meet, and I will ceth himand will deliver from Diabolus, and from felf in the power, thy perishing Town of Mansoul. thoughts of neart has been often pained within me, this work. the miserable Town of Mansoul. But tis rejoyced, but now tis glad; and hithat he leaped over the Mountains for When the Kings Son had faid to his Father, it presently flew like lightfound about at Court: Yea, it there me the only talk, what Eminuel was to to do for the famous Town of Mansoul. you cannot think how the Courtiers too, taken with this defign of the Prince. to affected were they with this work, and on this the justness of the War, that the high-design.

The bigbelt Peer in the Kingdom covets to go eft Lord, and greatest Peer of the Kingde did covet to have Commissions under & nuel, to go to help to recover again Shaddai, the miserable Town of Manfoul Then was it concluded that some show go and carry tidings to the Camp, the Emanuel was to come to recover Manfoal. that he would bring along with him mighty, so impregnable a force, that he co not be refisted. But oh, how ready the high ones at Court to run like Lacq to carry these tidings to the Camp, that Now the Captains Mansoul. joyced that the King would fend Emernel Son, and it also delighted the Son be fent on this errand by the great sh his Father. Well, you fee how I have you that the Kings Son was ingaged to o from the Court to fave Manfoul, and that father had made him the Captain of forces : The time therefore of his fetting h being now expired, he addressed himself his march, and taketh with him for his por five Noble Captains, and their forces.

The Prince addre ∬es bimfelt for bis Hoursey.

1. The first was that famous Captain, Fob 1. 29 Eph. 6.16. Noble Captain Credence, his were the colours; and Mr. Promife bare them: for a Scutcheon, he had the Holy Lamb, Golden Shield. And he had ten thousand at his feet. 2. The fecond was that fai Deb. 6.19. Captain, the Captain Good-bope, his were Blew Colours: His Standard-Bearer was Expediation; and for a Scutcheon he had Three Golden Anchors. And he had tent fand men at his feet. 3. The third

2.Cor. 13, tain was the Valiant Captain, the Ca itch

ped

2 callan

Sta

e th

had

of the

l, t

arer lick ( ne J en i w el

terec

die C

Le Ca

appe

re alf

made

ng sh

the !

they

e Tor

or Ca

th ma

go to

I shey

IL W

w fore

Bout

tafou!,

His Standard Bearer was Mr. Pi iful. Be were the Green Colours; and for his in autheon, he had three naked Orphans imthe Commander, the Captain Innocent: Mat. 10 16

Standard-Bearer was Mr. Harmless; his methe White Colcurs, and for his Sutcheon that the three Golden Doves. 5. The fifth me is the truly Loyal, and well beloved Capque in, the Captain Patience: His Standard. herer was Mr. Suffer-long, his were the Buck Colours; and for a Scutcheon, he had the Arrows through the Golden Heart. But then they set out for their march, Oh why the Trumpet. sounded, their Armor the Trumpets Tourseed, their Armor waved in the count. The Princes Armour was all of Gold, at a it though like the Sun in the Firm ment. appearance like the glittering Stars. There march. The Captains Armor was of proof, and was Their amades, for the love that they had to the Ing Shaddai, and for the happy deliverance the Town of Bangous. So than a League of they came within less than a League of the Town of Manfout. So they marched. Town: And there they lay till the first. or Captains came thither, to acquaint him makers Then they took their Journey, The for ces og to the Town of Mansoui, and unto Mansonia in they came, but when the old Souldiers joyned with were in the Camp faw that they had rejoycing. forces to joyn with, they again gave such hour before the Walls of the Town of fufou!, that it put Diabolus into another the So they fat down before the Town, not row as the other four Captains did, ere quit, against the Gates of Manfout only; it did they invironed it round on every fide, and Manbolet it behind and before, so that now make Manfaul look which way it will, it faw for the and power lie in Siege against it Best fuld Mounts gainft it.

beleaguer- there were mounts cast up against it. Fir i Mount Justice was on the other. Farth fretwo east up a- ground, as Plain truth bill, and No sin-bin sore the Town. Upon Mount Gracious Were plan Prince. ed four, and upon Mount Justice were plant me Re. as many; and the rest were convenien softice. placed in feveral parts round about the Tom ear, Five of the best Battering Rams, that is of an Furn. biggest of them, were placed upon Mor methe Hearben, a Mount cast up hard by Eargan other. with intent to break that open. Now white With the men of the Town saw the multitude to did the Souldiers that were come up against a pa he place, and the Rams and Sling, and the Monte com on which they were planted; together we has o of their Colours: they were forced to this at To and fhift, and again to fhift their though Majeut The heart but they hardly changed for thoughts me lit wh of Mansoul stout, but rather for thoughts more tan for Ju-fail.

fufficiently guarded; yet now they began the think that no man knew what would be in the The White hap or lot. When the good Prince Final lova of Flag lung had thus beleaguered Manfoul: In the first photographic he hangs out the White Flag, which he can win fr e d to be fet up among the Golden flingst like io id, were planted upon Mount Gracicus. And this de did for two reasons; 1. To give notice ow melous if they turned to him. 2. And that he for the leave them the more without excuse, selled all he destroy them, they continuing in en rebellion, So the White Flag, with the ribertwo days together, to give them time and and fice to confider. But they, as was hinted gin o reply to the favourable Signal of the plan Prince. Then he commanded, and they fet Tle Red on the Red Flag, upon that Mount called Mount Flag bung thice. 'Twas the Red Flag of Captain Judg out. for neurace. And this also stood waving beon brethem in the wind, for several days to-White Flag, when that was hanged out, the he took no advantage of them. Then F'ag bung the commanded again that his fervants would out. in ling out the Black Flag of defiance against. whole Scutcheon was the three Burn-Tounder-bolts. But as unconcerned was In when the Prince faw that neither mercy or Judgment, nor execution of Judgment, He was touched with much compunction, Que furely this strange carriage of the of manfoul, doth rather arife from ig-Doce of the manner and feats of War, from a feeret defiance of us, and abhorcol their own lives. Or if they know the

the manner of the War of their own; arthough the manner of the War of the War of the War on the War of the War on the War of the War on the War and was the which we are concerned, when I make War and Worlddoes. upon mine enemy Diabolus. Therefore he keep Men to the Town of Manfoul, to let them know kt what he ment by those figns and Ceremonia To of the Flag, and also to know of them whith percol of the things they will chuse, whether Guel, Land Mercy, or Judgmert, and the Execute is art of judgment. The Towns men made anter fe at to the Prince's messenger, in substance, is not necording to that which follows. Great in the

The Townsfolks an-Swer.

As to what, by your meffenger you have signifunts; to us, Wether me will accept of your mercy, and fall by your Justice, we are bound by the Lumin melan Custome of this place, and can give you no posses unfoul For it is against the Law, Governmen street the and the Prerogative Roya' of our King, to make m fi either Peace or VVar without him But this wate the will do, we will petition that our Prince will con offe in down to the Wall, and there give you such treame fir ment as be shall think fit, and profitable for When the good Prince Emanue! heard in

m mc, answer, and faw the Slavery and Bondage the people, and how much content they wer trably. erioved at to abide in the Chains of the Tyrant Diale the folly of lus : It grieved him at the heart. And i Mehe c deed, when at any time he perceived the any were contented under the Slavery of the the ha Gyant, he would be affected with it.

art

no in

mguag

de lan

W ns ) hew flood

hat

But to return again to our purpofe. A ter the Town had carried this News to Di bolus, and had told him moreover, that the Prince that lay in the Leaguer, without Wall, waited upon them for an answer: I refused, and huffed as well as he could, but Diabolus sfraid.

Emanuel

Manfoul.

the was afraid. Then said he, I will go to onto the Gates my selt, and give him such an answer as I think sit. So he went down to neuth-gate, and there add ressed himself to west to Emanuel (but in such languige as Town understood not ) the Contents His speech the contents were as follow o thou great 1 ma- to the world, Lord of all the world, I know thee, that Prince we are the Son of the great Shaddai! Where-we have thou come to comment me, and to cast me to sof my prsfession? This Town of Mansoul, as sit, in very well knowest, is mine, by a twose d fully 1 1. by right of Conquest, I won it in the open And Stall the prey be taken from the mighty. in melanful Captive to deli ered? 1 This Town of in unfoul is mine a fo by their subjection. They have en saed the Gates of their Town unto me. They have on filelity to me, and have openly chosen me the their King. They have also given their Hert. This Oration was made in the an aguage of D'abolus himself. For altho he ha to every man, speak in their own language, the has a language proper to himfelf, and it Melanguage of the infernal cave, or black Wherefore the Town of Mansoul (poor mans) understood him not, not did they hew he crouched, and cringed, while the flood before Emanuel their Prince. It is they all this while took him to be one that hat power and force, that by no means be refifted. Wherefore while he was thus thus intreating that he might have yet and residence there, and that Emanuel would a serve it from him by force: The inhabitant boafted even of his valour, faying ,who is any to make war with him. Well, when this protected King had made an end of what he would fay: Emanuel, the Golden Prince, stood and and spake: the Contents of whose works follow. Thou deceiving one, jaid be, I have in my Fathers name, in mine own name, and on the behalf, and for the good of the out · wretched Town of Manfoul, somewhat to friend right to the deplorable Town of Manja fine when it is most apparent to all my Fathe and s Court, that the entrance which thou he conte obtained in at the gates of Mansoul, which through thy lies & falschood, Thou belief wiff my Father, thou beliedst his Law, and so a As ceivedst the people of Mansoul. Thou par minst tendest that the people have accepted the image for their King, their Captain, and right thy Liege-Lord, but that also was by the exercise Manson of deceit and guile. Now if lying, willian adoubt 'sinful crast and all manner of horrible he digen pocrisse, will go in my Fathers Court (suchen which Court thou must be tryed) for equal mile to and right, then will I confessunto thee, the First, thou hast made a lawful conquest. Butala lill are What thief, what tyrant, what Devil is the blace that may not conquer after this fort! he built I can make it appear, O Diabolus, that the Manferin all thy pretences to a conquest of Manferth by the behalf nothing of truth to say. Thinkest the truth the thinkest the truth the truth of the truth supon my Eather, and madeft him (to Mula 108a of et in the greatest deluder in the World. And what itan the right purport and intent of the Law? s prof the innocency and simplicity of the now wor is frable Town of Mansoul? Yea, thou didst od rercome Manfoul by promiting to them won appiness in their transgressions, against my I have there Law, when thou knewest, and could, and not but know, hadst thou consulted the othing but thine own experience, that that tof was the way to undo them. Thou hast also laws by self (O! Thou Master of enmity) of angul fine defaced my Fathers image in Mansout, athe und fet up thy own in its place, to the great h intempt of my Father, the heightning of whise, and to the intolerable damage of the eliminary form of Mansoul.

To be As for my felf. O Diabolus, I am come a.

up minst thee by lawful power, and to take by right thy burning fingers. For this Town of terca Manfoul is mine, O Diabolus, and that by line bedoubted right, as all shall see that will le be digently search the most ancient and most re ( mthentick Records, and I will plead my equi file to it, to the consustion of thy face.

the Fift, for the Town of Minsoul, my Father als fall and did fashion it with his hand. The the blace also that is in midst of that Town, I he built it for his own delight. This Town the Mansoul therefore is my Fathers, and that the of titles: And he that gainfays.

the the truth of this, must lie against his soul.

he seconds, O thou Master of the lie; this I. For that I Heb. Is 20.

```
The Boly War.
Joh. 16 15. am my Fathers heir, his first-born, and only delight of his heart. I am therefor come up against thee in mine own right, & even to recover mine own inheritance out thine hand. 2. But further, 25 I have right and title to ... arfoul, by being my !
          thers heir, fo I have also by my Fathers de Joh. 17.
          nation. His it was, and he gave it me; m have Lat any time offended my Father th he should take it from me, and give it to the Nor have I been forced by playing the Bine Ifa. 50. 1. rupt to fell, or fet to fale thee, my belon Town of Manfoul. Manicu is my define my delight, and the j v of my heart. But, der 3. " Manforl is mine by right of purchit forh have bought it (O Diabo us) I have bough it to my ielf. Now fince it was my Fathe and mine, as I was his heir, and fince aleten have made it mine by ver ue of a great p · chase; it followeth, that by all lawful ne the Town of danfou is mine, and that it art an Usurper, a Tyrant ard I raytor int holding Possession thereof. Now the co of my purchaing of it was this : Man n b
```

V K

er c

lord.

nt h ven

line

leftry

ind it on, bu

Mit a

felf w

Erren

had trespassed against my Father, now Fither had faid, That in the day that the broke his Law, they should die. Now it Mat. 5. 18 'more possible for Heaven and Farth to a away, than for my Father to break his won . Wherefore when Minfoul had finned inde · by hearkning to thy lye, I put in and because a furety to my Father, body for body, · foul for foul, that I would make amends

O fweet Manfoul's transgressions; and my Fat Prince did accept thereof. So when the time Emanuel ! pointed was come, I gave body for bo

« my

d de fal for foul, life for life, blood for blood, reform of o redeemed my beloved Minfoul.

ht, a. Nor did I do this to the halves, my Fiout bors Law and Justice that were both conhave mied in the threatning apon transgression, my Berg both now satisfied, and very well con-ers described Mansoul should be delivered.

r the by commandment of my Father; 'twas the that faid unto me, Go down and deliver Batte Mafont. Wherefore be it known unto close see (O thou fountain of deceit) and be it define all known to the foolish Town of Manfoul, But, but I am not come against thee this day all whole my Father. And now (faid the out Colden-headed Prince) I have a word to attend Town of Manfoul (but fo foon as mention also made that he had a word to speak to the ne placed Town of Manfoul, the Gates were not the guarded, and all men commanded not the guarded, and all men proceeded, and the guarded has a sudjence) to he proceeded, and O unhappy I own of Manfoul, I cannot cas har be touched with pity and compassion for Mail the. Thou haft accepted of Diaboius for king, and are become a Nurse and Miniat of Diabolonians against thy Soveraign lard. Thy Gates thou haft opened to him, bit half thut them fall against me; thou hast fiven him a hearing, but haft stope inde thine ears at my cry; he brought to thee thy Minicion, and thou didft receive both him mait: I am come to thee bringing Salvatim, but thou regardest me not ; befides thou lift as with Sacrilegious hands taken thy fif with all that was mine in thee, and halt giren all to my foc, and to the greatest ene-

int

W

t the

WIL O P2

Work

eca

7.

ads I

Fath

ne H

69 ne :

SC

ias

slit se

DWI

in eali

cea

7 0

oge al

ofici Wi

den

erra

12 gre

So

Inte

my my Father has. You have bowed and ejected your felves to him, you have vowed fworn your felves to be his. Poor Mann what shall I do unto thee? shall I save the shall I destroy thee ? What shall I do unto the shall I fall upon thee and grind thee to pow or make thee'a monument of the richeft gra What hall I do unto thee Hearken to my w and thou shale live. I'am merciful, Manfoul thou shalt find me so; thut me, not out at Gates. My Commission indeed is to make a war Diabolus the King for be is the frong man in that keeps the toufe, and I will bave blm out Spoiles & muft divide, bis armour I mift take bim, his hold I must east him out of, an imult it an habitation for my felf. And this, O Mid shait Diabolus know; when he shalt be made to tow me in chains, and when Manfoul Stall ie 30 fee it for ... All my words are true, mighty to fave, and will deliver my Manfoul's bis hand. This forech was intended chief Manfoul, but Manfoul would not have the h ing of it. They that up Exr-gare, they ricado'd it up, they kept it lockt and bou they for a guard thereat, and commanded no Manfoulonian should go out to him, not any from the Camp should be admitted into Town; all this they did, fo horribly had bolus inchanted them to do, and feek to do him, against their rightful Lord and Pol wherefore no man, nor voice, nor for man that belonged to the glorious Holt, come into the Town . So when E faw that Manfoul was thus involved in in calls his Army together (fince now all words were despised) and gave out a comm

Emanuel prepares to make war upon Manfoul. e the oth

ÓW

 $\mathbf{r}$

 $\eta$

200

of 10

throughout all his hoft tobe ready against ne appointed. Now for asmuch as there way lawfully to take the Town of but to get in by the Gates, and at Ears the chief, therefore he commanded his ins and Commanders to bring their Rams, Slings, and their men, and place them at se and Ear-gate, in order to his taking own. When Emanuel had put all in a readiness to bid Diabolus Battel, he gala to know of the Town of Manfoul, if ceable manner they would yield themor whether they were yet resolved to in to try the utmost extremity ? They Diabolus ogether with Diabolus their King, called a fends by fisions that should be offered to Emanuel, of his ferwill accept thereof; fo they agreed; vant Mr. ten the next was, who should be fent on Loth-tobrand. Now there was in the Town of floop, and lan old man a Diatolenian, and his name by him be Mr. Lorb-to-floop. 2 stiff man in his way, propounds fent, and put into his mouth what he should of peace. So he went and came to the Camp to hel, and when he was come, a time was ne. and after a Diabo onian Ceremony or ethus began and faid, Great Sir, that it may ba unto all men how good natured a Frince Tit, 1. 16. afferis, be bath fent me to tell your Lordship their very willing rather than to go to war, to up into your bands one balf of the Town of

I am therefore to know if your mighti- Mark this. will accept of this Proposition. manuel, the whole is mine by gift and purchase.

chase, wherefore I will never lose one hall Then faid Mr. Lotht-o-floop , Sir, my Mark this bath faid, that le will be content that you he Lu. 13 25. the nominal and titular Lord of all, if be may Then Eminuel anfwe fess but a part. The whole is mine really; not in name word only: wherefore I will be the fole and poffesfor of all, or of none at all of Mark this foul. A& 5.1,2.

3,4,5.

Sir, bebold the condescention of my mafter fays that he will be content, if he may but affigned to bim fome place in Manfoul as aple live privately in, and you shall be Lord of Then faid the Go'den Prince, All the Father giveth me shall come to me ; all that he hath given me I will lofe not no not a hoof, nor a hair. I will not fore grant him, no not the least corner in fout to dwell in, I will have all to my fell

Then Mr. Lotb-to-floop faid

Then Lorb-to-floop faid again, But, Jin pose that my Lord should resign the whole Tours you, only with this provifo, that be for when be comes into this Country, may for quaintanc fabe be entertained as a majman for two dayes, or ten days or a month, 2 Sam. 12. 1,2,3,4,5.

Merkthis.

may not this [mall matter be granted ? Then said Emanue No. He came Way faring man to Daid, nor did he fly with him, and yet it had like to have David his foul. I will not content that he should have any harbour more there. of, no Sins and carnal lufts.

Then faid Mr. Loth-to-floop, Sir, you kind, be very bard. Suppose my master should yield with that your Lordship bath said, provided in said friends and kindred in Mansoul may have wille to trade in the Town, and to enjoy ther !!

Tte.

be lis le

end

cb

frie

Ox me s

trion

7 70

u fo

1943 pfwc

ame

ole I of I

d az

ler !

but

4 91

of a

A111

pot

Ot #

in A

Cell Jin

10 ne II

flay

may not that be granted, Sir ? Emanuel , No; that is contrary to Rom 6.13. thers will ; for all, and all manner of Col. 3. 5. miss that now are, and that at any time Gal. 5.24. be found in Marfout, thall not only lose inds and liberties, but also their lives. a faid Mr. Loth-to-ftoop again, But, Sir. Mark this. my master, and great Lord, by Letters, by Joh. 10.8. maintain, if be shall deliver up all unto thee, ind of old friendfhip with Manfoul.

mel answered, No, by no means; for ch as any fuch fellowship, friendship, ineyor acquaintance, in what way, fort or foever maintained, will tend to the coron from me, and the endangering of their afwith my Fither. Mr. Loath to-floop udded further, faying, But great Sir, Since suffer bath many friends, and those that are Mirk the bin in Mansoul, may be not, if he shall Rom 6.1; t from them, even of his bounty and good na- 13. come bestow upon them, as he sees fit, some tokens bilove and bindness, that he bad for them, to ay mathe Mansoul, when he is gone, may look uph, which tobens of bindacf, once received from their friend, and remember bim who was once their and the merry times that they sometimes en-More with another, while be and they lived in the defeat come to be mine, I shall not admic of nor confent that there should be the least a mp, shred, or dust of Diabolus lefe behind, distributions or gifts bestowed upon any in Manelfible communion that was betwixt them and him.

him. Well Sir, faid Mr. Loth-to-floep, one thing more to propound, and then I am ga

Mark this end of my committon: suppose that token my 2. King 1 is gone from Mansoul, any that yet shall live 3.6, 7. Town, shall have such business of high conce

Town, shall have such business of high concerdo, that if they be neglected the party shall be an and suppose, Sir, that no body can help in that well as my master and Lord; may not now my be sent for upon so urgent an occasion as this be may not be admitted into the Town, may not be the person concerned, meet in some of the Ville near Mansoul, and there lay their heads toget and there consult of matters. This was the of those ensuring Propositions that Mr. It to-stoop had to propound to Emanuel wo not grant it, for he said. There can be not or thing, or matter fall out in Mansoul, we thy master shall be gone, that may not be ved by my Father: besides, 'twill be a grant very suppose that may not be ved by my Father: besides, 'twill be a grant it.

old

102

E

Ih

to 4

Mr P

in bi

噩

Die

R

ion

A w

affur

the

ave

rges Capt

Q E

Sam. 28. disparagement to my Fathers wisdome and it to, admit any from Mansoul to go out to a

2. King. 1. bolus for advice, when they are bid before in every thing by prayer and supplicate to let their request be made known my Father. Further this, should it be gratted, would be to grant that a door should be set open for Diabo 1.5 and the Diabolom in Mansoul to hatch and plot and bring pass treasonable designs to the grief of Father and me, and to the utter destruction Mansoul.

When Mr. Loth-to-stoop had heard this a fwer, he took his leave of Emanuel, and parted, saying, that he would do word to master concerning this whole affair, So and came to Diabolus to Manfoul, him the whole of the matter, and. Emmuel would not admit, no not by eans, that he when he was once gone for ever have any thing more to ther in, or with any that are of the of Manfoul. When Manfou', and Diahad heard this relation of things, they one consent concluded to use their beit your to keep Emanuel out of Manfoul, and old Illpause, of whom you have heard to tell the Prince and his Captains A feech of So the old Gentleman came up to the old Ill-Eargate, and called to the Camp for a paule 10 who when they gave audience, he the Camp. Thave in commandment from my high to bid you to tell it to your Prince el. That Manfoul and their King are rejolved and fall together, and that it is in vain Prince to think of over baving of Mantabis band, unless be can take it by force. Epb. 6.17. me went and told to Emanuel what old aid the Prince, I must try the power fword, for I will not ( for all the ions and repulses that Mansoul has made ft me ) raife my fiege and depart, but affuredly take my Minfoul and deliver it They must the hand of her enemy. And with that fight, ave out a commandment that Captain Preparatirges, Captain convidion, Captain Judgment ons to the Captain Execution should forthwith march Battel. a Largue with Trumpets founding, Codying, and with shouting for the battel. he would that Captain credence should himself with them. Emanuel moreover gave give order that Captain Goodbope, an tain Charity Should draw themselves un Eye gate. He bid also that the rell Captains andtheir men should place thems for the best of their advantage again enemy round about the Town, and done as he had commanded. Then that the word should be given forth, and word was at that time, Emanuel. The an alarm founded, and the battering were plaid, and the flings did whirl flow to the Town amain, and thus the batte gan. Now Diabolus himself did manage Townsmen in the war, and that at every wherefore their refistance was the mon cible, hellish, and offensive to Emanuel was the good Prince engaged and enter ed by Diato'us and Manfout for feveral together. And a fight worth feeing to behold how the Captains of Shadh haved themselves in this w r. And fi Captain Boanerges (not-to undervalue the he made three most fierce affaults, one another upon far-gate, to the shaking Pofts thereof. Captain convidion he made up as fast with romerges as post could, and both discerning that the tim gan to yield, they commanded that the should still be played against it. Now tain convidion going up very near to the was with great force driven back, if ceived three wounds in the mouth. And that rode Reformades, they went about courage the Captains. In this Eng conviction wounded.

Boanerges p ays the M18.

Angels,

several of the Officers of Diubolus were and some of the Townsmen wounded at y nţ WIL

Cay

he .

12

G

, ru

ion C

(woi inds

600

26

he

tha

4 th

rofi

red

n

ma

Reft

216 he i

ave er t

1 2s.

gudi

ba

he

one

age

7 ore

ill in this Engagement several of the Officers Webolus were flain, and fome of the Towns- Caft in wounded. For the Officers there was leading Captain Boufing flain This Boufling thought Main. to body could have thaken the posts of ne, hor have thaken the heart of Dia-Next to him there was one Captain e firm; this Secure used to fay that the and tame in Manfoul were able to keep Gates of the Town against Emanuel's 2 Sam 5.6. deleave down the head with a two hand- Secure word, when he received himself three flain. ands in his mouth. But I never faw ible to do as he was wont, and some fay will burt. the alfo received a wound in the leg, al athat fome of the men in the Princes army that folia of the limp as he atterits me valked on the wall. Of the Town Loven-oin there was one Love-no-good, he was a good the walman, but a Diabolonian, he also re-nounded, are dis mortal wound in Mansoul, but he a not very soon. Mr. Illpause elso, who was Illpause another came along with Diabolus when wounded, lift he attempted the taking of Minfoul. allo received a grievous wound in the head: e fay that his brain pan was crackt; this have taken notice of, that he was never d had done in times pair.

d hadice, and Mr. Anjthing fled. Now when battel was over, the Prince commanded become once more the White-flig should be atas he had done in times paft. Alfo old upon mount Gracious in fight of the flag bung own of Manfout; to shew that yet Emanuel out again.

Diabolus :

had grace for the wretched Town of John foul. When Diabolus faw the White fig ham but ed out again, and knowing that it was with play another prank, to wit, to fee if Emen and would raise his siege and be gone upon po mise of a reformation. So he comes do not to the Gate one evening, a good while at with Emanuel, who presently came down the His freech the Gate, and Diabolus said unto him, is the

to Emanul. For as much as thou makest it appear by the white flag, that thou are wholly given to peace. Proquiet; I thought meet to acquaint thee, the artist are ready to accept thereof upon terms which is the maift admit. I know that thou art given to form votion, and that holiness pleases thee; year wift the they great end in making a war upon Mansoul, that it may be an holy habitation. Well to make Diabolus off thy forces from the Town, and I will bend by ple would be Deputy, mer.

mould be foul to thy bow. First, I will lay down at a mon; Emanuels of bostility again't thee, and will be willing prod become thy deputy, and will as I bave form 1 20 and be been against thee, now serve thee in the Tome and to would Mansoul. And more particularly, I. I sturf turn refor- personade Mansoul to receive thee for their Landson and I know that they wil do it the sooner and before they shall understand that I am thy deputy.

2. I will show them wherein they have end of Go and that transgression stands in the way to life. I delive

3. I will shew them the boly Law unto missing c they must conform, even that which they have broke will

4. I will press upon them the necessity of in arrel formation according to thy Law. 5. And man thou over that none of these things may fail, I mile agou must f to pla Men a sufficient Ministry, besides lecturers, Minfoul. 6. Than shalt receive as a to en nd pufubjection to thee, constnually year by year, of our subjection to thee. Then said on our subjection to the deceit, how move The said are thy ways! how often hast thou sweet. fee and rechanged, if so be thon mightest icep possession of my Mansoul, though is been plainly declared before, I am the heir thereof? Often hast thou made proposals already, nor is this last a white a per than they. And failing to deceive when 2 Cor. It. to somed thy self into an Angel of tight, and the to deceive, be now as a mini 'er of righte thou talkest now of a reformati Mansoul, and that thou thy self, if I Me please; will be at the head of that reforproficiency that man can make in the man can make in the man can make in the man and the righteousness thereof, will amount to no more for the taking away of the curse from Mansout, than jut nothing at the before upon a supposition of the breachs are the contract of the present against him the second areas and the contract of the breachs. mof, a curse pronounced against him for end of God, can never by his obeying of the fife, a deliver himself therefrom. (To say He moves himself therefrom is like to be the that rot winds ansoul, when the Devil is become nill o no arrestor of vice.) Thou know it that all good which may have he first and deceit; and is as it founds for the first, so is it the last card that thou the health to may have there be that do soon as Many there he that do soon as Many the soon as Many there he that do soon as Many the soon as to play, Many there be that do foon of Manfoul difcern Fa

hi

nt ct north

inds

00

75 120

nin k

his

2R

they

bolus

me

ants 4

ble P

nost s ng co

oces

Lib !

DE E

Tour.

Nob

the

be F

difcern thee, when thou fhewest them to cloven foot; but in thy white, thy light, will cloven foot; but in thy white, thy tigor, in thy transformation, thou art feen but of C few. But thou shalt not do thus with a w Manfoul, O Diabolus, for I do fill love Befides, I am not come to Manfoul. Manfoul upon works to live thereby, (the I do fo, I thould be like unto thee ) but! come that by me, and by what I have fhall do for Manfoul, they may to my fall be reconciled, though by their fin they be los provoked him to anger, and though by All things Law they cannot obtain mercy. talkest of subjecting of this Town to go att fent by my Father to posses it my felf ybe Manfoul. to guide it by the skilfulness of my hand to fuch a conformity to him as shall be fing in his fight. I will therefore poli my felf, I will disposses and cast thee Ca 'I will fet up mine own standard if 'midft of them: I will also governthe new Laws, new Officers, new motive new ways: Yea, I will pull down this 'and build it again, and it shall be as the , had not been, and it shall then be the of the whole Universe. When Di must be new in confounded heard this, and perceived that he wa covered in all his deceits, he was confi and utterly put to nonplus ! but have himself the fountain of iniquity, rate malice against both Shaddai and his & the beloved Town of Mansoul, what but strengthen himself what he could fresh Battel to the noble Prince Eman then, now we must have another fi hi

Town of Minfoul is taken. Diabolus therehaving withdrawn himself from the wall his force that was in the heart of the un of Manfaul, Emanuel also returned to Camp; and both of them after their diways put themselves into a posture fit to Buttel one to another. Diabolus as filled despair of retaining in his hands the ous Town of Minfaul, reloved to do . mischiefhe could. Wherefore he comds his Officers that they thould then on they fee that they could nold the Town eyh longer, do it what herm and mischief the could, renting and tearing of men, won and children. For, said he we had go merquite demolish the place, and leave it ra ruinous heap, than so leave it that it and his being made master of the place, gave of a Royal Commandment to all his Officers, Captains, and men of War, to be sure he hew themselves men of War, against belus, and all Diabolonians; but sayoura-merciful, and meek to all the old inhahew themselves men of War, against and and meek to an the old and a series of Mansoul, Bend therefore, said the ole Prince. the hottest front of the Battel must Diabolus and his men. So the day og come, the command was given, and the occs men did bravely stand to their arms; and as before, bend their main force a Earga te

bt. s

ut of ich i

syc. to

the

ut l

NC :

Fai

1E

Left Eargaie, and Eyegate. But after three broben open, four notable Charges by the Prince, and Moble Captains Largate was broken open, the bars and boles wherewith it was used le fall thur up against the Prince, w.s.

broken

01 e.

Princes Trumpets sound, the Captains soule, the Town shake, and Diabolus retreat to hen hold. Well, when the Princes forces has broken open the Gate, himself came up and which the trumpets of trumpets of the trumpets of trumpets of the trumpets of the trumpets of the trumpets of the trumpets of trumpe yet be played upon the Town, especially us gainst the castle, because for shelter the edy was Diabolus retreated. Now from En the street was streight even to the house on, Mr. Recorder that so was before Diabolus to the Town. Then did the Prince comme that Captain Bosnerges, Captain conversed and Capt. Indonen, should forthwith memby

* or fience up the Town to the old * Gentlemans Gonds, stey go Then did the Captains in most warlike hing up to the ner enter into the Town of Manson, sole Recenters marching in with flying Colours, they can up to the Recorders house, (and that was a most as strong as was the Castle) Batton Re Rams they took also with them to plant ed, ar gainst the Castle-gates. When they to Recome to the house of Mr. conscience, we knocked and demmanded entrance. Now has in old Gentleman not knowing as yet fully to rola design, kept his Gates shut all the time was this sight. Wherefore Boanerges deman made this fight. Wherefore Boauerges deman made entrance at his Gates, and no man mile mar answer, he gave it one stroke with the who what of a Ram, and this made the old Ginds in his

didd

The Holy War.

s for the, and his house to tremble and totter.

to he came Mr. Recorder down to the Gate, ces lashe could with quivering lips, he asked up 200 was there? Boanerges answered, We are set Captains and Commanders of the great for the and of the bleffed Eminuel his Son, y fin we demand possession of your house for at house of our noble Prince. And with that ode, Battering Ram gave the Gate another to de; this made the old Gentleman tremble to be more, yet durft he not but open the fally de; then the Kings forces marched in, They go in, the old the three brave Captains mentioned to be the could so, how the Recorders house was possessed. with rooms taken up, and his Palace made min that of the War; and no fooner was it will led abroad, but they rook the alarm as His house in mind, and gave it out to others of his the feat of ken hing by rolling ) fo in little time the out to be little time the out to be little time the out to little time lan ed, and the Captains carried it strangely to y Recorder; so many came to see, but when ce, sy with their own eyes did behold the Cap low as in the Palace, and their battering Rams llyt aplaying at the Castle-gates to beat-them time in; they were riveted in their fears, and man made them as in amaze. And, as I said, the office man min of the house would encrease all this; of Consci nels in whoever came to him, or discoursed ence when note in him, nothing would he talk of, tell be is ama nothing, or hear, but that death and destruction beared or hear, but that death and deftruction bezed.

FA

now attended Manfoul. For ( quoth ! old Gentleman ) you are all of you feel she we all bave been Traytors to that ence spiled the now famoully victorious and glor Trince Emanuel. For be now, as you fee, not only lye in close siege about us, but bash ted bis entrance in at our Gates; moreover D bolns flees before him, and be bath as you be made of my house a garifor against the Ca where be is. I for my part have transgre greatly ( and be. that is clean 'tis well for b But; Ifay, I have transgreffel greatly in keep of filence when I flou it have spoken, and in verting of Justice when I should bave exten the some. Now while these brave Capu He brave were thus busie in the house of the old seorder. Captain Execution was as busie other parts of the Town, in lecuring Execution back-fireces; and the walls, He also he the Lord willbewill forely, he fuffered not to reft in any corner. He purfued fo hard, that he drove his men from and made him glad to thruft his head i tole Alfo this mighty Warrier did three of the Lord willbewills Officers to the ground; one was old Mr. Prejul he that had his Crown cracke in the tiny; this man was made by Lord with Keeper of targate, and fell by the han Captain Execution. There was also one Bactroard to all but naught, and he also one of Lord Willbewills Officers, and was Captain of the two Guns that once mounted on the top of Eargue, he alfo our down to the ground by the hands of tain Laccution. Befides thefe two there of the Capidin:

Ixp eits

Old Prejudice Main.

Backward toall but Roughe H n.

Ca

The

tho

ma n to

tor

To

Capt

Dia

TY C

in .

my he

the

To

and:

to n inite

oth !

[cu]

nce

lor

27

bf

er D

ther; a third, and his name was Captain derous, a vile man this was, but one that Treacherbenil did put a great deal of confidence in, ous flaia. him also did this Captain Execution cut to the ground with the reft. He alfo avery great flaughter among my Lord wils fouldiers, killing many that were and flurdy, and wounding of many that Diabotus were nimble and active. B.tall wete Diabolonians, there was not 2 a parive of Manfout hurt. of War were also likewise performed wher of the Captains, as at Eyegate, re Captain Charity Captain charge was great execution done for the goodhope nin Gordhope with his own bands flew doth Jean Captain Blindfoid, the Keeper of that Gar . Captainthere was also at that Gate Mr. lilpaufe, Blindfold. shom you have heard before, he was an man, and he had a beard that reached nto his girdle, the same was he that was sorto Diabolus, he did much mischief in Town of Manfoul, and fell by the hand Captain Goodbope. What fhall I fay . Disbolonians in thefe days lay dead in And old y corner, though too many yet were 2- Illpaufe. in Manfoul. Now the old Recorder. my Lord Ouderstanding with some others the chief of the Town, to wit, such as The aid they must stand and fall with the fa- Townsmen Town of Manfout, came together upon a meet and and after confultation had, did jointly confulr. e to draw up a Petition, and to fend it mainst, now while he fat in the Grigof of So they drew up their Petition to Toe Town does sctition, and are answered with Glence.

Entruel, the Contents whereof were That they the old inhabitants of the now deplan Town of Manfoul, confessed their fin, were ferry that they bad offended his Pro Majefty, and prayed that be would pare their ! Unto this petition he gave no anfwer all, and that did trouble them yet for the more. Now all this while the Cape

The calle Gates

that were in the Recorders house were play with the battering Rams at the Gates of So after le broke open. Castle to beat them down time, labour and travel, the Gate of the ille that was called Impregnable, was be open, and broken into feveral fplinters; fo a way made to go up to the hold in w Diabolus had hid himself: Then was us fent down to Eargate, for Emanuel ftill ab there, to let him know that a way was a in at the Gates of the Castle of Manfout. On! how the Trumpets at the tidings for ed throughout the Princes Camp, for now the War was fo near an end, and Ma it felf of being fet free. Then the Pr arose from the place where he was, and with him fuch of his men of War as a fittest for that Expedition, and marched the streets of Mansoul to the old kecon Now the Prince himself was all in Armour of Gold, and so he mare up the Town with his Standard born by him; but he kept his countenance much ferved all the way as he went, so that people could not tell how to gather toth Celves love or hatred by his looks.

as he marched up the fireet, the Town came out at every door to fee, and to rio i

vici

ld no Tow

tto

rd a

me me

co :

don,

low 1

tom

der !

h w

ELh

De c

nan

d h

10

Emanuelmarches into Manfoul.

ere

tepla

fin,

Pre

eirl

fwe

0 1

pla

s of

er

the

be

rs;

n w tidi

1 25

15 a

ut.

for וזמ

Ph

di

hed

cord

s c bel

ch

at th

be be taken with his person, and the Glogeof but wondred at the refervedness of contenance: for as yet he spake more to by his actions and works, than he did by or fmiles. But also poor Manfoul, (2s heafes all are apt to do) they interpree carriages of Amannel to them , as did Brethren his to them, even all the quite How tley my way: For thought they, if Emanuel interpret us, he would shew it to us by word or Emanuels. te, bat none of thefe he doth, therefore carriages. uel hates us. Now if Emanuel hates us, Manfoul shall be flain, then Manfoul shall me a dunghill. And thought they, what foficto do this in as now, when he has ridle of Manfout in his hand. And this I special porice of, that the inhabitants similarding all this) could not, no, they doot, when they fee him march through Town, but cringe, bow, bend, and were to lick the dust of his feet. They also da thousand times over, that he would metheir Prince and Captain, and would me their protection. They would alfo to another talk of the comeline's of his in, and how much for glory and valour he dript the great ones of the world.

low when he was com to the Castle-Gates, He comes commanded Diabetus to appear and to fur- up to the er himfelf into his hands. But Oh how Calle, and In was the beaft to appear! how he flack commande Thow he fhrunk! I, how he cringed, yet Diabous be came to the Prince. Then Emanuel to farren manded, and they took Liabolus and derbim, thim fast in chains, the better to reserve to the Judge ent that he had appointed

er 134 4

for him. But Diabous Rood up to intront hmfelf that Emanuel would not fend him the deep, but full thim to depart out of font in peace. 1. When Emanuel had taken and bound him in chains, he led him into He is taken Market place, and there before Manfoul, him of his armour in which he boafted for before. Then was Manfoul called upo beholf the beginning of Emanuels Trium 71.

In cha nr.

ver him in whom they to much had trulled maff-behold of whom they to much had boafted in the when he flittered them Thus having Diabolus naked in the eyes of Manfonl, and Ephef. 4. He is bound to bis Chariotmbeels.

fore the commanders of the Prince; in next place he commands that Diabo'us the be bound with chains to his chariot wh Then leaving of some of his forces, to Captain Boanerges, and Captain Convillin a guard for the Calle-gates, that rell might be made on his behalf, fif any that tofore followed Diabolus should make at tempt to poffers it, he did ride in triumph eir lein ley i

ilh

ibi

C

14 bit th

dib

dou

erab

Pri

Mai

mp,

Ot 3

Cap

ele c

The Prince rides in Trimmath. over tim. in the fight of Manfoul.

him quite thorough the Town of Mangat to out at and before the Gate called an to the Plain where his Camp did lye. you cannot think unless you had been t (as I was) what a shout there was in Em Camp when they faw the Tyrani bound by hand of their noble Prince, and tyed to Chariot-Wheels! Those also that role formades, and that came down to fee the tel, they shouted with that greatness of vo and fung with fuch melodious notes, that caused them that dwell in the high ft Od

The Reformades joy.

L.k. 15.7.

open their windows, put our their heads, look down to fe the cause of that Glory

mi

fold

co nte u on

pq mai ke di

and in Che

wh

to

t M 31

h

1 E/m

to io

ie B

You

CI

14

5,1

The Townsmen also, so nany of them as faw fight, were as it were, while they looked, The men of wirt the earth and the Heavens. True Manfoul grould not tell what would be the iffue of taken with hexcellent methods; and I cannot tell how, things in the management of them feemed. cafta smile towards the Town, fo that their their heads, their hearrs, and their minds fall that they had were taken and held tile they observed Emanue s order. Now otain Bosnerges and Captain Conviction were of them men of very great majelty. ir faces were like the faces of Lions, and words like the roaring of the Sea; and fill quartered in Mr. Consciences house, of The corriom mencion was made before. When there- age of Boaerne high and mighty Prince had thus far nerges and hed this Triumph over Diabolus, the of Captala de the actions of these noble Captains. But on de crust Caprains carried it with that terrour and the fpirit of in all that they did (and you may be fure Manicul. it they chad private inflructions to to do). athey kept the Town under continual heartand caused (in their apprehension) the dibeing of Minfoul for the future, to hangdoubt before them, to that (for fome conerable rime) they neither knew what rest or le or peace, or hope meant. Nor did Prince himself, as yet, abide in the Town Manfout, but in his Royal Pavilion in the mp, and in the midft of his Fachers forces, at a time convenient, he fent fpecial Orders Captain Boanerges to fummon Alanfoul, the ble of the Townsmen, into the Castle yard,

and:

Tie Prince and then and there before their faces, to ale commands, my Lord Under standing , Mr. Conscience, in and the cap- that notable one the Lord willbemil, and pu tains put the three .. chief of Manfoul. in Ward.

them all three in Ward, and that they should fer a firong Guard upon them there, until hi pleasure concerning them were further known The which orders when the Captains had pu them in execution, made no fmall addition to the fears of the Town of Manfoul: year the were afraid that [ wanuel would command the all into the deep, the place that the Prince of abo'us was afraid of ; for they knew that the had deserved it. Also to die by the swords the face of the Town, and in the open way of diffrace, from the hand of fo good and fo he ly 2 Prince, that (too) troubled them for The Town was also greatly troubled for the men that were committed to Ward, for the they were their thay and their guide, and for that they believed that if those men were cu off, their execution would be but the begin 1 112 ning of the ruin of the Town of Manie Price Wherefore what do they, but together with by et the men in prison, draw up a Petition to i ewen Prince, and fent it to Emanuel by the hand ethios Mr. Wouldlive. So he went and came tothe ar the Princes quarters, and presented the Perition ough

bey sulc

e fir

ikeo

ortm take

: 60

ios l

at tinds.

make ;

ld hin

ould o

re o

Prin

wid r

Town

greatly di-Are fed.

Manfoul.

Tley fend a Fetition to Emanuel by the band of Mr. Wouldlive.

the Tum of which was this. Great and no derful Potentate, Victor over Diabolus, ante queror of the Town of Manfoul : We the mifer ble inhabitants of that mift woful Corporation, bumb'y beg that we may find favour in thy fight, a remember not against us former transgressions, yet the fins of the chief of our Town, but f us according to the greatness of thy mercy, and us not die but live in thy fight; fo fhat me be hould

Lawo

put they then

Di.

they saw ty of hol

d d nato be thy servants, and if thou shalt think fit, to mer our meat under thy Table. Amen. So They are Pritioner went as was faid with his Petiti- answered to the Prince, and the Prince took it at his with fiand, but fent him away with filence. This lence: ring that now they must either Petition, or e; for now they could not do any thing elfe; entfore they consulted again, and sent another ition, and this Petition was much after the and method of the former. But when Petition was drawn up. by whom should by fendit, was the next question; for they wild not fend this by him by whom they feat first, for they thought that the Prince had the state Captain Conviction their mettenger with the Libut he said, That he neither durft nor would peter the Emanu. I for Traiters; nor be to the Prince Bin advocate for Rebels Yet withall, said he, our hace is good; and you may adventure to send that the hand of one of your Town; provided ther some offence at the manner of his de- They Petirement before him), fo they attempted to tion again. Wes Emanu. I for Trait ers ; nor be to the Prince by the hand of one of your Town; provided They carree ewent with a rope about his head, and pleaded te 1 by uthing but mercy. Well, they made through whem to artheirdelays as long as they could; but fezra ferd it. gat last the dangercusnels of them, they fought, but with many a fainting in their finds, to fend their Petition by Mr. Defiresmike; fo they fent for Mr. Defires-amake, They old him what they had done, and what they third do concerning Peritioning, and that they third in that he would go therewith to Prince. Then faid Mr. Defires-awake, Why Louid not I do the best I can to fave so famous Town 25 Manfaul from defer ved destruction? They

Mr. Defres-awake. goes with the Petit on to the Prince.

They therefore delivered the Petition to his and rold him how he must address himself the Prince, and wisht him ten thousand ge speeds. So he comes to the Princes Pavil as the first, and asked to fpeak with his Ma fly: fo word was carried to Emanuel, and Prince came out to the man. When Mr. fires-awake faw the Prince, he fell flat with face to the ground, and cried out, O that Ma foul might live before thee! and with that presented the Petition. The which when Prince had read, he turned away for a wi His Enter and wept, but refraining himfelf, he turned gain to the man (who all this while lay cri at his feet as at fielt) and faid to him, Ge way to thy place, and I will confider of thy reque Now you may think that they of Man tainment.

that had fent him, what with guilt, and with tear, left their Petition should be rei His return ed, could hot but look with many a long lo and answer and that too with flrange workings of he tothem that to fee what would become of their Petini At last they faw their messenger coming b so when he was come, they asked him ho fared, what Fmanuel faid, and what was come of the Petition. But he told them t he would be filent till he came to the Prife my Lord Mayor, my Lord willbewill, and Accorder. So he went forwards roward Prison-house, where the men of Manson bound. But Oh! what a multitude flot after to hear what the meffengerfiid. Sow he was come and had thewn himfelf at > Grate of the Prison, my Lord A ayor his lookt as white as a clour, the Recorder allo quake: but they asked and faid . Come. I Sent bim.

to hi felf

nd go

IVI

s Ma

and

Mr. A

ith

t Ma

that ien i

W

rped

cry

Gø

que

140 ı

reje

her itto

jes d N d: n

andid the great Prince Jay to you: Then M. Defires-dwake, when I came to my Lords mon, I called, and he came forth; fo I coffrate at his feet, and delivered to him eition, (for the greatness of his person, he glory of his countenance would not me to stand upon my legs ). Now as eived the Petition, I cred, O that Manight live before thee ! So when for a while d looked thereon, he turned him about id to his servant, Go thy way to thy place and I will consider of thy requests. ger added moreover, and faid, to whom you feut me, is such a one for beauglory, that whose sees bim must both love and . I for my pare I can do no les but I know will be abe end of abele things. At this Manfoul orthey; were all at a ftand, both they in confounded , and they that followed the meffenger at the tro hear the news; nor knew they what, an wer. manner of interpretation to pur upon the Prince had faid. Now when the was cleared of the throng, the pritomong themselves began to comment up-Emanuels words. My Lord Mayor faid, abe as wer did not look with a rugged face; The Trifo-Willbawill fail is beinbenedevil; and L'e Re- mirs that it mis a meffenger of deat . Now judgment that were left; and that flood behind, and upon the could not fo well hear what the Prifoners princes some of them carche hold of one piece of answer. mence and iome on a bit of another; fome hold of what the me flenger faid, and of the prisoners judgment thereon, so thad the right understanding of things; 101 cann of imagine what work thefe people made, made, and what a confusion there was in M foul now. For presently they that had be what was faid, flew about the Town, one ing one thing, and another the quite conry, and both were fure enough they true, for they did hear they faid, with ears what was faid, and therefore could be deceived. One would fay. We muit a killed; another would fay. We must all be so and a third would fay; that the Prince not be concerned with Manfoul; and a for that the prisovers must be sudden'y put to be And as I said, every one stood to it, that told his tale the rightest; and that all on but hewere out.

But so far as I could gather by the bell formation that I could get, all this him came through the words that the Reco Caid, when he told them, That in his j ment the Princes answer was a meffenge What will death. Twas this that fired the Town that began the fright in Minfoul; for Min guilt do.

in former times did use to count that Recorder was a Seer, and that his feme was equal to the best of Oracles; and was Manfoul a terror to it felf. And did they begin to feel what was the el of Rubborn rebellion, and unlawful refit against their Prince To be brief, who fame of the fright was out of the Town the prisoners had a little recovered to felves, they take to themselves some he and thinnk to Petition the Prince for li gain. So they did draw up a 3d Pett Their Peti tue Concents whereof was this. Pr

Emanuel the Great, Lord of all Worlds,

t.on.

They re-

tition

again.

fo've to Pe-

tan

one

icy

pld

four

0 4

oth

20

f

d

H of Mercy, we thy poor wretched, miferable, Town of Minfoul do confess unto thy and glorious Majelty, that we have finned if iby Father and thee, and are no more I to be called thy Manfoul, but rather to be into the pit. If thou will flay us, we have wedit. If thou wilt condemn us to the deep, tained but fay thou art righteous. We cancomplain what ever thou doll, or homever thou fit towardsus. But Ob!let mercy reign ! it be extended to us! O'tet mercy take bold w, and free us from our-transgressions, and il fing of thy mercy, and of thy judgment. This Petition when drawn up was Prayer ated to be fent to the Prince as the first, the should carry it, that was the question, with diffibut others thought not good to do that. that because he fped no better. Now was an old man in the Town, and his was Mr. Good-deed. A man that bare old Good the name, but had nothing of the nat deed proof the thing; now fome were for fend- pounded as of him, but the Recorder was by no means a fit person mat: Bor, faid he, we now ftund in need to carrytheand are p'eading for mercy, wherefore to fend Petition ; Petition by a man of this name will feem to the O'dRethe Petition it felf ; fou'd we make Air. corder opdeed our meffenger, when our Petition pofes it, for mercy? Besides, quoth the old and be is thion, ask bim, and say, W. at is thy name? as become but be will; and he should say, Old deed; what, think you, would Emanuel say it, 4, is old Gooddeed ser alive? les bim son from your distresses. And if he sman, bould the Prince now, as be receives rejested.

1175

saves fo, I am fare we are loft, nor can athor of old Good-deeds fave Manfoul. After the corder had given in his reasons why old G deed should not go with this Petition to manuel, the rest of the prisoners and d of Mansous opposed it also, and so old G deed was laid afide, and they agreed to Mr. Desires-awake again; so they fent him, and defired him that he would a fee time go with their Petition to the Prin and he readily cold them he would. Mr. Defires-awake, when he faw that he

Mr. Defiresawake b.m. culty go of the Errand, befought that they we goes again grant that Mr. Wet-eyes might go with and takes Now this Wet-eyes was a near neighbor one Wet- Mr. Desires, a poor man a man of a br eyes with spirit, yet one that could speak well Petition. So they granted that he thoul with him. Wherefore they address t felves to their bufinels; Mr. Defires p hood to rope upon his head, and Mr. Wet-eyer on bed with hands wringing together. Thus they to the Princes Pavilion.

Tes

THE REAL PROPERTY.

this ld &

his

1h

ma iny pe

The

Now when they went to Petition this time, they were not without thoughts the often coming they might be a burden to Prince. Wherefore when they were con the door of his Pavilion, they first mades apology for themselves, and for their co to trouble Emanuel To often. So Mr. De amabe cast himself prostrate upon the go as at the first, at the feet of the m

The Frince Prince, faying. Ch! that Manfoul might in fore thee! and fo he delivered his Per taifetb with then, The Prince then havin read the Pen turned afide a while as before, and co

thou

the l n to nd d ld G

to

fent |

a fee

Pri

he

y wo

box

1

oul

esi

OY.

5.1

thi

into the place where the petitioner lay he ground, he demanded what his name and of what efteem in the account of for that he above all the multisude tinfout thould be fent to him upon furb frand, Then faid the man to the Prince, not my Lord be angry ; and wby enquirest efier the nume of Juch a dead dog as I am? by I pray thee, and take not notice of who because there is, as thou very well knowest, a a disproportion between me and thee. Why. confinen chofe to fend me on this Errand to lord; is best known to themselves; but it M.D. fires wer be, for that they thought that I had free with my hord. For my part I am out of freech to with my felf, who shen (hould be in love his Prince. ne? yet live I would, and fo would I that. Tempfmen fooutd; and because both they and for guilty of great tranggreffions, thesethey have fent me, and I am come in their to beg of my Lord for mercy. Let it please therefore to incline to mercy, but ask rot thy fervants are. Then faid the Prince, what is he that is become thy companion this fo weighty a matter ? So Mr. De fires, Memsuel, that he was a poor neighbour his, and one of his most insimate Associates, his name faid he, may it please your dexcellent Majohy, is Wet-eyes of the ma tof Manfaut. I know that there are of that name that are naught, but I per will be no offence to my Lord, that the brought my poor neighbour with me. Then Mr. Wat-eyes fell on his face to the wind, and made this Apology for his comwith his neighbour to his Lord,

.0

O my Lord, quoth he, what I am, Il

hi

G

fo

nft

ייים

IP

CO L

lor

Cz

m

to C

for

m

Mr. Wetcoming with bis neighbor.

eyes Apo- 'not my felf, nor whether my name befer log for his red or true, when I begin to think fome have faid, namely, that this name given me, becaufe Mr. Repentance Was Father. Good men have bad children the fincere do often times beget hypocrit My mother also called me by this na from my Cradle, but whether because of moilinels of my brain, or because of foftness of my heart, I connot tell 1 dirt in mine own tears, aud filthinels in ·bottom of my prayers. But I pray thee ( · all this while the Gentleman wept on chou wouldest not remember against us . transgreffions, nor take offence at the qualifiedness of thy fervants; but mercife pals by the fin of Manjoul, and refrainfit the glorifying of thy grace no longer So at his bidding they arole, and be flood trembling before him, and he spakes The Frin- them to this purpole. The Town of Me ces answer fout hath grievously rebelled against my ther, in that they have rejected him to being their King, and did chuse to the Telves for their Captain alyar, a murden and a runagate-flave. For this Diaboli and your precended Prince, though once highly accounted of by you, made rebell against my Father and me, even in our pal and highest Court there, thinking to become a Prince and King. But being there time discovered and apprehended, and for wickedness bound in chains, and separated the pir with those that were his companion he offered himself to you, and you have c received

e fa k w

me Vas

en.

821 of of t

11 in a

62 Dd

15 C

ie i ciful fre

erl b ke

Ma

y. B fre hei

CIT

both

ed III

2 日 日 日 日 日 日

tionghis.

gived him. Now this is, and for a long Ihe hath been an high affront to my Fawherefore my Father fent to you a erful army to reduce you to your obedi-But you know how those men, their ains, and their Counfels were efteemed on, and what they received at your You rebelled against them, you shut Gares upon them, you bid them battel, fought them, and fought for Diabolus of them. So they fent to my Father for power, and I with my men are come ibdue you. But as you treated the up in hoftile manner against me, you p your Gates against me, you turned eaf ear to me, and refilted as long as could. Yet I will confider your peand will answer it so as will be for captain Conviction, bring the prisoners me into the Camp to morrow, and fay lo Captain Judgment, and Captain Exstay you in the Castle, and take heed to your selves that you keep all on Manfon!, until you fhall hear furfrom me: and with that he turned him on them, and went into his Royal paagain. So the petitioners having d this answer from the Prince, red as at the first, to go to their compagain. But they had not gone far, but uts began to work in their minds, that cy as yet was intended by the prince ; fo they went to the place where moners lay bound; but these workings t 35 3190 of they fruited a wine faul, had fuch strong power over then by that they were come unto them the them, they were scarce able to deliver meffage. But they came at length to Gates of the Town (now the Townimen earnestness were waiting for their re where many met them to know what ar was made to the Petition. Then they out to those that were fent, What news the Prince, and what hath Emanuel But they faid, that they must (25 afor up to the prison, and there deliver message. So away they went to the with a * multitude at their heels. Now they were come to the Grates of them * of Inthey told the first part of Eminugus for quisitive the prisoners. This made the prisonen thoughts. pale, but the mellengers proceeded, and He, the Prince, faid moreover, the mould confider your Petition, and gave fuch fuer thereto as would fland with his glory, as these words were spoken, Mr. gave a great figh. At this they were them struck into the r dumps, and co tell what to fay; fear also post it marvellops manner, and death, feemed upon some of their Exebrows. Now O'd Inqui- was in the company a notable than fellow, a mean man of effare, and he was old/nquificipe, this man askadthe Pa if they had told out every white Emenvel faid, And they answered, Then faid Inquisitive, I thought for Bray what was it more that he faid in Then they pauled a while; but at it

ord

con

70

of

e 7

P b

the

frive.

hem

veri

th to

nen

ney William I for Contract Con

the out all, faying, the Prince did bid us. prain Bodnerges, and Captain Convilliing the prisoners down to him to morand that Captain Judgment, and Cap-Execution should take charge of the Caffle Town till they should hear further from But, O how this return, and specially laft claufe of it, that the prifoners muft go the Paince into the Camp, brake all their in pieces! Wherefore with one voice fer up a cry that reached up to the Hea-This done, each of the three prepared * Confei-f to die, ( and the * Recorder faid unem, This was the thing that I feared ). dey concluded that to morrow by that Sin went down, they should be tumbled of the world. The whole Town also ned of no other, but that in their time order they must all drink of the fame

Wherefore the Town of Manfoul fpeut night in mourning, and fackcloth, and The prisoners also when the time come for them to go down before the dreffed themfelves in mourning attire, ropes upon their head. The whole of Manfoul alfo, shewed themselves upwall, all clad in mourning weeds, if ps the Prince with the fight thereof be moved with compassion. But Oh the * Bufie bodies that were in the Town moul, did now concern themselves! thoughts. dd run here and there through the of the Town by companies, crying out y ran in tumultuous wife, one after unner, and another the quite contrary, almost urrer distraction of Manfoul,

Well,

Well, the time is come that the prife must go down to the Camp and appear fore the Prince. And thus was the maof their going down: Captain Bosse went with a guard before them, and Cap

The prison- convistion came behind, and the prisons bad to went down bound in chains in the mid trial.

I say (the prisoners went in the mids,

They fall down profirate before bim.

the Guard went with flying Colours be and before, but the prisoners went drooping spirits. So when they were to the door of the Princes Pavilion, the themselves prostrate upon the place : one went in and told his Lord that the foners were come down. The Prince th cended a Throne of State, and fent for prisoners in; who when they came, did ble before him, also they covered their with shame. Now as they drew near to place where he fat, they threw them down before him; then faid the Prin the Captain Beanerges, Bid the prisoners upon their feet : then they flood tremble fore him, and he faid, Are you the in beretofore were the fervants of Shaddail they faid. res, Lord, yes. Then fail Prince again, Are you the men that dil your felves to be corrupted, and defiled by bominable one Diabolus? And they fai did more than fuffer it Lord; for w it of our own mind. The Prince ask ther, faying, Could you have been come your flavery should bave continued under ranny as long as you bad lived ? Then I prisoners, res , lord, yes ; for his way pleafing to our flesh, and we were gro

CO

et

281

the

H

di

Emer

Impe had

CL3

fol ded :

the |

They are upon their trial.

to a better ftate. And did yon, frid he, to a better state. And did you, sid he, the I came up against this Town of Minsoul, are willy wish that I might not have the victory in you? Yes, Lord, yes, said they. Then the Prince, And what punishment is it, think that you deserve at my hand for these and its your high and mighty sins? And they said, it death and the deep, Lord; for we have detected no less He asked again, If they had be it to say for themselves, why the sentence, they confessed that they had deserved, should a passed upon them? And they said, We do my nothing, Lord; thou art just, for we so the same those ropes on your heads? The prisonthey confessed that they bad deserved, should They conpaffed upon them? And they faid, We demn themby nothing, Lord; thou art just, for we selves, in methofe ropes on your beads ? The prison- * Sins. infwer. Thefe * ropes are to bind us withal Prov. 5.22 the place of Execution, if mercy be not fing in thy fight. So he further asked, Wibe men in the Town of Minsoul were in confession, as they? And they answered, the * natives, Lord; but for the * Diabolothat came into our Town when the Ty- * Pewers got possession of us, we can say nothing of ibe Soul. them Then the Prince commanded thit * Corrupt's Hera d should be called, and that he onsand ufte ald in the midft. and throughout the Camp * Avistory Enquel proclaim, and that with found of reclaimed. inpet, that the Prince, the Son of Shid. had in his Fathers name, and for his es glory, gotten a persect conquest and my over Manfoul, and that the prisoners follow bim and fay, Amen. So this was as he had commanded. And prefently Mufick that was in the upper region the victory. ded melodiaufly. Then the prince called They are the prisoners to come and to stand again paraoned,

G 2

he the for eir

ti

em rin

blin de

Gid did by

Cali

ask ome

a G Waji

rot

For for before

CO

C

WC

do

ce

CI

do

en a oked

nce es, Off

of

wa. charg

ould i

e Wit

ne he eb ftr

11, 2

trof

mma Peair

tom .

row in

before him, and they came and stood commanded bling. And he faid unto them, The fint, to proclaim paffes, iniquities, that you with the whole it to mor- of Manfoul, bave from time to time com against my Father and me, I have power and Manfoul. mandment from my Father to forgive to the of Manfoul; and do forgive you accept And having so faid, he gave them write parchment, and fealed with feven Seals, a and general pardon, commanding both Lord Mayor, my Lord Wilbewil, and Mr. der , to proclaim, and cause it to be proce to morrow by that the Sun is up , throng the whole Town of Manfoul. Moreover

Their rags ere taken . from them.

A Strange

Prince Stript the Prisoners of their moun weeds, and gave them beauty for ashes, then Ifa, 61. 3. joy for mourning, and the garment of praise the foirit of beaviness. Then he gave each of the three, fewels of Gold, and elterations cious stones, and took away their ropes, put chains of Gold about their necks, Ear-rings in their ears. Now the prilo when they did hear the gracious word Prince Emanuel, and had beheld all that done unto them, fainted almost quite an for the grace, the benefit, the pardon, fudden, glorious, and fo big, that they not able without staggering to stand up der it. Yez; my Lord, willbewill founded right, but the Prince stept to him, pu everlafting arms under him, and bid his of good cheer, for all should be perfer according to his word. He also did kill imbrace, and smile upon the other two were willbewills companions, faying, thele as further tokens of my love, in compassions to you: and I charge you you Mr. Recorder tell in the Town of fout what you have heard and seen. Then Their guist. their Fetters broken to pieces before faces, and cast into the air, and their were enlarged under them. Then they down at the seet of the Prince; and kissed seet, and wetted them with tears: also cried out with a mighty strong voice, ag Blessed be the glory of the lord from this

So they were bid rife up, and go to Town, and tell to Manfoul what the Prince done. He commanded also that one with he and Tabor should go and play before They are Then was fulfilled what they never with Pipe ed for, and they were made to possess and Tabor. which they never dreamt of. The ce also called for the noble Captain Cre- captain 2, and commanded that he and some of Credence Officers should march before the Noble guards of Minfoul with flying Colours into the stem bome. Me He gave also unto Captain Credence When Faith charge that about that time that the Re- and Pardon by did read the general pardon in the meet togewe of Manfoul, that at that very time he ther, Judgald with flying Colours march in at Eye-ment and with his ten thousands at his feet, and Execution the should so go until he came by the depart from the freet of the Town, up to the Castle the leant. and that himself should take possession strof against his Lord came thither. He prain Judgment, and Captain Execution to uve the strong-hold to him, and to withdraw ton Mansoul, and to return into the Camp

G 3

with

with speed unto the Prince. And now the Town of Manfoul also delivered from terror of the first four Captains and the Well, I told you before how a prisoners were entertained by the noble Prince Emanuel, and how they behaved themselm before him, and how he fent them away their home with Pipe and Tabor going before them. And now you must think that the of the Town that had all this while waited to hear of their death, could not but be cifed with sadness of mind, and with though that pricked like thorns. But at last as the with many a long look looked over the of Manfoul, they thought that they faw lone returning to the Town; and thought again, wh should they be too, who should they be! laft they discerned that they were the priloers; but can you imagin how their hearts wer furprized with wonder! specially when the perceived also in what equipage, and win what noneur they were fent home! they were down to the Camp in Black, but they came back to the Town in white : they went dom to the Camp in ropes, they came back in chain of Gold; they went down to the Camp will their feet in festers, but came back with the flers intarged under tiem; they went also to the C mp. looking for death, but they came but from thence with affurance of life : they we down to the Camp with beavy hearts, became hack again with Pipe and Tator plays tefore them. So, fo foon as they were con to tyegate, the poor and tottering Town Manfoul, adventured to give a shout; and the geve such a shout as made the Captains in the Prince hem hey his h

The mon place sal cuff kin

A Crarie diteration.

reame up, they faluted each other with now rom come, and bleffed be he that has spared d the They added also, We fee it is well low d you, but how must it go with the Town Prince of Musion ? and will it go well with the mielm of Manjoul, said they? Then answered in the Recorder, and my Lord Miyor, Oh! conscience before things ! glad tidings ! good tidings of good! The Unt those of great joy to poor Manfoul I Then derstanding waited of great joy to poor Manfoul! Then be gave another shout that made the earth arms again. After this they enquired yet some particularly how things went in the state and what message they had from E-wall and the Town. So they told them all usings that had happened to them at the camp, and every thing that the Prince did to them. This made Manfoul wonder at the wishing and grace of the Prince Emanuel; then they told them what they had received at is hands from the whole Town of Manfoul; with the Recorder delivered it in these words, with the Recorder delivered it in these words, with the Recorder delivered it in these words, with and this shall Mansoul know to morrow. Then he commanded, and they went and summoned Mansoul to meet together in the Market-place to morrow, there to hear their general Pardon read. But is this the common custom of Princes? do they use to shew such and of favours to Traytors? No! this is only peculiar to Shaddai, and unto Emanuel his Son. Now morning drew on apace, where-Waited gave another shout that made the earth bul; and this shall Manfoul know to morrow. O the joy of then he commanded, and they went and sum-pardon of dice to morrow, there to hear their gene-fin. his Son. Now morning drew on apace, whereface the Lord Mayor, the Lord Willbewill , and Mr. Recorder, came down to the Marketplace at the time that the Prince had appointed, where the Townsfolk were waiting for them; and when they came, they came inde othe attire, and in that glory that the Prince of as put them into the day, before, and the fire le par

The manner of reading the Exod. 34.

was lightened with their glory: fo the Mon, mmp Recorder, and my Lord will be will drew down a cour Mouthgate, which was at the lower end of the mo Market-place, because that of old time va junt the place where they used to read publick me ters. Thither therefore they came in the threst Robes, and their Tabret Went before them. No bigy. the eagerness of the people, to know the ful site of the matter, was great. Then the is stop corder flood up upon his feet, and first becken if Tru ing with his hand for a filence, he read on Camp. with loud voice the pardon. But when he mittel came to these words, The Lord, the Lord God upin of merciful and gracious, pardoning iniquity, trus-greffions and fins; and to them, all manners fur. fin and blashberry shall be forgiven, &cc. they we this could not forbear but leap for joy. Forth while you must know, that there was conjoyned here militar with every mans name in Marfoul; also the Factor feals of the pardon made a brave flew. What They the Recorder had made an end of reading multo the pardon, the Townsmen ran up upon the shield Walls of the Town, and leaped and skipped in an thereon for joy, and bowed themselves sever my times with theirfaces towards Emaunels Pavilion and and shouted out aloud for joy, and said, in his Emanuel live for ever. When the Prince had a Bu age of the sent home the three prisoners of Mansoul with the man Captains with all the Field-officers and Soul hat diers throughout his Army to be ready in that Mean morning, that the Recorder should read the support pardon in Manfoul, to do his further pleasure with

AT w they s end upon se flesh.

pardon.

The carri-

in the the morning as I have shewed, being come, fire pardon, Emanuel commanded that all the Mon. Immpets in the Camp should found, that the own a Mours should be displayed, half of them upof the mount Gracious, and half of them upon Faith will, we want Justice. He commanded also that all notbe siten ma Captains should shew themselves in all their when Man the iness, and that the Souldiers should shout soul is sa-Nor soy. Nor was Captain Credence, though ved. ness are Castle, filent in such a day, but he from the strop of the hold shewed himself with sound to the Princes don camp. Now when the Prince had compleathe whilese, this outward ceremonics of his joy, He If the min commanded that his Captains and Soul- The Prince was firs should show unto Mansoul some feats of displays his Tir. So they presently addressed themselves Graces be they with work. But Oh! with what agility, fore Manthe inbleness, dexterity and bravery did these soul.

The mittary-men discover their skill in seats of the Futo the now gazing Town of Mansoul.

They marched, they counter-maacked, they oling multo the right and left; they divided, and subthe biled, they closed, they wheeled, made good their the mand reer with their right and left wings, and They are ten many things more, with that aptness, and then ravisced as meal as the y were again, that they took, yea the fight les sifest the hearts that were in Mansoul to behold of them.

2d I But add to this, the bandling of their arms, the managing of their weapons of war, were wellous taking to Mansoul and me. When it saftion was over, the whole Town of Manimpto thank him, and praise him for his a-

G. 5

dintfayour, and to beg that it would please

refid

I OU nd t

ppro

wha

re f

U W

fiy

Sain

and let !

Soul

his

then

Uc,

par:

this

Wich

Bid

Areng

They b. 5 that the Trince and bis men with them Ar ever.

his Grace to come unto Manfoul with his me and there to take up their quarters for ca An I this they did in most humble manner, ing themselves seven times to the ground will dwell fore him. Then faid he, All peace be to " fo the Town came nigh and touched with hand the top of his Golden Scepter, and h faid , Ob! that the Prince Emanuel with Captains and men of war would dwell in Mante for ever; and that his battering Rams and st might be lodged in ber for the use and service of Prince, and for the help and firength of Manie For faid they, we have room for thee, we have room for thy men, we have also room form weapons of war, and a place to make a gazine for thy Carriages. Do it, Enem and thou shalt be King and Captain in Main for ever. Yea, govern thou also according all the defire of thy foul, and make thor for vernours and Princes under thee of the Co tains and men of War, and we will been thy fervants, and thy Laws shall be our dire They added morcover, and prayed Majesty to consider thereof; for faid they now after all this grace bestowed upon with miserable Town of Mansoul, thou should withdraw, thou and thy Captains from " the Town of Manfoul will die. Yea, I they, our bleffed Ewanuel, if thou thould depart from us now, now thou halt do fo much good for us, and shewed fo much me cy unto us; What will follow but thater poy will be as if it had not been, and ourer mies will a fecond time come upon us with me rage than at the first? Wherefore we befer thee, O thou the defire of our eyes, and the

Say and bold to it Manfoul. T CH er,b und

to m vith

nd the

with

Sie

form 2 Ma

Men m ding u

rength and life of our poor Town, accept of motion that now we have made unto our and come and dwell in the midft of us, let us be thy People. Befides, Lord, we Their fears not know but that to this day many Diaboin may be yet lurking in the Town of lasoul, and they will betray us when thou le leave us, into the hand of Diabolus again; who knows what deligns, plots, or con-Manie rances have passed betwixt them about these ings already; loth we are to fall again into e of horrible hands. Wherefore let it please anfe where to accept of our Palace for thy place of ridence, and of the houses of the best men your Town for the reception of thy Souldiers and their furniture. Then faid the Prince, The Prins If I come to your Town, will you suffer me further ces questis unofecute that which is in mine beart against mine on to on the theries and yours: yea, will you belp me in such Mansoul; makes and yours: yea, well you belp me in juch Mansoul:

methatings? They answered. We know not what we shall do, we did not think once that Their As.

we should have been such Travtors to Shadai, Jwer.

we have proved to be: What then shall we shad make of our Lord? Let him put no trust in his saints, let the Prince dwell in our Castle.

white his noble Captains, and his Warlike soulders over us. Yea, let him conquer us with his love, and overcome us with Grace, and then surely shall he be but with us, and help lis, as he was, and did that morning that our pardon was read unto us, we shall comply with this our Lord, and with his ways, and fall in with his word against the mighty.— Then said the Prince to the Town of Mansoul again, seed to the the state of the metabings? They answered. We know not

He consent - in this comply with your desires. I will remove to to to dwell Royal Pavilion, I will draw up my forces being Main Mansoul, Eyegate to morrow, and so will march forwards in order and promise the Town of Mansoul. I will possess my self and promise the Town of Mansoul, and will set my Soulding rough to come your Castle of Mansoul, and will set my Soulding rough to come your you; yea, I will yet do things in Mansoul the cannot be parallel'd in any Nation, Country po Kingdom under Heaven. Then did the he men of Mansoul give a shout, and returned as in to their houses in peace ; they also told to at m their kindred and friends the good that & sher manuel had promised to Mansoul. The the went out the inhabitants of the Town of Manager of foul with haft to the green trees, and to the so so meadows to gather boughs and flowers, then with to firew the fireets against their Prince, by the fon of Shaddai, should come; they also be he made Garlands, and other fine works to be tem. token how joyful they were, and should be 1.The to receive their Emanuel into Mansoul; yes, be, he they strewed the street quite from Eyegae tould to the castie-gate, the place where the Prince of should be. They also prepared for his comme of ing what mulick the Town of Manfout would intered afford, that they might play before him to Mr. So at the lain G the Palace his habitation. time appointed he makes his approach to Moors, Manfoul, and the Gates were fet open for him, littlest shere also the Ancients and Elders of Min In the foul met him to falute him with a thousand ordered welcomes. Then he arose and entred Mar- thim foul, he and all his servants. The Eders of by de

Manfoul did also go dancing before him till and Ca he came to the Calle-gates. Now when the he was come so far into the Town as at the me.

Recorders house, he commanded that one should be the commanded that one shou

80

Mansouls
peeparation
for bis reception.

one a to C. Credence, to know whether the Caffie bejand Masseul was prepared to entertain his dim wal presence (for the preparation of that felf (ms left to that Captain) and word was Allis.9. din lought that it was. Then was Captain the believed commanded also to come forth with my a power to meet the Prince, the which was die the had commanded, done, and he conducted du minto the Castle. This done, the Prince ld u minto the did lodg in the Castle with his Epb. 3, 17, t 2, why Captains and men of War, to the joy The of the Town of Mansoul. Now the next Men- are of the Townssolk was how the Captains the ad Souldiers of the Princes army should be ent- mrtered among them, and the care was not all to how they should shut their hands of them, all to how they should fill their houses with be tem. At last they came to this result: be 1. That Captain Innocency should quarter at ... That Captain Patience sau hould quarter at Mr. Minds. This Mr. Mind one on formerly the Lord willbewills Clerk in one of the late rebellion.

3. It was How they uld entered that Captain Charity should quarter were quarto Mr. Affections house. 4. That Cap- teredin :be the his Good-bope should quarter at my Lord Town of to Moors. Now for the house of the Recorder Mansoul, miffelf defired, because his house was next of whered by the Prince, that if need be, the thrm should be given to Mansoul; It was, I'm by, defired by him that Captain Boanerges, and Captain conviction should take up their surers with him, even they and all their

5. As for Captain Judgment, and Rom. 6.19. de Captain Execution, my Lord willbewill cook Epb. 3: 17.

them:

them, and their men to him, because he to rule under the Prince for the good of Town of Manfoul now, as he had before der the Tyrant Diabolus for the hurt and mage thereof. 6. And throughout rest of the Town were quartered Emm forces, but Captain Credence with his abode fill in the Castle. So the Prince Captains, and his Soldiers were lodged in Town of Manfoul. Now the Ancients ali

to 100

B T ot th

lown

the

udd.

ere

Mete

ng

4 un

her (

Aoug touch

Itold

t en

and ex

rathe

Manfoulin Elders of the Town of Manfoul thought flan.edwith they never should have enough of the Printer Emanuel; his person, his actions, his won and behaviour, were so pleasing, so talis Prince Emanuel, so desirable to them. Besides this, the craved that they might have without culty or interruption, continual access him, (fo for that very purpose he command

They have ed that the Gates should stand open ) de laste access uzto they might there see the manner of his a fawt tim.

ings, the fortifications of the place, and Royal manfion house of the Prince. Wh They learn he spake, they all stopped their mouths, a of bim.

gave audience; and when he walked, it is their delight to imitate him in his geint Now upon a time Emanue! made all for the Town of Manfoul, and upon the Fal ing-day the Townsfolk were come to b Castle to partake of his Banquet. And feasted them with all manner of outlands food, food that grew not in the fields of Man fou', nor in all the whole Kingdom of Us verse. It was food that came from his h thers Court, and fo there was dish after Promife. fet before them, and they were command after trofreely to eat. But fill when a freth dif F mife

ris | ice.

S)

ndia Mu-

before them, they would whisperingly fay Exod. 16. eich other, What is it? for they wift not to call it. They drank also of the Brave enmer that was made wine; and were very tertainment my with him. There was musick also all while at the Table, and man did eat Angels Pfa.78.24, and had honey given him out of the in the fo Manfoul did eat the food that was aliar to the Court, yea they had now thereto the full.

Print I must not forget to tell you, that as at Table there were Musicians; fo they were ne those of the Country, nor yet of the foun of Mansoul; but they were the Masters the Songs that were fung at the Court of Now after the feast was over, B. Buddet. mel was for entertaining the Town of Wasout with some curious riddles of fecrets Riddles. Ifwn up by his Fathers Secretary, by the skill who have is not in any Kingdom. These Riddles The ko'y who here made upon the King shaddai himself, and Scriptures. the pon I manuel his Son, and upon his wars and brogs with Mansou'. Emanuel also expounded unto them some of those Riddles himself; Fail but Oh how they were lightned! they faw out that they never faw, they could not have de hought that such rarities could have been couched in so few and such ordinary words. told you before whom these Riddles did conin; and as they were opened, the people the devidently fee it was to.

The patter that the things themselves were a kind of a Pourtraidure, and that of Emanuel him.

The for when they read in the Scheme where write and looked in the Biddles were wrir, and looked in the face face of the Prince, things looked fo like the m one to the other, that Manfoul could not for acc bear but say, This is the Lamb, this is the tra sacrifice, this is the Rock, this is the Red-can be ga this is the Door, and this is the Way; win of Manfoul muft benew modelled.

was in the heart of the Prince Emanuel tone win model the Town of Mansoul, and to put it im mit fuch a condition as might be model. fuch a condition as might be most pleasing a most him, and that might best stand with the proximan and security of the now flourishing Town of the Mansoul. He provided also against insurrection a way at home, and invasions from abroad; such to love had he for the famous Town of Manjor pin, Wherefore he first of all commanded that the great slings that were brought from his a reachers Court when he came to the Ward and Mansoul, should be mounted, some upon the same Towers, for there were Towers in the Town side Aname es fince he came thither. There was also a series ininstrument invented by Emanuel, that was to the Arumet in Manfoul.

The instruments of war mounred.

throw stones from the Castle of Mansoul, wies out at Mouth-gate; an instrument that could after not be resisted; nor that would miss of execution; wherefore for the wonderful explois which that it did when used, it went without a mame, and it was committed to the care of the and to be managed to be managed. and to be managed by the brave Captain, in the Captain Credence in case of war.

maed.

This done, Emanuel called the Lord Willbe-Willbe- will to him, and gave him in commandment whom will pro- to take care of the Gates, the Wall and Townseed. ers in Manfoul; Also the Prince gave him in the Wall and the the Militia into his hand, and a special charge with 10 withstand all insurrections and tumulis at

that like the might be made in Mansoul against the not for see of our Lord the King, and the peace s is the tranquillity of the Town of Mansoul. He sed-con gave him in commission, that if he found is wing of the Diabolonians lurking in any corner November famous Town of Manfoul, he should tone with apprehend them, and slay them or it imposite them to safe custody, that they may sing to proceeded against according to Law. prof. hen he called unto him the Lord Under-own of thing, who was the old Lord Mayor, he My Lord edon was put out of place when Diabolus took Mayor put fuch Town, and put him into his former Office into place.

anford in, and it became his place for his life d that he hid him also that he should build n his a 2 Palace near Eye-gate, and that he are deld build at in fashion like a Tower for n the since. He bid him also that he should read Town the Revelation of Mysteries all the days of and life, that he might know how to perform on office aright. He also made Mr. Know ledg male to the Recorder, not of contempt to old Mr. Recorder before; Recorder build after that it was in his Princely mind to the contempt to old Mr. Conscience another imploy;

2t

on which he told the old Gentleman he should a mmore hereafter. Then he commandof, that the Image of Diabolus should be taken the image in a from the place where it was set up; and the image they should destroy it utterly, beating of the into powder, and casting it into the wind Prince and the into powder, and casting it into the wind bis Father should be set up again, set up again, in his own, upon the Castle-gates. And in Mansoul e in should be more fairly drawn than ever. Rev. 22.40 si et this was done, Emanuel gave out a Commandment Commandment that those three great Distants should be apprehended, namely the late Lord Mayors, to wit, Mr. Increaning, Lustings, and Mr. Forges-good the Record Besides these, there were some of them to Distants and Aldermen in M.

e th

Et

mp

nar

Mr.

60

the

of 10

(no

Some Dia-Diabolus made Burgesses and Aldermen in a bolonians soul, that were committed to Ward by comm ted hand of the now valiant, and now righted to prison the brave Lord Willbewill. And these under the their names, Alderman Atheisem, Alderman Burgesses were Mr. No-truth, Mr. Pitiles, the Keeper: Haughty, with the like. These were conted to close custody; and the Gaolers was Mr. True-man; this True-man was of those that Emanuel brought with himse his Fathers Court, when at the first he a war upon Diabolus in the Town of Ma

Diabolus After this the Prince gave a charge frongholds the three strong holds that at the computed down of Diabolus the Diabolonians built in Massing the Massing the Holds and their names, with Captains and Governours, you read a

Captains and Governours, you read a before. But this was long in doing, but of the largeness of the places, and be the stones, the timber, the iron, and all n

A Court to was to be carried without the Town be called to this was done, the Prince gave order the trythe Dia. Lord Mayor and Aldermen of Manfoul, bolonians call a Court of Judicature for the Tribe Execution of the Diabolonians in the Cosp

The Prisonon now under the charge of Mr. Trueers broughs and the Court set, Commandment was set to the Bar.
Mr. True-min the Gaoler to bring the

he n

m ch

by not

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

n down to the Barr. Then were the gether as the custom of the Town of was. So when they were presented the Lord Mayor, the Recorder, and the f the Honourable Bench. First, the Jury The Jury impanelled, and then the Witneffes Sworn. impanelled, names of the fury were thefe, Mr. Be- and wit-Mr. True-beart, Mr. Upright, Mr. Hite- ne fes morn Mr. Love-Good, Mr. See-truth, Mr. Heamind, Mr. Moderate, Mr. Thankeful, Mr. work, Mr. Zeal for God, and Mr. Humble. comes of the Witnesses were Mr. Know-Mr. Tell true, Mr. Lete-lies, withmy Lord will and his man, if need were. So the Do-right ners were fet to the Bar, then faid Mr. she Clerk, ich, fet Atheifm to the Bar, Gaoler. So was fet to the Bar. Then faid the Clerk, Atheism nim, bold up thy hand: Thou art bere indicted fet to the traine of Atheism, (an intruder upon the Bar, hiele of Manfoul ) for that thou baft perniciousty distinct bultifoly taught and maintained that there God, and fo no beed to be taben to Keligion. theu bast done against the being, bonour, and nof the King, and against the peace and safethe Town of Manfoul. What fait thou, art guilty of ebis Indicament, or not? His Plea. Cry. Call Mr. theifm. Not guilty. Wall, Mr. Tell-true, and Mr. Hite-lies uthe Court. So they were called, and Clerk. Then faid the y appeared. ik, You the Witne Tes for the King, look upthe Prisoner at the Bar, do you know kim? Know. Then faid Mr. Know-all, Yes, my nd we now him, his name is Atheism, he been a very pestilent fellow for many years deny

be-g

is di

Cler

ine B

At

I

10 8

M

10 n b

) fi

ord,

m neft

D :

1021

years in the miserable Town of Mansoul. You are fure you know bim ?

Know. Know him! Yes, my Lord : Ihn heretofore too often been in his company to be at this time ignorant of him. Diabolonian, the fon of a Diabolonian, 1km his Grand-father, and his Father. Well faid : He fandeth bere indicted by the w of Atheilm, &c. and is charged that be le maintained and taught that there is no Godi so no heed need be taken to an Religion. W Say you the Kings Witnesses, to this? is be go or not ? Know. My Lord, I and he were on in Villains Lane together, and he at that in did briskly talk of divers opinions, and the and there I heard him fay, That for hispan he did believe that there was no God h faid he, I can profess one, and be as Relie ous too, if the company I am in, and it circumstances of other things, said he, h put me upon it. Cler. You are fure Know. Upon mine Ol beard bim fay thus. I heard him fay thus. Then faid the Cle Mr. Tell-true, What fay you to the Kings July es, touching the prisoner at the Bar?

Tell. My Lord, I formerly was a great co panion of his, (for the which I now repa me) and I have often heard him fay, and the with very great stomachfulness, that he be lieved there was neither God, Angel per Spin Cler. where did you bear bim say fo? Tell. In Blachmouth-lane, and in Blaftbe row, and in many other places befides.

Cler. Have you much knowledg of bim? Tell. I know him to be a Diabolonian, fon of a Diabolonian, and an horrible m deny 2 Deity ; his Fathers name was Nere-good, and he had more children than s Asbeifm. I have no more to fay.

Ih

mpan

Ch

re !

Clar Full

e be

Cler. Mr. Hate-lyes, look upon the prisoner in Bar, do you know bim. Hate. My Lord, He is Ikm a stheism is one of the vilest wretches that be a li lave heard him fay that there is no be le li I have heard him fay that there is no did to come, no fin, nor punishment hereod; and to come, no fin, nor punishment hereit; and moreover, I have heard him say twas as good to go to a Whore-house to go to hear a Sermon. Cler. Where the best bim say these things? Hate. In the mondate row, just at Rashal lanes-end, at the inhards-row, just at Rashal lanes-end, at hole in which Mr. Impiety lived. Cler. Lustings is him by, Gaoler, and set Mr Lustings to the set to the selicity. Mr. Lustings, thou are here indised by ad a some of Lustings, (an intruder upon the T. wn Mansoul) for that thou hast Devilishy and mereufly taught by pradice and filthy words, it is lawful and profitable to man to give n to his carnal defires, and that thou for thy in hast not, nor never wilt deny thy self of His Indiain finful delight as long as thy name is Luftings. ment. In faift thou, art thou guilty of this Indiament Luft. Then faid Mr. Luftings, My His plea. Past ? ard. I am a man of high birth, and have to used to pleasures and pastimes of greatdi. I have not been wont to be snub'd for y doings, but have been left to follow my as if it were Law. And it feems ftrange me that I should this day be called into effion for that, that not only I, but almost men do either secretly or openly coun-marce, love, and approve of.

Sir,

1

0

C

f

Sir, we concern not our selves with your go nefs ( though the bigher, the better you flount been ) but we are concerned, and fo are you staff about an Indictment preferred against you, Lo fay you, are you guilty of it, or not? Not guilty. Cler. Cryer, call upon Witnesses to stand forth and give their Cry. Gentlemen, you the dence. neffes for the King, come in and give in Evidence for our Lord the King again prisoners at the Bar. Cler. Come, Know-all, look upon the prisoner at the do you know him? Know. Yes, Lord, I know him. clerk. Whats was the fon of one Beastly, and his my bare him in Flesh-street; the was one ball concupiscence's daughter. I knew all the grant ration of them. Cler. well said has bave bere beard bis Indistment, what say your me is be guilty of the things charged against has faith, been a great man indeed; and great man in wickedness than by Pedigree, more things Cler. But what de thousand fold. know of bis particular actions, and especially reference to bis Indiciment? K 400. know him to be a swearer, a lyir. 25ibb an unclean person . I know him to be gui al of abundance of evils. He has been to knowledg a very filthy man. But pobere did be use to commit bis wickedach in some private corners, or more open and her Know. All the Town over, lefly ? Cler Come, Mr. Tel-Lord.

OUT 01 boulds

e you

you.

upon

heir the l e in

zain

ome

Yes,

hati

tings

mo ne I

he ge

aid,

704 18 l bis

tha 1 20 By 4000

2660

01,1 gun

er, a

have you to fay for our Lord the King inf the prisoner at the Bar? Lord, all that the first Witness has faid I to be true, and a great deal more be-Cler. Mr. Luftings, do you hear thefe Gentlemen fay ? Luft. I was His fecond of opinion that the happiest life that a plea. could live on earth, was to keep himself from nothing that he defired in the i nor have I been false at any time to coinion of mine, but have lived in the of my notions all my days. Nor was I to churlith, having found fuch fweetin them my felf, as to keep the commen-Court. Then ons of them from others. the Court, There bath proceeded enough bis own mouth to tay bim open to condemnatiwherefore fet bim by, Gaoler, and fet Mr. In- Increduliy dulity to the Bar. Incredulity fet to the fet to the Cier. Mr. Incredulity, thou art Bar. un ladified by the name of Incredulity, ( an ingrein when upon the Town of Manfoul ) for that thou feloniously and wickedly, and that when theu m on Officer in the Town of Mansoul, made Megainst the Captains of the great King Shadwhen they came and demanded toffeffion of His indiainfoul; yea thou didit bid defiance to the name, ment. cas and cause of the King, and didst also, as Diabolusthy Captain, stir up and encourage Could the faid force of the King. What failt thou shis Indictmenty? are thou guilty of it, or not?

Then faid incredulity. I know not a fail incredulity. Then faid incredulits, I know not shaddai, I me my old Prince, I thought it my duty His Plea. 14 be true to my truft, and to do what I could posses the minds of the men of Mansoul reigners, and with might to fight against to Nor have I, nor shall I change mine on on for fear of trouble, though you at a sent are possessed of place and power.

Court. Then said the Court, the man as fee is incorrigible, he is for maintaining Villanies by stoutness of words, and his bellion with impudent confidence. And the fore set him by Gaoler, and set Mr. For good to the Bar. Forget-good set to the good set to Cler. Mr. Forget good, thou art bere the Bar. dided by the name of Forget-good (an intri upon the Town of Mansoul) for that thou ment.

His India-the whole affairs of the Town of Mansoul ment.

in thy hand, didst utterly forget to serve then what was good, and didst fall in with the syn Diabolus against Shaddai the King, against Captains, and all his hot, to the dishonous Shaddai, the breach of his Law, and the end gering of the destruction of the famous to of Mansoul. What saist thou to this Indiana art thou guilty, or not guilty?

Then is

Forget-good, Gentlemen, and at this time Judges, as to the Indicament by which I have feveral crimes accused before you, in attribute my forgetfulness to mine age, a not to my milfulness; to the craziness of brain, and not to the carelesses of my mand then I hope I may by your charity excused from great punishment, thought guilty. Then said the Court, Forget grant for forget-good, Thy forgetfulness of good man simply of frailty, but of purpose, and for thou didst loth to keep vertuous things in the What was had thou couldest retain, but what

His Plea.

TS and

inft d

ne op

1 2t 1

2B 25

ining

d his nd th

. For

the !

bere

t intr

bou 1

oul i

then

be Tw

gais

honeur

e est

ous Th

diame.

hen in time !

hIft

u, 117

ige, #

of

ny mi

rity

ighf

er m

1045 for a

b) wi

r. ,

thou couldest not abide to think of; thy age fore, and thy presended crazinels, thou mabelt of to blind the Court withal, and as a cloak gover thy Knavery But let us hear what Witne fes heve to fay for the King against the ner at the Bar, is be guilty of this Indictment Hate. My Lord, I have heard Forger-good fay, That he could never atothink of goodness, no not for a quarof an hour. Cler. Where did you bim fay fo ? Hate. In All-base-lane, house next door to the Sign of the Conwe feared with an bot iron. Cler. Mr. what can you say for our Lord the against the prifoner at the Bar? Mr. My Lord, I know this man well, 2 Diabolonian, the fon of a Diabolonian, Pathers name was Love-naught, and for Thave often heard him fay that he countthe very thoughts of goodness the most colome thing in the world. Clerk, bave you heard bim fay thefe words ? Know. est-lane right opposite to the Church .hen faid the Clerk, Come Mr. Tell-true, in your Evidence concerning the prisoner at to about that for which be stands here, as you udited before this bonourable Court. My Lord, I have heard him often fay, ad rather think of the vilest thing than hat is contained in the Holy Scriptures. Where did you hear him fay fuch ous words? Tell. Where? in a great places; particularly in Nauseous-street, boule of one Shameless, and in Filth-lane fign of the Reprobate, next door to effent into the epit. Court. Gent'emen Hardheart you have beard the indiffment, his Pleas and fet to the testimony of the Witnesses. Gaoler set Mr. His Bar. heart to the Bar. He is set to the Bar. Com. Mr. Hard-heart they get here India.

heart to the Bar. He is fet to the Bar. Cla Mr. Hard-heart, thou art bere Indided the name of Hard-heart, (an intruder upon Town of Manfoul ) for that thou didft moft ! sperately and wickedly possess the Town of Mi foul with impenitency and obdurateness, and a keep them from remorfe and forrow for their evil all the time of their apostasie from, and rebell against the bleffed King Shaddai. What fi thou to this Indiament, art thou guilty, or Hard. My Lord I never key what remorfe or forrow meant in all my life! am impenetrable, I care for no man ; nor c I be pierced with mens griefs, their ground will not enter into my heart; whomever mischief, whomever I wrong, to me it is fick, when to others mourning. You fee the man is a right Diabolonian, and I convided himself. Set bim by, Gaoler. at Mr. Falle-peace to the Bar. Falle-pea fet to the Bar. Mr. Falle-peace, The art bere indicted by the name of False-peace Falsepeace set to the Bar.

(an intruder upon the Town of Mansoul) is that thou did most wickedly and saturally brighold, and keep the Town of Mansoul, both into apostasse, and in her kellish relevion, in a subgroundless and dangerous, peace, and dansate security, to the dishonour of the King, the way gression of his Law, and the great damage of it Town of Mansoul. What saist thou, are thou gull of this Indistment, or not?

Then said Mansoul in the said the said Mansoul in the said Mansoul of this Indiament, or not? Then faid in False-peace, Gentlemen, and you now appointed to be my Judges, I acknowledge that mame is Mr. Peace, not False-peace, If you r, Ha

His pica.

pon moft 1

f Ma

nd l

r evi

ebelli

07 kno

y life

OT C

groa

CYCT

15 M

Cou

ind h

414

, The

peace,

bring in he fall

MALL

nours shall please to send for any that do mately know me, or for the midwife that my mother of me, or for the Goffips He denies was at my Christening, they will any , bi nine. all of them prove that my name is not e-peace, but Peace. Wherefore I cannot d to this Indiament, for as much as my e is not inferted therein; and as is my name, so also are my conditions. I was ays a man that loved to live at quiet, and I loved my felf, that I thought others t love also. Wherefore when I saw any my neighbours to labour under a difted mind, I endeavoured to help them Llcould; and instances of this good temof mine, many I could give : As, fill, when at the begining our Town of Pleads his ful did decline the ways of Shaddai, they, Goodnes. of them, afterwards began to have difning reflections upon themselves for what had done; but I, as one troubled to fee disquieted, presently sought out means et them quiet again. 2. When the s of the old world, and of Sodom, were thion; if any thing happened to molest that were for the cultomes of the pretimes, I laboured to make them quiet mand to cause them to act without molesta-3. To come nearer home, when guly trany time I saw any of the Town of Man-dia afraid of destruction, I often used by some to be them to peace again. Wherefore you than I have been always a man of so vertuous How imper, as some say a peacemaker is, and if wars fell out between Shaddai and Diabolus, a peace-

H 2

a peace maker be fo deferving a man as for Gentlemen, be accounted by you, who has a great name for justice and equity in m foul, for a man that deferveth not this humane way of treatment, but liberty, also a licenie to seek damage of those the have been my accusers. Then faid Clerk, Cryer, make a Proclamation. Cr O Yes, for as much as the prisoner at the Bar denied his name to be that which is mention in the Indistment, the Court requiresh the there be any in this place that can give in mation to the Court of the original and a name of the prisoner, they would come forth upon bis own innocence. Then came two to the Court and defired that they might h leave to speak what they knew concern the prisoner at the Bar; the name of the

Now Witnesses come in against bim.

was Search-truth, and the name of the of Vouchetruth: fo the Court demanded of the men, If they knew the prisoner, and they could fay concerning him, for he flat faid they, upon his own Vindication? The faid Mr. Search-truth, My Lord, 1-Court Hold, give him his Oath then they for So he proceeded. - Search. My U I know, and have known this man from child, and can attest that his name is I peace. I knew his Father, his name was Flatter, and his mother before the was ried was called by the name of Mrs. up; and these two when they came to lived not long without this fon; and he was born, they called his name Fale is

Com

let s o ha

his y, a

e t

id

Cr

ari

nte

t bat

rib

en

the 0 8 fta

M

y fun iy L from

97

741

124

s his play-fellow, only I was fomewhat than he; and when his mother did use cell him home from his play, she used to Filfe peace, Falfe peace, come home quick, tle fetch you Then Mr. Pouchtruth was call my Lord, fays he, all that the former witness faid is true; his name is Falfe-peace, fon of Mr. Flatter, and of Mrs. Southup mother. And I have in former times feen ingry with those that have called him thing elfe but False-peace, for he would that all fuch did mock and nick-name but this was in the time when Mr. Fallewas a great man, and when the Diadens were the brave men in Manfoul Court. mlemen, you have heard what thele two have fworn against the prisoner at the rand now Mr. Falle-peace to you, you denied your name to be Falle-peace, yet fee that thefe honeft men have fworn that Is your name. As to your Plea, in that tre quite befides the matter of your Inment, you are not by it charged for evil g, because you are a man of peace, or ace maker among your neighbours; but that you did wickedly, and fataoically ing, keep, and hold the Town of Manjout munder its apoltacy from, and in its reion against its King, in a falle, lying, and mable peace, contrary to the Law of diti, and to the hazard of the destruction the then miserable Town of Minsoul. All tyou have pleaded for your felf is, that have denied your name, Se. but here fee we have Witnesses to prove that you But thou Malt have the man. H 1 very very fair play, let us call the Witnefferth are to teftifie, as to mater of fact; and fe pli what they have to fay for our Lord bethe King against the prisoner at the Bar. Clerk Mr. Know-all, what fay you for our to the King against the Prisoner at the Bar?

100

W.

K ag o

221

Know, my Lord, this man hath of a long time made it, to my knowledg, his business keep the Town of Mansoul in a finful que etness in the midft of all her leudnes, file ness and turmoils, and hath faid, and their my hearing, Come, come, let us fly from trouble, on what ground foever it comes, a let us be for a quiet and peaceable life, thou it wanteth a good foundation. Cla

Come, Mr. Hate-lies, what have yout o fay ?-Hate. My Lord, I have heard him fay, the peace, though in a way of unrighteoutness better than trouble with truth. KVkere did you bear bim fay this?

I heard him fay it in Folly-yard, at the he of one Mr. Simple, next door to the fign the Self-deceiver, Yea, he hath faid the my knowledg ewenty times in that place

Evidence is plain and full. Set him Gaoler, and fer Mr. No truth to the Bar. M. No-stuth, thou art here Indicted by the me of No-truth , (an intruder upon the Town Munfoul ) for that thou haft always to dishonour of Shaddai, and the endangers of the utter ruin of the famous Town Manfoul, fet thy felt to deface, and utterly fooil all the remainders of the law and image of Shaddai that have been found in Magic

No-truth fer to the Bur:

His Indianen:

c sthat

1 ur Lu

2 o the ering yo d

and to plabelus the envious Tyrant. What faift rd to whou, art thou guilty of this Indictment, or His Pleas not? No. Not guilty, my Lord. Then Witnesses were called, and Mr. Knowall firft give in his Evidence against him loss Know. My Lord, this man was at the pullnels a down of the Image of Shaddai; yea. this His Af food by and faw him do it, and he did the lathe commandment of Diabolus. Clerk . VV itne ffes. the fam bim do this besides your self? Have, and so this besides your self? Have, and so did many more besides; this was not done by stealth, or in a correction, but in the open view of all; yea he chose inself to do it publickly, for he delighted in the doing of it. Clerk. Mr. Notruth, how add you have the face to plead not guilty, and you were so manifestly the doer of all the wickedness? Notr. Sir, I thought I have say fomething, and as my name is, so I fay fomething, and as my name is, fo I ak: I have been advantaged thereby before I might have reaped the same benefit Pitylefffet Clerk. Set him by, Gaoler, and fet to Pitiles to the Bar . Mr. Piples, thou Int here indicted by the name of Pityles , mintruder upon the Town of Manfoul) for that thou didst most trayterously and wick- His indiarouldest not suffer poor Minsoul to condole own mifery when she had apostatized om her rightful King, but didft evade, and all times turn her mind away from those boughts that had in them a tende ney to lead er to repentance. What failt thou to this dement? Guilty, or not guilty guilty His Piea.

guilty of Pitylefness : all I did was to chearaccording to my name for my name, is Pityles, but chear-up; and I could not abi to fee Mansoul incline to Melancholy.

Clerk, How! do you deny your name. 2 fay it is not Pittles but Chear-up? Call f the witnesses: What fav you the Witnes Know. My Lord. to this Plea ? name is Pityles; so he hath writ himself all papers of concern wherein he has had do. But these Diabolonians love to counterfi their names: Mr. Coverousness covers hims with the name of good Hulbandry, or the li Mr. Pride can when need is, call himfelf Neat, Mr. Handsome, or the like, and so of the reft of them. Clerk. Mr. Telltrue, w far you? Tell. His name is Pityefs, my Lord I have known him from a Child, and he hi done all that wickedness whereof he ftan charged in the Indicament ; Clerk. Ser Haughty to the Bar. Gaoler. Mr. Haught Thou are Indicted by the name of Haust (an intruder upon the Town of Manfoul) for thou didf most Trayterously and Devilliblyte Haughty let to ste Tar.

ment.

she Town of Manfoul to carry it lofti'y and for Hes India-against the fummons that was given them by Captains of the King Shaddai Thou didft reach the Town of Manfoul to fpeak contemptuon and vilifyingly of their great King Shaddai; didft morcover encourage, both by words and a amples, Manfoul to take up arms both age the King and his Son Emanuel. How fail th art thou guilty of this Indicament, or not?

Haugh Gentlemen, I have always been man of courage and valour, and have n used, when under the greatest clouds, to foes

Hi Plea

bear-

is abi

1c. 2

all f itne

d.

Celf

had

iterf

him

ie di

If I

Lord

e ha

ftan

ight

ugh

7 6

10

fton by i d uon : d d a sta hor down the head like a bulriffr anot use to confider who was my foe, nor the cause was in which I was engaged. senough to me if I carried it bravely, t like a man, and came off a Victor, mrt. Mr. Haughty, you are not bere Indict- The Court. that you have been a valiant man, nor for courage and floutness, in times of diffres. ribit you have made use of this your prevalbur to draw the Town of Manfoul inh of rebellion both against the great King Emanuel his Son. This is the crime and the wherewith thou art charged in and by the ment. But be made no answer to that. when the Court had thus far proceeded of the prisoners at the Bar, then they them over to the verdice of their who withdraw Ithemselves in order heir work : Now when they were upby themselves, they fell to discourse themselves in order to the drawing their Verdict. And thus Me. Be for he was the Foreman, began Gens Their m quoth he, for the men, the prifeners conference bar, for my part I believe that they all de among death. Very right, Gid Mr. Truebearty wholly of your opinion; O what 2 wis it faid Mr. Harebad, that fuch Vilasthefs are apprehended! Ai, Ai, fild Lovegol, this is one of the joyfullest days that? Ham in my life. Then faid Mr. Seetnurb that if we judg them to death, our verall fland before Shaddai bimfelf. Nor do Ill question it, faid Mr. Heaven imind; he moreover, VVben all such beafts as thefr, are on of Manfoul, what a goodly Town wil it HS themielus.

be then! Then said Mr. Moderate, it is a my manner to pass my judgment with ness, but for these their crumes are so not rious, and the Witness so palpable, that man must be misfully blind woo saith the prism ought not to die. Ble fed be God, said the shank ful, that the Traytors are in safe cut and I join with you in this upon my so bnees, said Mr Humble. I am glad also said Goodwork. Then said the warmsman, and we hearted Mr. Zeal for God, Cut them off, to have been the plague, and have sought the destite on of Mansoul. Thus therefore being my agreed in their Verd &t, they come install into the Court.

Clerk. Who shall speak for you? Jour Foreman. Clerk. You the Gemile of the fury being impannelled for our Lord King to serve here in the matter of life and to have beard the trials of each of these mes prisoners at the Bar: What say you, are they go of that, and those orimes for which they stand Indisted, or are they not guilty? Fore Guilty, my Lord. Clerk. Look to your to oners, Gaoler. This was done in the moing, and in the afternoon they received sentence of death according to the Law.

The Gao'er therefore having received he a charge, put them all in the inward price to preferve them there till the day of Ention, which was to be the next day in morning. But now to see how it happen one of the prisoners, Increatility by name the interim betwirt the Sentence and time Execution, brake prison, and made his estand gets him away quite out of the To

The Per-

are, it, is Manfoul, and lay lurking in fuch places and nt with desas he might, until he mould again have are so cortunity to do the Town of Mansoul a able, the chief for their thus handling of him as the prise did. Now when Mr. Trueman the od, said her perceived that he had lost his Prisoner, safe cu was in a heavy taking, because be that upon my soner, was, to speak on, the very worst of all also said gang: wherefore first he goes and ac-an, and aints my Lord Mayor, Mr. Recorder, and my sem off, rd Pvillbewill with the matter, and to get the less them an Order to make search for him being sughout the Town of Mansoul. So an Or- No Increne instante got, and search was made, but no such dulity to could now be found in all the Town of found in Genie the had lurked a while about the outlide it. Lord the Town, and that here and there one or and do but had a glimple of him as he did make his fe mer type out of Mansout; one or two also did they go am that they saw him without the Town, fandling apace quite over the Plain. Now when He is gone Fore was quite gone, it was affirmed by one Mr to Diaboaural life, that he ranged all over dry places, till lus. he man met with Diabolus his friend; and where ived sould they meet one another but just upon law, signe-bill.

But Oh! what a lamentaved for fory did the old Gentleman tell to Diaprike a concerning what f.d alteration Emanuet Exercised in Manson!?
int. When Diabolus had h. ard this lamentable property, he yelled and snuffed up the wind like a Diabo'us une ligon, and made he sky to look dark with yells at the incertaining: He also sware that he would try news.

To the and bis o'd friend Incredulity, concluded to Ram. 8.13. U 6 12. Town of Mansoul again. Now before time, the day was come in which the Prison in Mansoul were to be Executed: so they we brought to the Cross, and that by Mansoul most folemn manner: for the Prince said this should be done by the hand of the To of Minsoul, that I may see, said he, these wardness of my now redeemed Mansoul to my word, and to do my Commandments; that I may bless Mansoul in doing this de Proof of sincerity pleases me well, let M soul therefore first lay their hands upon the Town of Mansoul slew them according the word of their Prince: but when the soners were brought to the Cross to die, can hardly believe what troublesome wantout had of it to put the Diabolosium gainst the struglings and unruliness of the soners, rose up from his place, and came put his hands upon the hands of the me

Manfoul. So they crucified the Diabola that had been a plague, a grief, and at fence to the Town of Manfoul.

Gala 5. 24.

death, (forthe men knowing that they must and every of them having implacable em in their heart to Mansoul) what did they took courage at the Cross, and there resulte men of the Town of Mansoul? Where the men of Mansoul were forced to cry ow help to the Captains and men of war. It the great Shaddai had a Secretary in the Town of the was a great lover of the men of Monsoul, and he was at the place of Execution for so hearing the men of Mansoul cry on Diabolopians to destroy them.

The affistance of more Grace.

Execusion doné.

Rom. 8 13.

get

re

110

MOM

id T

thef

tol

3 1

s de

t M

on d So

dine

he

ic,

ei aus

uff

Ten ert

To Sion

ON he

me me

this good work was done, the Prince The Prince edown to fee, to vifit, and to speak com- comes ably to the men of Manfoul, and to streng- down to their hands in fuch work. And he faid to congratun, that by this act of theirs he had proved late them. n, and found them to be lovers of his perobservers of his Laws, and such as had respect to his honour. He faid moreover (to them that they by this should not be losers, their Town weakned by the loss of them) he would make them another Captain, and He promiof one of themselves. And that this fes to make min should be the ruler of a thousand, for them a new good and benefit of the now flourishing Captain. n of n anfoul. So he called one im whole name was Waiting, and bid him wickly up to the Caftle-gate, and-enquire for one Mr. Experience that waiteth upon Experinoble Captain, the Captain credence, and ence muft him come hither to me. So the meffenger be the new waited upon the good Prince Emanuel , Captain, stand faid as he was comanded. Now the Gentleman was waiting to fee the Cap-train and muster his men in the Castle yard. faid Mr. Waiting to him, Sir, the Prince d that you should come down to his Highforthwith. So he brought him down to The qualihim. Now the men of the Town knew their new Experience well, for he was born and bred Captain. sufoul; they also knew him to be a man of that, of valour, and a person prudent in tets; he was also a comely person, well spoand very fuccefsful in his undertakings. herefore the hearts of the Townsmen transported with joy, when they faw char

Manfoul. takes it

His commi fion fent Lien.

that the Prince himself was so taken with Eperience, that he would needs make his Captain over a band of men. So the Prince g out orders forthwith to the Kings Secret that he should draw up for Mr. Experies Commission to make him a Captain over thousand men , and let it be brought to faid he, that I may fer to my feal. Soir done as it was commanded. The Commit was drawn up, brought to Emanuel, and h his feal thereto. Then by the hand of Waiting he fent it away to the Captain.

Now fo foon as the Captain had received Commiffion, he foundeth his Trumpet for V luntiers, and young men come to him appe yea the greateft and chiefeft men in the To fent their fons to be lifted under his commi Thus Captain Experience came under of mand to Emanuel, for the good of the Town Manfoul. He had for his Lieutenant one Skilful, and for his Cornet one Mr. Men His under Officers I need not name. His o Jours were the Woise Colours for the Town 36, 37.

1 Sam 17. Manfoul; and his Scutcheon was the dead ! and dead Bear. So the Prince returned to Royal Palace again. Emanuel also at this appointed them a day wherein he would re He renews their Charter and enlarge it, mending for their Char- faults therein, that Manfouls yoke might be ter.

more easie. And this he did w thout any del heb. 8:13. of theirs, even of his own frankness, and n mind. So when he had fent for and feen Mat. II. old one, he laid it by, and faid, Non which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to ver may. He faid moreover, the Town of foul thall have another, a better, a new

His Under-Officers.

raf

41

13 27

l 100 Sixel

ch

hi

e g

Tet

ries

OVC

to

IL

miff

16

of ved

or V

pag To

mi

C

JW 10

len

5 6 W

41 to S CI

ren

CPU

bei defi

1

fleady and firm by far. An Epicome cof take as follows. Emanuel Prince An Epileace, and a great lover of the Town of Man- tome of I do inthe name of my Father, and of mine their new clemency, give, grant, and bequeath to my Charter, wed Town of Manioul. First, free, full Heb. 8. 19. everlasting forgiveness of all wrongs, injuries. Job. 17. 8 offences done by them against my Father, me, neighbour, or themseives. Secondly, I do 2 pet, 1.4. them the boly Law, and my Teltament, with 2 Cor. 7.1. har therein is contained, for their everlafting 1 Job 1. 16. fort and confolation. Thirdly, I do also give sportion of the fell fame grace and goodness twells in my Fathers heart and mine. tourthly, I do give, grant and bestow upon them the world, and what is therein for their good; by ball have that power over them, as Shall I Cor. 3. with the banour of my Father, my glory and 21,222. comfort ; )ea, I grant them the benefits of ad death, and of things present, and things me, This priviledg, to other City, Town or nation shall have but my Mansoul only. Heb. 100 Afthly, I do give and grant them leave, and free . 19, 20. le to me in my palace at all seasons to my Pashove or below ) shere to make known their nitome, and I give them moreover a promise, I will bear and retrefs all their grievances. sichly, I do give, grant to, and invest the manfoul with full power and authority. thout sake, inflave, and destroy all, and mer of Diabolonians, that at any time from. ce foever shall be found fixagling in or about. Seventhly, I do sur-Trent 10 my beloved Town of Manfoul that they have authority not to Suffer any foreignen or. ble fed blessed Town of Manford, nor to share in the entern priviledges and immunities that I bestow a the samous Town of Manford, but they saudie those the old matives, and true imbabitants then to them I say, and to their right seed after the

But all Diabolonians of what fort, bis Country, or Kingdom foever, shall be debare So when the Town of M hare therein. foul had received at the hand of Emanuel th gracions Chanter , (which in iefelf is infini more large than by this lean Epitome is fet fore you) they carried it to audience, the to the Market place, and there Mr. Account read it in the presence of all the people. being done, it was had back to the C gates, and there fairly engraven upon the do thereof, and laid in Letters of Gold, to end that the Town of Minfoul, with all the ple thereof might have it always in their vi or might go where they might fee what ab fed freedom their Prince had bestowed a them, that their joy might be increased themselves, and their love renewed to t great and good Emanuel. When this over, the Prince fent again for the Elden the Town of Mansout, and communed them about a Ministry that he had intended establish among them; such a Ministry might open unto them, and that might infli them in the things that did concern their fent and future flate. For faid he. of your felves, without you have Teac and Guides, will not be able to knaw a not to know, to be fure not to do the w my Father. At this news when the Elde Manfoul brought it to the people, the heame running together, (for it pleafed well, as whatever the Prince now did, if the people) and all with one confent important in the Majesty that he would forthwith east he fuch a Ministry among them as might them both law and judgment, statute ommandment; that they might be docudin all good and wholsome things. So it them that he would grant them their si, and would establish two among some that was of his Fathers. Court, we that was a native of Mansoul: that is from the Court, said he, is a pernoless quality and dignity than is my

/ cf

feel that con the control of the con no less quality and dignity than is my and I; and he is the Lord chief secremy Fathers house; for he is, and alhas been the chief dictator of all my Laws, a person altogether well skill'd systeries, and knowledg of mysteries, as Pather, or as my felf is. Indeed he is thus in nature, and also as to loving of, ing faithful to, and in, the eternal conthe Town of Manfoul. And this is the Prince, that must be your chief for 'tis he, and he only that can you clearly in all high and supernatural He and he only it is that knows the ad methods of my Father at Court, nor ly like him shew how the heart of my Faat all times, in all things, upon all occasiwards Manfout, (for as no man knows the of a man but that spirit of a man which him : fo the things of my Father nows but this his high and mighty Secretary. an any (as he) tell Manfoul, how and they shall do to keep themselves in the

C

00

41 0

led

love of my Father.) He also it is the bring loft things to your remembrance. that can tell you things to come. This Te therefore must of necessity have the prenence (both in your affections and judg before your other Teacher. This perfe put life and vigor into all he fays; yes

I Thef. 1. can also put it into your heart. This fon can make Seers of you, and can make All. 21.10, tell what shall be hereafter, By this we you must frame all your petitions to my fud.v. 20 and me; and without his advice and o Epb. 6. 18. firft obtained, let nothing enter into the Rom. 8: 26. or Caffle of Manfoul; for that may Rev. 2.7, and grieve this noble person. Take 15,17,29. I fay, that you do not grieve this Mi Epb 4 30. for if you do, he may fight against you 1/4.63. 10 field he once be moved by you, to let against you, against you in battel arm will diffres you more than if twelve thould from my Fathers Court be fent to war upon you

Then did the Prince call unto him the Conscience Gentleman, who afore had been the Re made a of Manfou!, Mr. Conscience by name, an Minifler. him, That for as much as he was wells in the Law and Government of the To Manfoul, and was also well spoken, and pertinently deliver to them his Maften in all terrepe and domestick matters, the he would also make him a Minister for and to the goodly Town of Manjoul, the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of mous Town of Manfoul. And thou mul the Prince) confine thy felf to the teach Moral Vertues, to Civil and Natural do

His limits.

tha

ance.

prel

erion

yez This

mal

lis t

ny A

CHIEF

. 4

ke l Min On 1 thou must not attempt to presume to be weaker of those high and supernatural My= that are kept close in the bosome of my Father: for those things know no nor can any reveal them but my Fathers ary only. Thou are a native of the His Cautiof Manfoul, but the Lord Secretary is a on: with my Father; wherefore as thou haft. ledg of the Laws and customs of the ration, so he of the things and will of, ther, Wherefore, Oh! Mr. Confcialthough I have made thee a Minister and ther to the Town of Manjoul, yet as to ings which the Lord Secretary knoweth all teach to this people, there thou must scholar, and a learner, even as the reft foul are. I have made thee my 5a-Vicegerent on Earth, in such things of His power have made mention before : and thon, in Manfoul. u power to teach them to Minfout, d to impose them with whips and emenes, if they thatt not willingly en to do thy Commandments. ecorder, because thou are old, and many abuses made feeble; therefore His Liberthee leave and licence to go when thou ty. my fountain, my conduit, and there to. reely of the blood of my Grape, for due doth always run Wine. Thus thou shalt drive from thy heart and all foul, gross, and hurtful hu-Is will also lighten thine eyes, and ngthen thy memory for the reception ping of all that the Kings most noble Body. r teacheth. When the Prince had Heb. 9.14. Mr. Recorder (that once fo was ) into the place and offite of a Minister to foul; and the man had thankfully acce thereof: then did Emanuel address him a particular speech to the Townsmen felves. Behold, (faid the Prince to The Prin- 'foul') my love and care towards you; ces fpeech 'added to all that is past, this mercy, toManfoul 'point you Preachers: the most noble tary to teach you in all high and fublin fteries ; and this Gentleman ( point Mr. Conscience ) is to teach you in all humane and domestick, for therein ly work. He is not by what I have fail barred of telling to Manfout any thing he hath heard, and received at the of the Lord high Secretary; only he for attempt to prefume to pretend to be vealer of those high Myfleries himfelf one thing more to my beloved Mr. Re and to all the Town of Manfoul, you not dwell in, nor flay upon any the that which he hath in Commission to you, as to your truft and expectation next world; (of the next world (16) I purpole to give another to Manfoul, this with them is worn out ) bur for you must wholly and solely have reco and make stay upon his Doctrine, that is reacher after the first order. Yea. corder himself must not look for life fr which he himself revealern, his dep for that must be founded in the Dods the other Preacher. Let Mr. Recorder 1 heed that he rec ive not any Dodn point of Doctrine, that are not con cated to him by his superiour teacher,

A world to come promifed to Manfoul.

rto

him

ien

to ш; 1

cy,

ole

blim

indi

alli

Ive

faid ring

自名包

200 within the precinats of his own formal Now after the Prince had thus He gives ledg. things in the famous Town of Manfoul, them cauocceded to give to the Elders of the tion about ration a necessary caution, to wit, how the Caphou'd carry it to the high and noble tains. ins that he had, from his Fathers Court, r brought with him to the famous Town fonl, 'Thefe Captains, faid he, do love fown of Manfoul, and they are pickt pickt out of abundance, as men that ne, and that will most faithfully ferve Graces wars of Shaddai against the Diabolofor the preservation of the Town of picks from I charge you therefore, faid he. O common habitants of the now flourishing Town infoul, that you carry it not ruggedly, towardly to my Captains, or thir men; as I faid, they are pickt and choice men chosen out of many for the good e Town of Menfout. I fay, I charge that you carry it not untowardly to for though they have the hearts and of Lions, when at any time they shall alled forth to ingage and fight with the foes, and the enemies of the Town Canfoul ; yet a little discountenance cast Satan canthem from the Town of Mansoul, will not weaken and cast down their faces, will wea- our Graces and take away their courage. I therefore any of them should at any selves may. be fick or weak, and so not able to orm that office of love, which with all hearts they are willing to do, (and do also when well and in health flight not, nor despise them, but rather ftrengthen

as me our

Heb. 12.12. Rrengthen them and incourage them th Ma. 35. 3. 'Weak, and ready to die, for they are Rev. 3. 2. fence, and your guard, your wall, your

I Tref. 5. ' your locks, and your bars. And alth

14. when they are weak, they can do but l but rather need to be helped by you, that you should then exp et great things them ) yet when well , you know what ploits, what feats and warlike Atch ments thay are able to do, and will per for you. Besides if they be weak, · Town of Manfoul cannot be ftrong; if be strong, then Manfoul cannot be weak; ' fafety therefore doth lye in their health. in your countenancing of them. Rem atte that if they be fich, they catch that dife ske Town of Manfoul it felf. These the have laid unto you, because I love your fare, and your honour : Observe therefore · my Manfoul, to be punctual in all things th have given in charge unto you and that only as a Town corporate, and fo to you ficers and guard, and guides in chief, but you as you are a people whose well-being fingle persons, depends on the observed of the Orders and Commandments of the Lord. Next, Oh my Manfoul, I do warn of that of which notwithstanding that me mation that at prefent is wrought among you have need to be warn'd about : where hearken diligently unto me. I am som fo

A Caution about like Diatolonians that yet remain in Manfoul.

and you will know bereafter sthat there and of the Diabolonians remaining in the Torn Manfoul ; Diubolonians that are flurdy and placable, and that do already while I am 'you, and that will yet more when I amin

m th

are our g alth

out l

u, ngs

pod

i

k

leh,

cm

dife

chi

OUF

fore

es the

that you

, but

eing

TYAL

arn

t mi

ong |

erd

m fu

216

OWA

od I

mW

m from fudy, plot, contrive, invent, and jointmempt to bring you to defolation, and fo Atte far worle than that of the Egyptian dage ; they are the avowed friends of Ditherefore look about you: they used wfore to lodg with their Prince in the le, when Incredulity was the Lord Mayor Mar. 7.21. his Town; but fince my coming hither, be more in the outfides, and walls, and made themselves dens, and caves, and Rom.7. 18. and frong holds therein. Wherefore, Manfoul! thy work as to this, will be fo the more difficult and hard. That is, e mortifie, and put them to death acog to the will of my Father Nor can terly rid your selves of them, unless you Christ pull down the walls of your Town, would not hich I am by no means willing you have us de-

Do you ask me, What shall we do then ? Broy our be you diligent, and quit you like men; felvestbere we their holds, find out their haunts, by tadestroy them, and make no peace with them our fins. ever they haunt, lurk, or abide, and terms of peace foever they offer you, and all shall be well betwirt you and And that you may the better know from those that are the natives of Man-I will give you this brief Schedule of ames of the chief of them; and they The names lefe that follow: The Lord Fornication, of some of ord Adultery, the Lord Murder, the Lord the Diabo. the Lord Laseiviousness, the Lord De- lonians in the Lord Evileye, Mr. Drunkenness, Mr. Mansoul. Mr. Idolatry, Mr. Witchcraft, Mr. Vari-Mr Emulation, Mr. Wrath, Mr. Strife, Mr. and Mr. Herefie. Thefe are fome of the chief, O Manfoul! of those that will 6 to overthrow thee for ever. Thefe, O Manfaul, ( and I would gladly that you fhe certainly know it ) if they be suffered to and range about the Town as they won will quickly like Vipers eat out your bon yea poylon your Captains, cut the fine your fouldiers, break the bar and bolts of Gates, and turn your now most flouris Mansoul into a barren and de solate will ness and ruinous heap. I told you belo Preacters 'that I had placed a standing Ministry and if need be 'you, not that you have but these withy for my four first Captains, who came agu the Master and Lord of the Diabolenians was in Manfoul, they can, and if need be if they be required, will not only private inform, but publickly Preach to the corner tion both good and wholsome Dodrine, fuch as shall lead you in the way. Yea, t wiil fet np a weekly, yea, if need be a da Lecture in thee, Oh Manfoul! and will · ftruct thee in such profitable lessons, that heeded will do thee good at the end take good-beed that you spare not the men is you have a Commission to take and crucifie. 'Now as I have fet out before your ey the vagrants and runnagates by name, fo will tell you that among your selves for of them shall creep in to beguile you ex A Caution, fuch as would feem, and that in appearant are, very rife and hot for Religion. And the if you watch not, will do you a miche fuch an one as at prefent you cannot this

of. These, as I said, will shew themselves to you in another bue than those under de

· feriptio

More for Man-Coul.

ill 6

. 0 1 fbor

to

WO

boy

inev

ofy

wild

befo

y am

ith

ARS t

be,

riva

orpo rine,

2 da

will

that

men L

cifie.

our cy

ne, lo

es for

סע. באס earan

nischie

ot this

emfely

nder d

mion before. Wherefore Manfoul watch the fober, and suffer not thy felf to be betrayed. Then the Prince had thus far new modellthe Town of Manfoul, and had instructed in such matters as were profitable for to know: then he appointed another day ich he intended when the Townsfolk came her, to bestow a further badg of honour the Town of Manfoul. A badg that diffinguish them from all the people, eds and tongues that dwell in the King- Another of Universe. Now it was not long be- privilede the day appointed was come, and the for Mane and his people met in the Kings Palace, foul. first Emanuel made a short speech unto and then did for them as he had faid, and them as he had promised. My Man- His speech faid he, that which I now am about to toManfor! is to make you known to the world to be and to diftinguish you also in your own from all falle Traytors that may creep ong you. Then he commanded that that waited upon him should go and forth out of his treasury those white white Mering robes that I, faid he, have pro- Robes. and laid up in store for my Mansoul. So hite garments were fetched out of his Rev. 19 3. ry, and laid forth to the eyes of the Moreover, it was granted to them bey should take them and put them on; nd the ding, faid he, to your fize and stature. people were put into white, into fine white and clean. But now! can you how Manfou shone? it was fair as the dear as the Moon, and terrible as an Ar-Cripto with banners. The Prince added further,

ther, and said, 'No Prince, Potentate, That which mighty one of Universe, giveth this livery distinguish 'my self: Behold therefore, as I said before the Man'you shall be known by it to be mine.

'And now, said he. I have given you foul from liv

Eccl. 9.8.

elivery, let me give you also in commit ment concerning them: and be sure is you take good heed to my words. Fi Wear them daily day by day, lest you bould at for times appear to others, as if you were none of a

Secondly, Keep them always white, for if be foiled, it is dishonour to me. Thirdly, Pole fore gird them up from the ground, and let t

Rev.7.19, not lag with dust and dirt. Fourthly, I 16, 17. beed that you lose them not, lest you walk an and they see your shame. Fifthly, But if should sully them, if you should desile them which I am greatly unwilling you should, and Prince Diabolus will be glad if you would) fpeed you to do that which is written in my L Luk 21.36 that yet you may stand, and not fall before me, before my Throne. Also this is the way to a that I may not leave you nor forsake you while h but may dwell in this Town of Mansoul for

And now was Mansoul, and the inhabite of it as the Ignet upon Emanuels right has where was there now a Town, a City, a Comporation that could compare with Mansoul Town redeemed from the hand and from power of Diabolus! A Town that the Shadlai loved, and that he fent Emanuel regain from the Prince of the Infernal Country

When the Prince had thus compleated modelling of the Town, to shew that he great delight in the work of his hands, took pleasure in the good that he had wron ate,

PETY

befo

you

mma

ire

at fo

of

rif

m

let t hly, I

k 80

ut if

hem (

, and uld >

my L

e me.

to ca

bile b

for a

habit

he ha y, 20

11n out

from

the

manue

rnal Co

leated

at he ands,

d wron

he famous and flourishing Mansout, he manded, and they fet his standard upon the dements of the Castle. And then, off, He gave them frequent vifits, not a now but the Elders of Manfoul must come im (or he to them ) into his Palace. 2 Cor. 6.16. they must walk and talk together of all great things that he had done, and yet er promited to do for the Town of Man-Thus would he often do with the Lord , my Lord VVillbewill, and the honest Standing. dinate Preacher Mr. Conscience. and Mr, der. But Oh! how graciously! how ely! how courteously! and tenderly did leffed Prince now carry it towards the of Manfoul! in all the Streets, Gar-Orchards, and other places where he to be fure the Poor should have his blef- Hungry od benediction : The Prince would now thoughts. east them, and with them continually: 2 week would pis but a Banquet must betwixt him and them. You may re- 1 Cor.5.8. er that some Pages before, we make on of one feast that they had together, but to feaft them was a thing more common, day with Manfoul was a feast-day now. de he when they returned to their places, them empty away, either they must have , a Gold-Chain, a Bracelet, a white ftone, nething; so dear was Manfoul to him now, ely was Manfoul in his eyes. Secondly. the Elders and Townsmen did not come he would fend in much plenty of prounto them; meat that came from Court, and bread that were prepared for his Fa-

A token of Marriage. A token of Honour, A token of Beauty. A token of P ardon. Table : yea, such delicates would he send unto them, and therewith would fo con their Table, that whoever faw it, confessed th the like could not be feen in any Kingdon

Thirdly, If Manfoul did not frequently ri him as he defired they should, he would w out to them, knock at their doors, and de entrance, that amity might be maintained b twixt them and him; if they did hear a open to him, as commonly they would if the were at home, then he would renew his form love, and confirm it too with some new toke and figns of continued favour. it not now amazing to behold, that in that re

The danger of wandring skoughts.

Rev.3. 20. Cant. 5.2.

place where fometimes Diabolus had his about and entertained his Diabo'onians, to the almo utter destruction of Mansoul, the Prince of Princes should fit eating and drinking with the while all his mighty Captains, men of Wa Trumpeters, with the finging-men and finging women of his Father flood round about wait upon them ! The bleffed Prince did a

Col. 3. 15.

ordain a new Officer in the Town, and a goo Rom. 15. 13 ly person he was, his name was Mr. Godsper this man was set over my Lord Willbernil, Lord Mayor, Mr. Recorder, the Subordin Preacher, Mr. Mind, and over all the Min of the Town of Mansoul. Himself was a Native of it, but came with the Prince Email el from the Court. He was a great acquai taince of Captain Credence, and Captain Go. opinion too. This man, as I faid, was mi Governour of the Town in general, special over the Castle, and Captain Credence Was help him there. And I made great observati of it, that fo long as all things went in Mi foul, as this sweet natured Gent eman would, the Toy cor m was in most happy condition. The ed the my, the Officers, the Soldiers, and all in gdor e, observed their order. And as for the y in men and Children of the Town, they fold was ditheir business joyfully, they would more d del fig, work and fing from morning till night, Holy Con-ned beat quite through the Town of Manfoul ceptions. lif it mess joy and health. And this lasted all Thoughts. form Summer. But there was a man in the toke n of Manfoul, Mr. Carnat Security, who The flory and went the Tow ninto gret and grievous of Mr. Carnat very and bondage. A brief account of him nat Securi.

s about of his doings take as followeth.

almo hen Diabolus at first took possession of the of Pri nof Mansoul, he brought thither with himof Warm conditions. Now among these there finging me Mr. Self-conceit, and a not able brisk bout h was, as any that in those days did pos- Mr. Selfdid al de Town of Mansoul, Diabotus then per-conceir. a good of this man to be allive and bold, fet him odspess many desperate designs, the which he mawill, better, and more to the pleafing of his Nin than most that came with him from the wild do. Wherefore finding of him fo W25 A his purpole, he preferred him, and made e Emst ext to the great Lord willbewill of whom written so much before. Now the carnal Seacquai in Go m of th with him, and with his atchievements, Original. him his daughter, the Lady Fear-nothing ras ma Now of my Lady Fear-pothing did e was tr. Self-conceit beget this Gentleman Mr. security. Wherefore there being then fery2tik in Ma foul those flrange kind of mixtures, it

ould, the were Natives, who not; Mr. Carnal fecur fprang from my Lord willbewill by mothers fid though he had for his Father a Diabolonian nature. Well, this carnal fecurity took mu His Que- after his Father and mother, he was self en lines. ceited, he feared nothing, he was also a very bu man; nothing of news, nothing of Dodri nothing of alteration, or talk of alteration could at any time be on foot in Manfoul be fure Mr. Carnal fecurity would be at t head or tayl of it; but to be fure he would ! cline those that he deemed the weakest in stood always with them ( in his way of the

He is always forthe ing ) that he supposed was the strongest sie ftronge [t fide.

Now when Shaddai the mighty, and Emis his Son made war upon Manfoul to take this Mr. Carnal Security was then in Town, a was a great doer among the people. income ing them in their rebellion, putting of the upon hardning of themselves in their refitti of the Kings forces; but when he faw that Town of Manfoul was caken and converted the use of the glorious Prince Emanuel; when he also saw what was become of Di lus, and how he was unroofted, and made to the Castle in the greatest contempt and for and that the Town of of Manfoul was w lined with Captains, Engines of War, and and also provision, what doth he but the wheel about alfo; and as he had ferved Die lus against the good Prince, so he feigned the he would ferve the Prince against his foes. A having got some some little smattering of Em suels things by the end (being bold) he venture himfelf into the company of the Townsmen frempts also to char among them. Now be that the power, and strength of the Town of How Mr. foul was great, and that it could not but be pleatibe people if be criedup their might and their

out w fecur

ers fi

nian

k mu

elf a ry b oari

erati

ul

at.

uld

ft a

f fta

t fid

MAR

ake

VD. 4

our th

efilti

hatt

sted

12

Di

to 4

fct

15 W

d.

t Ail

Dia

d th

SAIN

f Em

CREUT

pimer

Wherefore he beginneth, his tale with ower of Manjoul, and affirmed that it was gnable. Now magnifying their Captains, eir Sings, and their rams; then crying up fortifications, and strong bolds; and lastly wrances that shey had from their Prince, anfoul should be happy for ever. But when that some of the men of the Town tickled and taken with his discourse, he it his business, and walking from street tet, house to house, and man to man, he brought Manfoul to dance after his pipe, grow almost as carnally fecure as himself; talking they went to feaffing, and eafting to sporting; First, he bemoans and condoles their state with the Secre- bemoans ying, Ob that my people bad bearkened unto Manfoul. that Manfoul bad walked in my ways, I have fed them with the fineft of the wheat, bony out of the rock would I have futhem. This done he faid in his heart,

I shall consider and acknowledg their of-And he did fo, and the cause and manhis going away from them was thus: caule was for that, First, Manfoul dehim, as is manifest in these Particulars. They left off their farmer way of visiting of The way of they came not to bis royal Palace as afore.

turn to the Court and go to my place till

They did not regard, nor jet take notice backfliding came or came not to vifit them. 3. The love that had wont to be between their Prince Carnal Se. Curity begins the mifery of Manfoul.

Manfouls

and them, though he made them fill, and calle !! or to be delighted with them. 4. They make the not for his counsels, but began to be head-strong or and confident in themselves, concluding that no the they were strong and invincible, and that Manson was secure, and beyond all reach of the foe, a test that her state must needs be unalterable for even he Now, as was said, Emanuel perceiving the my the crast of Mr. carnal security, the Towns of Mansoul was taken off from their dependent ance upon him, and upon his Father by him with and set upon what by them was bestowed up as and set upon what by them was bestowed up s. on it; He first, as I said, bemoaned their state in then he used means to make them understand use gerous. For he fent my Lord high Secretary town to them, to forbid them fuch ways, but twice ek when he came to them he found them at din. Co ner in Mr. carnal fecurities Parlour, and persong ceiving, also that they were not willing to the reason about matters concerning their good for he took grief and went his way. The which low the grieve when he had told to the Prince Emanuel, he and the facy

took offence, and was grieved also, and to the Christ. Now the methods of his withdrawing, as then

I was faying before, were thus: 1. Even trea while he was yet with them in Manfoul, he kept him is n felf close, and more retired than formerly. Christ with draws not all as once.

2. His speech was not now, if he came in their bid company, so pleasant and familiar as formerly.

3. Nor did he as in times past, send to Man-sal soul from his Table, those dainty hits which the was mont to do was wont to do.

4. Nor when they came to visit dr kim, as now and then they would, would be be so cafily

d calls spolen with as they found him to le in times The work-t then They might now knock once, yearwice, but ing of their waite said seem no at all to regard them; whereas affections.

defined and seem no at all to regard them; whereas the first only at the found of their feet he would up and that no and meet them half way, and take them too, land by them in his bosom. But thus Emanue of the them is to be ever, the to make them bethink themselves and on to him. But alas they did not contour they did not know his ways, they re-epend led not, they were not touched with these, He is gone.

y him with the true remembrance of former saed up is. Wherefore what does he but in pri- Ezek 1121 redup is. Wherefore what does he but in pri- Ezek 1121 manner withdraw himself, first from his Hos. 5.15. In the tee, then to the Gate of the Town, and so Lev. 26.21, in from Mansoul he goes, till they should 12, 23, 24, which is face. Mr. Godspeace also laid down to the Commission, and would for the present act dipper in the Town of Mansoul. Thus may be walked contrary to him, and he again by so with the was a day wherein this old Gen-upon Mr. In the last the man Mr. carnal security did again mak: a Godspeace and so for the Town of Mansoul, and there was he goes to the for the Town of Mansoul, and there was he goes to the for the Town of Mansoul, and there was he goes to nd to for the Town of Mansoul, and there was be goes to our du time in the Town one Mr. Godlyfear, the feast

But treat request. This man old carnel security there like a bind a mind, if possible, to gull and debauch, stranger, abuse as he did the rest, and therefore he the day being come, they prepare, and he dan-13 and appears with the rest of the guess; vifir drink, and were merry, even all but this be to man. For Mr. Godlyfear sat like a firanafily ger, and did neither eat, nor was merry. To which when Mr. carnal Security perceived, and prefently address himself in a speech thus enthim: Carn. Mr. Godlyfear, are you not we so you seem to be ill of body or mind, or but I have a cordial of Mr. Forgetgoods making any Talk be- I have a cordial of Mr. Forgetgoods making the smixt Mr. the which, Sir, if you will take a dram of, to Carnal Se-hope, it may make you bonny and blithe, a curity, and so make you more fit for we feasting compared of Godly oas. Godly. Unto whom the good old Gentle fear.

man discreetly replied, Sir, I thank you for a not man discreenly replied, Sir, I thank you for another things courteous and civil, but for your cordial library no list thereto. But a word to the native at of Manfoul : You she Elders and chief of Man 120 foul, to me it is strange to see you so jos und a sh, merry, when the Town of Mansoul is in such a sun ful case. Carn. Then said Mr. Carnal Security see You want sleep, good Sir, I doubt. If you dripplease lye down and take a nap, and we mean so while will be merry. Gody. Then said the sel good man as follows, Sir, if you were not delle as bave done, and do. Carn. Then faid Mr. Carn and Security, Why, Godly. Nay pray interrupt an mot. Tis true, the Town of Mansoul was fire, the and (with a proviso) impregnable; but you, the free Townsmen have weaked it, and it now lyes obnorted to ous to its foes; nor is it a time to flatter, or be but filent, 'tis you Mr. Carnal security that bave was willy stripped Mansoul, and driven her glory from one her; you have pulled down her Towers, you have in horoxen down her Gaies, you have spoiled ber loss who hand bars. And now to explain my self, from that he time that my Lords of Mansoul and you, Sir, grow who so great from that time the strength of Mansoul her her offended, and now has in the strength of Mansoul her ta been offended, and now te is arisen and is

ived, Masswer bim by this and such ti ke questions. thus the is the Prince Emanuel? When did 2 ot we nor woman in Mansoul see him? When the you hear from him, or taste any of his naking by bits? you are now a feasting with this m of, bolonian monster, but he is not your Prince.
he, a tra. Then said Mr. Carnal Security, Fie, fie, mpan Godlifear, fie, will you never shake off Gentle timorousness? are you afraid of being for row-blasted? who hath hurt you? berdial Ham on your side, only you are for doubtnative and I am for being consident. Besides, is f Man satime to be sad in? A feast is made for and a th, why then do you now, to your shame, see in the trouble, break out into such passionteurin relancholy language, when you should eat f you drink, and be merry? Godly. Then said men Godly sear again, I may well be sad, for E-id the telis gone from Mansoul. I say again he is destinated out, Sir, are the man that has driven him carse a Nobles of Mansoul with his going, and if up me not a sign of his anger, I am not acquainted from the methods of Godliness. And now my Lords in the sentemen, for my speech i still to you, our gra- His speech inoxidestining from him did provoce kim gradually to the EL or be set from you the wood be did for some time ders of bave upsyou would bave been madesensible thereby, Mansoul.

from the been renemed by humbling of your selves; bave in be saw that none would regard nor lay these locks at beginnings of his anger and judgment to that he ment away from this place, and this I grew in mine eye. Wherefore now while you boat foul design is gone, you are like the man that hat loit ene.

inst his locks that before did wave about his stone at your ferres, and conclude to do as at other times the but since without him you can do nothing, and he a, departed from you, turn your feast into a sigh, Conscience your mirth into lamentation. Then the Subording in fartled.

Preacher, old Mr. Conscience by name, he the all of old was Recorder of Mansoul, being startle accorder what was said, began to second it thus. Could be a my Party of the second it thus. Indeed, my Brethern, quoth he I fear that M de Godlyfear tells us true: I, for my part, ha mot feen my Prince a long feafon. I canno di remember the day for my part. Nor can land wer Mr. Godlyfears question. I doubt, I a see, afraid that all is naught with Mansoul. Godly we way, I know that you shall not find him in Mansoul to for he is december. for he is departed and gone; yea, and gone for the faults of the Elders, and for that they reward his grace with unsufferable unkindnesses. As we with that, that saying of the Prince came versal hot into their minds, which he had bidde as them do to such as were salse Prophets them should arise to delude the Town of Mansalant So, they took Mr. Carnel sequing a cornellar So they took Mr. Carnal security (concluding that he must be he) and burned his house up in on him with fire, for he also was a D. abolonia we by nature. So when this was past and over they bespeed themselves to look for Eman to their Prince, and they sought him, but the found him not; then they were consistend in the truth of the Calles for Savings and him the truth of Mr. Godlyfears fayings, and begand also feverely to reflect upon themselves so their so vile and ungodly doings; for they consider the source of the source o cluded now that it was through them thatthe Prince had left them. Then the yagreen went to my Lord Secretary, (him whomb

They com fult and burn their Feast-mafter.

Cant. 5 6

from sethey refused to hear, him whom they had fire eved with their doings) to know of him, They apply times the was a Seer, and could tell where Emanuel and he a, and how they might direct a Petition to Sigh, a But the Lord Secretary would not admit ording in to a conference about this matter, nor be is griehe the uld admit them to his Royal place of abode, startle come out to them to shew them his face, or is, Colligence. And now was it a day gloomy and Ept. 4. 30. that Notice day of clouds and of thick darkness with t, have seroul. Now they saw that they had been canno slish, and began to perceive what the coman lang and practle of Mr. Carnal Security had to I am to and what desperate damage his swagger. God swords had brought poor Mansoul into. But fanfor at further it was like to cost them, that they for the eignorant of. Now Mr. Godis fear began ewirde un to be in repute with the men of the s. An own; yea, they were ready to look upon him ne ver a Prophet. Well, when the Sabbath-day biddenscome, they went to hear their Subordinate ets the nuclein; but Oh how he did thunder and ligh- Athunder-Manfor this day! His Text was that in the Prophet ing Sermon. acludin mab, They that observe lying vanities, forsake fon 2.8. sufe up in own mercies. But there was then such fuch abolomic over and authority in that Sermon, and such d cvs dejection feen in the countenances of the peo-Emanu e that day, that the like hath seldom been out the aid or seen. The people when Sermon was remed one, were scarce able to go to their homes, and began to betake themselves to their imploys the elves so akaster; they were so Sermon-smitten, and they could so sermon-sick by being smitten, that Hos. 6.13.

themselves to the Holy Gboft, but ved. &c. Ma. 63. 100 1 Thef. 5. .

19

hatthe sy knew not what to do. About this time green to there was a great sickness in the Town of A great whom trajout; and most of the inhabitants were sickness in greatly Manfoul Heb. 12.

12, 13.
Rev. 3. 2.
1/a. 3. 24.
Sin doth cause to be weak, doth
body, and oul, and graces;

greatly afflicted. Yea, the Captains also, an one of war were brought thereby to a languishing condition, and that for a long time together, so that in case of an invasion, no thing could to purpose now have been done either by the Townsmen, or Field-officers. Oh how many pa e faces, weak hands, feeble knees w and staggering men were now seen to walk the ffreets of Manjoul. Here were groans, there in pants, and youder lay those that were ready to an The garments too which Emanuel had by given them, were but in a forry case; some were the rent, some were torn, and all in a nasty considerion; some also did hang so loosely upon them, that the next bush they came at was ready to be pluck them off. After sometime spent in this said and desolate condition, the Subordinate Preactor called for a day of fasting, and to humble themselves for being so wicked against the assert shedden and his son. And he desired themselves are the son. great Shaddai, and his Son. And he desired that my Captain Boanerges would Preach. So he conferenced to do it, and the day was come, and his my Text was this, Cut it down, why cumbereth it the him ground? And a very smart Sermon he made up. who on the place. Now after Sermon they got together and confulted what was best to be done. But said the Subordinate Preacher, I will do nothing on mine own head, without advising with my neighbour Mr. Godlyfear. For if he had aforehand understood more of the mind of our sile Prince than we, I do not know but he also may have it now, even now we are turning a gin to her wertue. So they called and sent for Mr. Godlyfear, and he forthwith appeared; then they defired that he would further shew his opinion a- bout what they had best to do. Then said the old Centle.

They confu't what to do. To, an indeman as followeth, it is my opinion that this Mr. God-a lan mof Mansoul should in this day of her distress lysears time in up and send an humble Petition to their offen-advice. In, no I Prince Emanuel, that he in his favour and done newill turn again unto you, and not beep anger is. Oh ever.
knees When the Townsmen had heard this speech, lk the ydid with one confent agree to his advice; there they did presently draw up their request, and ady to enext was, But who shall carry it? At last They fend of had sy did all agree to send it by my Lord Mayor. the Lord were the accepted of the service, and addressed Mayor to con- well to his journey; and went and came court. them, the Court of Shaddar, whither Emanuel the dy to mee of Mansoul was gone. But the Gate Lam. 3. 8, this afthut, and a strict watch kept thereat, so the Present the Petitioner was sorced to stand without mble rigreat while together. Then he desired the a some would go into the Prince and tell that who stood at the Gate, and what his busicon- iwas. But the Prince would not come dhis moradmit that the Gate should be opened. tibe lim, but fent him an answer to this effect : the lim, but lent him an autwer to this cheet.

up, place turned the back unto me, and not their fer. 2. 17.

to-n, but now in the time of their trouble they fer. 2. 17.

one, nme arise and save us. But can they not now 18.

no-n Mr. Carnal. Security to whom they went their turned from me, and made him their leadad their Lord, and their protection now in their our de? why now in their trouble do they stirme, A dreadful their trouble do they stirme, A dreadful may ais their prosperity they went astray? This answer.

nto her made my Lord Mayer look black in the dy- ei it troubled, it perplexed, it rent him Lam. 4. 7. de- And now he began again to see what it to be familiar with Diabolonians, such as old some Security was. When he saw that ic.

pecled, either from himself, or friends in Man-foul; he smore upon his breast and returned weeping, and all the way bewailing the lamen re
The Lord table state of Mansoul. Well, when he was come in Mayor re- within fight of the Town, the Elders and chief he The Lord of the people of Manfoul went out at the gate to turns; and bow. meet him, and to salute him, and to know how no The state of he sped at Court. But he told them his tale Mansoul. in so doleful a manner, that they all cried out, it now.

and mourned and wept. After some time, when they had somewhat refrained themselves, but they came together to consult again what by them was yet to be done: and they asked ad-They confult vice, as they did before, of that reverend Mr. again Mr. Godly fear, who told them that there was no Godly fears way better than to do as they had done, nor advice.

would he that they should be discouraged at all with that they had met with at Court, year tho several of their Petitions should be answered with nought but silence or rebuke: For, id said he, it is the way of the wise Snaddai to make the men wiit and to exercise patience, and it should be be the way of them in want, to be willing to stay to Then they took courage, and fent de whai's the again, and again, and again, and again; for there was not now one day, nor an hour that all mork of went over Mansouls head, wherein a man might as not have meet upon the road one or other is to ding post, sounding the horn from Mansoul to the to Court of the King Shaddai; and all with Letter mo

Petitionary in behalf of (and for the Prince Die return to) Mansoul. The road, I say, was that now full of messengers, going and teturning, mel and meeting one another; some from the Court on his and some from Manfoul, and this was the work the a back Sliding saint rwabened Groaning de sires.

See now

be existe miserable Town of Mansoul, all that many that sharp, that cold and tedious winurned. Now if you have not forgot, you may Amemente.

amen remember that I told you before, that af-come Emanuel had taken Mansoul, yea, and after d chief ad new modelled the Town, there remainate to a several lurking places of the Corporatiw how many of the old Diabolonians, that either is tale with the Tyrant when he invaded and dout, the Town, or that had there by reason of time, wful mixtures, their birth and breeding, celves, bringing up. And their holes, dens, and lat by tog places were in under, or about the dad-tof the Town. Against these the good Mansoul. Ind Mr. seedid grant a Commission to the Lord Wil. heeded not ras no II and others, yea to the whole Town of ber Princes e, nor sail, to seek, take, secure and destroy any, Caution, ged at Athat they could lay hands of, for that nor put his yea were Diabolonians by nature, enemies to Commission be an-Prince, and those that sought to ruin the into exe: For, and Town of Mansoul. But the Town of cution.

I make that did not pursue this warrant, but ne Chould be a lock after to apprehend, to secure should red to look after, to apprehend, to secure, o sto destroy these Diabolonians. Wherefore of stay to destroy these Diabolonians. Wherefore destroy these Villains but by degrees take courted to put forth their heads and to shew shows to the inhabitants of the Town Yea might as was told, some of the men of Mansout too familiar with some of them, to the two familiar with some of them, to the more of in time and place. Well when more of in time and place. Well when since that Mansout had through sinning offended bolonians ming, weltheir Prince, and that he had with Plot. The Diabolonian himself and was gone, what do they but work therein of the Town of Mansou'. So upon a work theruin of the Town of Minjou'. So upon a time

time they met together at the hold of one M Mischiefs, who also was a Diabelonian, a there consulted how they might deliver Minfoul into the hands of Diabolus again. No some advised one away, and some anoth every man according to his own liking. last my Lord Lasciviousness propounded, w ther it might not be best in the first place fe Some of those that were Diabo onians in Manie to adventure to offer themselves for servan to some of the Natives of the Town, for a he, if they so do, and Manfoul shall accept them, they may for us, and for Diabolus of Lord, make the taking of the Town of M fout more easie than otherwise it will be. then stood up the Lord Murder, and faid, Th may not be done at this time, for Menion now in a kind of a rage, because by friend Mr. Carnal-Security the hath been on infnared already, and made to offend against Prince, and how shall the reconcile her fe unto her lord again, but by the heads of the men? Thus when they had toffed the matter and fro, they jointly agreed that a Lem should forthwith be fent away to Diabolus their name, by which the flate of the Town Munfoul should be shewed him, and how mu it is under the frowns of their Prince; we mi alfo, faid fome, let him know our intentions and ask of him his advice in the case. So Letter was presently framed, the Contents which was this.

They send to Hell for advice. one M ian,

rver

in. N

anoth

d, wh

lacel

Manjo

Gervan

for G

cept

141 0

M

T n on

of he

the

ter

Lette

lus

WA

mu

mi

ions

So

ats o

ng.

our great Lord, the Prince Diabolus,

Great Father, and mighty Prince Diabolus, The Copy we, the true Diabolonians, yet remaining of their rebellious Town of Mansoul, having re-Letter. Lour beings from thee, and our nourishment hands, cannot with content and quies endure bild, as we do this day, how thou art dispraisligraced, and reproached among the inhabiof this Town; nor is thy long absence at lightful to us, because greatly to our detri-

The reason of this our writing unto our for that we are not altogether without hope is Town may become thy babitation again: is greatly declined from its Prince Emanuel, is up risen, and is departed from them; tho they fend, and fend, and fend, and fend nto return to them, yet can they not preor get good words from bim. There has , and faintings among them, and that not an the poorer fort of the Town, but upon s, Captains, and chief Gentry of the place by who are of the Diabolonians by nature well, lively, and frong) fo that through reat transgression on the one band, and their us sickness on the other, we judg they lye thy hand and power. If therefore it shall with thy borrible cunning, & with the cunning rel of the Princes with thee, to come and attempt to take Mansoul again, fend us word, hall to our utmost power be ready to deliver thy band. Or if what we have faid shall by Fatherbood be thought best, and most meet hae, fend us thy mind in a few words, and we ready to follow thy counfel to the bazarding

ONT

nia

Di etb

ma

figi

bon

gai Ele

C2

d

41 of our lives, and what else we have. Given under our bands the day and date about written, after a close consultation at the bo of Mr. Mischief, who yet is alive, and his place in our desirable Town of Mi foul.

Mr. Profane is Carrier, be brings the Letter to Hellgatehill, and there prefents it to Cerberus the Porter.

When Mr. Profane (for he was the Carrie was come with his Letter to Hellgare-bill, knocked at the Brazen-gates for entrance Then did Cerberus the Porter, for he is the keeper of that Gate, open to Mr. Profane, whom he delivered his Letter, which he h brought from the Diabolonians in Mansoul. he carried it in and presented it to Diabolus Lord; and faid, Tidings my Lord, from Me foul; from our trufty friends in Manfoul.

Then came together from all places of den Beelz ebub, Lucifer, Apollyon, with the refl the rabblement there, to hear what news fro Manfoul. So the Letter was broken up and real and Cerberus he stood by! When the Lene was openly read, and the Contents there foread into all the corners of the den, con mand was given that without let or flop, Des mans-bell should be rung for joy. Now wh they had performed this their horrible cor mony, they got together again to confult whi answer to fend to their friends in Manfoul, and some advised one thing, and some another, by at length because the business required halle they left the whole bufiness to the Prince Diab lus, judging him the most proper Lord of the place. So he drew up a Letter as he thought fit, in answer to what Mr. Profane had brought and fent it to the Diabotonians that did dwelling Manfou, fail, by the same hand that had brought ne abonto him.

and be your off-spring the high and mighty Diabolomians, that yet dwell in the Town of Manfoul, Diabolus the great Prince of Manfoul, wifbab a prosperous iffue and conclusion of those many trave enterprizes, conspiracies, and defigns that you of your love and respect to our benour, bave in your bearts to attempt to do against Mansoul.

the bo

f Ma

Carrie

· bill, ntrano

is t ane .

he h ul.

olus

m Ma

oul.

of the

reft

vs fro

d read

Lett

here

COM

Des

wh

Con

CWI

l, an

r, bu

halle

Diebo

ought elling

nfoul,

Bloved children and disciples, my Lord Fornication, Adultery, and the rest, we have beredesolate den received to our rigbest joy and , your welcome Letter by the band of our Mr. Profane, and to Thew bow acceptable dings were, we rang out our Bell for gladfor we rejoiced that yet we had friends in oul, and such as sought our bonour and rein the ruin of the Town of Manfoul. speed to bear that they are in a degenerated on, and that they have offended their Prince, the is gone. Their sickness also pleaseth us, also your health, might and strength. uld we be, right borribly beloved, could we Town into our clutches again. Nor will we ing in spending our wit our cunning our craft high inventions to bring to a wished conclusion pour brave beginning in order thereto.

jou therefore our trusty Diabolonians, yet minto, and endeavour to spie out the weakthe Town of Mansoul. we also would that of the par selves do attempt to weaken them more and suggest a Send us word also by what means you think theft to atempt the regaining thereof : to wit, brby perswasion to a vain loose life; or, whether

ther by tempting them to doubt and despair; or, ther by blowing up the Town by the Gun-powder pride and self-conceit. Do you also, O je by Diabolonians, and true sons of the Pit, be at in a readiness to make a most bideous assault in when we shall be ready to storm it without. Speed you in your project, and we in our desires, usmost power of our Gates, which is the wish of great Diabolus, Mansouls enemy, and him that in bles when he thinks of judgment to come; all blessings of the Pit be upon you, and so we close our Letter.

Given at the Pits mouth by the joynt confeatil the Princes of Darkness, to be sent (to force and power that we have yet remin in Mansoul) by the hand of Mr. Profiles By me Diabolus.

This Letter, as was faid, was fent to M foul, to the Diabolonians that yet remained the and that yet inhabited the wall, from the di Dungeon of Diabolus, by the hand of Mr. In fane, by whom they also in Manjoul sept the to the Pit. Now when this Mr. Profane in made his return, and was come to Manjoul gain, he went and came as he was wont to thouse of Mr. In sighief, for there was the Co clave, and the place were the Contrivers we met. Now when they saw that their melle ger was returned safe and sound they we greatly gladded thereat. Then he present them with his Letter which he had broughton Diabolus for them; Now, when they we read it and perceived that it incouraged the

in their work, they fell to their way of co

Fleft.

Profane comes bome again. 7:07 powder

je br

be ab

ult mi

e fires,

oi hof

that m e close

confe

ent (ta

remain

Profi

bolus.

0 74

ed the

the da

Mr. B

pt the fane l

an oul

at to t he Co

ers we

melle

ey we

refen

orous

hey h dth of co omple

ut.

Diabolonian design upon Mansoul. And the diag that they did agree upon was to keep all from Manfoul as close as they could. The hing was, how, or by what means they try to bring to pass the ruin and overof Manfoul, and one faid after this manind another after that. Then flood up Mr. and faid, My right Diabolonian friends, ords, and the high ones of the deep Dunde propound unto us these three ways. Whether we had best to seek its ruin by g of Mansoul loose and vain. 2. Or whedriving them to doubt and despiar.

whether by endeavouring to blow them Take beed the Gun-powder of pride and felf-conceit. Manfoul.

I think if we should tempt them to pride. may do fomthing; and if we tempt them intonness, that may help. But in my if we could drive them into desparation, would knock the nail on the head; for we should have them question the truth of ove of the heart of their Prince towards and that will difgust him much. This if ks well, will make them leave off quickly way of fending Petitions to him; then farearnest sollicitations for help and supply; ten this conclusion lies naturally before As good do nothing as do to no purpofe. t Deceit they unanimously did confent. in the next question was, but how shall to bring this our project to pals? and Take beed answered by the same gentleman, Mansoul, his might be the best way to do it, even noth he, so many of our friends as are of their Princes cause, disguise themselves apparel, change their names, and go into the market like far Country men, proffer to let themselves for servants to famous Town of Mansoul, and let them pr tend to do for their Masters as beneficially may be; for by fo doing they may, if Man shall hire them, in little time so corsupta defile the Corporation, that her now Prin shall be not only further offended with the but in conclusion shall spue them out of mouth. And when this is done, our Prise Diabolus shall prey upon them with ease : It of themselves they shall fall into the mouth of a Tube beed easer: This project was no fooner propound ed, but was as highly accepted, and forwar were all Diabolonians now to engage in for licate an enterprize; but it was not though fit that all should do thus, wherefore the pitched upon two or three, namely, the Lor Coverousness, the Lord Lasciviousness, and it Lord Anger. The Lord Covereou nels calle himself by the name of Prudent thrifty; the Lord Lasciviousness called himself by the nan of Harmiess-mirth; and the Lord Anger calls himseif by the name of Good-zeal, So upo Tabe beed a Market-day they came into the Market-place Manfoul. three lufty fellows they were to look on, an they were clothed in Sheeps-russet, which w Manfoul.

Manfoul.

Take bee ! also new in a manner as white as were th white robes of the men of Mansoul, Nowth men could speak the language of Manfoul well So when they were come into the Market place, and had offered themselves to the Town men, they were presently taken up, for the asked but little wages, and promised to date their Masters great service. Mr. Mind him Prudent-thrifty, and Mr. God'y-fear hired God

D, 21

e: Te

304

True, this fellow Harmlefs-mirth did to the a little in hand, and could not fo foon em prochim a Master as the other did, because the cially on of Mansoul was now in Lene, but after Man chile because Lene was almost out, the upta on Wilbewill hired Harmless mirth to be both Take heed Prin waiting-man, and his Lacquy, and thus they Mansoul, the them Masters. Well, when these Vagaof hads had thus far carried on their defign, and Printer corrupted the Town as much as they ald, in the next place they confidered with of themselves at what time their Prince Diabolus opour thout, and themselves within the Town orward ald make an attempt to seise upon Mansonl; n so they all agreed upon this, that a Market-though would be best for that work; for why? re the will the Townsfolk be bufie in their ways: ne Lord always take this for a rule, when people and the most busie in the world they least fear a surprize. calle befe things being thus far agreed upon by fir; them, they wrote another Letter to Diabolus, he name ifent it by the hand of Mr. Profine, the realle ments of which was this:

cumber.

o upo t-place The Lords of Looleness send to the great and on, an high Diabolus from our Dens, cave, ch we boles, and strong holds, in, and about the ere the wall of the Town of Mansoul, Greet Look to it

Manfoul

Now ing:

ul well UR great Lord, and the nourisher of our larket lives, Diabolus; how glad we were when Town to heard of your fatherhoods readiness to or the amply with us, and help forward our design d to d our attempts to ruin Mansoul! none can d him all but those who as we do set themselves a- Rom. 7.2 1 d God unft all appearances of good when and Gal. 5.17.

where-

Manfoul.

wherefoever we find it. First we confident of that most hellishly, cunning compassed three-fold project, that by you was propound ed to us in your last; and have concluded that though to blow them up with the Gun powder of pride would do well, and to doi by tempting them to be loofe and vain wi shelp on, yet to contrive to bring them in the gulf of desperation, we think will dobe of all. Now we who are at your beck, han thought of two ways to do this : First, w for our parts will make them as vile as we can and then you with us, at a time appointed shall be ready to fall upon them with the utmost force. And of all the Nations that an at your whiftle, we think that an army Doubiers may be the most likely to attach and overcome the Town of Manfoul. The

Manfoul.

Thall we overcome these enemies, else the P wishall open her mouth upon them, and despen in tion shall thrust them down into it. We have also, to essect this so much by us desired design, sent already three of our trusty Disble in it is a mong them, they are disguised in gard they have changed their names, and are no accepted of them. Our next project is, the sit be concluded that you come upon the Tow supon a Market-day, and that when they are supon the heat of their business; for them they are supon the heat of their business; for them they are supon the heat of their business; and less the fure they will be most secure, and less the fure they will be most secure, and less the supon the heat of their business; and the same supon the heat of their business; and less the fure they will be most secure, and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the supon the supon the heat of their business; and less the supon the supo Mansonl. They will also at such a time be less able to defend themselves and to offend you in the prosecution of our design. And we you trusty (and we are sure your beloved) one shall when you shall make your furious idered ale without, be ready to second the busipound able to put Manfoul to utter confusion, and uded wallow them up before they can come to o doi will Dragons, and our highly esteemed Lords, in will find out a better way than this, let us

m int ckly know your minds.

dobe. To the Monsters of the Infernal Cave; from the house of Mr. Mischief in Mansoul, rst, w by the hand of Mr. Profane.

we can so all the while that the raging runnaith the and hellish Diabolonians were thus conthat are not the ruin of the Town of Mansoul, they, rmy on, the poor Town it self was in a sad and attack case, partly because they had so grie-The offended Shaddai and his Son, and partly The fid the P eserthat the enemies thereby got strength state of lespers in them afrest, and also because though Mansoul, Ve have had by many Petitions made fuit to the red de ce Emanuel, and to his Father Shaddai by Diabol for their pardon and favour, yet hitherto in gard med they not one smile; but contrariwise is, the Diaboloniaus, their cloud was made to grow the Tow ter and blacker, and their Emanuel to then tall greatly rage in Mansoul, both among and less captains and their enemies only were now able to mansoul was made the tail.

Profane we you this time the Letter last mentioned, that arrives as form of Mansoul, was conveyed to him. furior the Town of Manfou', was conveyed to bin.

ment.

Diabolus in the Black-den, by the hand of M Profane's Profane, who went intothe Den, and his Lord De Entertain- bolus met him, and saluted him with Welco my trufty fervant. I have been made e with thy Letter. The rest of the Lords of Pit gave him also their salutations, Profane after obeisance made to them all, si Let Mansoul be given to my Lord Diabolus, a let him be her King for ever. And with the the hollow belly, and yauning gorge Hell gave so loud and hideous a groan ( h that is the mufick of that place ) that it mid the mountains about it totter, as if they wou fall in pieces. Now after they had re and confidered the Letter, they confulted wh answer to return, and the first that did fper toit was Lucifer. Lucifer. Then faid The first project of the Diabolonians in Ma foul is like to be lucky, and to take; to w that they will by all the ways and means the can, make Mansoul yet more vile and filth no way to destroy a Soul like this; this Probatumeft, our old friend Balaam went the Numb. 31. way and prospered many years ago; let in Rev. 2. 14. Diabolonians for a general rule in all ages, nothing can make this to fail but Grace, which I would hope that this Town has share. But whether to fall upon them on Market day, because of their cumber in but sour dangerous. ness, that I would should be under debate.

there is more reason why this head should debated, than why some other should; b cause upon this will turn the whole of will we shall attempt. If we time not our buin well, our whole project may fail. Our frie fult what answer to give to the Letter.

They con-

Lucifer.

Cumberments are d of M ord Di

Velcon

de el

ds of the 11, [21

lus, 20

ithth

orge o

an ( fo

it mad

WOU.

d re

ed wh

Ipe2

aid h

Me

ns the filthy

this

nt th

et th d be

(05,1

ace,

125

n bu te.A

The

then will Manfoul be most busie, and have need do it thoughts of a surprize. But what if they should double their guards on those is, (and methinks nature and reason should whithem to do it) and what if they should puch a watch on those days as the necessity their present case doth require? yea, what their men should be always in arms on those is then you may, my Lords, be disappointing your attempts, and may bring our friends the Town to utter danger of unavoidable

m. Beel. Then faid the great Beelzebub, the is something in what my Lord hath said, this conjecture may, or may not fall out, thath my Lord laid it down as that which had not be receded from: for I know that he it only to provoke to a warm debate reabout. Therefore we must understand, we can, whether the Town of Mansoul has the sense and knowledg of her decayed state, dof the design that we have on foot against a so doth provoke her to set watch and A Lessand at her Gates, and to double them on Mar-for Cb i-days. But if after enquiry made, it shall fians.

thr.

estimated that they are assess, then any day all do, but a Market-day is best; and this my judgment in this case. Diab. Then noth Diabolus, how should we know this a dit was answered, enquire about it at the outh of Mr. Profane. So Profane was calling and asked the question, and he made his swer as follows. Prof. My Lords, so far as less garber, this is at present the condition of the sound of Mansoul, they are decayed in their faith solve, Emanual their Prince has given then

Profane's the back; they send often by petition to fetch him cel descriptio again, but he maketh not hast to answer their re- bin of the pre- quest, nor is there much reformation among them, has no state Diab. I am glad that they are backward to me of Mansoul a resonmation, but yet I am asraid of their Re- the a reformation, but yet I am afraid of their Pethe titioning. However their loofness of life is a self fign that there is not much heart in what they do; and without the heart, things are little monorth. But go on my masters, I will diver the you, my Lords, no longer. Beel. If the case we be so with Mansoul, as Mr. Profane has described it to be, it will be no great matter what day we affault it; not their prayers, nor their powers.

Dreadful advice against Manfoul.

er will do them much fervice. Apoll. When at Reelzebub had ended his Oration, then Apollon did begin. My opinion faid he concerning this matter, is, thet we go on fair and foftly not doing things in an hurty. Let our friends in Mansoul go on still to pollute and defile it, by seeking to draw it yet more into sin (for so there is nothing like fin to deyour Monfoul. If this be done, and it takes effect, Manfoul of it felf will leave off to watch, to Petition or any thing elfe that should tend to her security and fafety; for the will forget her Eminuel The will not defire his company, and can the be gotten thus to live, her Prince will not come to her in haft, Let therefore this first project that our friends in Manfoul have fet on foot, be firongly and diligently carried on with all cunning and craft imaginable; and let them fend continually under one guife or another, more and other of their men to play with the people of Manfoul; and then perhaps we shall not need to be at the charge of making a War upon them; or if that mult of neceffity Dreadful advice against Manloul. ch bin cellity be done, yet the more finful they are, eir re-hemore unable, to be sure, they will be to re-them, rus, and then the more easily we shall overard to me them. And besides, suppose ( and that is a should come to them again, why may not they same means (or the like) drive him from little in once more? Yea, why may he not by their divertible into that fin again, be driven from them again, be driven from them seribat driven from them for a season? And if at day is should happen, then away go with him pow- Rams, his Slings, his Captains, his Souldiers, When the leaveth Manfoul naked and bare. Yea, will this Town, when the fees her felf utterly this taken of her prince of her own accord open not a Gates again unto you, and make of you as in day's of old? but this must be done by time, against days will not effect fo great a work as this . Manfoul so foon as Apollyon had made an end of fpeak-Diabolus began to blow out his own ma and to plead his own cause, and he faid, Lords and Powers of the Cave, my true trusty friends, I have with much impatience becomes me, given ear to your long and teus Orations. But my furious gorge, and pty panch, so lusteth after a repossession my Famous Town of Mansoul, that what treomes on't I can wait no longer to fee the nes of lingering projects. I must, and that hout further delay, feek by all means I can fil my unsatiable gulf with the foul and of the Town of Mansoule Therefore me your heads, your hearts, and your help, foot to it wlamgoing to recover my Town of Man-Manfoul. When the Lords and Princes of the Pit pow-

oollyon

ds in le it, (for

oul. 1

nfoul

10 E urity

nuel,

the

not first

t 00

OB

and 10 play

1205

of tof

Hey

An army of Doubter
raised to ga against the Town of Munfoul

faw the flaming defire that was in Diabolus to devour the milerable Town of Manfoul, they left off to raile any more objections, but confented to lend him what strength they could Wherefore they fell to advising the next thing propounded, to wit, what Souldiers they were and also how many, with whom Diabelus should go against the Town of Mansoul to take it; and after some debate it was concluded, according as in the Letter the Diabolonians had fuggested, that none was more fic for that Ex. pedition than an Army of terrible Doubiers. The number thought fit to be imployed in that fervice was between twenty and thirty thou. fand. So then the refult of that great councel of those high and mighty Lords was, That Disbolus should even now out of hand beat up his Drum for men in the land of Doubting, they drew up a Letter and fent back to the Diabolonians that lurked in Manfoul, and that waited for the back-coming of Mr. Profune, to fignifie to them into what method and forwardness they at present had put their defign, The Contents whereof now followeth.

Arother Lever from Diabolus to the Diabolonians in Minfoul From the dark and horrible Dungeon of Hell, Diabolus with all the Society of the Princes of Darkness, sends to our trusty ones, in and about the walls of the Town of Minsoul, now imputently waiting for our most Devillish answer to their venomous and most poylonous design against the Town of Mansoul.

OUR native ones, in whom from day to day we boaft, and in whose actions all the

at i

12

Ola

us to

they

COU-

uld

hing

vere,

bolus

take

ded,

had

Ex.

ers.

that

011-ncel

Dia-

Hie

So

14-

hat

ne,

zn.

of

of ur of t-th A

f

We received your welcome, because highly deemed Letter, at the hand of our trusty and reatly beloved, the old Gentleman Mr. Pro se. And do give you to understand, that then we had broken it up, and had read the contents thereof (to your amazing memory it spoken) our yauning hollow belied the, where we are, made so hideous and sling a noise for joy, that the mountains at stand about Hellgate bill, had like to have an shaken to pieces at the sound thereof.

The proposals therefore which now at last: have fent us, fince we faw them, we have melittle else but highly approved and aded them. Nay, we shall to incourage you the profundity of your craft, let you know tat a full affembly and conclave of our finces, and principalities of this place, your roject was discoursed and toffed from one of our Cave to the other by their mightifes ; but a better and as was by themselves dged a more fit and proper way by all their scould not be invented to furprize, take, make our own, the rebellious Town of the make our own, the rebellious Town of the following the make our own, the rebellious Town of at our stout, furious, and unmerciful Diabolus raising for your relief, and the rain of the bellious Town of Minfoul more than twenty oufand Daubters to come against that peo-They are all stout and sturdy men, and

They are all stout and sturdy men, and con that of old have been accustomed to tar, and that can therefore well endure the tum. I say he is doing of this work of his with all the possible speed he can for his tart and spirit is engaged in it. We defire

K 5

there-

therefore that as you have hitherto fluck to ten-us, and given us both advice and encourage ment thus far; that you still will profecute our writers of the profession of the state of the design, nor shall you lose but be gainers there by; yea, we intend to make you the Lords of specific of the Mansoul. One thing may not by any means be omitted, that is, those with us do desire that ded severy one of you that are in Mansoul would will with delusive perswasions, yet to draw the with delusive perswasions, yet to draw the Town of Mansoul into more fin and wicked the ress, even that sin may be sinished and bring that forth death. As to the time of our coming the sould upon Mansoul, we as yet have not fully resolved upon that, though at present some of the standard was think as you though at present some of the standard was think as you though at present some of the standard was think as you the standard was the standard was think as you the standard was the standard folved upon that, though at present some of the sus think as you, that a Market-day, or a Market-day at night will certainly be the best.

Best. 5.8. However do you be ready, and when you shall alou thear our roaring Drum without, do you be as busie to make the most horrible consustant within. So shall Mansoul certainly be distress within. So shall Mansoul certainly be distress within and behind, and shall not know which way to betake her self for help. My had bord Lucifer, my Lord Beelzebub, my Lord and work and you as does also my Lord District and we would as does also my Lord District and we you, as does also my Lord Diabolus, and we with both you with all that you do or shall sha 'possess, the very self same fruit and successfor the their doing, as we our felves at present enjoy bes for ours.

from our dreadful Confines in the men et fet fearful Pic, we falute you, and so do de those many Legions here with us, bolo wishing you may be as Hellishly prof-perous as we desire to be ourselves. By the Letter-carrier Mr. Profane ck to ten Mr. Profene addrelled himfelt for his rage min to Manfoul, with his Errand from the More tath the our wrible Pit to the Diabolonians that dwelt in between there Town. So he came up the stairs from the Profance rds of ep to the mouth of the Cave where Car- Cerberus. the ed how matters did go below, about, and was. Now when Cerberus faw him, he woul winft the Town of Manfoul. Prof. Things go skill, sell as we can expect. The Letter was highly approved, and well ked at by all my Lords, and I am returning to tell bring Diabolonians so. I have an answer to it here ming bosom, that I am sure will make our masters fent me glad; for the Contents thereof is to ne of warage them to pursue their design to the utmost, Mars to be ready also to fall on within when they fall best, in Lord Diabolus beleaguering of the Town of that afoul. Cerb. Bu: does he intend to go a-u be af them himself Prof. Does be! Ay, isson lewill take along with him more than twenty rest. Ind. all sturdy Doubters, and men of war, The land now kmen, from the land of Doubting, to serve from the My in the Expedition. So after a few more such which the Lord of Complements, Mr. Profane took his Doubters alute of his friend Cerberus, and Cerberus a. come. hall shaft with all speed to his Masters. sfor th when he had heard, he made oscilance, Thus therefore he returned, and went and mest to Manfoul, and going as afore to the do de of Mr. Mischief, there he found the us, belonians assembled, and waiting for his rerof Now when he was cone, and had preyes. ad himself, he also delivered to them his er, and adjoined this Complement to them hen

there-

Profane eturned again to Manfoul cherewith, My Lords, from the Confines of Pit, the high and mighty Principalities as powers of the Den falute you here, the to Diabo onlans of the Town of Manfout. Wil ing you always the most proper of their nedictions, for the great fervice, high attemp and brave atchievements that you have n your selves upon, for the restoring to only Prince Diabolus the samous Town of Marin he

This was therefore the present state of the miserable Town of Mansoul: the had offend wh ed her Prince, and he was gone; the had in couraged the powers of Hell by her foolished to come against her to feek her utter destruction on. They did indeed fill fend Petition afte ih Petition to the Prince, but he answered all will be filence. They did neglect reformation, and to that was as Diabo'us would have it; for he knew, if they regarded iniquity in their hear a cheir King would not hear their prayer; they are therefore did still grow weaker and weaker as; and were as a rolling thing before the whirt you wind. They cried to their King for help, and hollaid Diabolonians in their bosoms, what there bosoms, fore should a King do to them? Yea, there im seemed now to be a mixture in Mansoul, the lead Diabolonians and the Mansoulians would wall are the streets together. Yez, they began so seek up their peace, for they thought that fince them fickness had been so mortal in Monsout; 'Wis ca in vain to go to handigripes with them. opl But now as shad ai would have it, therewas no one whose name was Mr. Frymell, a great lover to of the people of Minjoul. And he as his man, a per was, did go liftning up and down in Mar- d, e foul to fee, and to hear if at any time he might ry

Good conceptions, and good defire .

Good: Thoughts.

of th 5 200

thock

ethe

wher there was any defign against it or no. The It ory he was always a jealous man, and feared of Mr Prytre memischief sometime would befall it, either well. eirh wer without. Now upon a time it fo hapempressed, as Mr. Prywell went liftning here and we putte, that he lighted upon a place called Pilewe present that he lighted upon a place called vuedaying hearing a muttering ( you must know that it of the min the night) he softly drew near to hear; offend had he stood long under the house end, ad in there stood a house there ) but he heard confidently affirm, That it was not, or bolonian trudi ald not be long before Diabolus should pos-afte shimself again of Mansoul, and that then I will Diabolonians did intend to put all Mansoulin, are to the sword, and would kill and destroy for her Kings Captains, and drive all his Souldiers hear a of the Town. When Mr. Prywell had the and this story, he did quickly believe it was eaker me, wherefore he went forthwith to my Lord whirt yours house, and acquainted him therewith; Underp, and no sending for the Subordinate Preacher, brake standing, there bousiness to him; and he as soon gave the Conscitthere arm to the Town, for he was now the chief ence. wall wetary was ill at ease. And this was the way of seek at the Subordinate Preacher did take to acce the im the Town wherewith: The same hour was caused the Ledure-bell to be rung, so the rewal thortation to watchfulness, and made Mr. Pry-loved the news the argument thereof. For, said man an horrible plot is contrived against Man-Man d, even to massacre us all in a day; nor is this high the be slighted, for Mrs. Prymell is the author

Plot difco-

Prywell sells bis news to Manfoul-author thereof. I will call him, and you had hear him your own felves; so he called him as and he came and told his tale so pundually, and the affirmed its truth with such ample grounds, the the Manfoul fell presently under a conviction of the affirmula of what he said. The Preacher did also ret back him, faying, Sirs, it is not irrational form us to believe it, for we have provoked baddi of to anger, and have finned Emanuel out of the de Town; we have had too much correspondence for with Diabolonians, and have forfaken our for mer mercies: no marvel then if the enemy both and within and without should defign and plot out at a ruin ; and what time like this to do it ? The sei fickness is now in the Town, and we have been at we made weak thereby. Many a good meaning min man is dead, and the Diabolonians of late act grow stronger and stronger. When Man the foul heard all this, and not being able to gain with fay it, they lift up their voice and wept, Mr. with Prywell did also in the presence of the Town. late men, confirm-all that their Subordinate Preacher The had faid. Wherefore they now fet afresh to fuc. bewail their folly, and to a doubling of Peti- ins. tions to Shaddai and his Son. They also brake and the business to the Captains, high Command-Did ers, and men of War in the Town of Manoul, the I entreating of them to use the means to be firong, and to take good courage, and that they would look after their harnels, and make then felves read to give Diabolus battel by night and by day, shall he come, as they are informance. ed he will, to beleaguer the Town of Manfout ough

They tell the thing to the Captains.

Good de-

When the Captains heard this, they bein, always true lovers of the Town of Manjouy what do they but like so many Sampjons thee of the ship te themselves, and come together to con- They come him cand contrive how to defeat those bold and together to the list contrivances that were upon the wheel consuit. the the means of Diabolus and has friends, aof the off the now fickly, weakly, and much im-alfor withed Town of Mansoul; and they agreed Their a-I for on these following Particulars. I. That the defast with bars and locks, and that all I Cor. 16 ence for that went out, or came in, should be for refrictly examined by the Captains of the both aids. To the end, faid they, that those our ware managers of the Plot among us, The either coming or going be taken; and been t we may also find out who are the great Lam. 3.40 ding trivers (amongst us) of our ruin. 2 The Lam. 3.40 late whing was, that a strict search should be the for all kind of Diabelonians throughout Mr. whole Town of Mansoul; and that every Mr. whouse from top to bottom should be lookwal litto, and that too, house by house, that if the file a further discovery might be made of Heb. 12. to such among them as had a hand in these 15, 16.

Chak

eti- cas. 3. It was further concluded upon, ake a mberesoever or with whomsever any of fer. 234 ind Diabolonians were found, that even those Chap. 5 26. ind-Diabolonians were found, that even those Chap. 5 26.

Job, the Town of Man soul, that had given them 1 zeb. 16.

Jobe ale and harbour, should to their shame, and 1 seb. 16.

Le warning of others take penance in the mplace.

4. It was moreover resolved are samous Town of Mansoul, that a publick and a day of humiliation should be kept mughout the whole Corporation to the mining of the Prince, the abasing of them- foels. 14.

John the before him for their transgressions a Chap. 2.

The samous Town of Mansoul, that a publick and a day of humiliation should be kept mughout the whole Corporation to the samous before him for their transgressions a Chap. 2.

The samous Town of Mansoul, that a publick and a day of humiliation should be kept mughout the whole Corporation to the samous before him for their transgressions a Chap. 2.

The samous Town of Mansoul, that a publick are samous Town of Mansoul, the samous Town of Ma

ak

Jer. 374. what speed, and with what warmth of min they could, they would renew their humiliation for fin, and their Petitions to Shaddai shelp; they also resolved to send tidings to the

Mr.Prywell it made Scout master General.

Court of all that Mr. Prywell had told then 6. It was also determined that than should be given by the Town of Manfoul Mr. Prywell for his diligent feeking of the welfare of their Town; and further, the forafmuch as he was fo naturally inclined to feektheir good, and also to undermine their foes, they gave him a Commission of Seous master-general, for the good of the Town Manfoul. When the Corporation with their Captains had thus concluded, they did as they had faid, they thut up their Gates, they mid for Diabolonians strict search, they made those with whom any was found, to take penance in the open place. They kept their Fast, and renewed their petitions to their Prince, and Mr. Prywell managed his charge, and the trul that Manfoul had put into his hands with great Conscience, and good fidelity; for he gave himself wholly up to his imploy, and that not only within the Town, but he went out to my to fee, and to bear. And not many days after he provided for his Journy, and went towards Hellgate bill, into the country where the Doubters were, where he heard of all that had been talked of in Manfoul, and he perceived alle that Diabolus was almost ready for his march, es. So he came back with speed, and calling the Captains and Elders of Mansoul together he told them where he had been, what he had heard, and what he had feen. Particularly he

Mr. Prywell goes a fcouting. min imili

dai f tot

them

hank

out t

f ch

tha

ned no

Scout

WD 0

their

s the

made

thole

nce in nd red Mr.

truft

great

gave

t not

0 177.

atter

wards

oubs-

been alfe

arch.

alling

ether

e had rly ho

told them that Diabolus was almost ready for He returnt arch, and that he had made old Mr. with grea lity that once brake prison in Mansoul, news. neral of his Army; that his Army conall of Doubters, and that their number bove twenty thousand. He said morethat he understood by the Doubters awhom he had been, that the reason why credulity was made General of the whole was because none truer than he to the and because he had an implacable gainst the welfare of the Town of Man-Besides, said he, he remembers the afthat Manfoul has given, and he is re- Some Diato be revenged of them. Now when bolonians stains of Minsonl with the Elders of the taken in had heard the tidings that Mr. Prywell Mansoul. ing, they thought it expedent without and comdelay to put into execution the Laws mitted to minst the Diabolonians their Pringe had Prifon. or them, and given them in commandto manage against them. Wherefore ith a diligent and impartial fearch was sall houses in Mansoul for all and all of Diabolonians. Now in the house Mind, and in the house of the great Milbewill were two Dabo onians found. Minds house was one Lord Coverousness but he had changed his name to Prudent In my Lord willbewill's house, one Lawas found; but he had changed me to Harmles mirth. These two the as and Elders of the Town of Minfoul and committed them to custody under nd of Mr. Trueman the Gaoler; and an handled them to feverely, and load-

The Lord Willbewill and Mr Vind rake penance.

Penance mbat.

ed them so well with irons, that in time who both fell into a very deep Consumptio orain and died in the Prison-house; their makes the also according to the agreement of the Can Mr tains and Elders, were brought to take parte por ance in the open place to their shame, and in fly a warning to the rest of the Town of Manson rain.

Now this was the manner of penance of Grand Control of the Control those days. The persons offending being min sour feusible of the evil of their doings, were in his joined open confession of their faults, and subfirst amendment of their lives. After the Cathe Captains and Elders of Minfout fought ye led to find out more Diabolonians, wherever the led lurked, whether in dens, caves, holes, vauls or where else they could, in, or about the wall us or Town of Mansou'. But though they could plainly see their footing, and so follow the the by their tract, and smell to their holds, evening to the months of their caves and dens, regain take them, hold them, and do justice upon them they could not their ways ware them they could not; their ways were in crooked, their holds to strong, and they and quick to take sanctuary there. By this tim, The Diabolus had finished his Army which he intend 228 ed to bring with him for the ruin of Manfou we and had fet over them Captains, and other as liked his furious ho mach best, himself was Lord paramount, he was credulity was General of his Army. The lighest Captains shall be named afterwards: by now for their Office. Diabolu's now for their Officers, Colours and Scutcheon lid

Their fielt Captain was Captain Rege, Army. 12.3 Rev. Was Captain over the Election-Donbiers, hill, 4,13.15,17 were the Red Colours: his Standard-bears a was Mr. Destructive, and the great Red Dr the had for his Scutcheon. 2. The fecond Num. 21.6. nio ptain was Captain Fury, he was Captain the Vocation-doubters; his Standard-bearer

Mr. Darkness, his Colours were those that the pale, and he had for his Scutcheon the dir flying Serpent. 3. The third Captain was

Mat. 3. 223

Inso prain Dumnation, he was Captain over

Ce Grace-doubters, his were the Red Revel. 91. mis curs, Mr. No-life bare them, and he had re in his Scutcheon the Black-den. 4. The Prov27.20 the Captain over the Faith doubters, his were he ye led Colours, Mr. Devourer bare them, and the add for a Scutcheon the yawning faws.

Psal. 11.6. Palls The fifth Captain was Captain Brimstone, Rev. 14.21 e will us Captain over the Perseverance-doubters, could so were the Red Colours, Mr. Burning the them, and his Scutcheon was the Blue and Mat. 9. 44, eve ing flame. 6. The fixth Captain was 46, 48. is, ye main Torment, he was Captain over the Re-upo clion-doubters, his Colours were those that ere supale, Mr. Gnam was his Ancient-bearney (ad he had the Black-worm for his Scutcheon.
s tim The seventh Captain was Captain No-ease, ntend vas Captain over the Salvation-doubters, Rev. 4. 11. other and his Scutcheon was the gastly picture as sho leath. 8. The eighth Captain was the fer.5, 6. ant, he ain Sepulcher, he was Captain over the Char, 2,3,5. The p-Doubters, his also were the pale Colours, ds: by Corruption was his Ancient bearer, and heon ind for his Scutcheon a Scull, and dead ige, bones. 9. The ninth Captain was Cap- 1 Tim.4.2.

175, hi Pall-hope, he was Captain of those that Rom. 2. 5.

bears alled the Felicity doubters, his Ancient-Dia a was Mr. Despair ; his also were the Red go

Colours,

Diabolus bis army and the hard heart. The Reformiders all fuch as were like themselves, were made for compleased of the Captains of hundreds, and fome them Captains of more : and thus was the my of Incredulity compleated. So they out of Hellgare bill ( for there they had the Rendezvouz) from whence they came with straight courfe upon their march towards Town of Manfoul. Now, as was hinted befor the Town had as Shaddai would have it rece ed from the mouth of Mr. Prywell the alarm their coming before. Wherefore they for strong watch as the Gates, and had also do bled their guards, they also mounted their flie in good places where they might convenie ly cast out their great stones to the annoyas He maes of the furious enemy. When Diabolus an affault come up against the Town, first he made his upon Ear- proach to Eargate, Supposing his friends gate, a d is Manfoul had been ready to do the work wi in ; but care was taken of that before, by vigilance of the Captains. Wherefore fing of the help that he expected from them finding of his Army warmly attended with ftones that the flingers did fling (for that I fay for the Captains, that confidering weakness that yet was upon them by rea of the long fickness that had annoyed

Town of Mansoul, they did gallantly bell themselves), he was forced to make repelled.

Fam. 4. 7 He retteat; and intrenches bimfelf.

mmm retreat from Manfoul, and to intrench his at h and his men in the field without the read one l the flings of the Town. Now having intre bold d ed himfelf, he did cast up sour Mounts 23

r h

i t

227

th

dey

21 at er tht a willi

the Town; the first he called Mount Diab dis put and t 110

ali

e for me

thea

hey

d the

with ds t befor

recei

arm

vemo

Oyan

115 W

his

nds

k w

by t

re a iem.

rith

tI

ng

1 101

ved

belt

ke I

hin

read

atre

25

Diab

ing his own name thereon, the more to afht the Town of Manfout; the other three alled thus, Mount Aledo, Mount Megara, He cafts Mount Tifiphone ; for these are the names up Mounts the dreadful Furies of Hell. Thus he began against the play his game with Manfoul, and to ferve it Town. doth the Lion his prey, even to make it before his terror. But, as I faid, the Capsand Souldiers refifted so stoutly, and did fich execution with their stones, that they e him, though against stomach, to retreat: refore Manfoul began to take courage, ow upon Mount Diabolus, which was raifed Diabolus me North-fide of the Town, there did the bis flanant fet up his Standard, and a fearful thing dard fet upi ras to behold, for he had wrought in it by illish art, after the manner of a Scutcheaffaming flame fearful to behold, and the are of Manfoul burning in it. When Diawhad thus done, he commanded that his amer should every night approach the wall the Town of Manfoul, and fo to beat a parthe command was to do it a nights, for in day-time they annoyed him with their flings; the Tyrant faid that he had a mind to He bids . ley with the now trembling Town of Manand he commanded that the Drums should it every night, that through weariness they ent at last (if possibly, at the first they were willing yet ) be forced to do it. So this unmer did as commanded, he arose and did at his Drum. But when his Drum did go, Manfoul one looked towards the Town of Manfoul, tremble at fold darkness and sorrow, and the light was dark- the wife of din the beaven thereof. No noise was ever bis Deum put ard upon earth more terrible, except the Ifa. 5.30.

bis Drummer to beat bis Drum.

voice

calls back bis Drum.

voice of Shaddai when he speaketh. Buth Diabolus did Manfoul tremble ! it now looked for noth but forthwith to be swallowed up. W this Drummer had beaten for a Parley, made this speech to Manfoul, My Master bid me tell you, that if you will willingly fub you shall have the good of the earth; but if be stubborn, he is resolved to take you by force. I by that the fugitive had done beating of Drum , the people of Mansout had betal themselves to the Captains that were in Castle, so that there was none to regard, to give this Drummer an answer; so he pro ceeded no further that night, but returned gain to his Master to the Camp. When Di bolus faw that by Drumming he could not worked out Manfout to his will, the next night he feet et eth his Drummer without his Drum, still to keet the rownsmen know that he had a mind to park his with them. But when all came to all, his Park to was turned into a Summons to the Ton for to deliver up themselves: but they gave his Ton neither heed nor hearing, for they remembe he whatat first it coft them to hear him a feribo words. The next night he fends again, and Did then who should be his messenger to Manjo low but the terrible Captain Sepulcher; fo Capta vers Sepulcher came up to the walls of Mansoul, as his made this Oration to the Town. Oye inhabit wer tants of the rebellious Town of Mansoul! If a not

Manfoul fummoned

by Captain mon you in the name of the Prince Diabolus, their epulcher. without any more ado, you set open the Gates of you the Town, and admit the great Lord to come in. 1922 if you hall still rebel, when we have taken to be, the Town by force, we will swallow you up as the a grave; wherefore if you will bearken to be

h

Vis

75

1 of

etala

in t

ms, Jay To, and if not, then let me know. hen the languishing Town of Manfout had They anhis Summoner, and his Summons, they fwer bim yet more put to their dumps, but made to not a word. Captain no answer at all, so away he went came But after some consultation 2themselves, as also with some of their ins, they applied themselves afresh to ord Secretary for counsel and advice from for this Lord Secretary was their chief rhey addie te) only now he was ill at ease; and of him selves to their good favour in these two or three things: their good and a That he would look comfortably upon Lord Sen Die, and not keep himself so much retired cretary. e sent trailed with to give them a hearing I to be they should make known their miserable parle won to him. But to this he told them as Parle to Teat as yet he was but ill at ease, and her ( as also is mentioned some pages dress them-Tou fire could not do as te had formerly done.

we him The second thing that they desired, was, embre he would be pleased to give them his ada fer about their now so important affairs, for in, 20 Diabolus was come and fet down before Manjo lown with no less than twenty thousand Capta ers. They said moreover, that both he foul, a his Captains were cruel men, and that e inhab were afraid of them. But to this he faid, I Ism aft look to the Law of the Prince, and there us, that is laid upon you to do, 3. Then they in. Is a Petition to Shaddai, and unto Emanuel en to son, and that he would fet his own hand up as 1 to as a token that he was one with them n to For, faid they, my Lord, many a one bave Su their good

The cause of bis being ill at eafe.

we fent, but can get no answer of peace; but furely one with thy band unto it, may obtain for Manfoul. But all the answer that he to this, was, That they had offended their Ema ant bad also grieved bimself, and that the they must as yer partake of their own device This answer of the Lord Secretary fell

Diabolus. Lam. 1.3. The fad Araightsof

Manfoul.

A comment upon the Lord Secretay Speech.

a milftone upon them; yea, it crufbed fo that they could not tell what to do ; ye durk not comply with the demands of the Town of Manfout was betwire the enemy came upon her: Her foes weren to swallow her up, and her friends did for to help her. Then flood up my Lord I whose name was my Lord Understanding he began to pick and pick, until he had comfort out of that feemingly bitter fayi the Lord Secretary, for thus he descanted on it : First, said he, This unavoidably foll upon the faying of my Lord, That we Suffer for our fins. 2. But, quoth he, the yet found as if at last we should be saved from enemies, and that after a few more forrows Em mill come and be our belo. Now the Lord ! was the more critical in his dealing with Secretaries words, because my Lord was than a Prophet, and because none of his w were such, but that at all times they were exactly fignificant, and the Townsmen wer lowed to pry into them, and to expe them to their best advantage. So all be

The Town themselves forthwith to their places, the of Manfoul sains to theirs, the Lord Mayor to his, Subordinate Preacher to his, and my Lord wi in order. will to his. The Captains longed to be at !

but

btain

t he Ema

levice

fell

bed I

; yet

1

C, I

ere I

dfor

d M

line.

ad t

Cayin

inted

fol

the

from

Emi

rd 1

with 25

15.1

ere

were

xpe

be

the nis,

W

ati

or their Prince, for they delighted in he Atchievements. The next day thereinfultation had, they resolved to give wer to the Captain of Diabolus with and to they did at the rifing of the the morrow; for Diabelus had aded to come nearer again, but the flingwere to him and his, like Hornets. For e is nothing to the Town of Manfout fo easthe roaring of Diabolus's Drum, fo is nothing to Diabolus to terrible as Il playing of Eminuels flings. Where- Words Diabelus was forced to make another applied avet further off from the famous gainft bin of Manfoul. Then did the Lord Mayor by faith. moul cause the Bells to be rung, and that Zach-9. 15. Sould be fent to the Lord bigh Secretary mouto of the Subordinate Preacher; for bis word, the Captains and Elders of Mandbeen strengsbened against Diabolus. en Diabolus faw that his Captains and ers, high Lords, and renowned, were med, and beaten down by the stones that from the Golden flings of the Prince of own of Manfoul, he bethought him elf, and Diabelus I will try to catch them by famning, I will flatter them into my net. Wherefore after le he came down again to the wall, not lis mayo with his Drum, nor with Captain Sepubut having all to be sugared his lips, he d to be a very sweet mouthed, peaceable Ol the defire of my beart, the famous of Manfoul! bow many nights have I watched aps I might do thee good : Far be it, far be I Pet. 5.8! me to defire to make a war upon you, if Rev. 12.10

Mat. 4. 8. ye will but willingly and quietly deliber up, Lub 4.6,7. felves unto me. You know that you were mise old. Remember also, that so long as you enjoyed

Satan reads all baclwards for your Lord, and that I enjoyed you for my jubel you wanted for nothing of all the delights of earth, that I your Lord and Prince could get you; or that I could invent to make you bonny blith withal. Confider, you never had so makerd, dark, troublesome and heart-afflicting to while you were mine, as you have had since you volted from me; nor shall you ever have peace and until you and I become one as before. But he prevailed with to imbrace me again, and I grant, yea inlarge your old Charter with abundant of priviledges; so that your licence and libritially be to take, bold, enjoy, and make your or Tale back Manfoul.

No, no, no not upon pain of eternal damnation.

of priviledges; so that your licence and librall be to take, bold, enjoy, and make your our that is pleafant from the East to the Well. Be with your friend, I take the liberty at this time Speak thus freely unto you. The love that I ba to you preffes me to do it, as also does the geal my heart for my friends with you; put me not the fore to further trouble, nor your felves to furthe fears and frights. Have you, I will, in a ner peace or war; nor do you flatter your felves no the power and force of your Captains, or the your Emanuel will fborily come in to your bely . such strength will do you no pleasure. I am con against you with a stout and valiant army, and the chief Princes of the den, are even at the be of it. Befides, my Captains are freifter that L gles, fronger than Lions, and more greedy of than are the evening-wolves. What is Og of B than I what is Goliah of Gath ! and what it bundred more of them to one of the least of my Ca tains ! kow then fall Manfoul think to efcape band and force ? Diabolus having thus endedh littering, fawning, deceitful and lying speech the famous Town of Mansoul, the Lord Mayor plied upon him as follows.

o Diabolus, Prince of darkness, und master of deceit, thy lying flatteries we have bad, and made The Lord get scient probation of, and have tasted too deep'y Mayors det destructive cup already; should we therefore a- anjwer. in bearken unto thee, and fo break the Commandsof our great Shaddai, to join in affinity with sould not our Prince reject us, and cast us of sever; and being cast off by bim, can the place that has prepard for thee be aplac of rest for us? Besides under other that are empty and void of all truth, we are flattering and lying deceits. When the Tynot law that there was little to be got by paring with my Lord Mayor, he fell into an Helh rage, and refolved that again with his imy of Doubiers, he would another time to the fault the Town of Manjoul. So he called the his Drummer, who beat up for his mea and while he did bear, Manfoul did shake) to in a readiness to give a bartel to the Cororation; then Diabolus drew near with his my, and thus disposed of his men. Captain mel, and Captain Forment, these he drew up od placed against Feet-gate, and commanded cm to fit down there for the war. And he Feelgate. in lease should come into their relief. At Rofegate he placed the Captain Brimftone, and Nosegate. in aptain Sepulcher, and bid them look well to Ca their Ward, on that fide of the Town of Man-But at Eye- gase he placed that grim- Eyegate.

150

eal o

TIE

n ca nd T

f B

dh

faced one, the Captain Pastbope, and there al. so now he did fet up his terrible standard.

Now Captain Injaviable he was to look to the Carriages of Diabolus, and was also as pointed to take into custody that, or the persons and things that should at any time a prey be taken from the enemy. Now Mouth gate the inhabitants of Manfoul kept for asalyport, wherefore that they kept firong, for shat was it, by, and out at which the Townsfolk did fend their Petitions to Emanuel their Prince, that also was the Gate from the top of which the Captains did play their fling at the enemies, for that Gate flood somewhat alcending, so that the placing of them there, and the letting of them fly from that place, did much execution against the Tyrants army: wherefore for these causes with others, Diabo-The use of lus fought, if possible, to land up monthene with dirt. Now as Diabolus was busie and industrious in preparing to make his affault upon the Town of Manfoul without, so the Captains and Souldiers in the Corporation were as busie in preparing within; they mounted their Slings, they fet up their Banners, they founded their Trumpets, and put themselves in such order as was judged most for the annoyance of the enemy, and for the advantage of Menfoul, and gave to their Souldiers orders to be ready at the found of the Trumpet for war. The Lord W. Whewill also, he took the charge of watching against the Rebels within, and to do what he could to take them while without, or to flife them within their caves, dens and holes, in the Town-wall of Manfoul. And to speak the truth of him, ever fince he took

Mouthgate,

Mouthgate

The Lord Wilbewill plays the much honesty and bravery of Spirit as any be Jolley and Mansoul, for he took one Folley, and his Grigish taken Griggish, the two sons of his servant ben and amless-mirth (for to that day, though the executed dwelling in the house of my Lord) I say he sok them, and with his own hands put them the Crois. Now this Christian act of the two Lord Willbewill did greatly abash Cap-in Pass-bore, discourage the army of Dia. Morificaus, put fear into the Diabolonian runnagates tion of sia Mansoul, and put strength and courage into is a sign of a Captains that belonged to Emanuel the hope of life rince: for they without did gather, and that this very act of my Lord, that Manfoul is resolved to fi ht, and that the Diabolonians whin the Town could not do such things as Diabolus had hopes they would. Nor was his the only proof of the brave Lord Willwills honesty to the Town, nor of his loyalty o his Prince, as will afterwards appear.

Now when the children of Prudent-thrifty the dwelt with Mr. Mind, (for Thrift left children with Mr. Mind, when he was also com- Mr. Mind inted to prison, and their names were Gripe plays the nd Rakea'l, these he begat of Mr. Mind's man laster d-daughter, whose name was Mrs. Holdlasted ) I say when his children perceived low the Lord Willbewill had served them that twelt with him, what do they but (less they lould drink of the same cup) endeavour to make their escape? But Mr. Mind being wary of it, took them and put them in hold in his louse till morning (for this was done over light) and remembring that by the Law of

Marfoul

L

those ere al-

rd.

ook to fo a

25 allyg, for ownsl their

Lings

there,

rmy: Diabo-

bgae d in-

upon Cap-

re as undfuch ance

Meno be

var. rge

to ithes,

he ok

ch |

ilt

ge

ho

ms

on

th

hei

ich

al et alt.

W2

Pre

nyes mg

R C

ason

ord.

W

rb.

vec

ch

nor trig

oun

urth

Manfoul fer again? the Diabo. lonians.

Diabolus

tis bind-

madre s.

Manfoul all Diabo'onians were to die, and to be fure they were at least by fathers fide fuch. and fome Cay by mothers fide too; what does he but takes them and puts them in chains, and carries them to the felf-same place where my Lord hanged his two before, and there he hanged them. The Townsmen also took great incouragement at this act of Mr. Mind, and did what they could to have taken some more of these Diabolonian troublers of Mansoul; but at that time the rest lay so quat and close that they could not be apprehended; so they fee against them a diligent watch, and went every man to his place. I told you a little before, that Diabolus and his army were fomewhat abashe and discouraged at the sight of what my Lord Willbewill did, when he hanged up those two young Diabelonians; but his discouragement quickly turned it self into fumefsturmed rions madnels and rage against the Town of into furious Manfoul, and fight it he would. Also the Townsmen, and Captains within, they had their hopes and their expectations heightned, believing at last the day would be theirs, so they feared them the less. Their Subordinate Preacher too, made a Sermon about it, and he took that theme for his Text, Gad, a troop fall overcome him, but he hall overcome at the last Whence he shewed, that though Manfoul should beforely put toit at the first, yet the victory should most certainly be Mansouls at the last.

Gen 49.19

So Diabolus commanded that his Drummer should beat a Charge against the Town, and the Captains also that were in the Town founded a Charge against them, but they had no Drum, they were Trumpets of Silver with which ich.

s he

200

my

he

reat

and ore

but

hac

fer

Ty

e_ ne-

OF

gnis

n-

of 1-

1 d

H

1

they founded against them. Then they the were of the Camp of Diabolus, came with heart to the Town to take it, and the Capin the Castle, with the slingers at Mouthplayed upon them amain. And now there nothing heard in the Camp of Diabolus horrible rage and blaspemy; but in the good words, Prayer, and finging of ions, and the terribleness of their Drum; the Town made answer with the noise their Trumpets. And thus the fight laftfor feveral days together, only now, and they had some small intermission, in the ch the Townsmen refreshed themselves, the Captains made ready for another It. Now the worst on't was, a Chirurgewas fearce in Mansoul, for that Emanuel present was absent. Howbeit, with the ves of a tree the wounded were kept from Rev. 22 g; yet their wounds did greatly putrifie, Plat. 38.5 some did grievously stink. Of the Townsin these were wounded, to wit, My Lord resons he was wounded in the bead. My who of lord Miyor in the eye; Mr. Mind, he received Manfoul wound about the Stomach. The honest subordinate Preacher also, he re- wounded. eved a shot not far off the heart, but none these were mortal. Many also of the innor fort, were not only wounded, but flair tright. Now in the Camp of Diabolus w ounded and flain a confiderable number. Cappaf stance, Captain Rage he was wounded, and Diabolus was Captain Cruel. Captain Damnation were made to retreat, and to intrench himlelf wounded urther off of Manjoul; the standard also of and sais Dia-

L 4

Diabolas was beaten down, & Mueb-burt had brainsbear out with a fling-stone, to the no la grief and shame of his Prince Diabolus.

Tie V. Gory did turn shat day to Manfoul, alfo of the Doubters were flain out right, the enough of them are left alive to make M foul thake and totter - Now the Victory t day being turned to Manfent, did put gre valour into the Townimen and Captains, a did cover Diatolus's camp with a cloud, b withal it made them far more furious. the next day Manfont rested, and command that the Bells (hould be rung; the Trump also joyfully sounded, and the Captains the ed round the Town. Well, a while after the Captains and Rout ones of the Town of Ma foul agreed, and refolved upon a time to make a falley our upon the camp of Diabolus, and this nust be done in the night, and there was the folly of Manfoul (for the night is always the best for the enemy, but the worst for Minfoul to fight in) but yet they would do it their courage was fo high; their last victory allo ftill fluck in their memories. So the night appointed being come, the Princes brave Cartains cast lots who should lead the Van in this new and desperate Expedition against Diabolas and against his Diabolonian army, and the let fell to Captain Credence, to Captain Experience, od to Captain Good-hope, to lead the Forton C. (This Captain Experience, the Prince ed such when himself did reside in the n of Mansoul): so as I said, they made

They fight in the night PV bo do lead the Van.

the fiege against them; and their hap was to tall in with the main body of their enemies.

Now Diabelus and his men being expertly

2C-

noli

ry t t gree

ande

#298

Mag-heir

210 gir

flomed to night-work, took the alarm ently, and were as ready to give them as if they had fent them word of their Wherefore to it they went amain, blows were hard on every fide; the Hellalso was beat most furiously, while the mpets of the Prince most sweetly sounded. thus the battel was joined, and Captain hable looked to the enemies carriages, and ed when he should receive some prey. Princes Captains fought it stoutly, be- They fight. what indeed could be expected they bravely. ld; they wounded many; they made the e army of Diabolus to make a ret reat. I cannot tell how, but the brave Captain lence, Captain Good-bope. and Captain Exace, as they were upon the pursuit, cutdown, and following hard after the ene- Captain in the Rere, Captain Credence stumbled Credence fell, by which fall he caught fo great a burt. that he could not rife till Captaie Exnce did help him up, at which their men . e put in diforder; the Captain also was so The rest of of pain that he could not forbear but the Capa id to cry out; at this the other two Cap- tains faint. u fainted, supposing that Captain Credence received his moreal wound; their men were more difordered, and had no lift ight. Now Diabolus being very observing, hugh at this time as yet he was put to the eff, perceiving that an hault was made among the men that were the pursuers, what s he but taking it for granted that the mains were either wounded or dead, he Dbolus refore makes at first a stand, then faces tikes conout, and fo comes up upon the Princes ar- rage. L 5:

ces forces beaten.

my with as much of his fury as Hell co help him to, and his hap was to fall in among the three Captains, Captain Crede Captain Goodbope, and Captain Experience did cut, wound, and pierce them fo dre fully, that what through discouragement, w through diforder, and what through wounds that now they had received, and a the loss of much blood, they scarce we able, though they had for their power three best bands in Minsoul, to get fafe in the hold again. Now when the body the Princes army faw how these three G tains were put to the worst, they thought their wisdom to make as safe and good retreat as they could, and fo returned by the Salley-port again, and fo there was an en of this present action. But Diabolas was fo foll with this nights work, that he promifed himfel a compleat conquest over the Town of Mansoul wherefore on the day following he comes up Satanfome simes make Sains eat their words.

Diabolus Ausht.

The Town.

The Lord Mayors Apfwer.

to the fides thereof with great boldness, and demands entrance, and that forthwith they deliver themselves up to his Government. (The Bedemands Diabolonians too that were within, they began to be somewhat brisk, as we shall shew afterward) But the valiant Lord Mayor replied, That what be got be must get by force, for as long as Emanuel their Prince was dive (though be at present was not so with them as the wisht) they should never confent to yield Manfoul up to another. And with that the Lord willbewill frood up and faid, Diabolus, thou mafter of the den, and enemy to all that is good; we poor inhabitants of the Town of Manfoul, are too well acquainted with thy rule and government

Cred

rience.

To dre

ent, w

ugh

and a ce w wer

fafe in body

ee C ought good

by d

an en

o flath

nimiel

anfoul.

nes up

s, and they

(The

hew

re-

rce.

ive

they fout

11.

ter

we

00.

IT.

di

land the end of those things that for certain Brave Hell co follow submitting to thee, to do it. Where- Will's fall in though while we were without knowledg Wills. offered thee to take us ( as the bird that fam Speech. le snave, fell into the bands of the fow;er) ace me have been turned from darkness to we have also been turned from the power uan to God. And though through thy suband Alfo the fubrilty of the Diabolonians we have sustained much loss, and also edour selves into much perplexity, yet give ur felves , lay down our arms, and yield to fo I a Tyrant as thou, we shall not; die upon the we chuse rather to do. Besides, we have that in time deliverance will come from Court us, and therefore we yet will maintain a war The Cap-A thee, This brave Speech of the Lord tainstbewill, with that also of the Lord Mayor, couraged. somewhat abate the boldness of Diabothough it kindled the fury of his rage. also succoured the Townsmen and Captaids; it was as a plaister to the brave Captain edence his wound; for you must know, that we speech now, when the Captains of the wn with their men of war came home uted, and when the enemy took courage boldness at the success that he had obuned to draw up to the walls, and demand trance, as he did, was in season, and also The Lord willbewill alfo vantageous. play the man within, for while the Caphas and Souldiers were in the field, he was arms in the Town, and where ever by him ere was a Diabolonian found, they were fored to feel the weight of his heavy hand, and

No the edg of his penetrating fword.

caufe;

Willbewill had at this time to do thus, w

Willbe-Gallantry

for that the Capitains were gone out to he the enemy in the field. For now, though the Diabolonians within, is our time to f and make an uproar in the Town; what they therefore but quickly get themselves into a body, and fall forthwith to surricanias Manlou, as if now nothing but whirlwi and tempest should be there; wherefore, faid, he takes this opportunity to fall in mong them with his men, cutting and flat ing with courage that was undaunted; which the Diabolonians with all haft difperie themselves to their holds, and my Lord to his place as before. Well, Diabolus yet re folves to have the other bout with Masfell for thought he, fince I beat them once, I ma beat them twice: wherefore he commanded his men to be ready at fuch an hour of the night to make a fresh affault upon the Town mbashe can and he gave it out in special that they should aponthe bend all their force against Feelgate, and sure and attempt to, break into the Town through sing of that: The word that then he did give to his Chriffi Officers and Souldiers was Hellfire. And, faid be, if we break in upon them, as I with we do, either with fome, or with all our force, loothem that break in look to it, that they forget not the word. And let nothing be heard in the Town of Minfoul but Hell fires

Hell fire. Hell fire. The Drummer was also to bear wishour ceasing, and Standard-Bearers were to display their Colours, the Souldiers too. were to, put on what courage they could and to see than they played manfully their

PARE

où

120 s int

in

BED

d

erfe

rd i

1 1

inded

E the

OWD

seold

200 ough

o his

faid

h we

,5310

t hey

g be

fire,

0 to rers

iers

nld

hein

UIS

against the Town. So the night was and all things by the Tyrant made ready the work, he Inddenly makes his affault Feelgare, and after he had a while ftrugled e, he throws the Gates wide open. For truth is, those Gates were but weak, and Feelgate most easily made to yield. When Diabolus but west thus far made his attempt, he placed his ains, to wit. Torment and No eafe there; he artempted to prefs forward, but the ices Captains came down upon him and his entrance more difficult than he de-And to speak truth, they made what ance they could; but the three of their and most valiant Captains being wound. IV. en and by their wounds made much unca- thefe three of doing the Town that fervice they Captains di and all the reft having more than their are difafull of the Doubters, and their Captains beld, what did follow Diabolus ) they were over- can the reft ered with force; nor could they keep them do for the of the Town. Wherefore the Princes Town of and their Captains betook themselves to Mansoul ? Caftle, as to the ftrong hold of the Town; this they did partly for their own fecurity, or the fecurity of the Town, and partly, tather chiefly to preserve to Emanu. the Prerogative-royal of Manfoul, for fo the Caftle of Mansont. The Captains there. being fled into the Castle, the enemy withmuch refistance, possels themselves of the of the Town, and spreading them. as they went into every corner, they out as they marched according to the and of the Tyranes Helt fire; Hell fire, fin forthamothing for a while throughout the Town of Menjoul could be heard but

DO

200

To

for

he

Fow

ike

om i

y v

0

We

wfout!

d th

the direful noise of Hell fire ; together with the roaring of Diabous's Drum. And now did Manfeul feem to be nothing but a den of of Dragons, an emblem of Hell, and a place of total darkness. Now did Mansout lye (almost) land like the barren wilderness; nothing but nettles, briers, thorns, weeds, and flinking things feemed now to cover the face of Manfont. Mr. Conscience they fo wounded, yea, nor and his wounds fo festered, that he could have no ease day nor night, but lay as if conti-nually upon a rack, ( but that shaddai rules that all, certainly they had flain him out-right) that Town men. Mr. Lord Mayor they fo abused, that they all they most put out his eyes; and had not my Lord from willbewill got into the Castle, they intend-rese did look upon him (as his bears now flood) lay, to be one of the very worst that was in Minfoul against Diabolus and his crew. And indeed he hath shewed himself a man, and more of his Exploits you will hear of afterwards. Now a man might have walked for days Satan bas a particular fpite againft afan-Bifiedwill.

Sad work

among the Thought.

together in Manfoul, and scarge have seen one in the Town that looke like a Religious man Oh the featful flate of Manfoul now ! now every neToy corner swarmed with outlandish poubters; Red OWD V coars, and Black-coats walked the Town by clusters; and filled up all the houses with his rook deous noise, vain Songs, lying stories, 200 hav blasphemous language against Shaddai and his Son. Now alfo those Diabosonians that lurked'i in ag the walls and dens, and holes that were in the have Town of Manfout, came forth and shewed them All be felyes; yea walked in company with the Doubter the th

The foul full of idle thoughts and biafphemies.

it in Manfoul. Yea, they had more boldness h now to walk the streets, to haunt the houses, of the honest inhabitants of the now woful of Town of Manfoul. But Diabolus and his outat for they were not there entertained as were ng the Captains and forces of Emanuel; the Fownsmen did browbeat them what they could; ye de Necessaries of Mansoul, but that which the seised on against the Townsmens will; hat they could they hid from them, and the they could not, they had with an ill will. They, poor hearts, had rather have had their nom than their company, but they were at their captives, and their Captives, and their Captives are the present they were forced to be. But, they discountenanced them as much as in the that they could. The Captains also Rom. 7. ore som the Castle did hold them in continual ds. thy with their flings, to the chafing and fret-

Well, this was the condition of the Town of the Town of the the forabout two years and an halfsthebody of the record was the feat of war, the people of the record was the feat of war, the people of the record was laid in the dust; what rest then could of Mansoul to the inhabitants? What peace could Manthe seat of have, and what Sun could shine upon it? war, and the enemy lain so long without in the inagainst the Town, it had been enough the have famished them, but now when they are their
than

leart.

gion to the Prince.

be against the Town, and shall ferre to be defence to the enemies of her ffrength a life I fay when, they shall make use of a Forts, and Town holds, to secure themsels in even till then they shall take , spoil a demolish the Castle; this was terrible; vet this was now the flate of the Town Manfoul. After the Town of Manfoul bad be in this fad and lamentable condition for long a time as I have told you, and Petitions that they Presented their Pris with ( all this while ) could prevail; the habitants of the Town, to wit, the Elders chief of Manfoul gathered together, and af some time spent in condoling their miseral flate, and this miserable judgment com upon them they agreed together to draw yet another Petition, and to fend it away Mr. Godly Emanuel for relief. But Mr. Godlyfear fi up and answered, that he knew that his le vice about the Prince never did , nor ever would recei drawing up a Petition for these matters from the hand of a Peti- any whoever, unless the Lord Secretaries has was to it, (and this, quoth he, is the reafont you prevailed not all this while.) Then a faid, they would draw up one, and get the L Secretaries hand unto it. But Mr. Godlyfear fwered again, he knew also that the Lord Seen ry would not fet his hand to any Petition himfelf had not an hand in composing drawing up; and besides, said he, the Pri doth know my Lord secretaries hand from the hands in the world; wherefore he can he deceived by any Pretence whatever; wh fore my advise is, that you go to my Lord,

the

the

tenc

ith

oul

7 2

10

Con

...

re him to lend you his aid (now he did side in the Caftle where all the Captains men at arms were ). So they heartily red Mr. Godlyfear, took his counsel, and the had bidden them; fo they went and to my Lord, and made known the cause The Secreif coming to him: Then faid the secretaryto tary imwhat Perition is it that you would have me draw ployed to you? But they faid, Our Lord knows draw up the flate and condition of the Town of a Petition il ? and how we are backflidden and dege- for Mand from the Prince. Let our Lord therefore foul. ding to the wisdom of God that is in him. up a Petition for his poor fervants to rince Emanuel, well, faid the Lord Secrewill draw up a Perition for you, and will affo band thereto. Then faid they, But when we call for it at the hands of our Lord? answered, Tour selves must be present at ng of it; Tea, you muft put your defires to it. the band and pen shall be mine, but the ink per must be yours, else bow can you say it is etition? nor have I need to Perition for my eaufe I bave not offended. He also added oweth, No Petition goes from me in my name Prince, and fo to bis Father by bim, but when ple that are cheffy concerned therein do pin therein. So they did heartily agree with tence of the Lord, and a Peticion was ith drawn up for them. But now ould carry it, that was next. But the y advised that Captain Credence should for he was a well spoken man.
Contents of the Petition were to this

O our Lord, and Sovereign Prince

The Contents of their Petition.

Emanuel, the potent, the long faffering Prin Grace is poured into thy lips, and to it belongs mercy and forgivenels, though have rebelled against thee. We who ono more worthy to be called thy Mank nor yet fit to partake of common bene 'do befeech thee, and thy Pather by thee do away our transgressions. We confess thou mightest cast us away for them, but it not for thy names fake; let the L rather take an opportunity at our mifer condition, to let ont his bowels and passions to us; we are compassed on en fide, Lord, our own back-flidings rep us; our Diabolonians within our Town fr 'us, and the army of the bottomless pit fresles us. Thy grace can be our falvan and whither to go but to thee we know Our wildom is gone, our power is a because thou art departed from us: nor we what we may callfours but fin, thame, confusion of face for fin. Take pity 'us. O Lord, take pity upon us thy miles * Town of Manjoul, and fave us out of the of our enemies. Amen. This Peri as was touched afore, was handed by Lord Secretary, and carried to the Cou the brave and most fout Caprain Gree Now he carried it out at Mouthgage, for as I faid, was the falliport of the Town he went and came to Emanuel with it. how it came, out, I do not know, bu certain it did, and that fo far as to the ears of Disbous. Thus I conclud cause that the Tyrant had it present'y end, and charged the Town of Manine

nd

ar

mn

1 2

W

vi

en

hie

li.

d o il

ugh ho

1an

ene

ice

fer

d a

TOP

repr

n fri

VAD

SE

Or.

mę.

y I

neh

etit

by red for

70

ь В ying, Thou rebellious and stubborn-bearted oul, I will make thee to leave off Petition-Satan canart thou yet for Petitioning? I will make nor abide to leave. Yea, he also knew who the prayer. ager was that carried the Petition to the and it made him both to fear and Wherefore he commanded that his Drum be beat again, a thing that Mansoul not abide to hear; but when Diabolus are his Drum beat. Mansoul must abide offe. Well, the Drum was beat, and abolonians were gathered together.

en said Diabolus, O ye stout Diabolonibe it known unto you, that there is hery hatcht against us in the rebellious in of Mansout; for albeit the Town is possession, as you see, yet these mine Mansoulians have attempted to dare, have been so hardy as yet to send to the into Emanuel for help. This I give you inderstand, that ye may yet know how arry it to the wretched Town of Man-

Wherefore, Omy trusty Diabotonians, mmand that yet more and more ye dibit this Town of Mansoul, and vex it with Poor Manwiles, ravish their women, deflower foul, wirgins slay their children, brain their lients, fire their Town, and what other thief you can; and let this be the red of the Mansoulians from me, for redesperate rebellions against me.

s you fee was the charge, but something in betwirt that and execution, for as ure was but little more done than to Moreover, when Diabolus had done he went the next way up the to Castle-

gates,

gates, and demanded that upon pain of de the Gates should be opened to him, and entrance should be given him and his that followed after. To whom Mr. Godly replied, (for he it was that had the ch of that Gate), That the Gate should not be ed unto him, nor to the men that followed bim. He said moreover, that Mansoul she bad suffered a while should be made per frengthened, feiled. "Then faid Dia Deliver me then the men that have Pet Satan Cannot abide Faith.

Goodness.

'ed against me, especially Captain Cre that carried it to your Prince, deliver Varlet into my hands, and I will depart the Town. Now by this time Captain dence was returned and come from the C from Emanuel to the Caftle of Manfoul, he returned to them with a Pacquet, Lord Mayor hearing that Captain Credent come, withdrew himfelf from the noise of roaring of the Tyrant, and left him to at the wall of the Town, or against Gates of the Castle. So he came up to Captains Lodgings, and saluting him. asked him of his welfare, and what was best news at Court? but when he Captain Credence that, the water food eves Then faid the Captain, Cheer I Lord, for all will be well in time. And that he first produced his Pacquet, and A fign of it by, but that the Lord Mayor, and t of the Captains took for a fign of go dings. (Now a feafon of Grace being co fent for all the Captains and Elders Town that were here and there in lodgings in the Castle, and upon their 04

1

171 ti

dr.

ref

ULD!

E.

ul, So ner

to 01

m.

W25

C

F

them know that Captain Credence was ed from the Court, and that he had hing in general, and something in specommunicate to them.) So they all up to him, and faluted him, and asked oncerning his journey, and what was If news at the Court? And he answerm as he had done the Lord Mayor bethat all would be well at laft. Now The Pacthe Captains had thus faluted them, he quetopened. his Pacquet, and thence did draw out veral Notes for those that he had sent And the first Note was for my Lord wherein was fignified : That the ANote for te Emanuel had taken it well that my my Lord Mayor had been so true and trusty in Mayor. office, and the great concerns that lay him for the Town and people of Man-Also he bid him to know that he took that he had been so bold for his Prince el, and had engaged so faithfully in his against Dissolus. He also fignified at the his Letter, that he should shortly rehis reward. The second note that came A Note for is for the noble Lord will bewill, where- the Lord te was fignified, That his Prince Ema- Willbelid well understand how valiant and cou. will. us he had been for the honour of his now in his absence, and when his name der contempt by Diabolus.

mified moreover, bow that he underflood that had with his own band done great execution be of the chief of the rebels there, to thegreat rement of the adverse party, and to the good of the whole Town of Mansoul, and that is Lordship should have his reward. The third

A Nose ordinate Preacher.

A Note

for Mr.

third Note came out for the Subordinate Press for the sub- wherein was fignified, That his Prince took it from bim that he had fo bone ftly, and fo faith performed bis office, and executed the trust con ted to bim by his Lord, while be exhorted, re and fore-warned Manfoul according to the La the Town. He signified moreover, that be took at his band that he called to fasting, to fackelon albes, when Manfoul was under her revolt. All be called for the aid of the Captain Boancre belp in so weighty a work, and that shortly be fould receive bis reward. The fourth Notes out for Mr. Godbfear, wherein his Lord figuified, That his Lordship observed that be Godlyfear first of all the men in Mansoul, that detedel Carnal Security as the only one that the bis subtilty and cunning bad obtained for bolus a defection and decay of goodness in the fed Town of Manfoul. Moreover, his Lord bim to understand that be ftill remembred bis and mourning for the state of Mansoul. also observed by the same Note, that his Lord notice of his detecting of this Mr. Carnal rity, at his own table among his guests, in his bouse, and that in the midst of his jollineli, while be was feeking to perfect his villand

A Note for the Town of Manfoul.

gainst she Town of Mansoul, After all there was yet produced a Note which written to the whole Town of Manfoul, wh by they perceived that their Lord took tice of their fo often repeating of Peu to him, and that they should fee mor the fruits of fuch their doings in time come. Their Prince did also therein them, That he took it well, that their l and mind, now at last, abode fixed upon

th

kit

aish

ook clos Alfa erge be tec

rd

ated the ord bis

1 S bis

4 4nie

11

h ook

ine ine ein t

nd his ways, though Diabelus had made h inroads upon them, and that neither flaties on the one hand, nor hardthips on the er, could make them yield to ferve his d defigns. So after the brave Captain lesse had delivered his Notes to those to in they belonged, he retired himself to lord Secretary's Lodgings, and there founds in converting with him; for they two very great one with another, and did ed know more how things would go with ful than did all the Townsmen besides. fter some time for converse was spent Captain betook himself to his Chamto reft. But it was not long after but my did fend for the Captain again; so the ain came to him, and they greeted one her with uhial faturations. Then faid the min to the Lord Secretary, What hath my to fay to his fervant? So the Lord stary took him , and had him aand after a fign or two of more fahe faid, I have made thee the Lords utenant over all the forces in Manfoul; fo t from this day forward, all men in Manshall be at thy word, and thou shale be that shall lead in, and that shalt lead out moul. Thou shalt therefore manage acding to thy place, the war for thy Prince, for the Town of Manfoul, against the ace and power of Diabolus, and at thy ommand shall the rest of the Captains bei To return to our flory again : When Diaa faw himfelf thus boldly confronted by the d Mayor, and perceived the stoutness of Mr. bfear, he fell into a rage, and forthwith Diabolus

Captain Credence madethe Lords Lieutenantover all the forces in Manfoul called rages.

called a Council of War, that he might be venged on Manfoul. So all the Princes the Pit came together, and old Increduling the head of them, with all the Captains his Army. So they confult what to do in the effect and conclusion of the Council day, was how they might take the Ca because they could not conclude themse masters of the Town to long as that was the polletion of their enemies. So one advi this way, and another advised them way; but when they could not in their verdict, Apollyon, that Prefident of Council stood up, and thus he began : Brotherhood, quotb be, I have two thin propound unto you; and my first is the sus withdraw our felves from the Town the Plain again, for our presence here do us no good, because the Caffle is our enemies hands; nor is it possible the should take that so long as so many brave tains are in it, and that this bold fellow lyfear is made the Keeper of the Gates Now when we have withdrawn our selves the Plain, they of their own accord will be of some little ease, and it may be of their accord they again may begin to be remiss even their so being will give them a b blow than we can possibly give them our fe But if that should fail, our going forth o Town may draw the Captains out after in you know what it cost them when we so them in the field before. Befides, can we but them out into the field, we may lay an am behind the Town, which shall, when they come forth abroad, ruth in and take Pol of the Castle. But Beelzebub stood up and rep

t

the

Ωi

0 e fr

21

Wi

0 ins.

Manfoul.

cil t Cal niel was lied, saying, 'Tis impossible to draw them off from the Castle; some you may be will lye there to keep that; wherefore vill be but in vain thus to attempt, unless were fure that they will all come out. therefore concluded, that what was done, be done by some other means. And the likely means that the greatest of their is could invent, was that which Apollyon advised to before, to wit, to get the nimen again to fin. For, faid he, it is our being in the Town, nor in the field, Loobte ie our fighting, nor our killing of their men, Manfoul can make us the Mafters of Manfoul ; for g as one in the Town is able to lift up his, against us, Emanuel will take their part, e know then what time a day it will be us. Wherefore for my part, quoth he, is in my judgment no way to bring into bondage to us, like inventing a way ake them fin. But thefe fayings of Beel-( for I think 'twas he that gave this el) the whole Conclave was forced to his opinion, to wit, that the way to he Castle was to get the Town to sin. they fell to inventing by what means they do this thing. Then Lucifer stood up faid, . The counsel of Beeizebub is pertit; now the way to bring this to pais, in opinion, is this: Let us withdraw our from the Town of Mansoul: let us do and let us terrifie them no more, eiwith Summons, or threats, or with the of our Drum, or any other awakening ins. Only let us lye in the field at a dice, and be as if we regarded them not i for rights

19, 20,11:

them more stand to their arms ) I have a another stratagem in my head, you kno Manfoul is a Market-Town, and a Townth 'delights in commerce. what therefore if some our Diabolonians shall feign themselves & country men, and shall go out and bring the Market of Manfoul fome of our war to fell; and what matter at what rates d · fell their wares, though it be but for h the worth? Now let those that thus the trade in their market, be those that are win and true to us, and I will lay my Crom pawn, it will do. There are two that are come to my thoughts already, that I this will be arch at this work, and they are! Penniwife-Pound faolifb, and Mr. Gerbundred-and- lofe-nb'-fbire; nor is this with the long name at all inferiour to other. What also if you joyn with then Sweet world, and Mr. Prefem-good, they Look to it men that are civil and cunning, but Rev. 3.17. crue friends and helpers. Let thefe with many more engage in this bufiness for us, let Mansoul be taken up in much bufines elet them grow full and rich, and thisis way to get ground of them, Yez, may not by this means, fo cumber Manfoul abundance, that they shall be forced to me of their Caftle a warebouse instead of all rison fortified against us, and a receptach men of war. Thus if we get our goods commodities thither, I reckon that the C is more than hali ours. Besides, could To order it that that shall be filled with kind of wares, then if we made a for

- mia

kne

vn th

Come

es f

ring

Wat

es d

or h as fi

e wi

TOWN

hat a

I chi

210

Pet-

his

to hem

hey

but

with

r us,

ness

nis is may

foul

ton

of a G

ptack

coods

the O

could

4 2ff

with 2 6

Mault upon them, it would be hard for the Luk 8.14 aptains to take shelter there: De you not now that of the Parable, The deceitsulness Chap. 21. of riches chook the word; and again, When 34,35,36. heart is over charged with furfeiting and nkenness, and the cares of this life, all chief comes upon them at unawares. Furthere, my Lords, quoth he, you very well know it is not eafie for a people to be filled with things, and not to have some of our Diabolonians setainers to their bouses and services. VPbere Manfoulian that is full of this world, that not for his servants, and waiting-men, Mr. fule, or Mr. Prodigality, or some other of Diabolonian gang, as Mr Voluptuous, Pragmatical, Mr. Oftentation, or the like? Look to it abefe can take the Caftle of Manfoul, or Manfoul. it up, or make it unfit for a Garrison for amiel, and any of these will do. Yea these ught I know may do it for us somer than an of twenty thousand men. VV berefore to end Ibegan, my advice is, that we quietly withdraw selves, not offering any further force, or forattempts upon the Caftle, at loaft at this time, det us fet on foot our new project, and tets fee that will not make them destroy themselves. This advice was highly applauded by them and was accounted the very mafterpiece Hell, to wit, to choak Mansoul with a fulof this world, and to furfeit her heart hh: good things thereof. But fee how gs meet together, just as this Diabo'onian ncel was broken up, Captain Credence re-med 2 Letter from Emanuel, the Contents which was this, That upon the third day be

Id met om in the field in the Plain about

M2

Man-

Captain Credence receives shat from mbich be etb not.

The Cab-

tains are gladded to bear.

Manfoul. Meet me in the field, quoth Captain; what meaneth my Lord by this? know not what he meaneth by meeting of me the field. So he took the Note in his hand, bis Prince did carry it to my Lord secretary to ask thoughts therupon. So he shewed my Lord under ftand- Note, and defired his opinion thereof : For part, quoth Captain Credence, I know not meaning thereof. So my Lord did take a read it, and after alittle paule he faid, I Diabolonians bave bad against Mansoul agree consultation to day; they bave, I fay this day be been contraining the utter ruin of the Town; the result of their counsel is, to fet Mansouli to fuch a way, which if taken, will furely mile her deftroy ber felf. But be shou ready with men of thy Lord for on the third day they will The riddle in the Plain) there to fall apon the Diabolonia expounded for the Prince will by that time be in the field: to Captain by that it is break of day, Sun-rifing, or before Credence, and that with a mighty force against them. So foall be before them, and thou fhalt be behind them and betwint you both their army fall be deftroyed When Captain Credence heard this, awa goes he to the rest of the Captains, and tells them what a Note he had a while fince received from the hand of Emanuel. And, fine he, that which was dark therein, has my Lord the Lord Secretary expounded unto me. He told them moreover, what by himself and by them must be done to answer the mind of their

Lord. Then were the Captains glad, and Captain Credence commanded that all the Curious Kings Trumpeters should ascend to the bat-Mulick tlements of the Caftle, and there in the aumade by the

Trumpesers dence of Diabelus, and of the whole Town oth the Manjou!, make the best musick that heart this ald invent. The Trumpeters then did as of me bey were commanded. They got themseves ask to gen to found; then did Diabelus start, and order d. What can be the meaning of this? they for mather found Boot and saddle, nor borse and anott y, nor a Charge. What do these mad men ake an can, that yet they should be so merry and id, he id? Then answered him one of themselves, ages of said, this is for joy that their Prince Eday be suel is coming to relieve the Town of Man-on; and; that to this end he is at the head of foul a Army, and that this relief is near.

ty mile The men of Mansout also were greatly con-with med at this melodious charm of the Trum-mile with the they said, yea, they answered one anonish ber, faying, This can be no harm to us: Diabolis eld: on this can be no harm to us. Then faid withdrans before, Diabolonians, what had we best to do? and from the so heres answered, It was best to quit the Town: Town, and eftened your last counsel, and by so doing also, away better able to give the enemy battel, should nd tells army from without come upon us. So nce rethe fecond day they withdrew themselves and, said an Mansoul, and abode in the Plains withing Lord a, but they incamped themselves before The time e. He sque, in what terrene and terrible man- come for and by they could. Well, the time that the Cap- the Captain of their as were to fall upon the Diabolonians be- to fight d, and come, they eagerly prepared themselves them.

Il the action, for Captain Credence had told the ne bat ptains over night, that they should meet the authorized in the field to morrow. This thereTown it made them yet far more defirous to be

of

engaging the enemy: for you shall fee the Print in the Field to morrow; was like oyl to Ca flaming fire : for of a long time they had bee at a distance: they therefore were for the So, as I faid, the hour being come, captain Credence with the rest of the men of war drew out their forces before it were day to Then drew the Salliport of the Town. And being field.

out into the ready, Captain Credence went up to the head with of the Army, and gave to the rest of the of officers and Souldiers, the word was, The Sweet 10 the Prince Emanuel, and the Shield of Captain Cro dence, which is in the Mansoulian tengue

The word.

Captain Experience will fight for his Prince mpon his Crutches.

The word of God and Faith. Then the Captain fell on and began roundly to front, and find and rear Diabolus s Camp. Now they left Contain Experience in the Town, because he we vet ill of his wounds which the Diabolonian had given him in the last fight. But who are he perceived that the Captains were at what does he but calling for his Crutch with haft, gets up, and away he goes to be a battel, faying, Shall I lye here when my brethren are in the fight, and when Emine the Prisce will flew himfelf in the field his fervants? But when the enemy faw the ed vet the more; for thought they, when fpirit has posselled these Mansoulians that the fight me upon their Crutches! Well, be Captains, as I said, fell on, and did brave, all handle their weapons, still crying out, in the still strains as they laid on blows, The Smorth the still of Capum hr CrePrinteredree. Now when Diabolus faw that the yl to Captains were come out, and that so valiant. for the they surrounded his men, he concluded The Bastel wor us to be looked for but blows, and the dints joyned. capta their two-eiged Sword. Wherefore he alof was falls on upon the Princes army, with all day has deadly force. So the battel was joyned. eing low who was it that at first Diabolus met he head with in the fight, but Captain Credence on the of the ne hand, and the Lord Willbewill on the Under ther? now Willbewills blows were like the Wille-Sword lows of a Giant, for that man had a firong will intin Cro m, and he fell in upon the Election-doubters, gaged.

tenget, but they were the life-guard of Diabolus, and apraise kept them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of them in play a good while, cutting and definition of the play and the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play and the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play and the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play and the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play and the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting and definition of the play a good while, cutting olome any also; so they put them to great disortwheen the Now Captain Good-bope had engaged the Wocation-doubters, and they were sturdy rutter in; but the Captain was a valiant man; for the Optain Experience did also send him some ingaged.
The mad, so he made the Vocation doubters to retreat. comment the rest of the Armies were hotly engaged, field and that on every side, and the Diabolonians aw the dd sight stoutly. Then did my Lord Secredans of command that the flings from the Caftle whi sould be plaid, and his men could throw The ford atthy ones at an hairs breadth. But after a while Secret ry the bose that were made to fly before the Capingaged fraver this of the Prince, did begin to ralley aga in it, and they came up stoutly upon the Rere of more the Princes Army: wherefore the Princes The batell Capian Army began to faint; but remembring that ren wed.

Cre-

M 4.

they should see the sace of their Prince and by, they took courage, and a very fier battel was fought Then thouted the Cal tains, faying, The Sword of the Prince En nuel, and the Shield of Captain Credence; an fight.

They both retreat. and in the time of re-Spite Captain Credence mats a Steeck to more aid had been come. But no Emanuel yet appeared. Moreover the battel did hu in doubt : and they made a little retreat both fides. Now in the time of respite Capad frand to it, and Diabolus did the like as well at as he could. But Captain Credence made 1 mi brave Speech to his Souldiers, the Contents whereof here follow. Gentlemen Soulding, lac and my Breibren in this defign, it rejoices and g tis Son di- so flout and and so variant an Army, and such fair is ers.

ful lovers of Mansoul. You have hisherto as his off become you, she was your felves men of truib and to courage against the Diabolonian forces, so that is and all their boast they have not yet cause much to boast met their gettings. Now take to your selves your would not courage, and shew your selves men even this method courage, and shew your selves men even this make the only; for in a few minutes after the next engagement of this time, you shall see your Prince shew binds out in the field; for we must make this second assume upon this Tyrant Diabolus, and then Emannel countries. No sooner had the Captain made this Speeching we his Souldiers, but one Mr Speedy came post in the the Captain from the Prince, to tell him the the Captain from the Prince, to tell him the the Captain from the Prince, to tell him the the captain from the Prince, to tell him the the captain from the Prince, to tell him the the captain from the Prince, to tell him the the captain from the Prince, to tell him the tage. Emanuel was at hand. This news when the real Captain had received, he communicated to the had other Field-officers, and they again to the had Souldiers and men of war. Wherefore like me had raited from the dead, fo the Captains and the and b ince he en arole, made up to the enemy, and cried as the fore, The Smord of the Prince Emanuel, and the e Canada of Captain Credence. The Diabolonians also Enachired themselves, and made resistance as well to; an other could, but in this last engagement the g the sebolonians loft their courage, and many of the muel subters fell down dead to the ground. Now d his then they had been in hear of battel about an reat easier or more, Captain Credence lift up his eyes ments are with Colours flying, Trumpets founding, as we at the feet of his men scarce toucht the made a sound, they hafted with that celerity towards ontende Captains that were engaged. Then did Creeth est gave to Diabolus the field. So Emanuel came is 4, son him on the one fide; and the enemies place fait as berwixt them both then again they fell to ub mirelh, and now it was but a little while more ub mar Emanuel and Captain Credence met, still that menting down the flain as they came. But when the bosses den the Captains saw that the Prince was come, enemy is more all that he fell upon the Diabolonians on the beswixt is one there side, and that Captain Credence and his Christ and sense things had got them up betwire them, they faith, then binds outed, (they so shouted that the ground rent down stey affair ain ) saying, The Sword of Emanuel, and the go to be all sain ) faying, The Sword of Emanuel, and the go to be come sield of Captain Credence. Now when Diabolus fure. eching that he and his forces were so hard beset of the the Prince and his Princely Army, what does a thin and the Lords of the Pit that were with him, a thing to make their escape, and forsake their Army, The Villation of the deeper them to fall by the hand of Emanuel my falls to their add of his noble Captain Credence, so they sell Emanuel email down stain before them, before the Prince, and to his this make their Royal Army, there was not less them.

the adbefore his Royal Army ; there was not left men, who fo much as one Doubter alive, they lay fore upon the ground dead men. as one work foread dung upon the land. When the ban ne was over, all things came into order in camp; then the Captains and Elders of Man re Song. 8. 1. came together to falute Emanuel, while with di, Mansoulfa- the Corporation: so they faluted him, and we men the comed him and the with a thousand the comed him and the comed hi lutes the comed him, and that with a thousand we lot Prince comes for that he was come to the borde a without, of Mansoul again: So he smiled upon the ald he address and said, Peace be unto you. Then they are to go into this was the manner and order of this goi sit the Town, of his into Mansoul. First, (as I said) all the of Cates of the Town were set open, year of Gates of the Casile also; the Elders too M. The man-the Town of Mansoul placed themselves me ner of his the Gates of the Town to salute him at his going in. entrance thither: And so they did: for as his drew near, and approached towards the Gates of they said, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they said, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they faid, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they faid, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they faid, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they faid, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they faid, Lift up your beads. O ye Gates, at they gain, VVbo is the King of Glory? and the your beads of Glory? and the your beads. made return to themselves, The Lord sin and mighty, the Lord mighty in battel. Lifting to your beads, O ye Gates, even lift them up ye even talling doors, &c. Secondly, It was ordered also by those of Mansoul, that all the was he from the Town gates to those of the Castle at his blessed Majesty should be entertained was a the song, by them that could best skill in musick in all the Town of Mansoul. Third is Then the Captains (for I would speak a work them) there is a best and the song the same of them) they are the same of them the Captains (for I would speak a work them) they are the same of the same o of them) they in their order waited on the Prince as he entred into the Gates of MisLy fprest Captain Credence went before, and e wor rain Goodhope with him; Captain Charity he bar e behind with other of his companions, f Man rest of the Captains, some on the right with d, and some on the lest accompanied E-and we see into Mansoul. And all the while the borde and continual shoutings were among the on the ildiers. The Prince bimself rode into the they as in his Armour, which was all of beaten as goin Silver, the bottom thereof of Gold, the cover-all do f it was of purple; the midst thereof being yea thed with love for the daughters of the Town too Mansoul. Fourthly, When the Prince was elves me to the entrance of Mansout, he found at he the streets strewed with lillies and slowers, or all ionsly decked with boughs and branches, Gate in the green trees that stood round about tes, at Town. Fifibly, At the Castle-gates the ered wiffed the dust of his feet, they thanked, d the w blessed, and praised his Highness for not firm ing advantage against them for their sins,

MS

List trather had pity upon them in their misery, even I returned to them with mercies, and to rden ld up their Mansoul for ever. Thus was e wa had up straightway to the Castle; for that Castle sthe Royal Palace, and the place where dwa Honour was to dwell; the which was work Captain Credence. So he entred in.

the thirty, Then the people and commonalty of Mas thes foul eyer

nurí

the

Town

the Town of Mansoul came to him into the Town Caftle to mourn, and to weep, and to lame for their wickedness by which they had for from ced him out of the Town. So they when the mou were come, bowed themselves to the grown leni feven times; they also wept, they wept along and asked forgiveness of the Prince, and pray hear ed that he would again, as of old, confirmity his love to Manfoul, To the which the gree Prince replied, weep not, but go your way, in now the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portion u A of your Lord is your (trength. I am returned to ben Mansoul with mercies, and my name shall be for Eman up, exalted and magnified by it. He also took fure Manfoul with mercies, and my name shall befer these inhabitants and kiffed them, and laid officer a chain of Gold, and a Signet. He me Young and also fent to their wives ear-rings and jewels, ther and bracelets, and other things. He allobe him flowed upon the true born children of Mafoul, many precious things. When Ement in N the Prince had done all these things for the and famous Town of Mansoul, then he said unto them, first, VVash your garments, oben put on your Mansoul in the control of the ornamenis, and then come to me into the Cafte S Zach. 13.1, that was fet open for Judah and Ferusales Man Rev.7. 14, to walh in, and there they made their gar- his into the Castle, and thus they stood before this him. The Town of Mansoul did also some town more throughly feek the destruction and min lay of all remaining Diabolonians that abode in the Place walls, and the dons (that they had) in the tra sender boly Thoughts.

The boly

Ecclef.9.8

fown of Manfoul ; for there was of them that ad to this day escaped with life and limb Willbewill for from the hand of their suppressors in the fa- a great nous Town of Manfoul. But my Lord PVIL terrour tothe will was a greater terrour to them now than Diabover he had been before; forasmuch as his lonians heart was yet more fully bent to feek, con now, than rive, and pursue them to the death ; he be bad ow to fore diffress, as will afterwards appear. former che oue oud ray

rea . 44

MS 18 40

td to be fet

took laid

e 10

WB-

He

vels, be-14-

untl

the

into 10W

efte

tain des

gar-

ince

fore SON

the

the

After things were thus far put into order times in the famous Town of Mansoul, care was taten, and order given by the bleffed Prince Emenuel, that the Townsmen should without further delay appoint some to go forth into the Plain to bury the dead that were there; he dead that fell by the sword of Emanuel, Orders giand by the field of the Captain Credence, left ven ous to the fumes and ill favours that would arise from bury the them, might infect the air, and so annoy the dead-timous Town of Manjout. This also was a reason of this order, to wit, that as much as Manfoul lay, they might cut off the name and being, and remembrance of those enemies from the thought of the famous Town of Manfoul, and its inhabitants.

So order was given out by the Lord Mayor, that wife and trufty friend of the Town of Manfeut, that perfons should be employed about his necessary bufiness ? and Mr. Godbfo, and me Mr. Upright were to be Overseers about his matter; fo perfons were put under them towork in the fields, and to bury the flain that ruin lay dead in the Plains. And these were their Places of impleyment, some were to make the gayes, some to I bry the dead and some were about the borders of Manfout to fee if a skull ora abone, or a piece of a bone of a Doubter, was yet to be found above ground any where near ful

Vo

the

2

to b

al

bic

Lord

or I

ried.

the Corporation; and if any were found, it was ordered that the Searchers that fearched should fet up a mark thereby, and a fign, that those that were appointed to bury them, might find it, and bury it out of fight, that the name and remembrance of a Diabolonian Doubter might Not a skul be blotted out from under Heaven. And that or a bone the children, and they that were to be born in or a piece Manfoul might not know (if possible) what a slo of a bone skul, what a bne, or a piece of a bone of a Doub. Doubter was: Thus they buried in the Plains and we be Election-doubters, the bre left unbu- Vocation-doubters, the Grace doubters, the Town Perseverance-doubters, the Resurrection-doubters, and n the Salvation-doubters, and the Glory-Doubters, Wood. whose Captains were Captain Rage, Captain ake Cruel, Captain Damnation, Captain Insatiable, Th Captain Brimftone , Captain Torment, Captain from Moease, Captain Sepulcher, and Captain Pasthere, Ingd and old Incredulity was under Diabolus their wout General; there were also the seven heads of a their army, and they were the Lord Beelzebub, and of the Lord Lucifer, the Lord Legion, the Lord further Apollyion, the Lord Python, the Lord Cerberus, a Dan and the Lord Belial. But the Princes and the Jalon Captains with old Incredulity their General did the ha all of them make their escape; so their men the fell down slain by the Power of the Princes dem to forces, and by the hands of the men of the Town deir la of Manfoul. Now when the Tyrant was arrived they are at Hellgate-bill with his old friend Incredulity the nat they immediately descended the Den, and har landingo

H.

25

115 ıld

ofe

nd ba

HE. 12t

in 1 iot

nd Ing there with their fellows for a while condoled their misfortune, and great loss that they fultained against the Town of Mansoul, they fell t length into a passion, and revenged they would be for the loss that they sustained before the Town of Manfoul; wherefore they presently TheTy. call a Councel to contrive yet further what was rant ieto be done against the famous Town of Man- Solves to for their yawning panches could not wait bave yet wice the refult of their Lord Lucifers, and their a bout lord Apollyons counfelthautheyhad given before; with or their raging gorge thought every day even Mantoul. Blong as a sbort-for-ever, until they were filled fa with the body and foul, with the flesh and bones, its mi with all the delicates of Manfoul. They therethe fire resolve to make another attempt upon the he Town of Manfoul, and that by an army mixed, nd made up partly of Doubters, and partly of his kood men. A more particular account now An army ita. ake of both.

le. The Doubters are fuch as have their name ers and in from their nature, as well as from the Lord and Bloodter uput a question upon every one of the Truths of it Emanue', and their Country is called the ub, lad of Doubting; and that land lyeth off, and arthest remote to the North, between the land us, a Darkness and that called the Valley of the the below of death. The Bloodmen are a people did that have their name derived from the mulignity of their nature, and from the fury that is in ce tem to execute it upon the town of Manfoul; we deir land lieth under the Dog-star, and by that yed hey are governed as to their Intellectuals. ar liebgood, the remote parts of it are far di-

The num ber of bis new army.

frant from the land of Doubeing, yet they de both butt and bound upon the Hill called Hell Now of these two Countries did Diabolus by the beating of his Drum raise and ther army against the Town of Mansoul, of the and twenty thousand strong. There were ten thousand Doubters, and fifteen thousand Blook men, and they were put under several Captain for the war; and old Incredulity was again made General of the army. But Diabolus did nor count that in this Expedition of his, these Donksers would prove his principal men, for their manbood had been tried before, also the Manfoulians had put them to the worst, only he did Has chief bring them to multiply a number, and to help if need was at a pinch, but his trust he purin his Bloodmen; for that they were all rugged Villains, and he knew that they had done feats heretofore. As for the Bloodmen they also were under command, and the names of their Captains were Captain Cain, Captain Nimrod, Captain Ismael, Captain Efan, Captain Saul, Captain Abfalom, Captain Judas, and Captain Pope.

The Cap. tains of the Bloodmeu.

Arengib

tyes in men

the Blood

ditions the Bloodmen, their foutness, and valor.

Now the reason why Diabetus did so soon ralley another force after he had been beaten out of the field, were, for that he put mighty confidence in his army of Boodmen, for he put 1 great deal more truft in them, than he did before in his army of Doubters; though they had also often done great service for him in the ffrengthening of him in his Kingdom. But thefe Bloodmen, he had proved them often, and their fword did feldom return empty. Befides, he knew that these like Mastiffs, would fasten upon father, mother, brother, fifter, Prince or Governour, yez, upon the Prince of Prince

Im

rere

ted

nanc

ut

down

mat much

hat

110

end

o do

hirfts

he b stron

ore t

that t

neffec

did

fre ten

2111 ade

DO

ub-

eir

did

elp

rin il-

2ts ere

p.

ap-

pope.

21-

out

00-

11 be-12d

ete

nd

cs,

en

ce

TS.

And

d that which incouraged him the more, was that they once did force Emanuel out of the lingdom of Universe: and why thought he may bey not also drive him from the Town of rong, was by their General the great Lord downbefore redulity, led up against the Town of Manfol Manfoul. low Mr. Prywell the Scout-master-general, did infelf go out to spie, and he did bring Manfoul dings of their coming: wherefore they thut up eir Gates, and put themselves in a posture of fence against these new Diabolonians that came How they against the Town So Diabolus brought up his difole of army, and beleagured the Town of Manfoul, the themfelves Subters wereplaced about Feetgater& the Blood then this Army weer thus incamped Incredulity in the name of Diabolus, his own name. ind inthe name of the Bloodnes, and the reft that tere with him, fend a Summons as hot as a They fum: ted hot iron to Manfoul, to yield to their de- mon the mands; threatning that if they fill flood it Town with ut against them, they would presently burn atbrestning own Manfoul with fire. For you must know hat as for the Bloodmen, they were not fo much that Manifoul should be surrendred, as hat Mansoul should be destroyed, and cut off out of the land of the living. True, they and to them to surrender, but should they do, that would not stench or quench the hirst of these men They must have blood. he blood of Mansoul, else they die; and it strom bence that they have their name. Wherefore these Bloodmen he reserved while now. hat they might when all his Engines proved Pfa.29.13. neffectual, as his last and sure card be played 1/a. 59. 7.

against Fer. 22.17.

Per. 15.

against the Town of Manfoul. Now when the recover Townsmen had received this red-hot Summon it begat in them at pefent some changing and a 3 interchanging thoughts; but they jointly a thi greed in less than half an hour to carry the division of the Prince, the which they did the when they had writ at the bottom of it may be a lord fave Manfoul from bloody men. So he too any Pfal. 59.2. it, and looked upon it, and confidered it, and tak men of Manfoul had written at the bottom is of of it, and called to him the noble Capital at Credence, and bid him go and take Capula wall Patience with him, and go and take care of that and fide of Manfoul that was beleaguered by the fier Heb. 6.12-Bloodmen. So they went and did as they were the Commanded, the Captain Crodence went and took Captain Patience, and they both fecund that fide of Mansoul that was befreged by the wide B'oodmen. Then he commanded that Canis a co Goodbope, and Captain Charity, and my Lord hat i Willbewill, should take charge of the other the pon of the Town, and, I said the Prince, will stop on my standard upon the Battlements of your Cande Battle, and do you three watch against the Double winst ers. This done, he again commanded that we the brave Captain the Captain Experience, should be draw up his Men in the Market-place, and are a that there he should exercise them day by as also before the people of the Town of Manford wifem Now this fiege was long, and many a ferre at a attempt did the enemy, especially those called the Bloodmen, make upon the Town of mofe of the Townsmen meet with from them of pecially Captain Self-denial; who, I should not have the we told you before, was commanded to take on a care of Eargate and Eyegate now against an a Bloodmen. This Captain therefore being yas hardy man, and a man of great courage, the ad willing to venture himfelf for the good did the Town of Mansoul, would now and in tensally out upon the Bloodmen, and give them too my notable alarms, and entered several and risk skirmishes with them, and also did some the secution upon them, but you must think that the secution upon them, but you must think that the secution upon them, but you must think that the secution upon them, but you must think that the secution upon them, but you must the must secution to be secution.

The secution upon the secution upon a day calls nearthered. were int, and bope, and love of the Town of Mangive thee and it; the Prince Emanuel upon a day calls member of nar together, and the Mides them into two Companies; this done, dereth his commands them at a time appointed, and
men.

The morning very early, to falley out
the morning very early, to falley out the non the enemy: faying, Let halt of you fall ton the Doubters, and half of you fall upon

Can Bloodmen. Those of you that go out aminst the Doubters, kill and slay, and cause that we perish so many of them as by any means out can lay hands on: but for you that go and we arainst the Bloodmen, slay them not, but the them alive. So at the time appointed,
the them alive. So at the time appointed, the them alive of the Captains went the state of the morning the Captains went the captain Goodhope, Captain Charity, and the sole that were joined with them, as Captain n d'asse Captain Goodhope, Captain Charity, and out motent, and Captain Experience went out ad gainst the Deubters; and Captain Credence, ad Captain Patience, with Captain Self-denial, and.

The Doub. ters put to Hight.

the Doub-

men ara

and the rest that were to join with the noran went out against the Bloodmen. Now the that went out against the Doubters, drew into a body before the Plain, and march on to bid them battel : But the Doubiers membring their last success, made a retres not daring to fland the shock, but fled from ffpite: the Princes men : wherefore they pursued them, wit, and in their pursuit slew many, but they could be the not catch them all. Now those that escaped from went some of them home, and the rest by ned as fives, nines, and seventeens, like wanderen see as fights where they upon the barbarous people flows the Doub ed and exercised many of their Diabological flows ters.

The Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded, they for usa Toe Blood men, did as they were commanded they are they were they are they are they were they are they a bare to flay any, but fought to compass then about. But the Bloodmen when they saw the roft no Emanuel was in the field, concluded alle whose that no Emanuel was in the field, concluded alle whose that no Emanuel was in the field, concluded alle whose that no Emanuel was in the field, concluded alle whose that no Emanuel was in the field, concluded alle whose that no Emanuel was not been supplied to the compassion of the concluded alle whose the compassion of the concluded alle whose the compassion of the concluded alle whose the concluded taken, and that no Emanuel was in Manfoul : wherefore brine they looking upon what the Captains did Tou to be, as they called it, a fruit of the exther despised them, than feared them; but range the Captains minding their business, at last have did compass them round, they also that had the wit routed the Doubiers, came in amain to their lines aid : fo in fine, after fome little ftrugliog bete for the Bloodmen also would have run for it, what only now it was too late : so the Captains, bin took them, and brought them to the Prince in fo brought to Now when they were taken, had before the the Prince Prince, and examined, he found them to be of so the and found three feveral Countries, though they all came me in out of one land. 1. One fort of them came out it the to be of 3 forts.

int f

em

ity

find-manshire, and they were such as did-prantly what they did. 2 Another fort of m came out of Blindzealsbire, and they did criticoully what they did. 3. The third fort them came out of the Town of Malice in the unty of Envy, and they did what they did out I Tim. I pite and implacablenels. For the first of these, 1 3 wit, they that came out of Blindmansbire, to they saw where they were, and again om they had fought, they tremble ed as they flood before him : and with his Golden Scepter. They that came a of Blindzealsbire, they did not as their 20, 21, willows did, for they pleaded that they had fob. 8.40.

what to do what they did, because Manjoul 41,42,42, to sa Town whose laws and customs were 2 &c. merie from all that dwelt thereabouts; very ofthefe could be brought to fee their evil: sthofe that did, and asked mercy, they also tined favour. Now they that came out of Town of Malice, that is in the County of they neither mept, nordisputed, nor repented? The Blood flood gnawing of their tongues before him men are anguish and madness, because they could bound of the wave their will upon Manfoul. Now these ver to and with all those of the other two sorts that swer for not unfeignedly ask pardon for theirfaults: what they Bife be made to enter into sufficient boond to answer bave done mbat they had done against Mansoul, and against at they Asfor our Lord the king, where he himself should The day ne win for the Country and kingdom of Universe. of Judgof so they became bound each man named on the in when called upon to answer before our they became bound each man himself to ment. the King for what they had done as before. And 10

of

Three or

And thus much concerning this fecond an that were fent by Diabolus to overthrow M But there were three of those that can from the land of Doubting, who after th had wandred and ranged the Country a whi and perceived that they had ascaped we fo hardy as to thrust themselves. knowing th ur of the yet there were in the Town Diabolonians, If they were fo hardy as to thrust themselves in Manfoul among them. (Three, did If there were four) Now to whose hou Se Diabolonian Donbiers go, butto the house of an old Diabolonian in Manfoul whose name was Evil questioning, a very great enemy he was to Manfoul, and a great does among the Diabolonians there. Well, to this Evil questionings house, as was said, did the Diabolonians come, (you may be fure that the had directions how to find the way thither) so he made them welcome, pitied their mil fortune, and succoured them with the be that he had in his house. Now after a little acquaintance, and it was not long before they had that, this old Evil-questioning asked the Doubters if they were all of a Town, knew that they were all of one Kingdom and they answered no, nor not of one shire, neither ; for I, faid one, am an Election Doubter I, faid another, am a Vocation Doubter : the faid the third, I am a salvation Doubter : and the fourth faid, he was a Grace - Doub er Well quoth the old Gentleman, be of what thire you will, I am perswaded that you are down boys you have the very length of my foot, are one with my heart, and shall be welcome to fittes,

What fort of Doubter bey are:

> So they chanked him, and were glad ill the that mjo

t c

Hth

white

ntle mpa

di d t

11 ord

N h

w fr

rvice

rd I

to uld

omi

d t

a th

n t d cl hile -

ill be och !

e Pr

tins a ta, t en he ume i

and hi

they had found themselves an harbour in foul, Then faid Evil questioning to them, many of your company might there be t came with you to the fiege of Manfoul? they answered there were but ten thousand bers in all, Ten thousand! quoth the old ntleman, I'le promise you that's a round mpany. But how came it to pass fince you ere so mighty a number, that you fainted durft not fight your foes? Our General, d they, was the firft man that did run for't. ny, quoth their Landlord who was that ur cowardly General? He was once the and Mayor of Manfoul, faid they. But pray all him not a cowardly General, for whether from the East to the West has done more rice for our Prince Diabolus, than has my and incredulity, will be a hard question for u to answer: But had they catched him, they could for certain have hanged him, and we comise you hanging is but a bad business. the old Evil questioning, take heed that the ou talk not too loud, you must be quar ad close, and must take care of your selves m) thile you are here, or l'le affure you, you mil be fnapt. Why? quoth the Doubters? Why, test with the old Gentleman, why, because both Prince, and Lord Secretary, and their Capthe tins and fouldiers are all at present in Town?

The tag the Town is as full of them as ever it was an hold. And besides, there is one whose ume is willbewill, a most cruel enemy of ours, on the Prince has made Keeper of the Gites, and has commanded him that with the diligence he can, he should look for, fearch

that

fearch out, and deftroy all, and all manner me of Diabolonians. And if he lighteth upon had you, down you go, though your heads were him made of Gold. And now to fee how it hap shou pened, one of the Lord Willbewills faithful ded beard, flood all this while liftning under old Evil Id his questionings Eaves, and heard all the talk that I led had been betwixt him and the Doubsers that har he entertained under his roof. Now this man heard all the talk that was between old Evil- his due quest ioning, and these Diabolonians: where in the fore what does he but goes to his Lord and bill h tells him what he had heard. And faift ther up re fo, my trufty, quoth my Lord? Ay, quoth cause Diligence, that I do, and if your Lordship shall cause be pleased to go with me, you shall find it is he as I have faid. And are they there, quot at any Lord? I know Evil questioning well, for he and I were great in the time of our Apostase at no But I know not now where he dwells. But I wo do, said his man, and if your Lordship will Well, to go, I will lead you the way to his den. Go! siy th quoth my Lord, that I will. Come my Dill. aded, gence, let's go find them out. So my Lord withe and his man went together the direct way to burt his house. Now his man went before to shew Money him his way, and they went till they came even a Jury under old Mr. Evil-questionings wall: then faid with a Diligence, Hark! my Lord, do you know the is the old Gentlemans tongue when you hear it? I make, Yes, faid my Lord, I know it well, but I have Ind fire not feen him many a day. This I know, he is ar; for cunning. I wish he doth not give us the slip, Let alcom me alone for that, faid his fervant Diligence. But st. 01 how shall we find the door, quoth my Lord? to :0 ! Let me alone for that too, faid his man. So had my Lord willbewill about, and thewhim the way to the door. Then my Lord shout more ado, broke open the door, and into the house, and caught them all together, even as Diligence his man had them. So my Lord apprehended them, apprehended them to ded, and hand of Mr. Truemas the Gaoler, and manded, and he did put them in Ward. his done, my Lord Mayor was acquintion the morning with what my Lord Willd his had done over night, and his Lordto rejoiced much at the news, not only glad as it. h confe there were Doubters apprehended, but ll coule that old Evil-questioning was taken; it is he had been a very great trouble to Minand much affliction to my Lord Mayor in felf. He had also been sought for often.

committed to Prifon The Lord

Well the next thing was to make preparation of biry these five that by myLord had been appred whe Gaoler. So the day was set, and the They are to four called and come together, and the brought whomers brought to the Bar. So to be short, so trad. by Land Bury was Pannelled, the Witnesses sworn, id with Pri oners tried for their lives, the Jury he is the same that tried Mr. No-truth, Pintess, wyby, and the rest of their companions. first, old Questioning himself was set to the is affor he was the receiver, the entertainer at alcomforter of these Doubters that by Nation ottla tifh men ; then he was bid to hear. 12 to to his Charge, and was to'd that he had liber-

ct

itne

dem

the 45 lig

So,

an

wa.

tha

16

Th

in sta

m

the

.0

W

et

. t

40

4 ·P

1

4

6 neff

His Plea.

The Lord.

Wilbe-

timony.

So his Indictment was read of the second of liberty to object, if he had ought to fay town himfelf. and his plea to it is as follows. quoth he, I know not the meaning of the he ladictment, forasmuch as I am not the ma ced concerned in it; the man that standeth by the Charge accused before this Bench, is calle by the name of Evil-questioning, which name there I deny to be mine, mine being Honeft-Enqui ring. The one indeed founds like the other but I trow, your Lordships know that be tween thefe two there is a wide difference for I hope that a man even in the worft times, andthat too amongst the worst ofmen, ma make an honest enquiry after things, without running the danger of death. Will. Then fpale my Lord Willbewill, for he was one of the witne (es: 'My Lord, and you the Honourable wills Tef-Bench, and Magistrates of the Town of Manfoul, you all have heard with your ears that that prisoner at the Bar has denied his name, and fo thinks to thift from the charge of the Indicament, But I know him to be the eman concerned, and that his proper name is · Evil-questioning I have known him (my Lord, above this thirty years, for he and I(a · shame it is for me to speak it ) were great eacquaintance, when Diabolus that Tyrant that the Government of Manfoul; and I telli-'fie that he is a Diabolonian by pature, an genemy to our prince, and an hater of the bleffed Town of Minfout. Then faid the Court unto him, haft thou any more to fay? His Plea. Evil. Yes, quith the old Gentlemin, that I hive; for all that as yet has been faid against me, is but by the mouth of one Wit-

The Court.

finels, and it is not lawful for the famous to say fown of Mansoul, at the mouth of one Witreally Lon bod forth Mr. Diligence, and said, My Lord gence of the is I was upon my watch such a night at testimony the mathe head of Eadstreet in this Town, I chanby the weak to hear a muttering within this Gencalle demans house; then thought I, what's to do h name here ? so I went up close, but very softly to the fide of the house to liften, thinking, - Enqui as indeed it fell out, that there I might slight upon some Diabolonian Conventicle. and when I was got up close to the wall, it was but a while before I perceived that there was outlandish men in the house but I did well understand their speech, for Thave been a traveller my felf) now hearing such language in such a tottering cottage as this old Gentleman dwelt in, I clapt mine ear to a hole in the window, and there heard them talk as followeth. This old Mr. Questioning asked these Doubters what they were, and whence they came, and what was their bufiness, who toldhimyet he did entertain them. Healfo asked what numbers there were of them, and they told him ten thousand men. He then asked them why they made no more manly affault upon Mansonl? and they told 'him; so he called their General coward for not fighting for his Prince. Further, this old Evil questioning wilht, and I heard him with, would 'all the ten to uland Doubiers were now in 'Ma oul, and himfelf in the head of them. He bid them also to take heed and lye quat; for if they were taken, they must die, although N 2 thev other

at be ce ;fo

orft i n,ma

thou

Spale

Wit-

rable

Man-

that

me,

e of

the

e is

Ed.

(2

eat

ane

lli-

20

he

10 7

1

The Court schey had heads of gold. Then said the Count 'Mr. Evil-questioning, here is now another Willen 'ness against you, and his Testimony is full Bar Evil. Then said Evil-questioning, To the fire is the

His :lea.

of thele I answer, The men that came into the mine house were strangers, and I took then the in, and is it now become a crime in Manson terp for a man to entertain ftrangers ? That Ide b also nourish them is true, and why should and my charity be blamed? As for the reason why I wished ten thousand of them in Mrs. and fout, I never told it to the Witnesses, not to themselves. I might with them to be taken and so my wish might mean well to Manson at and fo my with might mean well to Manfoul for ought that any yet knows. I did alfo bid them take heed that they fell not into the Captains hands, but that might be because I am unwilling that any man should be flin, and not because I would have the Kings enemies as fuch escape. My Lord Major then replied, That though it was a vertue to entertain ftrangers, yet it was treason to enterrain the Kings enemies. And for what else thou hast fiid, thou dost by words but labour to evade, and defer the execution of But could there be no more Judgment. proved against thee but that thou are a Diabolosian thou must for that die the death by the Law; lucto be a receiver, a nourither, 2 countenancer and a harpourer of others of them, yea, of outlindish D abolonians ; yea, of them that came from far on purpole to cut of and defroy our Minfou!; this must not be born: Then faid Evil-questioning, I fee bow the game will go? I must die for my name, and for my charity: And fo he held his peace slufion.

Th:n

tro

eft

Court on they called the outlandish Doubters to full Bar, and the first of them that was arraigned he fin is the Election Doubter; so his Indictment e into is read, and because he was an outlandish The E. elithe in, the substance of it was told him by an on doubter [18] acrpreter: to wit, That he was there charged tried. Idi abbeing an enemy of Emanuel the Prince, a hould an of the Town of Manfoul, and an opposit His cason ber most wholsome Dostrine. Then the Judg Min. ted him if he whould plead?But he said only not us. That he consessed that he was an Elestdonbter, and that that was the Religion, it he had ever been brought up in. alfo il moreover, If I must die for my Religion, now, I shall die a Martyr, and fo I care less. Judg. Then it was replied, To. flion Election is to overthrow a great drine of the Gospel, to wit, the Omniguency, Power, and will of God, to take away the efaith of the Town of anfoul, and to he Salvation to depend upon works, and upon Grace. It also belyed the Word, and. miered the minds of the men of Menfoul, erefore by the best of Laws he must die. hen was the Vocation-doubter called, and fet the Bar; and his Indictment for Cabstance The Vara s the same with the other, only he was paralarly charged with denying the calling of tiondoub-Manfoul. The Judg asked hin also what he ter tried. d to fay for himself? So he replied, That he never believed that there was any ach thing as a distinct and powerful call Cod to Manfout; otherwise than by the eneral voice of the Word; nor by that neither, otherwise than as it exhorted them to ken

, not

inco

beould

the

1 yor

e to en-

nat

but

of ore

)i4-

by er.

ers

ea,

to 106

OW

nd

:0 2

forbear evil, and to do that which is good, in

ried.

cannexed. Then said the Judg, Thou are a rain Diabolonian, and hast denied a great part of the one of the most experimental truths of the Prince of the Town of Mansoul; And for rest The Grace thine abhorrence of this good Doctrine thon or doubter must die the death. Then the Grace-doubter it. was called, and his Indicament was read, but and he replied thereto, That though he was ren of the land of Doubting, his father was the hou off-foring of a Pharisee, and lived in good hat fashion among his neighbours, and that he pout taught him to believe, and believe it I do, and in h will, that Mansoul shall never be saved freely of C by Grace. Then faid the Judg, Why the lett Law of the Prince is plain: 1. Negatively, rife Not of works: 2. Positively, By grace you me hind saved. And thy Religion setleth in and upon W

Rom. 3. Eph. 2.

of their death affigned.

thou must die. The Court then having pro- obser who forthwith brought them in guilty of death defir The places So they were fentenced to the death of the So t Oross: The place assigned them for Executi- low on was that where Diabolus drew up his last down Army against Mansoul; save only that old in Evil-questioning was hanged at the top of right When the Town of Mansoul had thus far rid mutu the works of the Flein; for the works of the id Law are the works of the fleih. Besides, in und faying (as thou hast done) thou hast robbed fast

God of his glory, and given it to a finful a himan. Thou art a Diabolonian, the fon of a shold Diabolonian; and for thy Diabolonian principles tone themselves of their enemies, and of the trou-blen

good, incl commandment was given out that yet ness is y Lord will be will should with Diligence his art a man, fearch for and do his best to apprehend part of that Town Diabalonians were yet lest alive of the a Mansoul. The names of several of them A new nd for vire: Mr. Fooling, Mr. Letgoodship, Mr. Slavish-Warrant, e thou in, Mr. Nolove, Mr. Mistrust, Mr. Flesh, and granted out double to. Sloth. It was also commanded that he against the read hould apprehend Mr. Evil-questionings chil-children of e was ren, that he left behind him, and that, they Evil-ques the hould demolish his house. The children stioning, good hat he left behind him were thefe, Mr with ower. at he poubt, and he was his eldest Son; the rext o, and him was Legal life, Unbelief, Wrong thoughts freely of Christ, Clip-promise, Carnal scase, live-bythe reling, Self-love. All these he had by one well, rife, and her name was Nokope, she was the relinswoman of old Incredulity.

upon When the Town of Manfoul had thus far. of the nd themselves of so many of their enemies s, in md the troublers of their Peace, the Prince bbed feat to them, and appointed a day whereof a whole people, and there give them charge ple topcerning some further matters, that if pro- observed would tend to their further safety ury, and comfort, and to the condemnation and ath diffruction of their home-bred Diabolonians. the so the day appointed was come, and the uti-Townsmen mer together; Emanuel also came last down in his Chariot, and all his Captains old in their flate strending of him on the of right hand, and on the left Then was an Dies made for filence, and after some

my

M:

wi

en

160

for

Ed

10

be 11 1 di

21

17

RI

10 th

m

th

14 ti

11

Amanuels and thus proceeded. You my Manfoul, and sot Speech to the beloved of mine heart, many and great are would the privi edges that I have bestowed upon you and Manfoul.

I have fingled you but from others, and have thee chosen you to my feif, not for your worthings, wit but for mine own sake. I have also re deemed jon thy not only from the dread of my Lathers Law, but ten from the band of Diabolus. This I have done thy thy tecause Hoved you, and because I have set my beart upon you to do you good. I bave alfo, that Ca all things that might kinder thy way to the ples. In sures of Paradise might be taken out of the may, don laid down for thee, for thy foul, a plenary fatisfor faction; and bave bought thee to my felf; A price not of corruptible things as of silver, and gold but a price of blood, mine own blood, which I have the f eely fpilt upon the ground to make thee mine, sol have reconciled thee, O my Manfoul, to my Father, and intrusted thee in the manfion-toufer that are with my Father in the Royal City, where things are, O my Manfoul, that eye tail not jeen, nor bath entred into the beart of man to conceive. Besides, O my Manfoul, thou feelt what I have done, and how I have taken thee out of the bands of thine enemies; unto whom thou hadft deeply revolted from my Father, and by whom thou wast content to be toffeffel, and aifo to be destroyed. I came to thee first by my Law, then by my Gofpel to awaben thee, and frew thee my glory. And thou bnoweft what then wift, what thou faidst, what thou didst, and tow many times thou rebelledft against my Father and me ; jet I left thee not, as shou feest this day, but came to thee, have born the manners, have waited upon thee, and after all accepted of thee, even of my meer grace and favour; and would al, at rot suffer thee to be lost as thou most willing'y eat are wouldest have been. I also compassed thee about on you and afflicted thee on every site, that I might make d have thee weary of thy ways, and bring down thy beart biness, with molestation to a willingness to close with ned for thy good and happiness. And when I had gotto, but ten a compleat corquest over thee, I turned it to e. done thy advantage. Thou seeft also what a company of my Fathers bolt I have todged within thy borders. o, that Captains and Rulers, Souldiers and men of war, plea-Ingines and excellent devices to subdue and bring may, down thy foes; thou knowest my meaning, O Man-And they are my fervants, & thine too. foul. Manfoul. Yea, my defign of poffeffing of thee with them, and the natural tendency of each of them is to defend, purge, frengiben, and sweeten thee for my felf, O Manfoul, and to make thee meet for my Fathers prefence, bleffing and glory: for thou, my Manfoul, art created to be prepared unto thefe. Thou feelt moreover, my Manfoul_ low I have paffed by thy back-flidings, and have bealed thee. Indeed I was angry wish thee, but Thave turned mine anger away from thee, because Hoved thee fill, and mine anger and mine indignation is ceased in the destruction of thine enemies O Mansoul. Nor did thy goodness fetch we again unto tiee, after that I for thy tranfgreffions bave hid my face, and withdraw my prelence from thee. The way of back-fliding was thine, but the way and means of thy recovery was mine: it was I that made an hedge and a wall, when thouwast beginning to turn to things in which I delighted not. Twas I that made thy fweet, bitter : thy day, night; thy footh may, thorny, and that also confounded all that fought thy destruction. Twas I that fet Mr. Godlyfear to work in Manet m atis-

price

gold.

bave

. So 1

10 my

oufes

City,

Esta

t of

th ou

thee

tom

and

and

117

and

beu

tow

and

day,

ave

ee,

uld

100

Mansoul. 'Iwas I that stirred up thy Conscience and Understanding, thy Will and thy Affections, after thy great and woful decip.' Iwas I that fetched the second time the Diabolonians out of Mansoul; and 'Iwas I that overcame them, and that destroyed them before thy face.

And now, my Manfoul, I am returned to thee in peace, and thy transgressions against me, are as if they bad not been. Nor Shall it te with thee as in former days, but I will do better for I Chr. 29 thee than at thy beginning. For yet a little while. 30. 0 my Manfoul. even after a few more times are gone over thy bead, I will (but be not thou troubled at what I (ay) take down this famous Town of Manfoul, flick and stone, to the ground. And will carry the flones thereof, and the timber thereof, and the walls thereof, and the dust thereof, and the inhabitants thereof, into mine own Country, even into the Kingdom of my Father; and will there fet it up in such firength and glory, at it never did fee in the Kingdom where now it is placed. I will even there fet it up for my Fathers babitation, for, for that purpose it was at first erested in the Kingdom of Universe; and there will Imabe it a spectacle of monder, a monument of merey, and the admirer of its own mercy. There thall the Natives of Manfoul fee all that of which they have feen nothing tere; there fall they be equal to theje unto whom they have been inferiour bere. And there shalt thou, O my Mansoul, bave such communion with me, with my Father, and with your Lord Secretary, as is not possible bere to be enjoyed. Nor ever could be, fouldest thou live in Universe the space of a thousand years. . And there, O my Manfoul thou shale be afraid of murderers no more; of Diabolonians, and 'cheir bo 'afri En

chi

be.

fig

t t

OI

the

bea

N

the one

fee of the

'no

'ma'
th

the en

'n

th

nfci-

y Af-

Twas

nians

them,

thee

ATE

with

for bile,

are rou-

om

And

76-

of,

try,

mill.

it

is a-

215 nt

re

ch

be ur

1,

.

1

their threats, no more. There there shall be, no more Plots, nor contrivances, nor defigns against thee, O my Mansoul, There thou shalt no more hear the evil tidings. or the noise of the Diabolonians Drum. There thou shalt not see the Dabolenian Standardbearers, nor yet behold Diabolus his Standard. No Diabolonian Mount shall be cast up against thee there, nor shall there the Diabolonians Standard be fet up to make thee Infraid. There thou shalt not need Captains, Engines, Souldiers, and men of war. There thou shalt meet with no forrow, nor grief, nor shall it be possible that any Diabolonian 'should again ( for ever) be able to creep into thy skirts, burrow in thy walls, or be feen again within thy borders all the days of eternity, Life shall there last longer, than here you are able to desire it should and yet it shall always be sweet and new. por shall any impediment attend it for ever,

There, O Mansoul, thou shalt meet with many of those that have been like thee, and that have been partakers of thy sorrows; even such as I have chosen, and redeemed and set apart as thou for my Fathers Court and City Royal. All they will be glad in thee, and thou when thou sees them shalt be glad in thine heart. There are things, O Mansoul, even things of thy Fathers providing and mine, that never were seen since the beginning of the world; and they are laid up with my Father, and sealed up among his Treasures for thee, till thou shalt come thither to enjoy them. I told you before that I would remove my Mansoul, and set it sup else-where, and where I will set it, there it te are those that love thee, and those that re- 1, was joice in thee now, but how much more bon w when they shall fee thee exalted to honome befied My Father will then fend them for you to all my Pfal.68.17 fetch you; and their bofoms are chariots to sen y 'put you in. And you, O my Manfoul, shall breforde upon the wings of the wind They will was to come to convey, conduct, and bring you to that, when your eyes fee more, that will be let let that, when your eyes ice more, ... O my Man- oul, I your defired haven. And thus O my Man- oul, I write thee what shall be lefigue foul, I have shewed unto thee what shall be done to thee hereafter, if thou canst hear, if thou canft understand; and now I will tell thee what at prefent must be thy duty and practice, until I shall come and fetch thee to 'my felf, according as is related in the Scriptures of truth.

First, I charge thee that thou dost bereafter beet more white and clean the liveries which I gave thee before my last withdrawing from thee. Do it, I fay, for this will be thy wisdom. They are in themselves fine linnen, but thou must keep them white and clean. This will be your wisdom, your bonour and will be greatly for my glory. When your Garments are white, the world will count you mine. Also when your garments are white, then I am delighted in your ways; for then your goings to and fro will be like a flash of lightning, that those that are present must take notice of, also their eyes will be made w duzle thereat. Deck thy felf therefore according to my bidding, and make thy felf by my Law Straight Steps for thy feet, so Shall thy King greatly defire thy beauty, for be is thy Lord; and worship thou bim. Now that thou maift keep at ti

Diabo

mid; w co

Manfo

by me

1 the

ards .

bat i

'0 lliv

lliv

live,

m

and l

me.

hee.

ran

ne I

befor

Mini

aft,

w.

te it tell thee, provided for thee an open fountain e- h wash thy garments in. Look therefore that te you wash often in my fountain, and go not in of ed garments; for as it is to my dishonour, to ad my disprace, so it will be to thy discomfort, Zach.3. 11. to ben you shall walk in filtby garments. Let not ll perefore my garments, your garments, the gar-ll pents that I gave thee, be defiled or spotted by Fule v.13. e ad let thy head lack no oiniment. My Man-oul, I have ofi-times delivered thee from the lesses, plots attempts, and conspiracies of , hisbolus, and for all this I ask thee nothing, It that thou render not to me evil for my down, but that thou bear in mind my love, and to be continuation of my hindness to my beloved vansoul, so as to provoke thee to walk, in measure, according to the benefit bestowed to thee. Of old the Sacrifices were bound with I ands to the borns of the Golden altar. Confider . but is faid to thee, O my bleffed Manfoul. o my Mansoul I have lived, I have died, live, and will de no more for thee. live that thou muift not die. Because 1 ive, thou shalt live also, I reconciled thee my Father by the blood of my Cross ad being reconciled thou shaltlive through me I will pray for thee, I will fight for hee. I will yet do thee good, Nothing an hurt thee but fin ; nothing can grieve he but fin : nothing can make thee bafe, before thy foes, but fin : Take heed of fin my Minfoul. And do t thou know why I at it, and do fill fuffir Diabolonians to well in thy walls, O Manfoul? it is to keep

8,

y. 4

. 7

h

1

0

8 N

8

keep thee waking, to try thy love, to make thee watchful, and to cause thee io yet to prize my noble Captains, their Soul- initiations, and my mercy. It is also that yet be thou maift be made to remember what and '2 deplorable condition thou once wast in hat 'I mean when, not some, but all did dwell the 'not in thy walls, but in thy Castle, and in thy to ftrong hold, O Mansoul. O my Mansoul, had should I slay all them within, many there rain be without that would bring thee into bon-there dage; for were all those within cut of, the then as in a moment they would swallow up Cay my mansoul. I therefore lest them in thee bu not tofdo thechure, ( the which they yet tho will hou hearken to them, and ferve them tho but to do thee good, the which they must kin thou watch and fight against them. Know way therefore that whatever they shall temp Wo thee to, my design is that they should drive when thee, not further off, but nearer to my si-bea ther, to learn thee war, to make Petitioning 'R . desirable to thee, and to make thee little is thou thine own eyes. Hearken diligently to this augmy Mansoul. Shew me then thy love, my Massoum ofoul, and letnot those that are within the mand walls, take thy affections off from him the to shath redeemed thy soul. Yea, let the fight my to a Discolonian heighten thy love to me. They came once, and twice, and thrice to fave the thou from the poylon of those arrows that would have wrought thydeath : stand for me, th friend, my Minfoul, against the Diaboonians, and I will frand for thee before my Fathe and all his Court. Love me against temps thee tion, and I will love thee notwithstanding out-thine infirmities. O My Mansoul, rememine the per what my Captains, my Souldiers, what and mine Engines have done for thee They it in have fought for thee, they have suffered by the will the to do thee good, O Mansoul. Hadst thou not foul had them to help thee, Diabolus had certified their thinly made a hand of thee. Nourish them bon-therefore, my Mansoul. When thou dost well, off they will be well; when thou dost ill, they will be ill, and sick, and weak Make not my was captains sick, O Mansoul, for if they be sick, thee tou canst not be well: if they be south, yet thou canst not be strong; if they be faint, them thou canst not be strong; if they be faint, them thou canst not be stout and valiant for thy sufficking, O Mansoul. Nor must thou think al-know mays to live by sense, thou must live upon my temp. Word. Thou must believe, O my Mansou', drive when I am from thee, that yet I love the and ming Remember therefore, O my Mansoul, that their thou are beloved of me; as I have therefore this aught hee to watch, to fight, to pray, and Man to make war against my foes, so now I comin the mand thee to believe that my love is constant that to thee, O my M nsoul, how have I set fight my heart, my love upon thee; watch Behold, me. That none other burden upon thee, than what e the thou hast already, Hold sast till I come.

e the thou hast already, Hold fast till I come.

e, th

mpra etio

y & bear thee upon mine heart for ever.

AN ADPERTISEMENT TOTH

Some say the Pilgrims Progress is not mine.

In name and fame by the worth of another. Like some made rich by robbing of their Bro. Or that so fond I am of being Sire, (then. I'le father Bastards: or if need require, I'le tell a lye in Print to get appliance. I scorn it; fohn such dirtheap never was, Since God converted him. Let this suffice, To shew why I my Pilgrim patronize. It came from mine own heart, so to my head, And thence into my singers trickled.

Then to my Pen, from whence immediately On Paper I did dribble it daintily.

Manner and matter too was all mine own.
Nor was it unto any mortal known,
'Till I had done it. Nor did any then By Books, by wits, by tongnes, or pen, Add five words to it, or wrote half a line Thereof; the whole, and every whit is mine.

Also for rbis, thine eye is now upon.
The matter in this manner came from none But the same heart, and head, fingers and Pen, As did the other. Witness all good men.
For none in all the world without a lye, Can say that this is mine, excepting I.

I write not this of any offentation, Nor 'cause I seek of men their commendation.
I do it to keep them from such surmize, As rempt them will my name to scandalize.
Witness my name, if Anagram'd to thee,
The Letters make, Nu boxey in a B.

FOHN BUNTAN.

definisher. 1827 8 .. 18 Formas Rogen three Evances Remark Ponstol

